Zornicka Reaches 70-Year Milestone

The LPSCU’s bi-monthly magazine, Zornicka (Morning Star), celebrates 70 years of existence on April 15, 2008. Publication of our society’s official periodical was authorized in 1937 by delegates attending the 21st Convention of the LPSCU in Trenton, New Jersey. The original publication was issued monthly at a subscription rate of twelve cents per year for members and fifty cents for non-members.

The first issue of Zornicka was dated April 15, 1938, and was entirely in Slovak. It was printed in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, as a 4-page, tabloid-size newspaper, printed on newsprint in black ink. The purpose of the periodical was to provide members with news and information relating to the interests and activities of the LPSCU. It also included articles that were religious, cultural, and fraternal in nature.

At the 28th Convention held in Gary, Indiana, from September 13-17, 1964, the newspaper format of Zornicka was changed to that of a magazine. The 8½” x 11” size and redesigned masthead debuted with the April 1965 issue. By this time, the publication had grown to 8 pages and was a combination of Slovak and English articles.

From the late 1950s until the late ‘80s, Zornicka was edited by Edward Kovac, a renowned Slovak journalist who resided in Middletown, Pennsylvania.

At the 1984 Convention held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the position of Public Relations Director was created. Anne Shinal Cichy was the first member to hold this office. She worked closely with Editor Kovac in compiling the Zornicka. At the end of 1988, both Ms. Cichy and Mr. Kovac retired and the task of compiling the magazine fell exclusively to the new Public Relations Director. Since 1989, that office has been held at various times by Margaret A. Ferri, Helen Durica, and Mary J. Ford.

In January 1984, a section for our Junior members was initiated. These pages have since been compiled by our Fraternal Activities Director, Cecilia B. Gaughan. The Junior Branch Journal includes interesting and informative articles, craft and culinary projects, puzzles and word games, jokes, Slovak vocabulary and phrases, special contests,

In December 2007, the Most Rev. Joseph F. Martino, D.D., Hist. E.D., Bishop of Scranton, inaugurated a diocesan-wide process of pastoral planning entitled Called to Holiness and Mission. The key question to be answered, throughout the various stages of this process, is: Are the structures of our diocese — parishes, schools, etc. — adequate for the mission of proclaiming the Gospel in the 21st Century? Obviously, as has been the case in many other dioceses around the country, the results of this process will mean change and transition. The benefit of this particular planning process is that it seeks to involve the faithful in every aspect of the process itself. This process is not simply all about closure. It includes opportunities for parish self-study, joining in dialogue with neighboring parishes, and finally, proposing certain models for mission-effectiveness. In the end, the process will help use the current gifts and talents of our parishes and other diocesan institutions so that the message of Jesus may be proclaimed in this technological age.

In order to accomplish this goal, the process bases itself on two essentials of the Christian life — holiness and mission. To be holy is to grow in our relationship with God. In doing so, we become more God-like in our attitude, lifestyle, and willingness to work for the Kingdom. The goal of growing in holiness is, ultimately, achieved through prayer. Defined in many ways, prayer is communication. We communicate with God, and God communicates with us. The highest form of prayer is the Mass. When we gather together for the communal celebration of the Mass, God communicates with us — through his WORD in Sacred Scripture, through our reception of the BODY and BLOOD of his Son, Jesus, through the songs that are sung, prayers that are offered, and through our sharing of forgiveness, peace, and love with those around us. Along with our regular and faithful participation in the Mass, we are also called to develop our relationship with God through our private and personal prayer. While it is important for us to express our intentions to God, it is also important for us to sometimes simply be still and listen as God speaks to us and draws us deeper into a real relationship with him.

When we grow in holiness — both as individuals and as a community of faith — it naturally follows that we will actively seek opportunities to be people of mission. Ultimately, our mission is to make the message of Jesus known through our loving words and actions. It is appropriate for us to be undertaking our diocesan pastoral planning within the Lenten and Easter seasons. Taken together, both seasons speak to us of the tasks of growing in holiness and being ready and available for mission.

During Lent, we are called, as we heard on Ash Wednesday, to go to our “inner room” and simply be in the presence of God. As we continue our Lenten journey, to grow in holiness, some of us have committed to spend more time in prayer, or we have opted to give up something precious to us or have been engaged in works of Christian charity. Each of these “marks” of Lent — prayer, fasting, and works of charity — are the tools God gives us to grow in holiness.

Ultimately, our Lenten journey ends as we begin the Sacred Triduum — the Three Great Days — Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday, and then, Easter Sunday. We journey with Jesus from the Upper Room, the place of the Last Supper, to the hill of Calvary and his death on the cross for us. As we mourn him, we reflect on his time in the tomb and his visit to the Netherworld to release from bondage all those held captive in death since the sin of Adam and Eve. Like those gathered at the foot of his cross, especially on Good Friday, we are invited to keep quiet as we gratefully reflect on the sacrifice that Jesus made on our behalf. The 40 days of Lent and the days of the Sacred Triduum are a grace-filled time for us to grow in holiness and appreciation for the gift of Jesus’ life and death.

Then, at the Great Easter Vigil or on Easter Sunday itself, we are presented with the glorious news — the Good News — that Jesus is risen from the dead! Death could not hold him prisoner and, thanks to his salvific action on our behalf, death will not hold us prisoner either. As we will hear in selections from the Easter Gospels, as to Mary Magdalene, the news of Jesus risen is entrusted to us. We are invited, along with Peter and John, to enter the tomb of Jesus, peer inside and believe that he is risen, he is truly risen. But, that good news is not to be kept selfishly to ourselves; that good news is to be generously shared with others! We are sent, as were the first eyewitnesses, to reveal his message of love to all his brothers and sisters. We are thus sent out as people on mission.

What an awesome gift! Through baptism, we have been given the promise of eternal life and the challenge to make Jesus known to others. Both at the Great Easter Vigil and on Easter Sunday, we will be invited to renew our baptismal promises — the promises made either for us or by us, depending on our age when we were baptized. In that moment of affirmation, we recommit ourselves to be those who reveal the Face of Christ to others.
2008 EASTER MESSAGE

from Bishop Joseph V. Adamec

Sisters and Brothers of the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union,
Colored eggs, flowers, and Easter clothes are all reflective of Easter’s meaning.
They speak of life, beauty, and newness. And, that is what we celebrate during the Feast of feasts.

Another Lenten Season has passed. Another Easter has come. Are we better for it? Is there a newness about us – a greater beauty, a more abundant life? Are we becoming an Easter People?

Our relationship with the Lord is a love affair. He courts us, and we respond. As in any love affair, our responses take various forms. We endure patiently. We pattern our activity after Him and what He may have done in our situation. We reach out to others, for He said that what we do for them we do for Him.

Lent was a time when we focused on our response more intensely than we may have done during the rest of the year – during the rest of our lives. Now that we have come to Easter and its holy season, we rejoice at the fact that we are not able to come even close to matching the Lord’s love. He gives so much more, including His divinity.

We have been invited into a transformation, a mini-resurrection, if you will. I pray that the colored eggs that we present, the flowers with which we adorn our space, and the new clothes that we sport will be reflective of a new and beautiful life that we have personally discovered this year in the Easter Mysteries that we celebrate, as well as of the person that we have become.

May you find joy in reflecting the Easter hope of a better life to those around you, so that they, too, may enter into a deeper love affair with the Risen Lord.

Alleluia!

Fraternally yours in the Risen Lord,
+ Joseph
(Most Rev.) Joseph V. Adamec

Protector, LPSCU

Election of Delegates

Members of Branches 20, 25, 48, 67, 90, 126, 184 and 213 interested in representing their Branch as a Delegate to the Convention in Las Vegas, Nevada, to be held July 22-24 are instructed to contact Branch Secretary Theresa Kluchinski. You may call 570/829-5410 or write to 446 Mountain Oaks Drive, Laurel Run, PA 18706. Deadline is April 1, 2008.
and news items about promising young members. It is considered both an educational tool and a fun fraternal benefit for our Junior members.

In January 1988, the subscription rate remained at twelve cents for members but was increased to $1.00 per year for non-members. Since January of 1989, members have received the publication free of charge. Non-members paid $3.00 per year beginning in 1989 and $15.00 per year beginning in 1998, which is where the non-member subscription rate remains today.

From the early 1960s until 2001, Zornicka was printed by the Jednota Press in Middletown, Pennsylvania. Since that time, Triangle Press in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, has designed and produced the magazine.

The format and design of the magazine has evolved over the years. By 1990, nearly every issue of Zornicka had a 4-color front cover, with selected interior pages in color as well, especially for the Christmas and Easter issues. Photographs and stories about Branch, Okres, and Junior events and activities abounded, forcing an increase from 8 to 12 to 16 pages per month. Gradually, 4-color was permanently added throughout to highlight articles and “dress up” the publication. As fewer and fewer members were able to read the Slovak language, more and more of the magazine was printed in English, until today it is entirely so.

In 2004, Zornicka received the highest compliment from the Pennsylvania Fraternal Congress in the form of a 1st Place award for “full color magazine format” in the PFC’s annual magazine contest. The publication was cited for its “excellence in presentation, style, and overall communicated skills.” The award came while Public Relations Director Mary J. Ford and Fraternal Activities Director Cecelia B. Gaughan were in charge of preparing the magazine’s content.

On April 14, 2007, in an effort to decrease expenses, the Board of Directors voted to publish Zornicka on a bi-monthly basis, beginning with the September/October 2007 issue. The new schedule has not affected the content of the magazine, which, at 20 or more pages, continues to offer members news and information on LPSCU products and services, fraternal activities and events, and items of interest from the Catholic, Slovak, and fraternal world.

From a modest 4-page black-and-white newspaper to a full color, multi-page, award-winning magazine, Zornicka has truly become a “gem” for the LPSCU.

Seventy years of publishing Zornicka for the benefit of our membership is an accomplishment of which the LPSCU can be justifiably proud. Happy 70th Anniversary to our “Morning Star” ~ and many more!
LEHIGH VALLEY OKRES

The Lehigh Valley Okres held its annual Holiday Luncheon on Sunday, December 9, 2007, at the Lehigh Room of the Best Western Lehigh Valley Conference Center in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. A punch reception commenced at noon followed by the luncheon at 12:30 p.m.

Jean Kosalko, president of the Lehigh Valley Okres, extended a warm welcome to all present and offered a prayer before the meal. Sixty Okres members and guests attended.

At the conclusion of the luncheon, President Kosalko introduced the Okres officers: Secretary Mary Shannon and Treasurer Margaret A. Ferri, and National officers: Fraternal Activities Director Cecilia Gaughan, Public Relations Director Margaret A. Ferri, and Honorary Vice President Mary Ann Ackerman. She also introduced former Public Relations Director Mary Ford. She then asked the local officers of Allentown Branches 38/40, Bethlehem Branches 83/130, and Hellertown Branch 196 to introduce themselves.

Entertainment was provided by 10 Junior members who sang Christmas songs. As they were performing “Jingle Bells,” Santa Claus (in the person of Jim Shannon of Northampton, Pennsylvania) entered the room ringing jingle bells of his own. Santa greeted the members at each table, after which the children gathered around him by the Christmas tree. He presented gifts of a nutcracker to each boy, a necklace to each girl, and a plush dog to each infant. Each child present also received a candy-cane-shaped container filled with candies.

Each attendee at the luncheon received a Christmas favor. Holiday prizes were chanced off and special prizes in the annual raffle were won by Trish Kessler, Nicholas Hoch, Joan Hladek, Don Schimeneck, Holly Pulsinelli, John Ferri, Rev. Philip A. Altavilla, Laura Mamay, Alexandria Kosalko, Beverly Wagner, and Andrew Krempasky.

The group enjoyed singing Christmas carols in English and in Slovak prior to the conclusion of the festivities, which concluded with a Benediction offered by Sister M. Francine Garganta, OSF, of SS. Cyril and Methodius Convent. A delightful time was had by all who attended.

Santa is surrounded by Lehigh Valley Okres Junior members — In front, Molly Keretz with her mother Sabrina, Aliyah and Anthony Caraballo, and Alexandria Kosalko with her father Eric. In back, Alexandra Wingfield, Michael DeFazio, Nicholas Wingfield, Brigette Guempel, Rachel Wingfield, Kyle Kessler, and Amy and Christopher Shannon.

Sabrina Caraballo is delighted as she watches her children, Aliyah (dressed in Santa outfit) and Anthony sitting on Santa’s lap.

Seven-month-old Alexandria Kosalko, newest and youngest member of the Lehigh Valley Okres, is fascinated with Santa’s beard.
REVEREND DIANISKA DISTRICT

The Reverend Dianiska District held its annual Christmas party on Sunday, December 2, 2007, at the Ramada Inn, Public Square, Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. Branches 6, 48, and 213 hosted the event.

Father Philip Altavilla offered grace and blessed the Oplatky prior to everyone exchanging Christmas wishes by sharing the holy bread with one another.

In her role as National President, Theresa Kluchinski recited a special Christmas reading. District President Mary Ann Ewasko thanked all members for their cooperation throughout the year and wished everyone a Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year. President Ewasko reported that our members in nursing homes will be given poinsettia plants and they and our honorary members were remembered with Christmas Novena Mass cards.

The Reverend Dianiska District members wish everyone a happy, healthy, and blessed New Year!

Bishop Roger Gries Celebrates Golden Jubilee

Bishop Roger W. Gries, O.S.B., M.Ed., V.G., Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of Cleveland, Ohio, celebrated his 50th anniversary as a Benedictine monk this past July. Bishop Roger professed his first vows as a Benedictine monk on July 11, 1957, at St. Andrew Svorad Benedictine Abbey in the presence of Abbot Theodore Kojis, O.S.B. He received his first year of monastic training under Father Placid Pientek, O.S.B., who served as novice master at the time.

To mark his golden jubilee of profession as a Benedictine monk, Bishop Roger joined the Benedictine monks at St. Andrew Abbey on Wednesday, July 11, 2007, for the abbey’s morning prayer, conventual Mass, and breakfast in honor of St. Benedict, whose feast as patriarch of western monasticism is celebrated on that day. One of the concelebrants at the prayer and Mass was Father Pientek, who is now retired.

As Father Roger, Prior Roger, Abbot Roger, and now Bishop Roger, he has used his many talents and gifts to serve Jesus Christ and his Church through many important assignments. After ordination as a priest in 1963, he joined the faculty of Benedictine High School as a mathematics teacher and football coach. Within two years, he joined the administration of the school as the assistant principal and then served as principal from 1968-1977.

Serving as the fourth Abbot of St. Andrew Svorad Benedictine Abbey from 1981 until 2001, Abbot Roger led the community through a major capital campaign that resulted in construction of the first Abbey Church, a new wing housing an infirmary, guest rooms, the community dining room and cale-factory, and physical improvements to the high school.

In 2001, Abbot Roger was called to the office of Bishop by Pope John Paul II to serve the urban region of the Diocese of Cleveland as Auxiliary Bishop, first to Bishop Anthony Pilla and now to Bishop Richard Lennon.

On August 29, 2007, the monks of St. Andrew Abbey honored Bishop Roger on the occasion of his golden jubilee with a private community reception at the monastery.

Bishop Roger is a member of LPSCU Branch 209, Cleveland, Ohio. The LPSCU extends belated congratulations to Bishop Roger on the occasion of his golden jubilee as a Benedictine monk. Ad multos gloriosque annos!

A JOIN HANDS DAY REMINDER

On JOIN HANDS DAY, fraternalists and non-fraternalists will come together to make a difference in their communities through helpful projects that connect youths and adults.

JOIN HANDS DAY gives fraternal benefit societies and volunteer organizations the opportunity to reach out to people they don’t know, to connect generations and develop new relationships.

This year, JOIN HANDS DAY is Saturday, May 3. Have you planned your project yet? If not, don’t wait for someone else to make the move. Contact family members, church members, fellow LPSCU members, neighbors, friends, and their children. If you can’t recruit enough participants, check around your area to see if you can combine your efforts with those of another group. There is always something you can do to make life better for another person, and in the end, you’ll both benefit!

In planning your project, be sure to invite the young people in your Branch and District to participate alongside your adult members in this JHD event. And remember to pre-register your project on the JOIN HANDS DAY website, www.joinhandsday.org. You can also check the website for project ideas and to view and read about past JHD projects.

After JOIN HANDS DAY, don’t forget to register the results of your project online in order to compete for a JHD award.

We look forward to hearing from you about your group’s JOIN HANDS DAY activity. Write a short article and send it, along with a group photo or two, to the LPSCU Public Relations Director so it can be shared with our members in the Zornicka.

July’s Fraternal MVP Invited to Capitol Hill

Victoria Lombardo, who was honored as Fraternal MVP (Most Valuable Participant) by the National Fraternal Congress of America for the month of July 2007, was recently invited to Washington, D.C., to meet with her members of Congress. A Fraternal MVP is an active fraternalist who volunteers time and effort to strengthen his or her community through participation in local lodge activities and other charitable endeavors.

Victoria’s name was selected randomly from among the weekly MVPs from this past July. The selected MVPs were then invited to Washington by the NFCA to meet with their respective elected officials in Congress to share their fraternal experiences with the Representatives. The visit also gave the MVPs an opportunity to convey what it means to them to be able to participate in fraternal activities and to make a difference in their communities.

Fraternal MVPs are part of the NFCA’s “Fraternalists-in-Action” program, which recognizes individuals whose unique stories best represent 21st Century fraternalism.

Due to prior commitments, Victoria was unfortunately unable to accept the NFCA’s invitation.

Victoria is a member of LPSCU Branch 6 in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. The story regarding her selection as a National Fraternal Congress Fraternal MVP appeared in the September/October 2007 issue of Zornicka on page 8. She was also chosen as the LPSCU’s 2007 Youth Achievement Award winner.

ZORNICKA
The 39th National LPSCU Convention will be held in Las Vegas, Nevada, on July 22-24 of this year. Branches having at least ten (10) members are entitled to have a delegate representative present at the Convention. Each Branch sends its delegate(s) to the Convention at its own expense. The LPSCU, however, shall pay the delegates’’ hotel and meals during the time spent at the Convention. If you are interested in representing your Branch at the 39th National Convention, please contact your local Branch representative. If you are unsure of your Branch or your local representative, please call the National Secretary/Treasurer, Mary Jo Savidge, at the Home Office.

Delegates have a great responsibility. The Convention is the highest legislative body of this organization. Business transacted at this year’s Convention will take our LPSCU through 2012. With this said, one item that will be discussed are the proposed changes to the existing Bylaws. To allow not only the delegates but also all of the general membership an opportunity to review what has been proposed and to comment on them, the proposed changes are being published in this issue of Zornicka. Keep in mind the following are proposed changes. Only with the approval of two-thirds (2/3) of the delegates present at the 39th National Convention can the LPSCU Bylaws be changed.

Most of the proposed changes are cosmetic, allowing for consistency, correct grammar, and technological improvements. In reading the proposed changes, note that those words, phrases, or Bylaw articles with a strikethrough (example) are recommendations to remove or change the existing Bylaws. Words, phrases, or Bylaw articles that are boldfaced (example) are what would replace the strikethrough or be corrections or new items for consideration.

If you have any comments or additional recommendations, please forward same to: LPSCU Bylaw Committee, P.O. Box 32, Wilkes-Barre, PA 18703

RECOMMENDATIONS OF PROPOSED CHANGES To the Constitution and Bylaws of the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union

Article 10. (c) Provide proper notification of expulsion of a member to the National Secretary/Treasurer setting forth the reason, giving the full name and address of the member so affected.

Reason/Rationale – Since the implementation of Direct Bill, the Branch Secretary no longer collects premium payments. The Home Office monitors the non-payment of premium.

Article 10. (d) will become (c).

Article 30. Shall appoint the Actuary, Medical Examiner, Legal Advisor, and Certified Public Accountant and Office Manager, who shall work jointly with the Board of Directors and shall be under their direction.

Reason/Rationale - It leads the reader to believe the Board must appoint an Office Manager.

Article 36. Shall have authority to establish and create a retirement benefit plan for members of the Board of Directors and employees of the LPSCU.

Reason/Rationale – Since the members of the Board are “employed” by the LPSCU, the language is repetitive.

Article 39. Shall have the right to designate an individual(s) a qualified member to act in the place of the Officer(s) suspended, during the time of the investigation.

Reason/Rationale – Officer(s) must be a member of LPSCU in good standing.

Article 42. Invest all funds of the LPSCU in such securities and in such manner only as the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the regulations adopted by the Insurance Department of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the LPSCU permit.

Suggested:

Article 42. Ensure funding in such securities and in such manner as permitted by the laws of the United States of America, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the Insurance Department of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and as set forth in the Statement of Investment Policy Objectives and Guidelines adopted by the LPSCU Board of Directors.

In Memoriam

Elaine Shook, Branch 83
Recording Secretary

She was born on October 18, 1950, in Fountain Hill, Pennsylvania, daughter of the late Louis and Irene (Spisak) Ivanitch. She was the wife of David Shook. They celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary on April 8, 2007.

Elaine was a graduate of Bethlehem Catholic High School, Class of 1968. She took accounting courses at DeSales University in Center Valley, Pennsylvania, and was an auditor for Price Waterhouse Coopers for 28 years before retiring in 2003. She then obtained her real estate license and began working for the Fishburn Realty Company in Bethlehem.

She was also a tennis teacher, who loved to play tennis and ski. In 2006, she received the U.S. Tennis Association’s Courage Award.

Elaine was a member of SS. Cyril and Methodius Catholic Church in Bethlehem. She was a life-long member of LPSCU Branch 83 in Bethlehem, and had served as its recording secretary since July 1, 1999. She was a devoted and dedicated member of the LPSCU, inheriting her fraternal attributes from her mother and maternal grandmother.

Elaine’s mother, Irene Ivanitch, served as recording secretary of Branch 83 for 13 years until her death in June 1999, and her maternal grandmother, Elizabeth Spisak, served as president of Branches 83 and 130 for five years and also served as National Trustee for many years prior to her death in 1958. Over the years, Elaine was a dedicated volunteer for LPSCU Branches 83 and 130, as well as a continuous volunteer within her community. She was a true friend to all she met.

In addition to her husband, Elaine is survived by a daughter, Alexandra Eun Sun Shook, who is a junior at Lehigh University; a brother, Raymond Ivanitch of Bethlehem; a sister, Louise Nagle of Strafford, Vermont; and her beloved dog, Jazzie Shih-Tzu.

A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated by Msgr. Michael J. Chaback, pastor, at SS. Cyril and Methodius Catholic Church. The church was filled to capacity with more than 500 mourners. Interment followed in Holy Saviour Cemetery in Bethlehem. Funeral arrangements were handled by Pearson Funeral Home in Bethlehem.

As a tribute to Elaine, a Time for Remembrance luncheon was held at the Iacocca Hall Wood Dining Hall at the Mountaintop Campus of Lehigh University following the burial service.

In lieu of flowers, the family has requested memorials to Stephen’s Place, 729 Ridge Street, Bethlehem, PA 18015, which is a rehabilitation facility to cure male drug and alcohol offenders.

The officers and members of the LPSCU are deeply saddened at the loss of our dear fraternal sister, Elaine Shook. Her dedicated service as a volunteer and as a branch officer is a testament of her love for the LPSCU. We extend sincere sympathy to David and Alexandra Shook, and to the rest of Elaine’s extended family. May she rest in peace.

Santa Visits Nursing Home Residents

On December 20, 2007, Santa Claus (in the person of John Ferri of Bethlehem, Pennsylvania) visited with the residents of Gracedale Nursing Home in Nazareth, Pennsylvania. Santa commenced his visit with residents at 9:00 a.m. when he entered the Tower of Gracedale, a 10-story, two-wing building. Accompanied by an accordion player and carolers singing Christmas songs, Santa greeted residents in the two dining rooms on each floor, and visited those who were bedridden in their rooms.

After completing his rounds in the Tower, Santa and his entourage then visited the original, two-story Gracedale building. Some 150 residents were assembled in the recreation hall and joined in singing carols as Santa personally greeted them, wishing each a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. Again, Santa visited bedfast residents in their rooms. All told, Santa spent time with at least 700 residents at the facility.

Each resident received a gift of a sweater, scarf, slippers, or other useful item from volunteers who participated as Santa’s helpers. The gifts were purchased with monetary donations that were collected for that purpose.

By mid-afternoon when Santa completed his visits at Gracedale, he was delighted with the joy he had brought to the residents of the nursing home. This was John’s fourth year playing Santa for residents at the Northampton County facility. John is the husband of LPSCU Public Relations Director Margaret A. Ferri. John and Margaret and their children, David, Jack and wife Christie, and Patricia and husband Rand Kienzle, are members of Bethlehem Branch 83. The couple’s grandchildren, Angelina, Nicole, Victoriana, Jenna, Jace, and Tate, are fourth generation members of Branch 130.

On Saturday, March 29, 2008, at 2:00 p.m., “She Kept Crying for the Moon” will be shown at the Slovak Civic Federation in Pittsburgh. This Academy Award winning film takes place in Kosice and depicts the Nazi solution regarding the Slovak Jews in the final stages of World War II.

At 7:00 p.m. on Saturday, April 19, “She Kept Crying for the Moon” will be shown at the Slovak Civic Federation in Pittsburgh. This movie is a bittersweet comedy about village life in Eastern Slovakia. A typical village wedding is the highlight of this 1982 film.

Mother’s & Father’s Day Tribute/Memorial Program

Once again this year, the LPSCU is offering a Tribute/Memorial Program to run in the May/June issue of the Zornicka. We are pleased to report that this is the seventh year that the LPSCU has sponsored this special tribute. The program will give our members an opportunity to honor their living parents or remember their deceased ones by placing a Mother’s and/or Father’s Day message in our May/June issue.

Tributes/Memorials will be limited to 2-4 lines and should not exceed 25 words. There is no charge for placing a message, but a good will donation of $5.00 per greeting will be appreciated. In keeping with the benevolent and fraternal nature of our organization, all proceeds from the Mother’s Day Tributes/Memorials will be donated to the Breast Cancer Research Center and all monies donated to the Father’s Day Tributes/Memorials will go to the American Diabetes Association for diabetes research.

Donations (which are tax deductible) should be made by check payable directly to the respective research center — Breast Cancer Research Center for Mother’s Day messages and American Diabetes Association for Father’s Day messages.

Tribute/Memorial requests, along with all donation checks, should be mailed to Fraternal Activities Director Cecilia B. Gaughan, 325 Florida Avenue, Whitehall, PA 18052 (phone 610/433-4610).

Deadline for submitting Mother’s/Father’s Day messages for the May/June Zornicka is March 30, 2008.

A few examples of Mother’s/Father’s Day Tributes/Memorials follow:

In honor of our mothers
Mary Jones and Susan Clark
Given by George and Christine Clark

In loving memory of Joseph Smith, Sr.
(June 1, 1900-April 2, 1982)
Given by his children and grandchildren

Happy Mother’s Day to Betty J. Winston
With love from her grandchildren
Tom and Sharon Carlson and Maryann Winston

The LPSCU reserves the right to edit messages.

We hope many of our members will participate in this worthwhile fraternal activity, which allows them to honor their mothers and fathers and donate to two very worthy causes. This is a wonderful way to show our love and appreciation to our parents (and grandparents) and to show the concern and compassion the LPSCU has for our fellowman.

ATTENTION ALL ANIMAL LOVERS . . .

THE LPSCU IS HAVING A PET PHOTO CONTEST

If you have a pet, you know how blessed you are. Our pets provide companionship and unconditional love. Research also shows that they can help reduce stress and blood pressure in their owners, increase longevity in those who’ve had heart attacks, and even relax and improve the appetites of Alzheimer’s patients. Many 4-legged pets, especially dogs, can also get owners off the couch, helping them stick to a regular exercise routine.

No matter what kind of pet you have – 2- or 4-legged, winged, furry, scaly, big or small – I’m sure your pet is like a member of the family. Here’s a chance to showcase your pet and to win a great prize that will help out other animals not as fortunate as yours. Just take a photo of your pet and send it to the Fraternal Activities Director, along with the completed form below.

Judging will take place at the LPSCU Convention in July and the winners will be chosen by the delegates. The 1st Place winner will receive a $50.00 donation made in their name to the animal shelter of their choice. The 2nd and 3rd Place finishers will each receive a $25.00 donation made on their behalf to the animal shelter of their choice. In addition, the winners will have their pets’ photos featured in the September/October issue of Zornicka in honor of St. Francis of Assisi’s feast day on October 4th. All other entries will be featured in a subsequent issue of the magazine.

This contest is open to ALL members of the LPSCU, so get those cameras clicking and send in your pet’s photo today! Because the photos will be posted at the Convention for all to see, we request that you submit a printed photograph rather than a digital file. (Photos will not be returned unless they are accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope.) Please send your entry to Ceil Gaughan no later than June 15, 2008.

The LPSCU Whole Life Insurance Plan

One very economical life insurance instrument offered by the LPSCU is the Whole Life Plan, which may be applied for from age 0 to 70. Premiums for the Whole Life Plan are considered to be low and affordable for any applicant’s age. Why not take advantage of securing substantial life insurance protection with low premium payments? Premiums can be paid on a monthly, quarterly, semiannual, or annual basis. Coverage remains in force for the entire life of the insured. Upon the insured’s death, the face amount is payable to the named beneficiary.

In addition to its low premiums, the Whole Life Plan offers unique fraternal benefits such as educational awards, youth/adult activities, newborn benefits, a prescription discount plan, and a bi-monthly LPSCU magazine.

The Whole Life Plan also offers the fraternal benefit of “Paid Up at 80 Plus.” To qualify, any insured member with a Whole Life policy who turns 80 years of age and has 25 years of LPSCU membership with this plan will not have to pay any further premiums as the policy becomes paid up.

Consider the Whole Life Plan for substantial life insurance protection. Call your Branch Secretary today for an application for this economical and beneficial insurance plan, or contact the LPSCU Home Office at 570/823-3513 (or toll free 888/834-6614); e-mail: lpscu@lpscu.org or visit our web site: www.lpscu.org.
Dear Junior Members,

In March we will welcome the return of Spring, and we always think of outdoor activities when Spring arrives. One of the most beneficial ones is walking. We all walk every day, but fitness walking is perhaps the most underappreciated form of exercise. The great thing about walking is that it’s something you can do all by yourself, with a friend, or in a group, and you can do it anywhere!

Another great thing about walking is that very little equipment is required — just a sturdy pair of walking shoes and comfortable clothing. Be sure your shoes fit you properly. They should have adequate room for your toes, provide arch support, keep your feet from turning in or out, and support your ankles. Your socks should be seamless and fit snugly. They should also be made of material that wicks away perspiration from your skin so you won’t get blisters. Dress in layers — a wind-breaker and/or sweatshirt over a T-shirt, for instance, so you can remove layers as you warm up. Be sure to carry a bottle of water with you to keep hydrated along the way.

Speaking of warm ups, your walking program should include a warm-up, endurance, and a cool-down period. To warm up, walk at a low intensity for about 5 minutes to gradually increase your heart rate and limber up your muscles. Stretching before you begin is also helpful. For your endurance leg, begin to increase your speed, or vary your terrain to include some hills so you get a good cardiovascular workout. Swing your arms for added benefit, or carry 1-2 lb. hand-held weights. Aim for 15-20 minutes of continuous walking and gradually increase your time as your stamina improves. Cool down gradually by returning to a level surface and slowing your pace. End with some stretching.

Some of you may prefer running to walking, but all of the above rules still apply: good shoes, comfortable clothes, hydration, stretching, warm-up, endurance, cool down. If you like to run alone over long distances, you may want to join the cross-country team at your school. If you prefer to compete against other runners, especially in short bursts of speed, the track team may be for you. But whether you run alone for the fun of it or compete on a team, running is a great sport. Think of all the freedom you have, running at the road, or on the track. And if you have a friend who enjoys running with you, it’s a great way to get a good workout and get to chat at the same time.

Running will certainly get you in shape. Your lungs play an important part in this activity. Runners must condition and exercise their lungs because healthy lungs will give them better stamina. And running gives your heart a great cardiovascular workout. If you’ve been a “couch potato” all winter, just remember to start slowly and gradually increase the intensity of your workout as your strength and stamina improve. Many people who start out as walkers soon progress to running. It’s a sport that really puts your body in motion!

The Month of March

March is the third month of the year and marks the beginning of Spring. At one time, it was the first month of the Roman calendar. March’s improving weather meant the Romans could begin to make preparations to go to war. Therefore, they named this month Martius in honor of Mars, their god of war.

Ancient people living in England called this month Leneten-monath. This means “lengthening month” and as we well know, after the first day of Spring the days do begin to get noticeably longer.

Early March is often cold and stormy but turns milder as the month goes on, prompting people to say March comes in like a lion but goes out like a lamb.

All About April

April, which contains 30 days, is the “opening” month. The Romans called this month Aprilis, which comes from the Latin word meaning “to open.”

April is the month that ushers in more changes than any other. We usually see the last of the ice and snow, and grass starts to turn green. Every tree and shrub around us is starting to bud and the birds are singing and building nests.

Monthly events for April include National Frog Month, National Kite Month, National Garden Month, and National Poetry Month.

Whose birthday do you share this month?

- April 2 — The birthday of Hans Christian Anderson, Danish writer of fairy tales.
- April 5 — Booker T. Washington, African American educator, was born in Virginia in 1856.
- April 8 — Former First Lady Betty Ford was born in 1918.
- April 13 — Birthday of Thomas Jefferson, 3rd President of the United States.
- April 17 — Inventor and statesman Benjamin Franklin died on this date in 1790.
- April 19 — The American Revolutionary War began with the battles of Lexington and Concord in 1775.
- April 22 — Earth Day was first celebrated in 1970. What are you doing to help protect the Earth?
- April 23 — William Shakespeare was born in 1564; he died on the same day in 1616.
- April 25 — Arbor Day. Planting a tree is a great way to help renew our natural resources.
- April 27 — Samuel Morse, inventor of the telegraph, and President Ulysses S. Grant share this birthdate.
- April 30 — The United States purchased the Louisiana Territory from France on this date in 1803.

Fun Foot Facts

In different cultures across the world, feet are looked at differently. In China, the custom of the female foot binding began late in the Tang Dynasty (618-906) and gradually spread through the upper class. Young girls, usually between the ages of 4 and 7, had their feet tightly wrapped in an attempt to stop the growth because tiny feet were considered beautiful and a sign of wealth. That is because women with bound feet could not walk and were usually housebound. The poorest classes needed able-bodied women to work the fields and could not afford to lose this labor source. Sadly, the result was a smaller but very deformed foot. The practice was outlawed in 1911.

In Middle Eastern societies, the feet are considered to be the dirtiest part of the body because they are in constant contact with the ground. Sitting so as to expose the soles of one’s feet to someone is considered a grave insult. Foot washing is a custom widely practiced in these societies as well as in Christian denominations. Foot washing as a religious ritual derives from when Jesus washed the disciples’ feet at the Last Supper.

In some countries it is customary to remove one’s shoes before entering a home. This practice is very popular in much of Europe and Canada, as well as in New Zealand and Australia. In Korea and Japan the custom is widespread because many of the floors are made of material that is too soft to stand up to the wear and tear of footwear.

Our feet are amazing structures used to get us from one place to another. In fact, the average person, engaging in non-strenuous activity, walks approximately 4 miles every day or about 115,000 miles in a lifetime!

Feet actually serve two important functions: weight bearing and propulsion, each requiring a high degree of stability and flexibility. The feet contain 25% of all the bones in the human body. Each foot also contains more than 150 ligaments and an intricate network of muscles, nerves, and blood vessels. The foot is formed by five metatarsal bones and phalanges (these are the toes). The bottom of the foot is called the sole and the area just behind the big toe is called the ball. The skin of the sole is denser than any other area of the skin on our body.

During a typical day, the feet endure a cumulative force of several hundred tons. All the more reason to take good care of your feet so they can continue to serve you!

EASTER EGG DYEING

It’s time for you to bring out the onion skins I asked you to save. Instead of dyeing eggs bright colors, we are going to make golden brown eggs like Grandmother used to make. We’ll do this by using the onion skins.

This is what you will need:
- A dozen white eggs (not boiled)
- At least 2 cups of onion skins (red or golden)
- Some old nylon stockings
- Some blades of grass, parsley, and clover
- Small wire twist ties
- A wax crayon

Make a pattern on each egg by laying a cloverleaf or the parsley or pieces of grass over the shell. You can also write a greeting on the eggs with the wax crayon or write “Alleluia” (which means “Praise God’). You may also choose to keep them plain with no design. Once you’ve completed your designs, place each egg in one of the nylon stockings, being careful not to knock off your design pieces. Tie the stocking closed with a twist tie so your design is held in place by the nylon.

Place a layer of either red or golden onion skins in the bottom of a large pot and lay some eggs on top of the skins. Put another layer of skins on top and add another layer of eggs. Finish with a layer of onion skins. Fill the pot with cold water until the eggs are covered. Now boil the eggs until they reach the desired color.

Once the eggs have cooled, remove the nylon. Surprise! Your eggs should have a reddish color if you used red onion skins and if you used the gold or brown skins, they will have a golden brown color. This is an old-fashioned way of dyeing eggs using natural ingredients.
Tell Us Why Your Dad’s So Special!

With Father’s Day rapidly approaching, we thought our young members would like a chance to explain what makes their dad that special man in their lives. Is it the way he makes you laugh? The fun times you spend together playing sports or involved in a family activity? Does he always make the time to listen when you have a problem? Can he grill the world’s best hamburger or figure out the toughest math problem? In two or three sentences, why not share with our readers why your dad (or grandpa) is “The Best Dad Ever!” If you have one, send along a photo of you and Dad to accompany your letter. Please send or email your information no later than March 31st to Cecilia B. Gaughan, 325 Florida Avenue, Whitehall, PA 18052, cbgaughan@msn.com.

As the two Marys (Matthew 28:10) came to the tomb of Jesus to pray, they were greeted with the news that Jesus is alive and were then sent to proclaim that news to his disciples. The same holds true for us. We pray, we are given the good news, and then we are sent to share that news with others through the goodness of our lives. In a sense, we literally become the good news that we have heard!

Let us remember that Easter is more than just a Gospel story of an empty tomb or empty cross. For us, as followers of Jesus, Easter is a mindset, a belief in the living presence of Christ in our midst, a sense of his breath constantly breathing new life and hope into our spirits. And, as Jesus once said, “the gift you have received, give as gift.” This is the Easter challenge.

On behalf of the Board of Directors of the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union, I would like to wish you and your loved ones a very blessed and joyous Easter! May the Risen Christ deepen in each of us a desire to understand better and respond generously to our baptismal call to grow in holiness and mission! Christ is Risen! Indeed, He is truly Risen! Happy Easter! ALLELUIA!

Počas obdobia Veľkej noci, nech vás vsemohúci Boh, ktorý skrze zmršťtvychvstanie svojho Syna nám daroval dar nehnúcej slobody, vovedie do večnej blaženosti!

Rev. Philip A. Altavilla, V.E.
