The Year of the Priest

On Monday, March 16, 2009, in his address to the members of the Congregation of the Clergy on the occasion of their Plenary Assembly, His Holiness, Pope Benedict XVI announced that he was declaring a “Year of the Priest.” Near the conclusion of his address, Pope Benedict said: “Precisely to encourage priests in this striving for spiritual perfection on which, above all, the effectiveness of their ministry depends, I have decided to establish a special ‘Year for Priests’ that will begin on the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, June 19, 2009, and last until June 19, 2010. In fact, it is the 150th anniversary of the death of the Holy Curé d’Ars, John Marie Vianney, a true example of a pastor at the service of Christ’s flock.”

This special “Year of the Priest” is an opportunity to help all of us revisit what the faith tells us a priest is and to encourage ordained priests in their lives of service and dedication. Pope Benedict proposes that this is to be a year “in which the church says to her priests above all, but also to all the faithful and to the wider society . . . that she is proud of her priests, loves them, honors them, admires them, and that she recognizes with gratitude their pastoral work and the witness of their life.” The year is to be marked by intense prayer for the sanctification of priests and renewed study of the nature of the priestly office in the church.

In giving this gift to the Church, a year to pray for and celebrate the ministry of priests, Pope Benedict encourages us to reflect on the life and ministry of Saint John Marie Vianney. In 1929, Pope Pius XI named Saint John Marie Vianney to be the patron saint of parish priests. Who is this very unique saint? On March 16, 1986, exactly 23 years before Pope Benedict issued his call for the “Year of the Priest,” the late great Pope John Paul II wrote beautifully about Saint John Marie Vianney in his annual Holy Thursday, “Letter to My Brother Priests.” Let us take a moment to reflect on some important elements contained in this important Apostolic Letter of Pope John Paul II.

Born in 1786, John always desired to be a priest. From a very early age, he certainly showed that he had the heart of a parish priest but John had great difficulty with his academic studies, especially the study of Latin. Despite great challenges, John persisted and never gave up on his dream to become a priest. He was ordained in 1815.

Three years later, he was made the pastor of Ars, a remote French hamlet which was known for a generally apathetic and indifferent Catholic population. The practice of the faith had grown very lukewarm and many people there became distracted by the things of this world. It was into this rather hopeless situation that John was sent to be God’s agent of renewal.

Out of sheer love for the people of his flock, John would engage in various types of penances and self-mortification in order to lead people to a conversion of heart. The example of his self-sacrificing love became a great inspiration to his people. Along with his incredible example, John was also known to be an amazing confessor. Once his reputation began to spread, John would spend hours each day in the confessional, helping people reconcile themselves to God and the Church. It is said that in the winter months, he would spend 11 to 12 hours daily in the confessional and in the summer months his time increased to 16 hours. People would spend hours waiting in line to experience God’s mercy through this simple, humble instrument. Truly, unless a man was dedicated to his dream of a priestly vocation, he could never have endured this giving of self day after day!

Despite moments of fatigue, ill health, and even attacks on his person by the devil, John never wavered in his desire to be of service to God and God’s people. Not only was his love and priestly zeal experienced in the confessional and at the altar, it was also evidenced in his works of charity on behalf of his people, many of whom were poor and in material need. For example, along with Catherine Lassagne and Benedicta Lardet, he established La Providence, a home for girls. Only a man of vision could have such trust that God would provide for the spiritual and material needs of all those who came to make La Providence their home. Even as he got older – when many people would be entering retirement – John continued to work for the salvation of souls. He died at Ars on August 4, 1859, at the age of 73, after some forty years of exhausting dedication. His feast day is celebrated each year on August 4th.

The secret of his generosity is to be found, without doubt, in his great love for God, lived without limits, and in constant response to that love made manifest and real in Christ crucified. It is in God’s love that he bases his desire to do everything to save the souls ransomed by Christ at such a great price, and to bring them to experience the love of God for themselves. For the sake of Christ, John sought to conform himself exactly to the radical demands that Jesus, in the Gospels, puts before the disciples whom he sends out: prayer, poverty, humility, obedience, self-denial, and voluntary penance. And, like Christ, John had a love for his flock that led him to extreme pastoral commitment and self-sacrifice. Rarely has a pastor been so acutely aware of his responsibilities, so consumed by a desire to wrest his people from the sins of their lukewarmness. “O my God, grant me the conversion of my parish: I consent to suffer whatever you wish, for as long as I live.”

SS.C.M. Sisters to Hold Summer Festival July 11

The Sisters of SS. Cyril and Methodius announce their annual Summer Festival to be held on Saturday, July 11, 2009, at Villa Sacred Heart, their Motherhouse in Danville, Pennsylvania. This year’s festival is extra special for the Sisters as they are celebrating their centennial year as a congregation. The day begins at 10:30 a.m. and will close at 5:00 p.m. with the Sunday Liturgy celebrated in the Basilica of SS. Cyril and Methodius.

A perennial favorite at the festival is the Sisters’ Pantry with its assortment of baked goods, among them homemade nut roll. Another popular spot is the Craft Shop where festival-goers can find a variety of crafts made by the Sisters and their friends. All the items make splendid gifts for every occasion. For those who have a “green thumb,” a variety of plants, both annuals and perennials, will be for sale.

Games for children as well as for adults, including Instant Bingo, will bring joy to the winners.

The auditorium is once again the place where flea market devotees can find valuable treasures for a reasonable price.

Besides the usual picnic fare – sausage, hot dogs, hamburgers and fries – delectable ethnic foods will be served. This year fresh lemonade, corn on the cob, and walk-away waffles topped with ice cream are on the menu. Soda, ice cream, and yogurt will also be available throughout the day.

Once again the Sisters look forward to your presence at their festival in Danville on Saturday, July 11.

Rev. Dianiska District to Host Children’s Bowling Event

The Reverend Dianiska District’s Annual Youth Bowling Party will be held on Saturday, July 18, 2009, at Modern Lanes in Exeter, Pennsylvania, from 1:00-4:00 p.m. Hope and Lori Napkora are co-chairing the event.

The youth of the District are invited to attend as guests of the District. Adult family members and non-member friends may also participate in the activities at a cost.

Call your Branch Secretary to make reservations before July 11. Please include the name, age, and gender of the children and the number of adult bowlers who will participate. This is always a much anticipated event and we look forward to seeing you there!

A Message from the President

Dear LPSCU Members,

On page 8 of this publication is our Year End 2008 Financial Report of the LPSCU. As you can see, we sustained a loss of $1,554,670 with the majority of this due to write downs of certain bonds and loss in our equity portfolio. I want to assure our members that the LPSCU is extremely strong with a solvency ratio of 138%. What this means is that for every $1.00 in liabilities we have $1.38 in assets to cover that liability. More importantly, your Board of Directors anticipated the decline due to the financial crisis that has impacted many if not most of us and at our December 2008 meeting acted to reduce our expenses. This reduction of expenses (see January/February 2009 Zornicka for letter with details), as well as changes to our investment portfolio approved by the Executive Finance Committee, has helped put the LPSCU back on track. In fact, our 1st Quarter of 2009 Financial Report, published on page 11 of this issue, reflects a gain from operations. This means we made more money than we spent.

This is not the first time the LPSCU has encountered tough economic times. We have been in existence for over 110 years and will continue to offer affordable insurance products while providing benefits for all members of our organization.

If you have any questions, do not hesitate to contact me.

Fraternally,

Theresa A. Kluchinski
National President

Branch Secretary Margaret Jollimore took roll call. Vice President Hope Napkora read the Secretary’s report and Debbie Adamchak gave the Treasurer’s report; both were approved. Mary Ann Ewasko read correspondence. She also reported that Monsignor Francis J. Beeda is still recuperating and in lieu of sending gifts, our District will have Mass said in his honor at the Priest’s Retirement Home by Bishop Emeritus James Timlin.

The following items were discussed:

Mary Ann reminded members to read the Calendar of Events in the Zornicka for upcoming events in our District.

LPSCU Branch 83, Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, celebrated its Centennial Anniversary with a Mass of Thanksgiving and Luncheon on Sunday, April 19, 2009. Mass was celebrated at 10:30 a.m. at Incarnation of Our Lord Church (formerly SS. Cyril and Methodius Church) in Bethlehem, by Msgr. William Baker, pastor. Msgr. Baker extended a warm welcome to Branch 83 members and guests. He congratulated the Branch on 100 years of fraternal service to its members and wished the Branch continued success.

Branch 83 member Theresa Nishnic was lector and gift bearers were Branch 83 officers, President Mary Shannon and Secretary Mary Ann Ackerman. Beautiful liturgical music was provided by the parish choir, with Bruce Bratkovits as organist and Milissa Bolcar as trumpeter.

Following the Mass, a punch reception and luncheon were held at the beautiful Candlelight Inn in Bethlehem. Ninety-five members and guests attended the event. Honored guests included Msgr. William Baker, Msgr. Michael J. Chaback, former pastor of SS. Cyril and Methodius Parish, and LPSCU National Officers: President Theresa Kluchinski, Secretary-Treasurer Mary Jo Savidge, Chair of Trustees Mary Ann Ewasko, Trustees Dolores Evanko and Margaret Jollimore, and Fraternal Activities Director Cecilia B. Gaughan.

Branch 83 Vice President and National Public Relations Director Margaret A. Ferri served as the toastmaster. Branch President Mary Shannon welcomed everyone to the Centennial celebration and Msgr. Baker offered an inspirational Invocation. Branch Secretary Mary Ann Ackerman offered a toast congratulating Branch 83 on its Centennial and wishing the Branch continued success.

Following a delicious buffet luncheon, the toastmaster introduced the head table and the LPSCU National Officers present. She also introduced our fraternal brothers and sisters in attendance from the Slovak Catholic Sokol and First Catholic Slovak Ladies Association.

Principal speaker was National President Theresa Kluchinski who presented the history of Branch 83. She also highlighted many fraternal benefits offered by the LPSCU. On behalf of the LPSCU, President Kluchinski presented a monetary gift for Branch 83 to Branch Secretary Mary Ann Ackerman to mark the occasion of the Branch’s Centennial Anniversary.

Toastmaster Ferri recalled the various accomplishments and successful events of Branch 83 during the past century. She acknowledged the following Branch 83 members who served as National Officers: Elizabeth Spisak (trustee), Mary Kacmar (Supreme Court member and second vice president), Mary Ann Ackerman (trustee and vice president), and Mary Ford and Margaret A. Ferri (public relations director). She also mentioned that Branch 83 leaves a legacy to the LPSCU motto “from generation-to-generation” in that some of the 5-generation members within Branch 83 are the families of Spisak/Ivanitch, Posivak/Shannon, and Fecko/Ackerman.

The program concluded with a Benediction offered by Msgr. Chaback.

The Centennial celebration of Branch 83 reflected a century of true fraternalism and fond memories among its members and a legacy of continued success for its future generations of members.
THE 3 PAYMENT LIFE PLAN

The 3 Payment Life Insurance Plan offered by the LPSCU is an economical and beneficial plan for anyone from age 0 to 85. Under this plan, there is a minimum purchase of life insurance. For those age 0-70, the minimum purchase is $5,000; for ages 71-85, the minimum purchase is $2,000. Premiums are payable for three (3) years from issue date. If the insured dies within the 3-year period following the issue date, no additional premiums are due and payable, and the face amount of the certificate is paid to the named beneficiary, except as provided within the contract regarding Suicide and Contestability.

The plan allows for premium payments to be made monthly, quarterly, semiannually, or annually. The certificate becomes fully paid at the end of three (3) years, and coverage remains in full force and effect for the entire life of the insured without any additional premium payments required. Upon the death of the insured, the face amount of the certificate is paid to the insured’s named beneficiary.

A member with a 3 Payment Life Plan is entitled to all fraternal benefits of the LPSCU including educational awards, youth and adult activities, newborn benefits, prescription discount card, official publication, and discount car rental.

The 3 Payment Life Plan is perfect for both youth and adults – especially anyone who prefers to have their life insurance paid within three (3) years. During these unstable economic times, the 3 Payment Life Plan offered by the LPSCU is economical and beneficial for estate planning and can especially help with the high cost of funeral expenses.

To apply for this specific plan, or any other insurance plan offered by the LPSCU, contact your Branch Secretary or the LPSCU Home Office.

Listed below are the Annual and Monthly Premium Schedules for the 3 Payment Life Insurance Plan. The premiums listed are based on $1,000 of life insurance coverage. Semiannual and quarterly premium rates are also available by contacting your Branch Secretary or the Home Office.

Msgr. Beeda District

The Msgr. Beeda District of the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union, St. Joseph Youth Group, and the Holy Family Academy joined together this year to celebrate Join Hands Day. The combined group sponsored a Food Drive to collect non-perishable food items for their local food pantry. The project was a huge success thanks to the generosity and continued support of our LPSCU members as well as the many non-members who contributed to this worthwhile fraternal project. We especially would like to commend all our young people for their participation with the drive. They truly are making a difference in their community by reaching out to help others.

Lehigh Valley Okres

On Saturday morning, May 2, 2009, officers and members of the Lehigh Valley Okres delivered a large amount of men's, women's, and children's clothing to Second Sight as their Join Hands Day project. Second Sight is an upscale thrift shop located at the Trolley Station, Route 191 in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. It is owned and managed by the Visibly Impaired and Blind Association of Northampton County, Pennsylvania. A well-organized merchant, Second Sight is known for its resale of better and designer-named clothing. The shop also donates business attire to those on state assistance who are seeking employment, thus helping them present a more professional appearance at interviews and enhancing their chances of becoming employed.

Members of the Lehigh Valley Okres began collecting from their neighbors and friends well in advance of Join Hands Day. In all, over 30 boxes and bags filled with clothing and shoes were donated. Branches of the Okres previously held a clothing drive for Second Sight in October of 2008. This time, the Okres went all out to sponsor a huge Spring clothing drive for Join Hands Day. At least 35 adults and 15 children participated in this project.

Lehigh Valley Okres officers and members delivering clothing to Second Sight in Bethlehem are, L-R: Margaret A. Ferri, Valeria Lukish, Marie Ford-Clemens, Mary Ford, Mary Ann Ackerman, Jean Kosalko, and Cecilia B. Gaughan.
On May 2, 2009, the Reverend Dianiska District participated in Join Hands Day by volunteering at The Laurels Skilled Nursing and Rehabilitation Center. Fourteen adults and ten youth from the District, along with five members from Saint Nicholas Byzantine Church, Swoyersville, Pennsylvania, played bingo with approximately 40 residents from the facility. Prizes were donated by District members and everyone was presented with a gift and refreshments.

Our young members were actively involved with the residents who did not attend the bingo in the social hall by distributing cake and a gift to them in their rooms. The beautifully decorated cake was donated by Gerrity’s Supermarket in Wyoming, Pennsylvania.

The residents were very excited to have our District entertain them and they enjoyed the camaraderie, especially with the young members. The staff at The Laurels was very pleased that the District once again chose their facility for its Join Hands Day project.
The Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union is proud to announce that John Ferri of Branch 83, Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, is our 2009 Fraternalist of the Year. John has been a member of the LPSCU for over 20 years. He was nominated for this award by Mary Shannon, president of Branch 83.

John is a very active member of the LPSCU. He participates and helps with all activities of the Branch and the Lehigh Valley Okres. For the annual Christmas party and other social and family events, he helps to transport various necessary items to the event site. He has also been a delegate at the past five National Conventions. John is a dedicated and caring fraternal member of our organization.

John has been a parishioner of Bethlehem’s Incarnation of Our Lord Parish (formerly SS. Cyril and Methodius) for some 57 years. He has been an active member of the Parish Activities Group for over 30 years and assists with the parish’s dinners, bingo socials, and bus trips. He is also a collector at Mass. John recently retired as a lector, where he served for over two decades.

As an active member of the Cardinal Tomko Chapter of the Slovak Catholic Federation, John volunteers at the Chapter’s Easter and Christmas bake sales by sorting baked goods, completing orders, and delivering them to dozens of families. He attends Chapter meetings and also helps with the Chapter’s fundraisers such as halupki dinners, bingo and fashion show socials, and pilgrimage bus trips.

John volunteers for the Liberty High School Booster Concession Stand for all school sports events during football, basketball, baseball, wrestling, track, and volleyball seasons. Every Monday afternoon from September to May, John teaches bowling to Special Olympians at Town & Country Lanes in Bethlehem. Each summer at the Special Olympics Track Tournament held at Bethlehem’s Liberty High School, John volunteers by preparing Special Olympians for their track events. He is a great motivator of his Special Olympic athletes, encouraging them to do their best, to be kind and caring to one another, and to pledge that all are winners. As an active member of the MORA Club in Bethlehem, he also volunteers to help autistic children bowl once a week.

Every year for the past five years, John has volunteered as Santa Claus for Gracedale, Northampton County’s Nursing Home in Nazareth, Pennsylvania. He visits with over 750 residents personally, presents each with a gift, and shakes their hands. This is one of his most enjoyable projects.

John also participates in the annual Join Hands Day projects sponsored by the Lehigh Valley Okres where he leads and motivates the adult and youth participants to work together for a successful event and to respect and enjoy one another.

John is the husband of Margaret A. Ferri, who is Public Relations Director for the LPSCU. They are the parents of three children, Jack of New Market, Maryland; David of New York City; and Patricia of Malvern, Pennsylvania. They also have six grandchildren, Angelina and Nicole Ferri; and Victoriana, Jenna, Jace, and Tate Kienzle.

Truly, John Ferri has exhibited extraordinary acts of fraternalism in his Branch and the Lehigh Valley Okres, and outstanding volunteer service to his church and community to qualify for the distinct honor of being named the 2009 LPSCU Fraternalist of the Year.

Congratulations, John! The LPSCU is very proud of you.

A free lecture, “Live Long – Die Short (Ills, Skills and Pills on Aging)” was presented recently by the Slovak Heritage Society of Northeastern Pennsylvania and Mary’s Ministries and Holy Name Society at St. Ignatius Church in Kingston, Pennsylvania.

Guest lecturer was James Siberski, assistant professor and coordinator of Gerontological Education at Misericordia University, Dallas, Pennsylvania.

In his comments, Professor Siberski outlined points of successful aging and encouraged all to strengthen “the ability to maintain low risk of disease or disability, high mental and physical function, and active engagement with life.” He added that “if one learns the necessary skills to successful aging, one will need fewer pills over a lifetime to prevent the ills that one can acquire.”

Attendees enjoyed the informative and colorful presentation by Professor Siberski, interwoven with varied stories of living life with a positive attitude.
LPSCU to Honor Our Military and Veterans

Once again this year, the LPSCU is sponsoring a Veterans’ Day Honorarium/Memorial Program to appear in the November/December issue. If you missed this wonderful tribute to our veterans and active military in past years, don’t pass up this chance to participate.

Through our Veterans’ Day Honorarium/Memorial listings, the LPSCU is affording our members an opportunity to honor loved ones, co-workers, friends, and neighbors who are presently serving in our military, and to remember those veterans who have served in any branch of the service in the past.

Tributes will be limited to 2-5 lines and should not exceed 25-30 words. There is no charge for placing a message, but a good will donation of $5.00 per listing would be appreciated.

In keeping with the benevolent and fraternal nature of our Catholic organization, all proceeds from these tributes will again be donated to the Catholic War Veterans, an organization whose primary objective is to make the entire nation aware of the struggle and needs of many veterans, their widows and children. The CWV cooperate fully with all veterans organizations to better serve the interests of the men and women who served in each of the wars in which our nation has been involved. Further, as a Catholic organization, the CWV strives to serve God by demonstrating love and respect for individuals without regard to race, creed, color, or national origin. They also seek to instill in today’s youth a respect for our flag, our national anthem, and our country’s great traditions. The CWV was founded in May of 1935 by a Catholic priest and former Army chaplain, Msgr. Edward J. Higgins of the Diocese of Brooklyn, New York. It was officially recognized as a veterans organization by the Veterans Administration in Washington in July of 1940. This is a wonderful way to show our love and appreciation to those serving our country and to show the concern and compassion the LPSCU has for our fellowman.

Dear LPSCU,
Youngstown Sister Cities would like to thank you for the donation of $150 which we received to help fund our projects. We currently have two students from Slovakia in area high schools and one student from the U.S. is now attending school in Spisska Nova Ves. Dear Ms. Gaughan,
I really appreciate your organization’s continued support for the fight against diabetes. In this tough economic climate, every dollar is a huge help to our efforts to combat this epidemic. With nearly 24 million Americans living with diabetes today, and 1 in 3 children expected to be diagnosed in their lifetime, we need to work harder than ever to educate the public about type 2 diabetes prevention.

As of this fall, I’ll have worked for the ADA [American Diabetes Association] for seven years. I was communications director in Boston for three years and became director of Northeast Pennsylvania in 2005. I oversee 17 counties in the northeast corner of the state, helping connect local residents to ADA services. As the local director, I organize two fall fundraising walks, oversee our School Walk program, give talks on diabetes prevention and work with local hospitals on education events. This year’s walks will be held in Dallas, Pennsylvania, on October 3, and in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, on October 24. You can register online at www.diabetes.org/stepout or by calling me.

If you have any questions, please let me know.
Thank you!

Anthony C. Bucha, a member of Boy Scout Troop 301, Colesville, Pennsylvania, received the rank of Eagle Scout on November 13, 2008. Troop 301 is chartered by Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic Church, Colesville. The Scoutmaster is Richard Thompson.

Anthony began his scouting career in 1999, earning the Arrow of Light award in Cub Scout Pack 199 at St. Joseph Church. During his years as a Boy Scout, Anthony has earned 26 merit badges, become a member of the Order of the Arrow, and participated in two High Adventures. He has also served his troop as Librarian, Patrol Leader, and Senior Patrol Leader.

For his Eagle project, Tony was responsible for modifying the Blessed Mother’s outdoor shrine at the Carmelite Monastery in Coopersburg, Pennsylvania. The 45-year-old shrine had many overgrown shrubs which Anthony’s team uprooted. The garden area was modified and redesigned with new shrubs, topsoil, and mulch. In addition, many tall trees were trimmed back. Six 24” concrete pillars were chiseled out with a jackhammer. Anthony then received two old concrete and wood benches which he refinished and positioned in the landscaping in front of the shrine. The project took over 165 hours to complete with the help of many fellow scouts, family members, leaders, and friends.

Anthony is a 2009 graduate of Allentown Central Catholic High School in Allentown, Pennsylvania, where he was president of the Ecology Club, participated in the Science Olympiad, Best Buddies, and was a member of the stage crew for the high school play. He plans on studying Computer Engineering at college in the fall.

Anthony is the son of Anthony and Jennifer Bucha. He is a member of St. Joseph Catholic Church where he has been an altar server for nine years. He is also a member of LPSCU Branch 38 in Whitehall, Pennsylvania, along with his sisters, Mary and Ann.

Once again this year, the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union would like to honor all our 2009 graduates with a photo and message in our magazine. If you know of a member who graduates this year from college, a technical or career school, high school, junior high, elementary school, or kindergarten, we would like to feature them in our September/October issue.

Please send us a picture and brief message about the graduate. Messages should not be more than 25-30 words and should include the graduate’s name, city and state, and Branch number, as well as the school and grade from which the individual is graduating. If space permits, add a brief congratulatory or informational message about the graduate. For example:

Robert Jones of Whitehall, Pennsylvania, Branch 38, graduated from Allentown Central Catholic High School in June. We’re proud of you, Rob! Love, Mom and Dad

Melanie Smith of Taylor, Pennsylvania, Branch 6, graduated cum laude from Boston College with a Bachelor of Science in Critical Care Nursing. Congratulations, Melanie!

Thomas Phillips of East St. Louis, Illinois, Branch L0179, has graduated from Kindergarten at St. James Academy. We love you, Tommy! — Grammy & Pop

Please send your photo and message to Fraternal Activities Director Cecilia B. Gaughan, 325 Florida Avenue, Whitehall, PA 18052. Please include an address and phone number or e-mail address in case we have to get in touch with a question concerning your submission. The LPSCU reserves the right to edit messages that exceed the 25-30 word limit.

Moms and dads, grandparents, aunts and uncles, godparents, siblings, friends and neighbors — we’re sure you know an LPSCU/LCA member who’s about to graduate this spring. We hope that all our members will take part in this program to honor all our member-graduates.

The deadline for submitting graduation photos and messages for our September/October issue is July 23, 2009.

A memorial concert for Trude Check Tuhy, co-founder of the Slovak Heritage Society of Northeastern Pennsylvania, was held recently, featuring a trio of young virtuosos from the Slovak Republic. The young musicians were from the Bratislava Conservatory of Music and their appearance was sponsored in part by the Slovak Embassy and World Artists Experience, Washington, D.C. The Great Hall of Wyoming Seminary was the site of the concert, hosted by the Slovak Heritage Society of Northeastern Pennsylvania and the Seminary.

The memorial concert featured classical music performed by violinist Karol Danis, 14, and his pianist brother, Norbert, 16. Included were works by Bach, Chopin, Beethoven, and Slovakian composer Eugen Suchon.

Baritone soloist Pavol Kuban, an opera graduate from Bratislava State Conservatory, opened the concert with “Angelicus” in memorial remembrance of Trude Check Tuhy and featured “Vinko, Vinko,” an encore selection from the Heritage Society tape, “Spev Sings – Trude Sings.”

An audience of 130 were spellbound by the depth and quality of the young performers from Slovakia. They were truly attentive so as not to miss one note of this high caliber performance. Each song was performed with great harmony of violin, piano, and voice, all drawing attention to the gifted young performers. The trio received a well-deserved standing ovation.

Dear Junior Members,

Have you met the lady with the green skin? You probably have, but didn’t think of her that way. She is our Statue of Liberty that has been standing tall over New York Harbor for over 100 years. The Statue was a gift to our country by the people of France in recognition of the friendship established during the American Revolution. French sculptor Frederic Auguste Bartholdi, a great admirer of American democracy, was commissioned to design the sculpture. The Statue was a joint project of America and France, with the U.S. agreeing to build the base and France responsible for the Statue itself. Lady Liberty was originally intended to be completed in 1876, but difficulty in raising funds on both sides of the Atlantic pushed the date back to 1886. Bartholdi visualized a grand monument with a glowing torch welcoming voyagers to America. The seven spikes of Liberty’s crown represent the seven seas and seven continents.

Bartholdi planned to build the Statue in France and then move it across the Atlantic. At the time, large statues were being constructed of stone, bronze and/or cast iron. This was much too heavy to ship, so he decided on copper over an iron skeleton, believing the lightweight copper would be able to withstand the harsh winds and salt air of New York Harbor. In a specially built Paris workshop, forms were made out of plaster. The model was divided into 300 sections. Carpenters then made wooden molds of each section, and metal craftsmen hammered shiny copper sheets into the molds.

The designer who engineered the Statue was Gustavo Eiffel, the designer of the Eiffel Tower. His design included a space inside for a stairway. While this was being constructed, it looked like a spider web of iron bars that contoured to the statue’s final form. After each piece of copper skin was hammered into shape, it was attached to the iron framework. We’re used to seeing the weathered green patina of the Lady Liberty today, but imagine how she looked then – like a shiny new copper penny!

The Statue was shipped in 350 individual pieces packed in 214 crates. Reconstructing her was like putting together a giant jigsaw puzzle. Thousands of rivets were needed to attach the hundreds of pieces of copper skin to the iron web. The Statue was reassembled on the awaiting pedestal in just four months.

Finally, on October 28, 1886, President Grover Cleveland unveiled the Statue at a huge dedication ceremony. This was 15 years after Bartholdi’s first trip to the United States. Lady Liberty was unveiled exactly as her proud sculptor envisioned her.

Shortly after her unveiling, the Statue of Liberty’s shiny copper skin began to turn a dull brown, like an old penny, but streaked with black and green. Gradually it changed to the blue-green patina that she wears now. This is the crust that forms when a copper surface is exposed to the elements. It serves to protect Lady Liberty well from New York’s summer heat and humidity, rain and snow, as well as pollution from surrounding industry. Over time, some interior work was done to replace some badly corroded iron in her web structure, and a glass elevator was installed.

The United States Lighthouse Board had responsibility for the operation of the Statue of Liberty until 1901. In 1933, the care and administration of the National Monument was transferred to the National Park Service.

In 1982, fundraising began through private sector donations to raise the $87 million needed to restore the Statue and neighboring Ellis Island, also under National Park Service jurisdiction. The money was raised through a public/private partnership between the National Park Service and the Statue of Liberty-Ellis Island Foundation, Inc., the most successful such partnership to date in American history. The newly restored statue re-opened to the public on Liberty Weekend, July 5, 1986.

The Statue was closed completely following the tragedy of September 11, 2001. While Liberty Island, on which the Statue stands, reopened to the public after 100 days, Lady Liberty herself did not again receive visitors until August 3, 2004. Even then, access was only to the Statue’s pedestal observation deck, promenade, and museum.

Just recently, Department of the Interior Secretary Ken Salazar announced that the Statue of Liberty’s crown will once again be open to the public beginning on July 4th of this year. Because space in the crown is limited and the narrow 168-step circular stairway can only accommodate so many people at a time, admission to the crown will be through means of a lottery, giving everyone an equal chance to access the top. Maybe you’ll be one of them one day!

Fun Summer Activities

There is nothing better than gathering the family together for a summer picnic. Use your leftovers and it shouldn’t cost you a dime. Or ask family and friends to bring a dish to share.

Kids love to perform. Put their energy to use and give them some ideas to show off their talents. Can they sing (or lipsync), dance, twirl a baton, do gymnastics, or play an instrument? Put on a show for your picnic guests. Everyone can be a star. Take some time beforehand to help the kids rehearse.

Make costumes from old gowns, Halloween costumes, or assorted clothing. You will be surprised at all the fun they – and you – will have. Make sure they have an audience. Grandma and Grandpa, aunts, uncles, cousins, and neighbors can enjoy the show. Serve some homemade lemonade and snap photos of the performers with your camera.

No matter what you do this summer, remember that you don’t have to spend money to have fun with your kids, and you’ll create memories that will last a lifetime.

SHELL CANDLES

Here’s a fun thing to do with all those shells you gathered during your seaside vacation. Let’s make this candle with them. An adult can help you with controlling the wax.

This is what you will need:

- ½ inch rope cut in 30 inch lengths
- Wicking and wick tabs
- Hot glue gun
- One large conch-type shell
- Large spaghetti pot
- Disposable foil roasting pan
- Paraffin (1 pound makes 6-8 candles)
- Ladle

Prepare the base of your candle ahead of time. Twist the rope into a coil and hot glue it to the bottom of the large conch shell, leaving the open part of the shell facing up. Check the shell for holes and repair them with hot glue.

With an adult’s supervision, make your own double boiler by setting a foil pan snugly into the mouth of a large pot. Never put the container of wax directly on the flame! Fill your pot until the water reaches halfway and heat on the stove burner. Now drop the wax into the foil pan. You can add pieces of crayon for color. Once the wax is melted, turn off the heat.

Take a 10-inch length of wicking and a wick tab. Thread the wick through the wick tab and press it down to crimp the wick in place. Take the wick, wrap it around the pencil, and suspend it over the opening in the large shell, placing the wick tab inside the opening. Now you can carefully ladle the hot wax into the shell. After the wax has set and hardened, you can hot glue other smaller shells to decorate around the base of the large shell.

Kids in the Kitchen

PEACH BERRY PARFAIT

A juicy peach is one of summer’s sweetest pleasures. Drop fresh peach slices and blackberries or raspberries into a frosted parfait glass. Add a scoop of frozen yogurt, ice cream, or sherbet. Top with more fruit and serve.

PEACH CRUMBLE

First, make the topping by combining ½ tsp. of nutmeg, one teaspoon of cinnamon, a pinch of brown sugar, and pinch of salt in a bowl. Cut in 4 teaspoons of butter and mix with your fingers until crumbly. Set aside.

Peel and slice about 6 fresh peaches into a buttered 1-quart baking dish. Cover with the topping and bake at 450 degrees for 20 minutes. Serve warm with ice cream or whipped cream.

Summertime

It’s the time of year when the thermometer climbs and everyone heads outside. The sun is shining and we all want to go out and enjoy it. But let’s be smart about it! Here are some tips to keep you and your family safe and comfortable in the hot weather:

- Drink plenty of fluids. Be especially sure to replenish your fluids after exercising, working hard outside, or excessive sweating. Water or sports drinks are best.
- Dress properly. Cover as much of the skin as possible. When the sun’s rays are strongest, wear dark colors because they prevent more harmful rays from reaching your skin. Pay extra attention to your clothes if you are fishing or if you are in the water. Wet fabric is less protective than dry fabric. Outdoor clothing that is treated with special UV protectorants is a good investment if you spend a lot of time in the sun.
- A hat is one of the most essential items for sun protection. Pick one with at least a three- to four-inch brim all around to protect the areas that are often exposed like your nose, forehead, and tops of your ears.
- Research has shown that long hours in the sun without adequate eye protection increases the chances of developing eye diseases. Wear sunglasses that block 99 to 100% percent of harmful rays. Keep in mind that children need a smaller version of real protective adult sunglasses.
- Don’t leave the house without sunscreen! Apply it generously and use at least an SPF of 30 which will block out 97% of burning UV rays. Reapply frequently during the day, especially if you’re in and out of the water. And don’t forget your lips. Use lip balm with an SPF of 30 or higher to protect them.
- UV rays are most intense during midday, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. when the sun is highest in the sky. If you are unsure about the sun’s strength, take the shadow test: If your shadow is shorter than you, the sun is highest in the sky. It is best to stay out of the sun during these times if at all possible.
- There are many ways to keep insect bites at a minimum when you go out. Don’t wear perfumes or other strong scents that can attract bees. To keep mosquitoes from bugging you, avoid being outside around dusk and dawn when they are most active. Use a citronella candle on your deck or patio. The scent keeps mosquitoes at bay.

Take some common sense precautions and you’ll have a safe and healthy summer.
First and foremost, the Mass was for John Marie Vianney the great joy and comfort of his priestly life. He took great care, despite the crowds of penitents, to spend more than a quarter of an hour in silent preparation. He celebrated with recollection, clearly expressing his adoration at the consecration and communion. He accurately remarked: “The cause of priestly laxity is not paying attention to the Mass!”

The Curé of Ars was particularly mindful of the permanence of Christ’s real presence in the Eucharist. It was generally before the tabernacle that he spent long hours in adoration, before daybreak or in the evening; it was towards the tabernacle that he often turned during his homilies, saying with emotion: “He is there!” It was also for this reason that he, so poor in his rectory, did not hesitate to spend large sums on beautifying his Church. The appreciable result was that his parishioners quickly took up the habit of coming to pray before the Blessed Sacrament, discovering, through the attitude of their pastor, the grandeur of the mystery of faith.

John also had the courage to denounce evil in all its forms; he did not keep silent, for it was a question of the eternal salvation of his faithful people: “If a pastor remains silent when he sees God insulted and souls going astray, woe to him! If he does not want to be damned, and if there is some disorder in his parish, he must trample upon human respect and the fear of being despised or hated.” This responsibility was his anguish as a parish priest. But as a rule, “he preferred to show the attractive side of virtue rather than the ugliness of vice,” and if he spoke – sometimes in tears – about sin and the danger for salvation, he insisted on the tenderness of God who has been offended, and the happiness of being loved by God, united to God, living in his presence and for him. Certainly for these, and many other reasons, we can understand why both the late Pope John Paul II and Pope Benedict hold Saint John Marie Vianney in such high esteem, especially as a role model for all priests.

During this “Year of the Priest,” I invite you to pray for your priests who, day in and day out, try their best to serve God and God’s people. In particular, pray that our priests, like Saint John Marie Vianney, would not simply content themselves with the ritual carrying out of the activities of daily ministry. Rather, pray that God would strengthen our priests to daily grow in their desire to become more like Christ, the High Priest. Above all, let us ask the Holy Spirit to call to the Church’s service many more priests of the caliber and holiness of the Curé of Ars. In our time, the Church has so great a need of faithful and holy priests. Please pray for vocations and encourage those who are attempting to seriously live their priestly vocation! Saint John Vianney, pray for us … and our priests!
