Spiritual Advisor’s Message

“Choosing the Better Part”

This summer, as we journey through the liturgical season known as Ordinary Time, when we gather for Mass on Sunday (or Saturday evening), we will hear proclamations from the Gospel of Saint Luke. On Sunday, July 18, 2010, we will hear one of my favorite stories from all of Sacred Scripture: the story of Martha and Mary in their home at Bethany (Luke 10: 38-42). We have heard this story many times and a challenge for us is to see how the activity of the two sisters can teach us much about how to be healthy and effective followers of Jesus.

Apparently Martha, Mary, and their brother, Lazarus, were very close friends of Jesus. Jesus was a frequent visitor to their home and no doubt appreciated the warm hospitality that was always extended to him and his followers. During one particular visit, Martha was very busy, preparing their home for Jesus’ visit. While Martha was busy cooking, cleaning, and preparing, her sister, Mary, simply sat at the feet of Jesus and listened to him teach and speak. Frustrated, believing that her sister was simply wasting time, Martha complains to Jesus and demands that he tell Mary to get up and get busy in assisting with the many details of hospitality. Jesus simply responds by basically telling Martha to “relax” (or “chill out”) and also affirms that Mary has chosen the “better part.”

Jesus never really defines what the “better part” is; how do we understand what he is speaking about here, in reference to Mary’s choice to simply sit at his feet? Many scripture scholars and spiritual writers will speak symbolically about Martha and Mary and propose that, in regard to discipleship, Martha represents the active life and Mary represents the spiritual or contemplative life. Martha is a “do-er” and Mary is a “be-er.”

We know that we are all supposed to be busy, doing the work of the Lord and sharing his love, so why does Jesus seem to favor what Mary is doing over the activity of Martha? Certainly, no one would deny that Martha’s work is very important and necessary for a successful visit. Do we believe that Martha is justified in her frustration over what she believes is simply Mary wasting time? What is the “better part”? While it is true that the life of a disciple of Jesus must be marked by activity on behalf of God and others, the activity must be rooted in a solid prayer life or it simply becomes a series of disconnected events and moments. The “better part” is Mary’s decision to sit, quietly at prayer, at the feet of Jesus to listen to him and to take to heart what he is teaching. Mary is simply enjoying being in the presence of God. In her prayer and listening, Mary begins to discern how she can put into practice his teachings and how she can be an instrument of God’s love for others. Then, after creating this solid foundation, based on prayer, she can go out and be active like her sister, Martha.

Perhaps it might also be helpful to focus on Martha and Mary from the perspective of “giving” and “receiving.” Martha is a giver; she is acting on behalf of others, seeking to care for their needs. There is certainly nothing wrong with that! But, if Martha simply gives and gives and gives, without taking time to rest in the Lord and to listen to his voice, she will no doubt get burned out, frustrated, angry, feel unappreciated, etc. — sound familiar? The Marthas of this world sometimes find it hard to be receivers. It is said that it is more blessed to give than to receive, but as Martha points out by the criticism of her sister, it is infinitely more difficult to receive than it is to give. Receiving makes one beholden to the giver, it cuts away autonomy, and it makes one, in some sense, dependent on someone else and, at times, may even force us to slow down. Giving is power; receiving implies need and weakness. The Marthas of this world are busy doing good and necessary things but sometimes so occupied in the giving that they do not have the time to realize how frequently and deeply they themselves stand in need.

In choosing the “better part,” Mary is willing to be a receiver. Sitting at the feet of Jesus in quiet listening is a wonderful way not to let the pursuits of everyday life get the best of us. Even the Energizer Rabbit needs a break! Taking time, like Mary does, allows us the opportunity to see the hand of God in all things and enables us to be grateful for all that our Loving Creator has given to us — our family, our friends, our faith, our work, etc. If we can slow down enough, as did Mary, we are more capable of recognizing the MANY blessings that God has so graciously bestowed upon us. As important as all our activity is, if we just keep going and going and going, we might miss those blessings, and, sad to say, even take them for granted.

As a receiver, Mary is encouraging us to take time to pray — and not always to use many words in our prayer — just to simply sit and be in God’s presence. Sitting quietly and simply listening to God is not easy for many of us. We like to keep rattling off words or think that we always need to be “doing” something, even in our prayer. The “better part” is choosing to be at peace with God and to relax as God speaks words of encouragement and love to our hearts. How hard it is to hear those positive words when there is too much noise and activity going on!

During these summer days, Jesus invites each of us to make a place in our lives for the “better part” — welcoming the joy and love of our God. He invites us to slow down and not worry so much about the quantity of things and activity, but to really focus on the quality of life that can be ours, especially in our relationships. As we find strength and new insights through our quiet time with the Lord, we are then

REVEREND DIANISKA DISTRICT

The Rev. Dianiska District held its first meeting of the year on Sunday, April 11, 2010, at St. Mary Help of Christians Church in Pittston, Pennsylvania. Chuck Simalchik welcomed everyone on behalf of host Branches 7 and 214.

Financial Secretary Marge Zinkavich read the roll call. Barbara Kalish read the Secretary’s Report and Debbie Adamchak gave the Treasurer’s Report. Both reports were approved. Barbara Kalish read correspondence that included many thank you cards from members and acknowledgment and thanks for the following: The American Red Cross for our donation to Earthquake Relief in Haiti; Jen’s House for the monetary gift from our Christmas raffle; The Wyoming County Food Pantry for the non-perishable foods collected at the Christmas Party; and the St. Vincent DePaul Kitchen for our donation of socks and gloves from Make a Difference Day.

The following items were discussed/acted upon:

Mary Ann asked everyone to sign the card being passed around. It will be sent to Monsignor Beeda.

Members were reminded to mark their calendars for upcoming District events published in the Zornicka under the Calendar of Events section and to read the individual articles.

On May 8, the District will participate in Join Hands Day by volunteering once again at The Laurels Skilled Nursing and Rehabilitation Center. Guests and staff at the center are very excited to have the District returning. As an ongoing project for Join Hands Day, Barbara Kalish sends a variety of greeting cards to the staff at The Laurels for them to distribute to residents who may not otherwise receive cards. Members were very happy to hear about that gesture and the continuing support of The Laurels.

The District’s Annual Youth Bowling Party will be held on July 24 at Modern Lanes in Exeter, Pennsylvania, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. Hope and Lori Napkora are co-chairs for the event. Branch Secretaries are asked to call Hope Napkora by July 19 with all the information required.

Members voted to donate to the Slovak Catholic Federation’s Annual Appeal.

In the absence National President Theresa Kluchinski, President Ewasko discussed the concerns of the Board that premium income is low and the campaign for 2010 is off to a slow start, most likely due to the economy. Branch Secretaries and members were urged to increase policy sales.

Announcement was also made that the Fraternal Societies of Northeast Pennsylvania is sponsoring Flag Day at PNC Stadium on June 14. The outing includes dinner and the ball game.

The next meeting is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. on May 23 at St. Mary’s of the Immaculate Conception Parish Hall, 134 S. Washington Street, Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. Branches 6 and 48 will host the meeting.

REVEREND DIANISKA DISTRICT

The Rev. Dianiska District held its second meeting of 2010 on Sunday, May 23, at St. Mary’s Church of the Immaculate Conception Hall in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. Theresa Kluchinski welcomed everyone on behalf of Branches 6 and 213.

The meeting was called to order by District President Mary Ann Ewasko. She led the members in prayers for sick and deceased members of our District. The Pledge of Allegiance followed.

Financial Secretary Marge Zinkavich read roll call. Secretary Barbara Kalish and Treasurer Debbie Adamchak read their respective reports, which were both approved. Secretary Kalish read correspondence and reported that the District received a lovely thank you note from the residents of The Laurels Skilled Nursing and Rehabilitation Center for our participation in Join Hands Day and that a thank you note was sent to Gerrity’s for the cake they donated to serve to the residents.

The following items were discussed/acted upon:

On May 8, members participated in Join Hands Day at The Laurels Skilled Nursing and Rehabilitation Center. The event was very successful.

The District will hold its annual Youth Bowling Party on July 24 at Modern Lanes, Exeter, Pennsylvania. Hope and Lori Ann Napkora will co-chair the event once again.

From here on, the formal name of our District will be the Reverend Dianiska District of the LPSCU. President Ewasko read the story of the namesake of our District, The Reverend Doctor Alexander Dianiska, who is also credited as being one of the co-founders in establishing the congregation of the Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius in Danville, Pennsylvania.

National President Theresa Kluchinski spoke about two new products: dental and long term care insurance. She also stated new brochures are available for Branch Secretaries.

National Secretary-Treasurer Mary Jo Savidge reminded everyone of the current campaign for recommending someone for insurance; details are in the Zornicka.

The next meeting will be held on October 17 at 1:00 p.m. at the North End Slovak Club North Main Street, Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, hosted by Branches 58, 94, and 122. Branch Secretaries were asked to contact Margaret Jollimore or Theresa Olshemski to make Branch reservations. Our special project for this meeting will be for Make a Difference Day. Members were asked to donate new socks, hats, or gloves for distribution to local charities. A slate of officers will be pulled at this meeting to be installed at the Christmas Party.

Members are asked to make full payment of their chances at the October 17 meeting or mail them with payment to Marge Zinkavich or Mary Ann Ewasko. Additional chances are available.

After the meeting was adjourned, guest speaker Paige Johnson, an AARP Consumer Protection Task Force Member, spoke to the members on “Fraud and Protecting Your Money” and instructed the group on how to watch for scams and how to be sensible with their money in these trying times. She warned of scam artists who come to your door with fantastic offers, but who only want to take your money without doing the work they promise. She suggested to everyone to get a second opinion on contracting work, or only have work done by someone whom a family member recommends; someone who can be trusted, since scam artists prey on the elderly every day. She also advised not to buy anything over the phone. It’s better to buy it yourself and not give your valuable credit card or checking account information to a stranger. After her talk, Ms. Johnson presented each of the ladies with a gift.

LPSCU Board of Directors Attends Fraternal Societies of Northeast PA Seminar

On April 7, 2010, the Fraternal Societies of Northeast Pennsylvania sponsored a seminar for board members of its member societies. The seminar concentrated on topics relevant to the fraternal industry and brought with it a number of new ideas for consideration by fraternals. The program consisted of four main speakers who touched upon subjects including investments, state regulations, board governance, and trends within the fraternal industry.

Dave DelBiondo from the Pennsylvania Insurance Department covered a number of regulatory subjects including statutory accounting topics, insurer solvency update and concerns, federal versus state regulation of insurance, and other departmental activities including record retention guidelines, new department website, proposed hazardous financial conditions standards, and fraternal risk-based capital.

Allan Ferrone from CPS Actuaries provided a comparison of fraternal financial results comparing information from 43 fraternals covering the last three years. Mr. Ferrone also spoke to Risk Based Capital (RBC) and the increased interest from State Insurance Departments to this calculation as an indicator of the financial strength of a fraternal organization.

Attorney Jeffrey Malak from the law offices of Chariton & Schwager presented information on the duties, rights, and responsibilities of a non-profit board of directors, including board process and structure, and legal obligations/rights/responsibilities of the board of directors.

The Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union is pleased to announce that Mary Ann Siska of LPSCU Branch 158, Chicago, Illinois, is our 2010 Fraternalist of the Year. She was nominated for this award by Joan Hladek, national trustee of the LPSCU.

Mary Ann has been a member of the LPSCU for 48 years and has served as an officer of Branch 158 for 27 years. She is currently secretary of the Branch. Mary Ann is very active in her Branch as well as the Illiana District, where she serves as vice president. She became very involved in Branch 158 activities many, many years ago when her uncle and then her mother were secretaries. Mary Ann, her husband George, and their son Tom have been delegates at many LPSCU National Conventions. Tom’s wife, Nancy, and daughter, Mallory, also attended several National Conventions as guests.

Mary Ann was very proud when Tom volunteered to take photos at the 2004 and 2008 LPSCU National Conventions and also at a Semiannual Board Meeting held in Palos Heights, Illinois, several years ago. Mary Ann and her family are truly dedicated and caring fraternal members of the LPSCU.

Mary Ann’s 2009 volunteer service within her community and church is truly remarkable. She transports a dear friend to and from dialysis three times a week, drives him to doctor appointments, monitors and administers his medications, and assists him with his meals and laundry. Mary Ann also runs errands for her neighbors and regularly takes one neighbor to church and back. She visits the sick in the hospital, and is always available to help her neighbors and friends whenever needed. For quite some time, she also took care of a nephew who was terminally ill with cancer.

Mary Ann coordinates, plans, and executes a monthly sing-along program at the retirement community of Autumn Green at Midway Village, where she and her husband reside. Over 50 residents attend this monthly event. With the assistance of four other members of Branch 158, Mary Ann helps to provide treats and favors for all who attend the sing-along.

On June 6, 2008, Mary Ann and her husband received the Golden Spirit Award for maintaining the quality of life in their 13th Ward. The award was presented to the Siskas for helping their neighbors and for their dedication to the community. It was signed by Michael Madigan, Speaker of the House for the State of Illinois, and presented by their 13th Ward Alderman, Frank Olivio.

In nominating Mary Ann for the 2010 LPSCU Fraternalist of the Year award, Joan Hladek stated, “Mary Ann is a true fraternalist. If I fall behind in contacting our Branches about an upcoming Okres meeting or event, the first person to call me is Mary Ann Siska to remind me to get meeting or event notices in the mail.”

Truly, Mary Ann Siska has exhibited extraordinary acts of fraternalism within her Branch and the Illiana District, and outstanding volunteer service within her church and community to qualify for the distinct honor of being named the 2010 LPSCU Fraternalist of the Year.

Congratulations, Mary Ann! The LPSCU is very proud of you.
Father Phil Altavilla’s life has been a string of unique, rewarding, and challenging experiences. The last 18 years as a priest have been especially fulfilling.

“I like being of service to God and the Church,” he says. “I am a person who likes to be busy – not just doing lots of ‘things,’ but being able to work to make the Gospel message known, in a variety of experiences. Because of this desire to ‘work,’ no two days in almost 18 years have been the same! I really enjoy the fact that each day has been a unique opportunity to share God’s love with others.”

He has been able to do just that in a number of different roles.

Father Altavilla, who recently turned 44, also has been an assistant pastor at St. Mary of Mt. Carmel in Dunmore; Holy Trinity in Nanticoke; and St. Patrick, Holy Cross, St. John the Baptist, and Immaculate Heart of Mary Chapel in Scranton.

He served as pastor of Immaculate Conception and St. John Baptist in Taylor from 2000-2004, and then pastor of St. Thomas More, Lake Ariel-St. Mary, Ledgedale for the next three years. For briefer periods he was assigned to administer Nativity of Our Lord, Scranton, and St. Paul of the Cross, Scranton.

Father Altavilla says that being involved with the Slovak Catholic Federation “has also allowed me to get a sense of the universality of the Church. One of the major ministries of the Federation is to support the Pontifical College of Sts. Cyril and Methodius in Rome, which is the residence for priests from Slovakia who study in Rome and then return to Slovakia to teach in seminaries and become the future leadership of the Church in that country. I have visited Slovakia once and look forward to returning.”

All of these experiences have formed this active priest, and taught him that “being a priest was not only about praying, celebrating Mass and the Sacraments – it is also about getting involved in the messiness of life, especially the lives of the people we are sent to serve.”

That has not always been easy, Father Altavilla admits, and on some of the particularly challenging days he even begins to wonder if he made the right vocational choice.

But it’s on those tough days that he remembers to trust in his personal motto: “God provides.”

“I believe that God really does give me the strength to keep going. Each day thus far has been an adventure, and I like it that way!”

Nicole was recently recognized in the United States Achievement Academy National Award Yearbook as a National Science Merit Award winner. The Academy’s selection criteria include academics, citizenship, leadership, and dependability. Her nomination was presented by educator Steven W. Moritz.

Nicole’s activities include Girl Scouts, karate, lacrosse, her school’s literary magazine, and the school play. She has received a Daughters of the American Revolution Award and is on the Honor Roll at her school.

In 2009, Nicole won second place in the State of Maryland International Reading Association’s Young Author Contest in the 7th Grade Poetry category. She received the award for her poem entitled “Number 5,” which she wrote about the birth and arrival home of her youngest brother, Connor.

Nicole’s parents are Maryann and James E. Tomasic, Jr., of Dameron, Maryland. Nicole, her sister Megan, and brothers Ryan, Brendan, and Connor, are members of LPSCU Branch 52, North Braddock, Pennsylvania, where their grandfather, Jim Harcarik Tomasic, is secretary.

The LPSCU congratulates Nicole on her Confirmation as well as her outstanding achievements and awards.

LPSCU To Honor Its 2010 Graduates

Once again this year, the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union would like to honor all our 2010 graduates with a photo and message in our magazine. If you know of a member who graduates this year from college, a technical or career school, high school, junior high, elementary school, or kindergarten, we would like to feature them in our September/October issue. Please note, the honoree’s graduation must take place in calendar year 2010.

Please send us a picture and brief message about the graduate. Messages should not be more than 25-30 words and should include the graduate’s name, city and state, and Branch number, as well as the school and grade from which the individual is graduating. If space permits, add a brief congratulatory or informational message about the graduate. For example:

Robert Jones of Whitehall, Pennsylvania, Branch 38, graduated from Allentown Central Catholic High School in June. We’re proud of you, Rob! Love, Mom and Dad

Melanie Smith of Taylor, Pennsylvania, Branch 6, graduated cum laude from Boston College with a Bachelor of Science in Critical Care Nursing. Congratulations, Melanie!

Thomas Phillips of East St. Louis, Illinois, Branch L0179, has graduated from Kindergarten at St. James Academy. We love you, Tommy! — Grammy & Pop

Please send your photo and message to Fraternal Activities Director Cecilia B. Gaughan, 325 Florida Avenue, Whitehall, PA 18052. Please include an address and phone number or e-mail address in case we have to get in touch with a question concerning your submission. The LPSCU reserves the right to edit messages that exceed the 25-30 word limit.

Moms and dads, grandparents, aunts and uncles, godparents, siblings, friends and neighbors — we’re sure you know an LPSCU/LCA member who’s about to graduate this spring. We hope that all our members will take part in this program to honor all our member-graduates.

The deadline for submitting graduation photos and messages for our September/October issue is July 20, 2010.

The Slovak Embassy was rated among the top visited sites of the 2010 European Union Open House as more than 3,500 guests came to its premises in Washington, D.C., on May 8, 2010. The Embassy joined the European Union Delegation and 26 other diplomatic representatives of the EU Member States in opening their doors to the public from the wider Washington area. The event has become a very popular and highly anticipated annual celebration of Europe in the U.S.

The Slovak Embassy offered its visitors authentic live folk music and dance, traditional food, film, art, and fun for the whole family. These irreplaceable elements of Slovakia’s presentation in the U.S. were further enhanced by an exhibit of Slovak modern art, graphics, and sculptures by Dusan Grecner and Zdeno Mayercak, as well as handcrafted art. More than 3,000 servings of gnocchi (little dumplings) with sauerkraut (strapacky) were served, along with Slovak beer and wine. Throughout the day, the folk group “Pajtasi” from New York carried away the audience with their lively performance of Slovak folk music.

Our gratitude also goes to Lucia Maruska Levendis of the Washington Chapter of American Sokol and her traditional children’s dance group for presenting an unforgettable performance in traditional Slovak costumes (kroj).

The home-like atmosphere triggered a sincere and broad interest in Slovakia, its people, culture, traditions, economy, and tourism.

This was the fourth time that the 27 EU Member States and the European Union Delegation have jointly organized an EU Open House to provide the general public a rare look inside their embassies. The EU Open House, the single biggest celebration of the EU in the world, demonstrated the EU’s motto of “unity through diversity” by showcasing the range and richness of EU countries.

Among those confirmed was Michael DeFazio, a member of LPSCU Branch 38. Michael chose his grandfather, Thomas F. Gaughan, as his sponsor and the name Kevin as his confirmation name. Mr. Gaughan is also a member of Branch 38.

A reception followed the ceremony in the parish community center.

Slovakia Appoints Additional Honorary Slovak Consul

Martin Valko, an immigration attorney in Dallas and Fort Worth, was recently appointed the Slovak Honorary Consul for Texas. This is the 11th Slovak Honorary Consulate currently in the United States. There are 25 honorary consulates located in Dallas. At 36, Martin is the youngest of the 148 Slovak Honorary Consuls in the world, serving 83 countries.

Mr. Valko is well acquainted with diplomatic responsibilities since his father served as Ambassador for the Slovak Republic to several countries. Born in Levoc, Slovakia, Martin came to the United States in 1991. He is now a partner in the law firm of Chavez & Valko. Martin is fluent in Slovak, Czech, and English. He is also conversant in Russian.

The 3 Payment Life Plan

The 3 Payment Life Insurance Plan offered by the LPSCU is an economical and beneficial plan for anyone from age 0 to 85. Under this plan, there is a minimum purchase of life insurance. For those age 0-70, the minimum purchase is $5,000; for ages 71-85, the minimum purchase is $2,000. Premiums are payable for three years from issue date. If the insured dies within the 3-year period following the issue date, no additional premiums are due and payable, and the face amount of the certificate is paid to the named beneficiary (except as provided within the contract regarding Suicide and Contestability).

The plan allows for premium payments to be made monthly, quarterly, semiannually, or annually. The certificate becomes fully paid at the end of three years, and coverage remains in full force and effect for the entire life of the insured without any additional premium payments required. Upon the death of the insured, the face amount of the certificate is paid to the insured’s named beneficiary.

A member with a 3 Payment Life Plan is entitled to all fraternal benefits of the LPSCU including educational awards, youth and adult activities, newborn benefits, prescription discount card, official publication, and discount car rental.

The 3 Payment Life Plan is perfect for both youth and adults – especially anyone who prefers to have their life insurance paid within three years.

During these unstable economic times, the 3 Payment Life Plan offered by the LPSCU is economical and beneficial for estate planning and can especially help with the high cost of funeral expenses.

To apply for this specific plan, or any other insurance plan offered by the LPSCU, contact your Branch Secretary or the LPSCU Home Office.

Listed below are the Annual and Monthly Premium Schedules for the 3 Payment Life Insurance Plan. The premiums listed are based on $1,000 of life insurance coverage. Semiannual and Quarterly premium rates are also available by contacting your Branch Secretary or the Home Office.

Since 1978, the Slovak Catholic Federation has been conducting the SS. Cyril and Methodius Appeal, which begins each year in the month of February during the closest weekend to the Feast of SS. Cyril and Methodius. To date, I am happy to report that $18,325.24 has been collected. This year’s Appeal continues until the end of calendar year 2010.

Now in its 32nd year, the Appeal has primarily been taken up in parishes of Slovak heritage in the United States and Canada. As we are all very much aware, the days of “ethnic parishes” are becoming a thing of the past. More and more Slovaks reside in different parts of the country and no longer claim to belong to a parish of Slovak heritage. For this reason, many Slovaks may not have the opportunity to hear about, let alone participate in, this Annual Appeal. If it were not for the Slovak Catholic fraternal societies and their publications, communication to American and Canadian Slovaks would not be possible. In recent years we have seen an increase in individual donations apart from the parish collections. Also, most of the Slovak fraternal societies have been making contributions to this collection from their National Board of Directors, along with a number of local branches, wreaths, assemblies, and lodges.

For as you know, this Appeal assists the Church in Slovakia by supporting the training mission of the Pontifical Slovak College of SS. Cyril and Methodius in Rome, Italy (formally known as the Slovak Institute or Ustav). In addition, funds are distributed to those Religious communities of both men and women which share a counterpart which belongs to the Conference of Slovak Religious. These communities include the Vincentian Sisters of Charity (Ruzomerok), Dominican Sisters (Dunajska Luzna), School Sisters of St. Francis (Zilina), Daughters of St. Francis (Bratislava-Prievoz), Byzantine Catholic Sisters of St. Basil the Great (Secove and Presov), Franciscan Friars Minor (Bratislava); and House of St. Benedict (Bacurov).

As various groups will be holding summer picnics as well as national fraternal conventions, I ask that consideration be given to kindly taking up a collection in support of the Slovak Catholic Federation Appeal. All donations are tax deductible. In 2009 this Annual Appeal totaled $50,322.49.

Individuals, groups, picnics, etc., are all welcome to make a donation to this Appeal. Make all checks payable to: Slovak Catholic Federation and send directly to SCF National Secretary-Treasurer Dolores Evanko, 173 Berner Avenue, Hazleton, PA 18201.

I pray that Almighty God reward all of us who participate in the support of the Church in Slovakia through the Slovak Catholic Federation’s 32nd Annual SS. Cyril and Methodius Appeal.

What Do the Holidays Mean to You?

The LPSCU is planning to publish What the Holidays Mean to Me in the November/December issue of Zornicka. We invite all our members to be a part of it. Surely there are some sights, sounds, smells, tastes, or memories that bring Christmas to mind. Share your feelings about the holidays in a few words (not more than 30) and send them to us before September 15, 2010.

Send your thoughts to: Fraternal Activities Director Cecilia B. Gaughan, 325 Florida Avenue, Whitehall, PA 18052 or email to: cbgaughan@msn.com.
Once again this year, the LPSCU is sponsoring a Veterans’ Day Honorarium/Memorial Program to appear in the November/December issue. If you missed this wonderful tribute to our veterans and active military in past years, don’t pass up this chance to participate.

Through our Veterans’ Day Honorarium/Memorial listings, the LPSCU is affording our members an opportunity to honor loved ones, co-workers, friends, and neighbors who are presently serving in our military, and to remember those veterans who have served in any branch of the service in the past.

Tributes will be limited to 2-5 lines and should not exceed 25-30 words. There is no charge for placing a message, but a good will donation of $5.00 per listing would be appreciated.

In keeping with the benevolent and fraternal nature of our Catholic organization, all proceeds from these tributes will again be donated to the Catholic War Veterans, an organization whose primary objective is to make the entire nation aware of the struggle and needs of many veterans, their widows and children. The CWV cooperate fully with all veterans organizations to better serve the interests of the men and women who served in each of the wars in which our nation has been involved. Further, as a Catholic organization, the CWV strives to serve God by demonstrating love and respect for individuals without regard to race, creed, color, or national origin. They also seek to instill in today’s youth a respect for our flag, our national anthem, and our country’s great traditions. The CWV was founded in May of 1935 by a Catholic priest and former Army chaplain, Msgr. Edward J. Higgins of the Diocese of Brooklyn, New York. It was officially recognized as a veterans organization by the Veterans Administration in Washington in July of 1940. To learn more about the CWV and their mission, visit their website at www.cwv.org.

A few examples of Honorariums/Memorials follow:

In honor of our son serving in Iraq,
Marine Gunnery Sgt. Jack Gibbs
We pray every day for your safe return home.
Your loving parents, John and Mary Gibbs

In honor of my husband,
Lt. Harmon Elliott
presently serving his country in the U.S. Navy.
With love and pride from your wife Sara

In memory of our father,
Pfc. Arthur Bauer
who served with the U.S. Army in Korea.
We love and miss you – Tom and Chrissy

Tribute messages, along with all donation checks (made payable to “Catholic War Veterans”), should be mailed to Fraternal Activities Director Cecilia B. Gaughan, 325 Florida Avenue, Whitehall, PA 18052. If you have any questions, contact Ceil at 610/433-4610 or e-mail CBGaughan@msn.com.

Deadline for submitting a veterans/military tribute is September 15, 2010.

We hope that many of our members will participate in this worthwhile fraternal activity which allows them to honor their family members, friends and neighbors who were members of the armed forces and/or those who are presently serving our country in Iraq, Afghanistan, Kosovo, and other parts of the world. This is a wonderful way to show our love and appreciation to those serving our country and to show the concern and compassion the LPSCU has for our fellowman.

Emily Oberts, 93, died on March 18, 2010, at Sunnyhill Nursing Home in Joliet, Illinois, where she was a resident for 8½ years. Born in Red Lodge, Montana, she was the daughter of the late Joseph and Kristina Brnca. She came to the Joliet area as an infant.

Emily was a member and past president of SS. Cyril and Methodius Parish’s Altar and Rosary Society and the Young Timers Club. She served as an election judge in Will County for many years.

Emily was a long-time member of LPSCU Branch 28 in Joliet. She served as secretary and treasurer of the branch for many years. All of her children are members of Branch 28.

Surviving are two sons, William of Joliet and Thomas of Plainfield, Illinois; one daughter, Lorraine Brandolino of Joliet; two sisters, Mary Rubocki of Texas, and Valeria Wittenkeller of Lockport, Illinois; and one brother, Raymond Brnca of Joliet. She is also survived by eight grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. She was predeceased by her husband, Adolph, in 1958; three brothers, Stephen, Joseph, and Daniel Brnca; and one sister in infancy.

Visitation was held at the Tezak Funeral Home in Joliet on March 21. A celebration of Emily’s life was held the morning of March 22 with prayers at the Tezak Funeral Home, followed by a procession to SS. Cyril and Methodius Cemetery Chapel where a Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated.

The LPSCU is saddened by the loss of our beloved and dedicated member, Emily Oberts. We extend sincere sympathy to her family and the members of Branch 28. May she rest in peace.

TRACY BASDEN FONDLY REMEMBERS HER FATHER, Eddie, as a fun-loving parent with a boundless supply of energy. Tracy's mother had died when she was 4 and just weeks after her brother, Matthew, was born. That left Eddie to raise the kids by himself, a role he assumed with gusto. A Philadelphia-area contractor who never made much money, Eddie had a gift for making the ordinary seem extraordinary. “He would turn going food shopping into something fun,” Tracy recalls.

The family’s life changed, however, when Eddie was diagnosed with Hepatitis C. When he could no longer work, Tracy dropped out of high school to care for her dying father. And when he passed away, just after she turned 18, she became legal guardian to her 14-year-old brother. “I went from being his sister to, essentially, his parent,” she says. “I was saying things to him that, months earlier, my dad was saying to us.”

After his wife had died with no life insurance, Eddie purchased a policy. But he let it lapse when money was tight. He later took out a small policy when he first became ill, but it covered little more than his burial expenses.

To keep the family together after her father’s death, Tracy took on a daunting set of responsibilities for a teenager. She had two full-time jobs, working 96 hours a week at one point, while still managing to cook meals and serve as a surrogate parent for her brother. She got her high school equivalency degree shortly after her father’s death and enrolled in college. But financial pressures forced her to take a semester off now and then. “I was wearing so many hats – sister, parent, student, employee – it was overwhelming,” she says.

Today, Tracy, 24, is a student at Neumann College in Pennsylvania. Because she works several part-time jobs, it will take her longer to graduate. But she’s determined to complete college and become a nurse, a profession she hopes will allow her to help other people.

Looking back, Tracy sometimes thinks of how things might have been different if her father had owned more life insurance. “I could have grieved,” she reflects. “Life insurance leaves you with the comfort to not have to worry so much about money. It’s one of those bills you have to pay. It should be right up there with your mortgage or rent.”

FOUR REASONS TO BUY LIFE INSURANCE

You don’t want to gamble with your family’s financial future. As great as you might feel today, everything can change in an instant. Ask yourself this question, “Would my loved ones suffer financially if I died tomorrow?” If the answer is “yes,” you need life insurance. It’s that simple.

The longer you wait, the more expensive it will be. Premiums rise as you get older. The longer you wait, the greater the chance you may encounter an illness or accident that could severely limit or even eliminate the possibility of buying life insurance.

If you put it off, you may never get to it. Face it. We all procrastinate. Especially when it comes to dealing with uncomfortable subjects like your death or declining health. It’s best to confront these topics now, while you still can. Life is uncertain. Tomorrow may be too late.

It’s never been more affordable. With people living longer, the cost for basic term life insurance has dropped by about 50% over the past 10 years, and other types of insurance are less expensive too. There are literally thousands of products on the market, and one is sure to fit your needs and budget.

Dear Mary Jo,

This is to acknowledge receipt of our Society's generous gift of $2,000 to the Conference of Slovak Clergy. This will be used, as agreed upon, for a partial grant to a student at the Slovak Pontifical College of Sts. Cyril and Methodius.

You have already been notified of the student’s name that is benefiting this academic year from your prior donation. I trust that he has written to express his gratitude. The Bishops of Slovakia, the Rector, along with me, are deeply grateful for the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union’s continued participation in providing grants.

In your and the Society’s generosity to the Lord and his Church, may you encounter many signs of his favor in your regard, especially during this Easter Season!

Fraternally yours in the Lord,

(Most Rev.) Joseph V. Adamec
Bishop of Altoona-Johnstown
Chairman

Dear Officers and Board Members:

Thank you for the generous gift of $100.00 which represents your annual contribution to Jankola Library. We are deeply grateful for your continued remembrance.

Actually, your concern for our Congregation and its progress spans the past century. The Library has been in existence since 1968 and you have consistently remembered our specific needs as well. For all of that, needless to say, we are deeply grateful.

Our prayers of gratitude for all you have done and continue doing, hopefully, have kept pace with your generosity. May God continue to bless you personally and as an organization committed to supporting our faith and culture.

Very sincerely yours.

Sister M. John Vianney Vranak, SS.C.M.
Director, Jankola Library

Ms. Kluchinski, National President:

I am deeply honored to be receiving the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union Scholarship. It will help me with the cost of tuition [at my chosen school].

I will be attending Marywood University. I will forward to the Home Office a certified copy of acceptance, which should be within the next three weeks.

Again, thank you for selecting me for this very prestigious scholarship. I am truly grateful.

Respectfully,

Kimber L. Batzel

Caring By Volunteering
A NEW CONTEST SPONSORED BY THE LPSCU

Each of us touches another’s life with everything we say and do. How important it is that we care about how we affect the lives around us? By being a caring volunteer, fellowship is exchanged while giving others encouragement, strength, and love. We all have a lot of love to give. We can waste it or rise in its light. “For yesterday is but a dream and tomorrow is only a vision, but today well lived makes yesterday a dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope.”

Have you made a difference in someone’s tomorrow? Let us know!

The LPSCU Volunteer Committee
WE ALL DO IT!
I do it – You do it – We all do it! What is it? VOLUNTEERING

We are looking for you to tell us what you do! The member with the most volunteer hours in each of the age categories listed below will receive a prize. We urge you to go for it! Kids in the Kitchen

The 4th of July is a grand time for a picnic – and so is the rest of July and August! Offer to help Mom prepare these recipes for a family gathering.

CHEESY DOUGH-DOGS

Stir 2 cups of biscuit mix and ½ cup milk together with a fork. Beat for 15 strokes and then stir in ½ cup grated Cheddar cheese. Pat the dough into a thin layer and divide into 12 parts. Roll each piece of dough into a covering around a hotdog. Wrap 1 strip of bacon around each dough-blanketed dog and fasten with a toothpick. Roast on a grill over coals until dough is golden brown.

POTATO-ONION ROAST

For each person, wash and peel 1 baking potato and 1 medium onion. Cut each into 1” slices. Spread the potato slices with butter or margarine and sprinkle lightly with salt and pepper. Reassemble each potato with alternate onion and potato slices and wrap in double thickness of aluminum foil. Roast on the coals for about 45 minutes.

Dear Junior Members,

Everyone agrees, a chuckle a day is good for you. Do you know that we acquire the ability to laugh around 4 months of age? Our sense of humor, however, doesn’t kick in until sometime around age 3. This is when we realize we can fool people. A child’s sense of humor is ripe for nurturing and should be encouraged. Having a good sense of humor and being able to laugh will serve us well throughout life.

Although we all do it, no one knows exactly what laughter is. It is, however, a universal language. No matter where you are, when you hear it, you recognize it as laughter.

Laughter has been studied by great thinkers such as Kant, Darwin, Freud, and Aristotle. But it is only recently that scholars are getting to the root of this outburst called laughter. They are trying to understand the basics: what laughter is, why we do it, and what it means.

Studies show that a typical child laughs up to 300 times a day, but adults, a meager 25 times. What are adults missing out on? Plenty! Research shows that laughter is as good for your health as it is for your state of mind. Laughing stimulates the heart and respiratory rate by increasing circulation, and also exercises the stomach muscles. According to researchers, a good belly laugh may be equivalent to a few minutes on a rowing machine.

Some of us laugh more easily and more often than others. Seeing the lighter side of life and reaping its benefits requires conscious effort. Acting cheerful may really make you feel that way. Research has shown that laughter soothes stress and reduces depression. A recent experiment showed that when people forced themselves to laugh heartily for a minute, they felt significantly happier afterward. Going through the motions can actually trigger the emotion. The body doesn’t know when a laugh is fake; it releases mood-boosting endorphins as a natural response to the physical act of laughing. These endorphins make us feel good and relieve pain.

Humor also helps us grow. When we take ourselves so seriously that we can’t lighten up for fear of looking foolish, it closes us to the adventure of trying out something new. Being able to make a joke about our mistakes relaxes the tension and heads off embarrassment.

Do you know that the world’s first academic degree in Medical Clowning is now available to aspiring healers? A sense of humor is a definite requirement. Trainee clowns go on rounds with doctors as full members of the medical team.

When little ones are in the hospital with a serious illness and you hear them giggling wildly, perhaps it’s because the doctor is in with a big red nose and smiley face stickers all over him. He isn’t worried about looking silly; he is in that room helping a little sick child feel better. So, send in the clowns! It’s good for your health, and your laughter may just be contagious.

Cecilia B. Gaughan, Fraternal Activities Director

4th of July Facts

• On July 4, 1776, America was born when the Continental Congress adopted the Declaration of Independence in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The Continental Congress had declared the Colonies free on July 2, 1776, but it took two more days for the delegates to agree on a formal document announcing their action, which is why the birth of our nation is celebrated on the 4th.

• A total of 56 members of the Continental Congress signed the Declaration. Twenty-four were lawyers, fourteen were farmers, nine were merchants, four were physicians, one a gospel minister, and one a manufacturer.

• It took Thomas Jefferson 2½ weeks to write the first draft of the Declaration.

• In 1941, Congress made the 4th of July a legal federal holiday.
Nature’s Fireworks

When we mention fireworks, most people think of the 4th of July, but the Perseids are meteors that fill the sky in August, making nature’s most beautiful “fireworks” show. Watching a meteor shower is easy and fun. All you need are your eyes, a clear night sky, and some time.

Get comfortable. Lie on a blanket or a lounge chair as far away as you can from any street lights, porch lights, headlights, or other manmade lighting sources. Dress appropriately; nights can get cool in August and you may be up in the wee hours of the morning. Allow your eyes to adjust to the night sky. Stare upwards in no particular direction. Do not use binoculars or a telescope. They will limit your view to a small section of the sky. Your own eyes are all you’ll need to catch a glimpse of the meteors. Be patient. It may take a while for meteor to appear, but then you may see a few in a row.

If your parents allow you to stay up after midnight, you’ll have the best chance of seeing more meteors because they’re more abundant after midnight. For best viewing, look to the northeast.

Every August, as the Earth orbits the sun, it collides

Facts About First Ladies

Ida McKinley, William McKinley’s wife, was the only first lady to work as a bank teller and manager. She successfully urged her husband to retain the Philippines after the Spanish-American War. Her favorite hobby was crocheting. She crocheted several thousand bedroom slippers for friends.

Edith Roosevelt – Theodore Roosevelt and his second wife were childhood sweethearts who married after the death of his first wife, Alice. Edith joined her husband in the White House upon the assassination of President McKinley. Her family read so much that they borrowed 648 books from the library in just 28 months.

Helen (“Nellie”) Taft was the first wife of William Howard Taft. She was the first first lady to own and drive a car, to ride in a car in her husband’s inaugural parade, to support women’s suffrage (right to vote), to publish her memoirs, to smoke cigarettes, and to successfully lobby for safety standards in federal workplaces. It was her idea to plant cherry trees along Potomac Drive. They’re still a tourist attraction today.

Woodrow Wilson’s first wife, Ellen Wilson, was the only professional artist to become first lady. After her death in the White House, her husband married Edith Wilson, a direct descendant of American Indian princess Pocahontas.

Warren G. Harding’s wife, Florence Harding, was the first first lady to vote, to fly in an airplane, to operate a movie camera, to own a radio, and to invite movie stars to the White House. She also was accused of poisoning her husband, who died under mysterious circumstances during his third year in office.

Grace Coolidge, the wife of Calvin Coolidge, worked as a teacher of deaf students and became the first first lady to speak in sound newsreels. She was a great whistler.

Jane Pierce, Franklin Pierce’s wife, discouraged his interest in politics and was opposed to him running for president. A tragic figure, she lost one son in infancy, another to typhus, and, two months before Pierce’s inauguration, the Pierces were aboard a train that derailed, killing their third and last son. Overcome with grief, she did not attend her husband’s Inauguration, nor handle the First Lady’s social responsibilities for nearly two years.

WORM WONDERLAND

Materials you will need:
- Large glass jar with a lid
- Dark colored construction paper
- Tape
- Scissors
- Newspaper
- A spray bottle
- Sand
- Soil
- Peat moss
- Live earthworms
- Grass or plant seeds
- Vegetable scraps

Here's what to do:

Cover your work area with newspapers. Place a pile of sand, a pile of soil, and a pile of peat moss on the paper. Fill the spray bottle with water and moisten each pile. Place a layer of sand in the jar, then a layer of soil, then a layer of peat moss. Plant some seeds at the edge. Place the worms in the jar along with some vegetable scraps for food. Poke some holes in the lid for air and screw the lid onto the jar. Cover the jar by wrapping the dark paper around it loosely and taping the ends together. This creates the dark environment that the worms like.

Wait a couple of days to let the worms get used to their new home. Then you can remove the paper tube when you want to watch the worms dig tunnels. Watch what happens to the layer of soil and how the plant roots follow the worm tunnels. Remember to mist or lightly water the soil so it doesn’t dry out too much but don’t make it too soggy. Enjoy your worm wonderland, but when you’re finished observing the worms, make sure you return them outside to the garden!
Choosing the Better Part

strengthened to go out and, like Martha, to live lives of active service on behalf of others. Our quiet time, waiting on the Lord and listening to His call, will give us the energy we need to do His work. Martha may be a model of hospitality — but Mary mirrors the Christ-like generosity of being able to receive, to surrender our own need to be in control, to put aside the work in which we find our identity in order to be the “guest” of Jesus, our Divine “host.”

If we are simply a Martha, always doing and never slowing down to enjoy life, we may find ourselves becoming a person who frets and worries, complains, becomes anxious, tired, and irritable. But, if we can see the value in being more like Mary first, sitting at the feet of Jesus in prayer, enjoying the simple blessings of life and love, then we will feel refreshed and ready to face the challenges of life with a positive outlook and a joyful heart! May God grant us the grace and wisdom to always choose the “better part” so that we can render loving service to God and God’s holy people.

Have a wonderful, refreshing, relaxing, and re-creating summer!

Rev. Philip A. Altavilla, V.E.

Over the years, Ceil has served on the Executive Boards of the Slovak World Congress, Slovak League of America, Slovak Catholic Federation, and Western Pennsylvania Slovak Radio Program. To enhance her interest in promoting her Slovak heritage, for many years she performed with the Pittsburgh Area Slovaks (“PAS”) and participated in the Pittsburgh Folk Festival, also serving on its Board of Directors.

Ceil is survived by two sons, Stephen R., of Pittsburgh, and Kenneth M. of San Francisco, California; a daughter, Cynthia Schlebusch of Robinson Township, Pennsylvania; two grandchildren, Ronnie and Stephanie Schlebusch; and three brothers, Frank Yaniga and his wife, Sandy, of North Huntingdon, Pennsylvania, Richard Yaniga and his wife, Janet, of Finleysville, Pennsylvania, and Edward Janiga and his wife, Antoinette, of Virginia. In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by a daughter, Carol Ann Bertera, and two sisters, Mary Garrity and Valerie “Dolly” Durick.

Calling hours with the family were held on June 10 and 11 from 3:00 to 8:00 p.m. at the Schleifer Funeral Chapel, 534 Jones Avenue, North Braddock. A Mass of Christian Burial was con-celebrated at 9:00 a.m. on June 12 in the Good Shepherd Roman Catholic Church in Braddock by Father Thomas Burke, pastor, Father Joseph Grosko, and Father Gregory Madeya. Interment was in All Saints Cemetery, Braddock Hills, Pennsylvania.

National officers representing the LPSCU at the funeral were President Theresa Kluchinski, Secretary-Treasurer Mary Jo Savidge, Trustee Elizabeth Melko, and Court of Appeals Secretary Janice Mathews.

The officers and members of the LPSCU are deeply saddened at the loss of our beloved fraternal sister, Cecilia Sarocky. Her dedication as an officer on the national, local, and district level is a testament to her love for the LPSCU. She not only served her offices with respect, intelligence, and integrity, but she lived for the LPSCU and her Slovak heritage. May we all be inspired by the remarkable legacy that she left to our LPSCU and the Slovak community. We express our sincere sympathy to Ceil’s family, members of Branch 42, and the Pittsburgh District. May she rest in peace.
