Members of the LPSCU were among the thousands of pro-life participants who marched in the Annual March for Life in Washington, D.C., on Friday, January 22, 2010. The peaceful demonstration marked the 37th anniversary of the U.S. Supreme Court’s Roe v. Wade decision that legalized abortion.

Bus transportation to the March for Slovak fraternalists from the Northeast Pennsylvania region was coordinated by Rev. Andrew Hvozdovic, supreme chaplain of the Slovak Catholic Sokol, and Theresa Kluchinski, national president of the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union. The trip was subsidized by LPSCU Branch 213 of which President Kluchinski is secretary.

The bus departed from Epiphany Church in Sayre, Pennsylvania, at 5:00 a.m. with 20 passengers, including Rev. Hvozdovic, who is pastor of Epiphany Church, fifteen 7th and 8th grade students from the parish school, and four parents. The next stop was in Wilkes-Barre where 13 fraternalists were picked up, including President Kluchinski, LPSCU National Spiritual Advisor Rev. Philip A. Altavilla, V.E., and LPSCU Court of Appeals member Barbara Kalish. The final stop was in Hazleton, Pennsylvania, where seven fraternalists boarded the bus, including Rev. Richard Cerba, pastor of Hazleton’s St. Joseph Church.

Before the group continued on their journey, Father Hvozdovic offered a prayer for a safe trip and expressed the hope that this would be the last time such a march on Washington would be necessary, meaning the Roe v. Wade decision had been overturned.

Even as these lines are written, the world continues to focus on the country of Haiti and its people. As we all know, the country was rocked by a magnitude 7.0 earthquake – the most powerful to hit Haiti in a century – shortly before 5 p.m. on Tuesday, January 12, 2010. The epicenter was near the town of Léogâne, approximately 16 miles west of Port-au-Prince, Haiti’s capital city. The earthquake occurred at 4:53 p.m. local time. By January 24, at least 52 aftershocks measuring 4.5 or greater had been recorded. An estimated three million people were affected by the quake; the Haitian Government stated on February 10 that an estimated 230,000 people were dead and an estimated 300,000 injured had been treated. They also estimated that 250,000 residences and 30,000 commercial buildings had collapsed or were severely damaged.

The earthquake caused major damage to Port-au-Prince, Jacmel, and other settlements in the region. Many notable landmark buildings were significantly damaged or destroyed, including the Presidential Palace, the National Assembly, the Port-au-Prince Cathedral, and the main jail. Among those killed was the Archbishop of Port-au-Prince, Archbishop Joseph Serge Miot. The headquarters of the United Nations Stabilization Mission in Haiti (MINUSTAH), located in the capital, collapsed, killing many, including the Mission’s Chief, Hédi Annabi.

Many countries and relief agencies have responded to appeals for humanitarian aid, pledging funds and dispatching rescue and medical teams, engineers, and support personnel.

The Catholic Church’s relief efforts are well represented through Catholic Relief Services (CRS). To date, CRS has provided food to more than 100,000 people in Port-au-Prince, many of whom are gathered at the city’s largest camp run by CRS. Just days after the earthquake, CRS turned a Port-au-Prince golf course into one of the first formal camps for the homeless, delivering food, water, and hygiene materials to some 40,000 people. CRS is collaborating with the local Church in Haiti and its Catholic Caritas partners, including Caritas Haiti and the Caritas Internationalis confederation. CRS has seen an overwhelming outpouring of support in response to the crisis in Haiti. “Catholic dioceses, parishes, and schools across the country started mobilizing their networks immediately, and have generously, and creatively, supported our work to help the victims in Haiti,” said Joan Rosenhauer, CRS Executive Vice President for U.S. Operations. “For that, we are extremely grateful.” To date (February 10, 2010), CRS has raised more than $38 million for its emergency response. Parishes are reporting generous second collections for Haiti; Catholic colleges and universities responded immediately by setting up special websites; Catholic schools held special Masses, prayer services, concerts and fundraisers. “We even heard of one little girl who sold all of her stuffed animals to raise donations. We really appreciate every effort, no matter how small or large,” Rosenhauer said.

As these relief efforts continue, we have heard many, many sad stories of lives lost due to this earthquake. Yet, in the midst of these tragic stories of loss, we have also been blessed to hear of lives that have been saved. We have watched as rescue workers have freed people from their captivity under the ruins, despite being buried under the rubble for many days, without food and water. The hopeful spirit of these people buried, in the tombs of darkness and despair, and the undying determination of rescue workers to search for survivors have borne fruit as those considered lost have been found.

In the midst of the MANY pictures that I have seen since the day of the earthquake and in the days that followed, the one picture that truly stands out for me is the one taken of an outdoor shrine of the Crucified Jesus, standing in front of the ruins of a church. The majestic cross of Christ stands perfectly, amazingly untouched by the destruction caused by the terrible earthquake. In this particular picture, three young Haitians riding a motorcycle pass by the church ruins. One of the riders is seen turning toward the Crucified One. What a powerful image! This shrine reminds our Haitian brothers and sisters – and us – that despite the devastation that surrounds them, God is ever-present. God’s presence is truly seen through the wonderful generosity of men and women of goodwill from all over the world who encourage the Haitian people not to lose their spirit of hope and courage as they rise from the ruins.

During these remaining days of Lent, and the Easter season which lies before us, as we continue to reflect on this profound tragedy, that picture of the Crucified Jesus amidst the ruins stands as a vivid reminder of what we truly celebrate during these days of grace, repentance, and renewal. The cross of Christ is for us the ultimate sign of surrender. After his ultimate act of self-giving, it is then from the tomb of darkness and death that Jesus bursts forth in glorified new life.

As Melissa Gayle West writes in “Okay, I Surrender,” in the Winter 2003 issue of Spirituality and Health: “Surrender is a dirty word in our controlled-focused culture. Surrender smacks of defeat and failure. Surrender is to give up, to admit that we have made a mess of things, to let go of our dreams. Continued on page 24
An Easter Message from Our Episcopal Protector

BISHOP’S RESIDENCE
Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown

"Mary stood crying outside the tomb. While she was still crying, she bent over and looked in the tomb and saw two angels there dressed in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been, one at the head and the other at the feet." (John 20:11,12)

Dear Sisters and Brothers of the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union:

For some reason, Mary Magdalene decided to look for Jesus in the tomb, among the dead rather than the living. When she turned around, however, she saw him in the garden, very much alive. That first Easter morning brought a victory for life that Jesus wants to share with all of us.

I am still reminded of the earthquake and its many aftershocks that took place in Haiti earlier this year. While the devastation was tremendous and affected multitudes, my recollection centers on the faith and hope of the Haitian people, even in the midst of great deprivation.

Individuals who were buried in the rubble for as long as two weeks related how their belief and trust in the Lord Jesus saw them through. They focused on life and not on death. Their relationship with the Lord went way beyond the material. It did not depend upon what they had or did not have.

That is as it should be. Christians are to look for their Christ in the garden and not in the tomb. The Lord's Kingdom is not of this world, as Jesus himself stated to Pontius Pilate. Once we are able to grasp and accept that our true happiness has its foundation outside of this material world, we will truly be a People of the Resurrection and our lives will be an eternal alleluia.

May this year's Easter Blessings bring a genuine resurrection into your life and into mine, in such a way that others around us will experience the presence of the Risen Lord in the midst of life's challenges.

Fraternally yours in the Risen Lord,

+ Joseph

(Most Rev.) Joseph V. Adamec

Protector, LPSCU

Rev. Dianiska District Sets Meeting Schedule

The Rev. Dianiska District announces its meeting schedule for 2010. The first meeting of the year will be held on April 11 at St. Mary Help of Christian Church Hall, Main Street, Pittston, Pennsylvania, hosted by Branches 7 and 214. Because of prior activities taking place at the church, the meeting's start time is moved to 1:30 p.m.

The District's second meeting will take place on May 23 at Immaculate Conception Parish Hall, 134 S. Washington Street, Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. Again, because of earlier church activities, the meeting will not begin until 1:30 p.m. Branches 6 and 48 will host.

The third meeting of the year will be held on October 17 at the North End Slovak Club, North Main Street, Wilkes-Barre, hosted by Branches 58, 94, and 122. This meeting will begin at its normal 1:00 p.m. time.

If you have any questions, please contact your Branch Secretary or District President Mary Ann Ewasko. Thank you.

Susan Worth
MSGR. BEEDA DISTRICT

District President Anita Gregory welcomed the 23 members and seven guests to the holiday celebration. She thanked the group for their support of all the District’s activities throughout the year.

Father Richard Cirba offered the invocation and also extended Christmas greetings on behalf of Msgr. Beeda and himself to those present as well as their families.

As everyone listened to the sounds of the season, a delicious buffet, prepared by the White Haven Bakery, was enjoyed by all. Afterwards the group played Bingo and several door prizes were raffled off.

Every year the District holds a Christmas raffle, the proceeds of which help to defray the cost of any LPSCU youth from our local Branches who wish to attend the annual March for Life (this year on January 22) in Washington, D.C. The drawing for the raffle was held during the Christmas party. Everyone’s support of this project is greatly appreciated.

As the evening came to an end, everyone was given a ceramic Christmas dish filled with candy to take home and enjoy. Sharing an evening of friendship and fraternalism truly had everyone heading home in the holiday spirit.

LEHIGH VALLEY OKRES

A meeting of the Lehigh Valley Okres was held at 1:30 p.m. on Sunday, November 22, 2009, at Incarnation of Our Lord Church Social Hall in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. The meeting opened with a prayer offered by Okres President Jean Kosalko. She extended a welcome to all and thanked them for their presence.

Okres Secretary Mary Shannon read the Minutes from the last meeting. They were approved as read. Treasurer Margaret A. Ferri presented the Financial Report, which was approved for audit.

Plans were finalized for the Holiday Luncheon to be held on Sunday, December 6, in the Lehigh Room of Best Western Hotel & Conference Center in Bethlehem. The group agreed to join Traditions of Hanover, an assisted living facility in Hanover Township, in supporting the Marines “Toys for Tots” program. Everyone was asked to donate an unwrapped toy or board game for the “Toys for Tots” project.

REVEREND DIANISKA DISTRICT

The Reverend Dianiska District held its annual Christmas party on Sunday, December 6, 2009, at the Wyoming Hose Company, Wyoming, Pennsylvania, hosted by Branches 37, 58, and 94.

The festivities started with everyone exchanging Christmas wishes by sharing Oplatky with one another. Margaret Jollimore led the tradition by reciting an Oplatky blessing. Afterwards, a delicious family-style dinner was served, followed by greetings and a game social.

National President Theresa Kluchinski wished everyone a Merry Christmas and a blessed New Year on behalf of the LPSCU.

District President Mary Ann Ewasko extended holiday greetings to members and guests. She introduced the college award recipient present, Danielle Lombardo of...
Branch and Okres News

Mary Ann also announced that Susan Worth, a member of Branch 94, was the recipient of the special drawing for recommending members to her Branch Secretary.

Susan Worth thanked everyone on behalf of the hosting Branches for attending, their gifts for the raffle, and donations for the food pantry. She announced that the recipient of this year’s door prize raffle will be Jen’s House and asked her daughter-in-law, Teresa Worth, a member of Branch 94, who stayed at Jen’s House, tell those present about the organization. Teresa explained that it is a home near the Lehigh Valley Hospital where she was able to stay for two weeks at a very reasonable rate until her newborn twins, David and Abigail (also members of Branch 94) were released from the NICU. The twins, who also attended the party until they had to go home for a nap, turned 8-months-old on that day.

Through the generosity of members and guests attending, a large amount of non-perishable food was collected.

This year’s recipient is the Wyoming County Food Pantry in Tunkhannock, Pennsylvania.

President Ewasko announced that there is one District member in a nursing home who was presented with a Christmas bouquet and she and five honorary members were remembered with Christmas Novena Mass cards.

The Reverend Dianiska District members wish everyone a healthy, blessed, and Happy New Year!

PITTSBURGH DISTRICT

The annual Pittsburgh District Christmas party was held on December 13, 2009, at the Comfort Inn, Penn Hills, Pennsylvania. Following a holiday buffet, a Chinese auction was conducted and everyone went home with a door prize. The Clover Belles and Beaus, a talented group of senior citizens, entertained with singing and dancing. In spite of the bad weather, everyone was able to join the party.

Joseph J. Matyza of Branch 42, son of Annette Williams, was a $500 LPSCU College Scholarship winner. Joseph is attending the University of Dayton in Ohio and due to class commitments, he was unable to be present at the Christmas party.
party. Pittsburgh District President Dolores Sakal presented a $50 check on behalf of the District to Joseph’s mother, and Cecilia Sarocky, secretary of Branch 42, presented a matching $50 check. Annette is also a member of Branch 42. Joseph’s late grandmother, Ann Chuckro, was also a very active member of the LPSCU and was a National Trustee for many years.

LEHIGH VALLEY OKRES

The Lehigh Valley Okres held its annual Holiday Luncheon on Sunday, December 6, 2009, at the Lehigh Room of the Best Western Lehigh Valley Hotel & Conference Center in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. A punch reception commenced at noon, followed by the luncheon at 12:30 p.m. Sixty-four members and guests attended the event.

Okres President Jean Kosalko extended a warm welcome to all present. Rev. Msgr. William T. Baker, S.T.L., pastor of Incarnation of Our Lord Church, offered an Invocation. Everyone enjoyed the delicious chicken marsala and stuffed flounder meal with all the trimmings and strawberry parfaits for dessert.

After dinner, President Kosalko introduced Okres Secretary Mary Shannon and Treasurer Margaret Ferri. She also introduced National officers present: Fraternal Activities Director Cecilia Gaughan, Public Relations Director Margaret Ferri, Honorary Vice President Mary Ann Ackerman, and former Public Relations Director Mary Ford. The local Branch officers of Allentown 38/40, Bethlehem 83/130, Hellertown 196, and Northampton 62 were also introduced. President Kosalko presented a monetary Christmas gift to Msgr. Baker.

Twelve Junior members in attendance entertained by singing Christmas songs. As they sang “Jingle Bells,” Santa Claus (John Anthony of Allentown) entered the room ringing his own jingle bells and wishing everyone a Merry Christmas. The children gathered around Santa by the beautifully decorated Christmas tree. Santa presented a nutcracker to each boy, jewelry to each girl, and a plush bear to each infant. As favors, everyone received a pack of Just Born white marshmallow snowman candies and a green bayberry votive candle to burn on Christmas Day for good luck, according to folklore tradition.

Holiday prizes were chanced off and special prizes in the annual Holiday Raffle were won by Claudine Bertalan, Evelyn Cengeri, Donna Weimer, John Rybak, Ernest John, Jeff Kosalko, Joseph Polaha, Justine Wesnak, Marge Ferri, and Tom Gaughan, III.

St. John’s Celebrates Polka Mass

On behalf of the parish, Rev. Monsignor Robert F. Kozel, pastor of St. John’s, welcomed Bishop Barres, the newly-installed Bishop of the Allentown Diocese. Bishop Barres was greeted with the traditional symbols of Slovak hospitality – bread (that you may never know hunger), salt (that your many years may always know the flavor of life), and wine (that joy and prosperity be forever yours).

Msgr. Kozel offered an inspirational homily wherein he reminded the congregation that a bishop, in the fullness of his priesthood, is called by the Holy Spirit to be God’s chosen steward of His Church. He further stated that a bishop is the chief shepherd of the faithful of the Diocese, holding fast to the authentic message of Christ.

Following the liturgy, Bishop Barres mingled with all the parishioners at a reception held at the parish.

Local Leaders Greet LPSCU Board

During the Semiannual Board Meeting of the LPSCU, held in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, from September 11-14, 2009, several officers of local fraternal societies made a visit to greet the Board.

On Saturday, September 12, at the conclusion of the Board’s morning session, Public Relations Director Margaret A. Ferri introduced the following guests who visited the Board Room to extend fraternal greetings: George Kostelnik, president of Assembly 78 of the Slovak Catholic Sokol, and Mary Shannon, Mary Ann Ackerman, and Mary Ford, president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively, of LPSCU Branch 83. After each local officer offered best wishes for a successful Board Meeting, President Kluchinski expressed her appreciation and thanks on behalf of the Board.

Prior to the start of the morning’s business session, President Elaine Molchany and Secretary Bernadine Kurzeja, officers of Northampton Branch 62, delivered a tray of home-made cookies to the Best Western for the Board to enjoy during their meeting breaks.

The LPSCU Flexible Annuity is a flexible-premium, deferred annuity that accepts ongoing deposits of as little as $100 per month.

An annuity is a long-term investment where the interest earned is accumulated and compounded.

Annuities are used to supplement retirement income, whereby at some point you stop paying into the annuity and start taking out.

Upon maturity, LPSCU offers a number of distribution options, giving our members the convenience of selecting the one that is best suited for them.

LPSCU’s competitive interest rate is reviewed quarterly by the Board of Directors; however, your rate will never go below the guaranteed minimum rate established by the annuity contract.

You can become a member of the LPSCU by purchasing an annuity and you can own an annuity regardless of your health status.

Deposits can be made at your convenience!

Minimum deposit is $100.00.

After the sixth year, there is no LPSCU penalty on annuity withdrawals.

If the annuitant dies prior to settlement, funds on deposit are payable directly to the named beneficiary(ies).

Settlement Options:
— Payment of a specified amount.
— Payments for a specified period.
— Life Annuity.

Payment options can be monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually, depending upon your needs.

Prior to settlement, annuitant may withdraw the Cash Surrender Value at any time; however, the minimum withdrawal amount is $250.00.

NOTE: Withdrawals taken prior to age 59½ may be subject to a 10% Early Withdrawal Penalty by the Internal Revenue Service.

For more information about our Flexible Annuity contact the LPSCU Home Office or your local Branch Secretary.

A JOIN HANDS DAY Reminder

JOIN HANDS DAY is the only national volunteer day that specifically targets and develops relationships between youth and adults through neighborhood volunteering. Young people and adults work together on an equal basis to plan, organize, and implement the day’s activities. Building relationships across generations restores confidence, trust, and respect for each other and creates a sense of community. JOIN HANDS DAY, which is a program sponsored by the National Fraternal Congress of America, gives fraternal benefit societies and volunteer organizations the opportunity to reach out to people they don’t know, to connect generations and develop new relationships.

This year, JOIN HANDS DAY is Saturday, May 1. Have you planned your project yet? If not, don’t wait for someone else to make the move. Contact family members, church members, fellow LPSCU members, neighbors, friends, and their children. If you can’t recruit enough participants, check around your area to see if you can combine your efforts with those of another group. There is always something you can do to make life better for another person, and in the end, you’ll both benefit!

In planning your JOIN HANDS DAY project, be sure to invite the young people in your Branch and District to participate alongside your adult members. Remember to pre-register your project on the JOIN HANDS DAY website, www.joinhandsday.org. You can also check the website for project ideas and to view and read about past JOIN HANDS DAY efforts.

We look forward to hearing from you about your group’s JOIN HANDS DAY activity. Write a short article and send it, along with a group photo or two, to the LPSCU Public Relations Director so it can be shared with our members in Zornicka.

Join Hands Day Corp., NFCA Merge

The idea for JOIN HANDS DAY was conceived during a dinner meeting at the Capitol Grill in Minneapolis, Minnesota, in 1999. At that meeting, David Larson, who served as chair of the National Fraternal Congress of America, John Dutton from the Points of Light Foundation, and Michael Stivoric of the NFCA discussed the creation of a national day of volunteer service under the flagship of the fraternal benefit system. Their goal was to engage youth and adults in planning and executing JOIN HANDS DAY events throughout American communities. Thus, JOIN HANDS DAY was created.

Michael Stivoric, chair of the Join Hands Day Corporation, and Joseph Annotti, president and CEO of the NFCA, announced that, based on the Resolution adopted by the NFCA Board of Directors, JOIN HANDS DAY, the separate corporation, is being merged with the NFCA effective January 1, 2010. The Board of Directors of the Join Hands Day Corp. voted unanimously during its meeting on December 2, 2009, to concur with the NFCA Resolution. They announced that JOIN HANDS DAY is now an annual NFCA-sponsored event and part of the NFCA budget operation. They also want to assure the fraternal benefit system that JOIN HANDS DAY is here to stay and will flourish and continue to serve our societies and communities at large.

Letters

Dear LPSCU,

I would like to thank you for the College Scholarship Award of $500. It was very much appreciated.

Saint Casimir, Patron of Lithuania

For Lithuanians, March 4th is not only the anniversary of the death of the country’s patron saint, Saint Casimir, but a national holiday as well. For the celebration of Saint Casimir’s Day in Lithuania, pilgrims travel to Vilnius, the capital, to attend Mass at the Cathedral and then celebrate at Kaziuko mugė (“Casimir’s Fair”), a large folk arts and crafts fair whose origins go back to the beginning of the 17th century. Thousands of sellers, buyers, and visitors come to this annual outdoor event, which also features music and dance. A favorite traditional product of the Kaziuko mugė is a heart-shaped honey cookie, decorated with colored sugar flowers, zigzags, dots, and birds. Oftentimes, popular men’s and women’s names are written on the cookies. Those cookies are also popular at Kaziuko mugės organized by Lithuanian scouts in Chicago and elsewhere.

The first church named in honor of Saint Casimir was built by the Jesuits near Ukmerge in Lithuania in the mid-to late-16th century. At approximately the same time, a church in the saint’s honor was also built in Vilnius. In Lithuania, there are 12 churches named for Saint Casimir. Wherever Lithuanians live in foreign lands and have parishes, one can find churches or at least chapels bearing Saint Casimir’s name. Wherever Lithuanians live in foreign lands and have parishes, one can find churches or at least chapels bearing the beloved saint’s name.

The first Lithuanian church in the United States that was named in honor of Saint Casimir was built in 1862 in Shenandoah, Pennsylvania. Saint Casimir’s name is also maintained by a congregation of nuns established in 1907 in Paterson, New Jersey.

On June 11, 1948, Pope Pius XII named Saint Casimir the special patron of all Lithuanian youth. Thus, Saint Casimir became the patron of youth not only within Lithuania, but in all countries where Lithuanian young people reside.

Lehigh Valley Okres Participates in “Toys for Tots” Campaign

On Friday, December 11, 2009, toys that were collected from Lehigh Valley Okres members at their Christmas Party were delivered by Mary Ann Ackerman, past president of the Okres, and her daughter, Marilyn Geiger of Nazareth, Pennsylvania, to Traditions of Hanover, an assisted living facility in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. Upon their arrival, Mary Ann and Marilyn were greeted by Traditions’ marketing assistant, Jennifer Murphy, and three Marine Reserves from Northampton County, Detachment 298, U.S. Marine Corps Reserves. The Marine Reserves assisted Mary Ann and Marilyn to deposit the toys in the Toys for Tots container, which was soon filled to capacity with the Okres’ donations. Ms. Murphy and Marine Reserve Joseph Pokojni, coordinator of the Toys for Tots program, were grateful for the large donation and expressed sincere thanks for the Okres’ participation in this worthwhile cause. The Marine Reserves then carried the container of toys to their vehicle for delivery to their Marine Barracks, where the toys will be prepared for distribution to needy children.

Interested to learn more about the Lehigh Valley Okres and the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union, Ms. Murphy asked Mary Ann a number of questions about our society. Mary Ann, who has been affiliated with the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union for over 60 years, was more than happy and proud to promote her fraternal organization.

Slovak Catholic Fraternalists Participate in 37th Annual March for Life

The group arrived in Washington around 11:30 a.m., meeting up with other Slovak fraternalists from the Slovak Catholic Sokol and the First Catholic Slovak Ladies Association at 8th and Constitution Avenue. The program began with a rally on the National Mall where the marchers heard speeches that centered on fighting the now-stalled healthcare reform package and ensuring that any future healthcare plans would prohibit the use of federal funding for abortion. The issue of healthcare reform dominated the speeches and prayers were heard over loud speakers. From the Mall, the actual march began at 2:00 p.m. with marchers chanting and singing their way down Constitution Avenue, up Capitol Hill, and then to the Supreme Court building. As always, the march was orderly and peaceful. While the weather forecast had predicted rain, it ended up being a dry day, with the sun appearing in the afternoon.

The night before the march, a vigil Mass was celebrated at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. With the Upper Church holding 6,000 people, the vigil Mass was an inspiring gathering of unified prayer and purpose. Participants overflowed into the side chapels and some even stood downstairs, watching the liturgy on television.

Early Friday morning, the day of the march, a youth rally was held at the Verizon Center. The rally, which was organized by the Catholic Diocese of Washington, featured bands playing religious musical numbers from the center floor, a Mass celebrated by bishops from across the country, and a “confess-a-thon” in which more than 100 priests heard confessions at stations set up in the area.

The theme for this year’s march was “Stand Up, Now – Unite for the Life Principles – No Exception – No Compromise!”

Our fraternal group left Union Station at 4:00 p.m. and enjoyed a delicious buffet at the Cozy Restaurant in Thurmont, Maryland, on the way home.

Tell Us Why Your Dad’s So Special!

With Father’s Day rapidly approaching, we thought our young members would like a chance to explain what makes their dad that special man in their lives. Is it the way he makes you laugh? The fun times you spend together playing sports or involved in a family activity? Does he always make the time to listen when you have a problem? Can he grill the world’s best hamburger or figure out the toughest math problem? In two or three sentences, why not share with our readers why your dad (or grandpa) is “The Best Dad Ever!” If you have one, send along a photo of you and Dad to accompany your letter. Please send or email your information no later than March 31st to Cecilia B. Gaughan, 325 Florida Avenue, Whitehall, PA 18052, cbgaughan@msn.com.

12 ZORNICKA
In Memoriam

Theresa M. Nishnic, Former Lehigh Valley Okres Secretary

Theresa M. Nishnic, 66, of Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, died unexpectedly on Wednesday, January 27, 2010, in her home. She was born on October 15, 1943, in Bethlehem, the daughter of the late George and Mary (Cuchran) Nishnic. She was employed in the accounting department of Durkee Foods Company in Bethlehem for more than 30 years before the company closed its business. For the past 10 years, she was a receptionist at Miller Keystone Blood Center in Bethlehem and was scheduled to retire on February 12 of this year.

Theresa was a life-long member of SS. Cyril and Methodius Church in Bethlehem (which in July of 2008 merged with four other churches under the new name of Incarnation of Our Lord). She was a lector at the church and a former cantor and choir member. She was a member of the choir that sang at the Liturgy held at St. John the Baptist Slovak Catholic Church in Allentown, Pennsylvania, for the 57th National Convention of the Slovak Catholic Federation held in April 2009. She was also a member of the parish Senior Group, serving as its vice president.

Theresa was a life-long member of the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union, Branch 83, and was former secretary of the Lehigh Valley Okres. She was a devoted and dedicated member of the LPSCU, inheriting her fraternal attributes from her mother and maternal grandmother. Her mother, Mary Nishnic, was very active in Branches 130 and 83, and her maternal grandmother, Caroline Cuchran, served as president of both Branches from 1941 to 1953. The Cuchran/Nishnic/Clauser families are currently in their 5th generation of LPSCU membership. Theresa was also a member of the National Sokols U.S.A, Wreath 66.

Theresa is survived by an uncle, Michael Nishnic, and his wife Joyce of Emmaus, Pennsylvania; niece Mary Walsh and her husband Jerry of Bernville, Pennsylvania; nephews, Stephen Clauser of Bethlehem, Francis Clauser and his wife Patricia of Dover, Delaware, and James Clauser of Allentown; great-nieces Kimberly and Mary Clauser; great-nephew Jerry Walsh; and a great-great-niece, Hailee Sara. She was predeceased by her sister, Christine Clauser, and a nephew, Christopher Clauser, both in 2008.

A viewing was held on Sunday, January 31, from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. at the Pearson Funeral Home. It was attended by many LPSCU and Okres members who also participated in the rosary that was led by choir members, followed with prayers by Msgr. William Baker, pastor of Incarnation of Our Lord Parish.

On Monday, February 1, a Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated by Msgr. Michael J. Chaback, former pastor of the former SS. Cyril and Methodius Church, at Incarnation of Our Lord Church, with Msgr. Baker as concelebrant. Msgr. Chaback was a classmate of Theresa’s from 1st through 12th grades. Adult altar servers were John and Michael Vidumsky, president and treasurer, respectively, of the parish Senior Group.

In his homily, Msgr. Chaback relayed the many fond memories he has of Theresa during their school years, and then when he became her parish pastor, how she always brought him homemade bread. He remarked how pleased he was to see so many local LPSCU officers present for her services. Officers of Branches 83 and 130 and the Lehigh Valley Okres attended the Mass in a body. Interment followed in SS. Cyril and Methodius Cemetery, Bethlehem.

The officers and members of the LPSCU are deeply saddened at the loss of our dear fraternal sister, Theresa M. Nishnic. Her dedication to her Branch and Okres is a testament to her love for the LPSCU and those who knew her remember with fondness what fun she was to be around. We extend sincere sympathy to her family. May she rest in peace.

A Fun New Contest ~

WE’RE LOOKING FOR THE LPSCU FAMILY WITH THE MOST MEMBERS!

In keeping with our LPSCU motto, “From Generation to Generation,” we are seeking the LPSCU Family that has the greatest number of current LPSCU members. (Current LPSCU family members includes parents, children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, in-laws, brothers, sisters, and their families. The family with the greatest number of current LPSCU members in its family tree will have the family’s name imprinted on a Leaf on our LPSCU Tree of Life which adorns the lobby of our Home Office in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania.

If you think your family could be the one, please complete the following FAMILY ENTRY FORM, listing the total number of current LPSCU members in your family. Mail the form to Cecilia B. Gaughan, LPSCU Fraternal Activities Director, 325 Florida Avenue, Whitehall, PA 18052 or e-mail the form to cbgaughan@msn.com before June 30, 2010. If you have any questions, call Ceil at 610/433-4610. If your family’s number turns out to be the highest, you will be contacted and asked to submit a list of family members.

Tell Us Why Your Mom’s “The Greatest!”

Mother’s Day is fast approaching. Now you can tell your mother and the LPSCU in the pages of Zornicka why she is the very best. In two or three sentences, tell us what your mother means to you and why she is “The Greatest!” If you have one, send along a photo of you and Mom to accompany your letter.

Please have your information to us before March 31st. Forward it to Fraternal Activities Director Cecilia B. Gaughan, 325 Florida Avenue, Whitehall, PA 18052

Cooking Corner

LITHUANIAN HONEY COOKIE HEARTS

1 cup honey ½ teaspoon cinnamon
3 eggs ¼ tsp. cloves
3 tbsps. sugar 1 tsp. baking powder
3 tbsp. cream ½ tsp. baking soda
4 oz. butter 2 cups flour*

*A little more flour may be needed if the dough is too soft to roll out.

Cream eggs with sugar, pour in honey, melted (cooled) butter, spices, and cream. Blend well. Mix the flour with the baking soda and baking powder; stir into the other ingredients.

Knead dough until it does not stick to hands anymore. Cover and refrigerate about half an hour. Roll out on floured surface. Cut out hearts with a cookie cutter or make your own pattern (especially if you want to make big hearts). Bake at 350° until golden brown (about 10-15 minutes). Decorate after the cookies cool completely.

Mother’s & Father’s Day Tribute/Memorial Program

Once again this year, the LPSCU is offering a Tribute/Memorial Program to run in the May/June issue of Zornicka. We are pleased to report that this is the ninth year that the LPSCU has sponsored this special tribute. The program will give our members an opportunity to honor their living parents or remember their deceased ones by placing a Mother’s and/or Father’s Day message in our May/June issue.

Because space is limited, Tributes/Memorials cannot be more than 2-3 lines and should not exceed 20 words. There is no charge for placing a message, but a good will donation of $5.00 per greeting will be appreciated. In keeping with the benevolent and fraternal nature of our organization, all proceeds from the Mother’s Day Tributes/Memorials will be donated to the Breast Cancer Research Center and all monies donated from the Father’s Day Tributes/Memorials will go to the American Diabetes Association for diabetes research.

Donations (which are tax deductible) should be made by check payable directly to the respective organization — Breast Cancer Research Center for Mother’s Day messages and American Diabetes Association for Father’s Day messages.

Tribute/Memorial requests, along with all donation checks, should be mailed to Fraternal Activities Director Cecilia B. Gaughan, 325 Florida Avenue, Whitehall, PA 18052 (phone 610/433-4610).

Deadline for submitting Mother’s/Father’s Day messages for the May/June Zornicka is March 20, 2010.

A few examples of Mother’s/Father’s Day Tributes/Memorials follow:

In honor of our mothers
Mary Jones and Susan Clark
Given by George and Christine Clark

In loving memory of Joseph Smith, Sr.
Given by his children and grandchildren

Happy Mother’s Day to Betty J. Winston
With love from her grandchildren

The LPSCU reserves the right to edit messages.

We hope many of our members will participate in this worthwhile fraternal activity, which allows them to honor their mothers and fathers and donate to a very worthy cause. This is a wonderful way to show our love and appreciation to our parents (and grandparents) and to show the concern and compassion the LPSCU has for our fellowman.
Interrupted Lives

Catholic Sisters Under European Communism

This past September 13th, many ABC channels offered “Interrupted Lives” as part of the Vision and Values program. In some areas of the country this documentary was offered that day at a reasonable time, but in more than two-thirds of the United States, it was not only not mentioned in the TV listings, but also aired between 11 p.m. and 6 a.m., which is regrettable because this is a story which most Catholics in our country have never heard. The general population has frequently heard about the Holocaust, which of course, was an atrocity. However, they have never been told about what happened to more than one hundred million Christians who lived under atheistic Communism.

We, the descendents of immigrants from Eastern and Central Europe, should be informed of what happened in our ancestral land. Had our parents and/or grandparents not risked their ocean voyage, poverty, and hardship, we might have been among those caught in the throes of an unreasonable government.

“Interrupted Lives,” which was recently released to the public by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, is the result of several years of research by two Sisters of St. Joseph of Concordia, Kansas: Sister Margaret Nacke and Sister Mary Savoie. Both Sisters, former college professors, spent 10 summers after the fall of Communism assisting Sisters in Romania as they tried to restore their lives in community.

Although the American Sisters did not understand Romanian, they began to piece together some of the experiences the Romanian Sisters were sharing with each other. They realized that what these Sisters had experienced between 1950 and 1989 had to be made known.

Sisters Mary and Margaret came to understand that Religious in other countries had had similar experiences during the Communist regime. In some cases, what had happened to Religious in other countries was even worse.

They returned to the States determined to do something about it. The result is an hour-long documentary which hopefully will reveal the faith, courage, and trust in Divine Providence that sustained thousands of Religious women in the second half of the twentieth century.

From the cover of the documentary case we read: “They were Greek and Roman Catholic Sisters of Eastern and Central Europe. At the end of World War II, Stalin seized control of their countries, imposing a 40-year reign of atheistic rule, suppressing religious practice and disrupting the Sisters' individual and community lives.

“Interrupted Lives” explores the experiences of these Sisters through interviews with survivors as well as with the “Secret Sisters” who joined religious life during this time. They lived out their vocations in the underground until after the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989.

Many of these Sisters endured imprisonment, forced farm and factory labor, deportation, exile to Siberia, expulsion from their convents, and seizure of their schools and hospitals.

Filmed on location in Ukraine, Lithuania, Romania, Slovakia, Hungary, and the United States, “Interrupted Lives” is a powerful testimony to the faith, courage, and endurance of these women and all those who still today undergo persecution for political or religious beliefs.

The documentary is available on a DVD, shipping and handling included, for $25.00. (No postage charge if the DVD is received in person.) Anyone interested in purchasing a DVD may call or write to:

Recession, layoffs and falling stock and bond prices seem to be knocking over the pillars of our financial security, one by one. Many of us have either lost a job or have a friend or family member who has. All of us have been hit with painful losses in the value of our homes and in our savings and investment accounts. One source of financial security still stands strong, however, and that’s life insurance.

A Financial Product That Has Held its Value
While so many aspects of people’s financial lives look bleak at the moment, life insurance continues to do exactly what it was designed to — serve as the foundation of your family’s financial security. If you own a term life policy, the death benefit it would pay if you died tomorrow is unchanged from last week, last month or even last year. If you own a whole life policy, your death benefit is also guaranteed, and over the past year your cash values have actually grown, not declined. In this tumultuous economy, you can take comfort in knowing that life insurance — whatever type you may own or intend to buy — can provide some certainty and stability at a time when both are in short supply.

Buy Yourself Time and Peace of Mind
With the stock market having lost roughly half its value, some have jokingly suggested we rename the 401(k) the 201(k). But the losses so many of us have experienced are no laughing matter. You may already be thinking about how to rebuild your lost assets. But what would happen to your loved ones if you die before your catch-up plan is in place? In the short-term, only life insurance can make up the difference between what you had and what your family would need to manage financially in your absence.

Now Is the Time to Buy, Not Shed Life Insurance
Just meeting everyday living expenses is a big challenge these days. Even so, this is not the time to consider dropping or scaling back life insurance if a need for coverage remains. To the contrary, the coverage is more important today than it was a year ago because other aspects of your financial life are not what they used to be. Moreover, if you drop coverage now but decide to purchase a policy in a year or two, you’ll likely be asked to take another health exam. You’ll be older, your health might have worsened, and you may find it harder to qualify for coverage at an affordable rate.

The Bottom Line
Today, your income is what is helping to put food on the table and keep a roof over your head. But what if you died tomorrow? In that unfortunate circumstance, your life insurance is what your family members would rely on to maintain their quality of life. So while it may seem difficult nowadays to look beyond the bills that are due at the end of the month, you should maintain your current life insurance or even consider buying additional coverage. It will provide an anchor of stability to your family finances, ensuring that your loved ones will be financially secure when you die.

John Ferri is NFCA “Fraternal MVP”

The National Fraternal Congress of America, the trade association of America’s fraternal benefit societies, named John Ferri, a member of LPSCU Branch 83, Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, as a “Fraternal MVP” (Most Valuable Participant) for the week of February 1, 2010. John, who is our 2009 Fraternalist of the Year, had his name submitted by the LPSCU as best representing “the spirit of fraternalism and volunteerism.”

The NFCA recognizes Fraternal MVPs as “Fraternalists-in-Action” who volunteer their time, energy, and compassion to strengthen their communities through participation in local lodge activities and other charitable endeavors. As a Fraternal MVP, John embodies the heart of fraternalism through his hard work, dedication, and generosity. John’s outstanding accomplishments, which set him apart as our 2009 Fraternalist of the Year, were featured in the July-August 2009 issue of Zornicka.

The LPSCU congratulates John Ferri on adding the title of “Fraternal MVP” to his list of accomplishments. We are proud to see him receive this distinct honor from the NFCA.
Slovak Heritage Society Holds Cooking Class

It was like being in the audience of your favorite television cooking show. In reality, it was a recent cooking class sponsored by the Slovak Heritage Society of Northeastern Pennsylvania.

Three Slovak recipes, three talented Slovak cooks, and an audience of very interested participants, all eager to see the Slovak specialties prepared and then served for their tasting pleasure!

Anna Hendershot from Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, gave a light-hearted presentation, chopping mushrooms embellished with eggs, oleo, milk and flour to create “Fritters” – Houbaové Zakusky – looking more like small potato pancakes, to the surprise of all. They were ever so tasty, with a visual appeal that made the audience return for more and more – even those who weren’t sure they liked mushrooms!

Like a true television chef, Michael Stretanski from Kingston, Pennsylvania, took those in attendance through a slow, homemade approach to prepare all the ingredients for his “European-style Paprikas” (Uherský Paprikas). Everyone enjoyed his comments during each step of preparation, both factual notes and aromatic fragrances from start to finish.

Andrew Sofranko from Hanover Township, Pennsylvania, prepared his “Fruited Cake” (Ovocny Kolac) recipe, which created interest by taking a relatively easy cake recipe, adding strategically placed fruit of one’s personal choice prior to baking, and adding a sweet touch of sprinkled powdered sugar before serving.

After the cooking and baking demonstrations, the three Slovak dishes were enjoyed by the 34 participants in attendance, each expressing great satisfaction and eager to try the recipes at home.

The atmosphere throughout the presentations transported the audience to memories of Mom’s kitchen – time lovingly spent providing Slovak recipe secrets we now treasure as adults. These memories were shared during the “feasting time” by all who enjoyed the Slovak dishes prepared.

Everyone received copies of the recipes, and a dozen audience members were also the lucky recipients of Slovak art treasures in a special raffle held at the affair. We are happy to share these recipes with our readers here.

Chairperson of the Slovak Heritage Society of Northeastern Pennsylvania is Philip R. Tuhy of Wilkes-Barre. The group’s website is: www.shsnepa.org.

MUSHROOM FRITTERS
Houbaové Zakusky
½ pound mushrooms, chopped
1 Tbs. butter or margarine
2 eggs, separated
¾ cup milk
1 cup flour
1 tsp. baking powder
½ tsp. salt
Pinch of paprika
Frying oil

Saute the mushrooms lightly in butter. In separate bowl, beat the 2 egg yolks with milk and blend in flour, baking powder, salt, and paprika. Beat the batter until smooth and add mushrooms. Beat the egg whites until stiff and fold into the batter. Drop by spoonfuls into hot oil and fry on both sides until golden brown.

EUROPEAN-STYLE PAPRIKAS
Uherský Paprikas
5 large onions, chopped
2 lbs. beef or pork, cut in 1” cubes
1 tsp. salt
2 cloves garlic, minced
1 cup tomato juice
2 cups water
1 bay leaf
4 Tbs. shortening
2 Tbs. paprika
1 tsp. pepper
¼ cup flour
4 potatoes, cubed
1 cup red wine

In a large skillet, saute the onions in the shortening until brown. Add meat and lightly brown. Add paprika, salt, pepper, garlic, and flour, stirring to coat evenly, and fry for 5 minutes. Add tomato juice, potatoes, water, wine, and bay leaf. Cover and let simmer until potatoes are done.

FRUITED CAKE
Ovocny Kolac
1 stick butter at room temperature
1¼ cups sugar
1½ cups flour
1 tsp. baking powder
1 tsp. vanilla
3 eggs

Fruit of your choice, sliced or halved, depending on size (Berries are good)

Cream the butter and the sugar. Add eggs one at a time and mix. Add the flour to which you have added the baking powder. Mix. Add vanilla. Finished product will be quite thick. Put into a greased and floured pan. Place fruit on top and bake in a 350-degree oven until top is browned. Cool completely and sprinkle with powdered sugar just before serving.
SCF Seeks Contributors for ‘Good Shepherd’ Annual

Dobry Pastier (The Good Shepherd), edited by Sister Bernadette Marie Ondus, SS.C.M., and published annually by the Slovak Catholic Federation, compiles volumes on topics which are of interest to Slovak-American Catholics. The Federation is currently accepting articles for inclusion in the 2010 edition. Potential contributors should note that while the scope of the publication is broad, articles solely political in nature will not be accepted.

The deadline for all articles is May 1, 2009. Due to the publication schedule, articles received after the deadline will not be included in the annual. The annual will be available for distribution in the Fall.

In order to facilitate the editing and printing of The Good Shepherd, the following guidelines are established for authors who would like their work to be considered for inclusion in the annual:

GENERAL INFORMATION
♦ All articles must be type-written, double-spaced in Microsoft WORD format in 12 point, Times New Roman font.
♦ It is strongly preferred that English articles be e-mailed to Sister Bernadette Marie Ondus, SS.C.M., Editor, at bernsscm@yahoo.com. In this age of modern technology, it is faster and more cost effective to work from a text that is provided digitally instead of having to retype the entire article.
♦ If it is not possible for an article to be e-mailed, a “hard copy” may be mailed to Sister Bernadette Marie Ondus, SS.C.M., Villa Sacred Heart, Danville, PA 17821-1698.
♦ To be accepted for publication, articles must be between three and ten typewritten pages. Articles fewer than three pages or beyond ten pages will not be accepted.

USE OF PHOTOS
♦ If at all possible, kindly send photos to accompany articles. Photos must be included at the same time the article is sent to the Editor. If sending photos digitally, save as separate JPGs to accompany the article. Please indicate where photos are to be placed within the body of the article. Be sure to properly identify the persons, places and/or situations depicted in the photo(s). If no indication is given as to where, within the article, the photos are to be inserted, photos will not be included in the article.
♦ In the event that an article is e-mailed and photos are not included as attachments, the actual photographs, along with a hard copy of the article, must be mailed to Sister Bernadette Marie Ondus, SS.C.M. for inclusion into the article. (If more convenient, photos can also be saved to a CD which the printer can then link up with the article.) Once again, please be sure that the photos are properly identified and note where, within the article, the photos are to be inserted. Photos must always accompany the article for which they are intended.
♦ Captions must be included with the photos. This allows readers to better understand the relationship of the photo to the content of the article.

ARTICLES IN SLOVAK
♦ It is preferred that articles be written in English. Articles submitted in Slovak will be sent to a third party for editing. Please note: Articles submitted in Slovak are typeset by a person who does not read Slovak; therefore, it is imperative that the author include all appropriate accent marks, diacritical characters and other special characters. Correct punctuation is essential. Use commas and periods where necessary, no dashes. ALL SLOVAK ARTICLES NEED TO BE CHECKED FOR ACCURACY BEFORE THEY REACH THE TYPESETTER.
♦ Slovak articles can be e-mailed to Sister Bernadette Marie. A hard copy (including all accents) must also be mailed to her. (Please indicate that the article was both mailed and emailed.) Frequently, accent marks, diacritical characters and other special characters do not come through properly when articles are e-mailed. Having a hard copy of the article, appropriately marked, will save valuable time and resources.

As Editor, Sister Bernadette Marie retains the right to correct grammatical errors, delete repetitions, rearrange ideas to make them clearer, etc. Sister Bernadette Marie also retains the right to determine the appropriateness of articles for the publication. However, she will not substantially change the author’s ideas without first consulting the author.

Our sincere thanks to all the faithful contributors to The Good Shepherd. Your contributions, year after year, ensure that the Slovak Catholic Federation is able to provide a quality annual which helps celebrate our Catholic faith, preserves our Slovak heritage, and allows our readers to stay in touch with what’s happening in the Catholic Church, in Slovakia, and in the Slovak-American community.

We are looking forward to your contributions again this year.
Reverend Philip A. Altavilla, V.E., SCF National President

SCF Schedules 32nd Annual SS. Cyril & Methodius Appeal

When our ancestors came to these shores more than a century ago, they brought with them few monetary assets. However, their most precious possession was their faith. The seeds were nurtured by the Slovak priests who came with the immigrant people and helped build our Slovak Catholic fraternals, religious communities of men and women, and nearly 300 Slovak parishes. In response to this legacy, the Slovak Catholic Federation will sponsor the 32nd Annual SS. Cyril & Methodius Appeal.

The Church in Slovakia has enjoyed a great renaissance since the fall of Communism in 1989. We in America and Canada take pride in the fact that the Slovak Catholic fraternals, our parishes, and individuals of Slovak ancestry have responded generously to assist the Church in our ancestral homeland. The 2010 Annual Appeal begins during the month of February in churches of Slovak descent across the United States and Canada, and will continue to the end of the year.

The 2009 Appeal collected $50,322.49. Since its inception, this Appeal has raised $2,174,758.60.

Funds raised from the Appeal will aid the priest-graduate students at the Pontifical Slovak College of SS. Cyril & Methodius, Rome, Italy. These fine priests are being called upon to be the future leaders of the diocesan churches in Slovakia both as vicars and bishops, in addition to providing qualified instructors/professors for the seminaries that educate future priests. As well, funds benefit those religious communities, both men and women, that share a counterpart belonging to the Slovak Catholic Federation and the Conference of Slovak Religious. These communities are: Vincentian Sisters of Charity (Ruzomberok); Dominican Sisters (Dunajská Lužna); School Sisters of St. Francis (Zilina); Daughters of St. Francis (Bratislava-Prievoz); Byzantine Catholic Sisters of St. Basil the Great (Secove and Presov), Franciscan Friars Minor (Bratislava), and House of St. Benedict (Bacurov).

The Slovak Catholic Federation was founded in 1911 under the spiritual leadership of Rev. Joseph Murgas, founding pastor of Sacred Heart of Jesus Slovak Church, Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. The purpose of the SCF is to federate individuals of Slovak origin under one banner, for cultural, religious, and educational needs. Serving as National President is Rev. Philip Altavilla, V.E., Episcopal Vicar for the Northern Pastoral Region of the Diocese of Scranton, Pennsylvania. The Episcopal Moderator is the Most Rev. Joseph V. Adamec, D.D., Bishop of Altoona/Johnstown, Pennsylvania. The National First Vice President, Rev. Andrew S. Hvozdovic, pastor of Epiphany Parish, Sayre, Pennsylvania, is the coordinator for this Annual Appeal.

In the Church today, we are finding that more and more individuals of Slovak descent/background do not attend traditionally founded Slovak parishes, for a number of reasons. Because of this reality today, the monies raised for this Appeal come both from the collections taken in our Slovak parishes as well as from individual donors.

Your tax deductible donation can be sent directly to the National Secretary/Treasurer of the Slovak Catholic Federation:
Dolores Evanko
173 Berner Avenue
Hazleton, PA 18201

Please make your check payable to the Slovak Catholic Federation, noting that it is intended for the Annual Appeal.

Thank you for your most generous support!
Dear Junior Members,

Do you know why kids are so tired in April? It’s because they just finished a long March! It sometimes seems like the snow doesn’t want to leave us, but we know the days are getting longer and sun is getting warmer, which makes us begin to dream about those summer days that are just around the corner.

We are now in the Lenten season. We will be celebrating Easter on April 4th this year. Easter always makes us think of bright sunshine, flowers, and, of course, Easter eggs. For over four hundred years, eggs have been an important part of the Christian Easter.

You have seen all the fancy decorated eggs in Easter baskets, but some of the most beautiful eggs come from the natural world. You probably recognize the familiar aqua blue color of the robin’s egg, but did you know that birds’ eggs can vary in color from pure white to almost black? The eggs of the tinamous, a South American game bird, are brightly colored in solid, glossy hues and are considered to be among the most beautiful of all birds’ eggs. Birds with white eggs tend to be either those who lay their eggs in dark and enclosed spaces, such as holes in trees or special nests, like owls and kingfishers, or primitive birds such as pelicans and cormorants. Those of the killdeer, whip-poor-will, plovers, and terns, laid in exposed places with no protecting nests, are colored like the soil or gravel on which they lay, making them difficult to find. Colored and speckled eggs are laid in areas where they need to be camouflaged. The majority of birds that build protective nests lay eggs having a base color of some delicate tint with spots, streaks, or scrawls of a darker pigment such as purple or brown.

Birds’ eggs are not even uniform in shape. The shape of the egg depends on where the bird nests. Most species lay eggs in the familiar oval shape, like the hens’ eggs we eat for breakfast. Birds that lay their eggs on ledges or sea cliffs, such as vultures and murres, need eggs with a pointed end so they will not roll off the ledge. Round eggs are generally laid by birds like owls that nest in a protected area, such as a tree cavity. Birds that lay many eggs typically have eggs that are pointed. This allows the incubation of several eggs in a small space. By arranging them on the ground with the points inward, a brooding mother can more easily cover all her eggs.

Penguins, albatrosses, and sea birds lay only one egg. The wild duck and many game birds, such as quail and pheasants, lay 15 or more in what is called a clutch.

How would you like to have Easter-colored eggs all year round without dyeing them? You could if you owned an Araucana chicken. These hens come from a region in Chile in South America. They are the only domesticated hens that lay colored eggs. The original Araucanas were odd looking fowls without tails. They had round tufts of feathers like whiskers on each side of the neck. Today they are not tailless but still have their so-called neck whiskers. The coloring of their eggshells goes all the way through the shell, but the eggs themselves taste like the ordinary white or brown eggs with which we are familiar. None of these “Easter Egg Hens” produce multiple colors of eggs. If a hen lays pink eggs, all her eggs will be pink. But surprisingly, a hen that lays pink eggs may have an offspring that lays green or blue eggs. The American Poultry Association does not recognize the Araucana as a standard breed but people still enjoy raising them as a hobby and for their colored eggs.

Happy Easter to you all. I wish you an EGGSCELLENT, fun-filled day!

Some Facts About March

The month of March is named for the Roman god Mars. At one time, March was the first month of the Roman calendar. At this time of year – the beginning of spring – the Romans prepared to go off to war, so they named this month Martius, in honor of Mars, their god of war.

Long ago, March was called Lenten-month, meaning “lengthening month.” And after the first day of spring (March 20th or 21st), the days do begin to get longer.

In the northern half of the world, there’s an old saying that “March comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb.” This simply means that the weather in early March is often cold and stormy, but by the end of the month it is mild and warm. (A fun project is to mark your calendar, recording which days are mild and which are stormy, to determine whether that old saying is really true.)

We celebrate St. Patrick’s Day on March 17th. You may hear many Irish songs about “The Wearing of the Green” and “When Irish Eyes are Smiling.” On this day, many people do wear something green, even if they aren’t Irish. The bit of green reminds us all of the beautiful green countryside of Ireland. In fact, this island nation is so green it is often called the Emerald Isle. Green is also the color of a shamrock, the national flower of Ireland.

On March 19th, we honor St. Joseph, the carpenter from Nazareth chosen to be the husband of the Virgin Mary and foster father of Jesus. St. Joseph was a very quiet, humble man, but a strong protector of Mary and Jesus.

Happy Easter to you all. I wish you an EGGSCELLENT, fun-filled day!

America’s First Ladies

No known portrait exists of Thomas Jefferson’s wife Martha Jefferson, who died 18 years before her husband became president. Their daughter, Martha Jefferson Randolph, served as White House hostess and was the first to give birth in the presidential mansion.

Elizabeth Monroe was the first First Lady to speak a foreign language fluently—French. Little else is known about her because her husband destroyed all of her correspondence after her death to protect their privacy.

Louisa Adams, wife of John Quincy Adams, was the only First Lady born in a foreign country—England. She played the harp, wrote satirical plays, and raised silkworms.

Rachel Jackson was an unintentional bigamist, having unwittingly married Jackson before she was divorced from her first husband. She died after Jackson was elected President, but before he was inaugurated. Her niece, Emily Donelson, served as hostess in the White House during Jackson’s administration.

Good Egg Award

This is no yolk! Want to be recognized for your “eggscellent” behavior? Here’s how:

Always keep your sunny-side up.
Never be too hard-boiled.
Maybe slightly cracked, but never rotten!

A Slovak Easter Basket

A traditional Slovak Easter basket contains these special foods: paska (a special bread made with butter, eggs, and sugar), ham, kielbasa (a spicy sausage), pisanky (decorated eggs), sirek (a cheese made from eggs, milk, and salt), butter, salt, beet and horseradish relish, and makovniky (nut and poppy seed rolls). The basket also contains a blessed candle that will serve as a centerpiece during the Easter meal. A special embroidered cloth is used to cover the basket. These covers have symbols related to the Resurrection and the celebration of Easter. In many families, these handmade Easter basket covers are prized possessions, passed on from generation to generation.

The Life of an Alaskan Salmon

Alaskan salmon begin their lives as eggs laid in a gravel bed in a stream. The eggs are the size of a pea and the tiny salmon get nourishment from a pink yolk sac on their bellies. After the eggs hatch, the young salmon begin their journey downstream, eating tiny insects as they go. After a couple of years in the streams, the small salmon grow into juveniles called smolts. These smolts gather together at the mouths of the streams and rivers to form schools in preparation for their journey into the ocean. During this time, their bodies undergo changes that will adapt them to the salt water.

These young adult salmon head out into the waters of the Bering Sea and the Gulf of Alaska where they will spend the next several years. Once they have reached full maturity, they will return to their original stream and readapt to fresh water. Then they will begin the often hazardous and difficult journey of swimming upstream to their spawning grounds where they began their lives. Often, they must overcome obstacles like rapids and waterfalls, as well as hungry bears along their path, but their single-minded purpose helps carry them through. Once they reach the area where they were born, they breed and lay their eggs. The adult salmon generally die within a week or two of the time they spawn, but their bodies help fertilize the stream, creating a nutrient-rich environment for the hatchlings. And thus the cycle of life continues.

Kids in the Kitchen

LEPRECHAUN SOUP

Let’s try the little Leprechaun’s magic soup! You will need:
1 can low-sodium tomato soup
2 cans water
5 low-sodium beef bouillon cubes (or plain canned soup broth)
2 carrots,
2 small potatoes
4 stalks celery
1 small onion
¼ cup chopped cabbage
1 cup peas
1 cup corn

Wash and peel carrots and potatoes. Cut the carrots, potatoes, celery, and onion into small pieces (or ask an adult to help you chop these vegetables). In a big pot, heat the soup, water, and bouillon cubes. Add all vegetables. Cover and simmer for about one hour, adding more liquid if needed.
“Rising from the Rubble”

and wants, to see our self-respect and pride disintegrate before our crushed spirit. Only losers surrender.”

She goes on to say that “true surrender is not capitulation. The Latin root of our English word ‘surrender’ means to ‘give back.’ In surrendering, we give back to God what is not ours, we entrust back to God the ultimate ‘control’ of our lives in order to embrace and be embraced in the love of God who is the Author of all life.”

Through his death on the cross, Jesus gave the control of life into the loving embrace of his Heavenly Father. Though according to worldly standards, Jesus’ death on the cross seems like ultimate failure, for those of us who are his followers, we know that his ultimate act of surrender is true victory – victory over sin and death. Through baptism, we are given a share in this victory and are given the grace needed to live our lives in surrender, rising out of our tombs of selfishness and sinfulness, as we give back to God in thanksgiving for all that he has given to us.

During this holy season, we are challenged to surrender our lives, in imitation of Jesus who gave his life for us all. We are called to empty ourselves, our own needs and wants for the sake of others. As we pass by the image of the Crucified One in the midst of the ruins of a broken, hurting world, we pray that God’s will becomes our will. We strive to return to God the gift of our lives that he has so lovingly given to us, so that our lives may be transformed into something greater, something more complete, more God-like. We cannot hope to experience rebirth and transformation in our own lives until we “empty” ourselves of our self-centered wants, until we “crucify” those attitudes and approaches that make us less than what we are called to become in the eyes of God, until we “surrender” ourselves to the compassion and justice of God. Through this process of emptying ourselves and giving back, we are then open to receive the new life that is the Resurrection of Jesus and are then willing to share that new life with others!

On behalf of myself and the Board of Directors of the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union, may God abundantly bless you during these final days of our Lenten Season, at Easter and always! May God grant us the grace to live as new people in pursuit of the Christian ideal of authentic Gospel living. As God’s holy people, may we be given the wisdom to know what we must do, the will to want to do it, the courage to undertake it, the perseverance to continue to do it, and the strength to complete it that we may experience the joy that is Easter! Christ is Risen! He is truly Risen! Happy Easter!

Počas obdobia Veľkej noci, nech vás všemohúci Boh, ktorý skrze zmŕtvychvstanie svojho Syna nám dарoval dar nehnúcej slobody, vovedie do večnej blaženosti! Ježiš vstal z mrtvých! To je on, čo vstal z mrtvých!

Students from Slovakia Hosted in Youngstown

Slovak students Matej Lukac of Spisska Nova Ves and Viktoria Vitekova of Bratislava, along with six members of their host families, were guests of Youngstown Sister Cities at the annual Vilija Dinner held in December 2009 at Saint Matthias Church Hall, Youngstown, Ohio.

Both students were introduced by YSC Secretary Bernie Demechko and were presented with a monetary gift from the organization. Matej is attending New Philadelphia High School and Victoria is studying at Saint Thomas High School, both in the Youngstown area.

Eight of the 12-member YSC Board were present. Newly elected officers include: President Bob Petruska, Vice President Jim Bench, Treasurer Ron Garchar, Directors John Pavlansky and Loretta Ekoniak, and, newly elected to the Board, Gigi Bacon, wife of its co-founder, the late Steve Bacon, and John Slanina, YSC Webmaster.

At a recent meeting of the Board, the Steve Bacon Memorial Scholarship Fund was established to financially assist any student from the United States who seeks to study for one year in the YSC’s Sister City, Spisska Nova Ves, Slovakia, or any student from that city who will come to Ohio, Pennsylvania, or Michigan to study. Rotary International works with Youngstown Sister Cities in running this program.

Youngstown Sister Cities thanks the LPSCU readers and the Zornicka magazine for the ongoing support they provide to enable YSC to continue its activities and to perpetuate our Slovak heritage.
