Spiritual Advisor’s Message

Extreme Makeover

A number of years ago, ABC television ran a show called Extreme Makeover. In a particular episode which I recall, three people were chosen from among thousands of applicants across the country to have their dreams come true – to change their outward looks in an effort to lead better lives. Through the skills of a group of doctors, a plastic surgeon, an eye surgeon, and a cosmetic dentist, along with a dream team of hair and makeup artists, stylists, and personal trainers, these three people expected that Extreme Makeover would transform their lives and ultimately redirect their destinies.

This particular television show, and its name, comes to mind as we embark once again on the spiritual journey that is the season of Lent. The word Lent has its origins in an Old English word which literally means “spring.” Like spring, Lent can be a time to bring out new buds, new branches, and even new life in our relationship with God and others. After the cold and dark time of winter has passed, spring presents an extreme makeover for nature. Perhaps we can alter the premise of the television show Extreme Makeover and recommend that Lent can be a spiritual springtime for us to change our inward selves in order to lead better lives. With God’s grace, Lent can be an opportunity to seek personal transformation, which can ultimately redirect our lives.

As much as the people on the television show were quick to acknowledge their imperfections on the outside, Lent can be an opportunity for us to acknowledge the inner imperfections with which we all struggle. We all have faults, bad habits, and even compulsions which can keep us from feeling real happiness inside and which can also bring harm to relationships we have with others, and even with our God. Lent is a time not only to acknowledge these weakness and quirks but, most importantly, to take action in order to experience true transformation and personal growth.

The Church offers us three special activities to consider utilizing during Lent to help us experience this inner transformation. These special activities, also known as the Marks of Lent, are: prayer, almsgiving (works of charity), and fasting. While certainly these activities can and should be used by us all year round, it is especially during Lent that they can take on special meaning and renewed emphasis.

Prayer – Though there is much that can be said about prayer, it is best to describe prayer as an experience of communication. We communicate with God and God communicates with us. Prayer can also be described as holy conversation. Think about the various relationships that we may have in life. One of the important keys to maintaining a healthy and meaningful relationship is through good communication, which requires both speaking and listening. It is the same in regard to the relationship we are called to have with our God. Through healthy prayer communication, we voice to God our worries, concerns, joys, and frustrations AND we try our best to listen as God speaks his plans to us, especially when those plans may conflict with our own.

We can engage in this holy conversation with God through our attendance at and participation in Holy Mass; through the use of special private devotions (e.g., the Rosary, the Stations of the Cross, novenas, etc.) and even in the quiet time that we may spend in simply meditating on the power and presence of God in our lives. Some will also seek out a spiritual director or advisor who can function as a companion and guide to help a person understand better how it is possible to grow, spiritually, at any stage of life’s journey. How will your prayer life grow this Lent so that you and God can communicate better with each other?

Almsgiving or Works of Charity – One of the obvious fruits of our healthy prayer life is our faith showing itself in action. Being attentive to the needs of people around us is an essential mark of a faithful follower of Jesus. As Jesus came to serve the needs of others, so must we. During Lent, we are called to go outside ourselves and look for opportunities to engage in special works of charity, such as volunteering at activities which really help meet the needs of others. Some people may choose to participate in Operation Rice Bowl sponsored by Catholic Relief Services. When collected, the proceeds from our rice bowls help to assist in feeding the poor, clothing the naked, and rebuilding communities ravaged by natural disasters. These are but two examples of the many ways we can give of ourselves – our time, talent, and financial treasure – to care for Jesus as he is found in others.

Fasting – During Lent, many will use fasting as a way to “give up” material things. Some may give up chocolate, alcohol, cigarettes, etc. While that may all be fine and good, it is important that we not simply give up things, only to “pig out” on them on Easter Sunday morning! That kind of defeats the whole purpose of fasting being a means to purify ourselves or even rid ourselves of unhealthy habits. I myself like to see fasting not simply as a means to “give up” material things. Rather, perhaps a better type of fasting is to give up habits or attitudes which are quite negative, so that one can be free to focus on putting energy into more healthy and life-giving activities.

Allow me to end this article with a list inspired by William Arthur Ward (1921-1994), American author, teacher, and pastor, which suggests a different way of looking at fasting as we try to give up what is not good or healthy and to feast on (or focus on) what truly should matter in life:

- Fast from judging others; Feast on the Christ dwelling in them.
- Fast from emphasis on differences; Feast on the unity of life.

Dear Sisters and Brothers of the LPSCU:

As a retired diocesan bishop, freed of administrative responsibilities, I enter into a new chapter of my life. It is a life of freedom, knowing that another is taking care of those things that once were my burdens. While that is a wonderful state in which to be, it pales by comparison to what we celebrate during the Season of Easter.

“He has risen as He said. Alleluia!”

These words proclaiming the Easter message say it all. Darkness and death need no longer reign in our lives, for the Lord has overcome them for us. By the mystery of his cross and resurrection, Jesus won for us our freedom from the slavery of sin. The burden of sin that was once ours, no longer has to be. He paid our ransom. Our new lives of freedom are, now, to be devoid of needless anxiety and full of positive attitude toward self and others.

I pray that the blessings of this Easter Season give each one of you a deeper realization of what Christ has done for us. May that, in turn, prompt a new chapter in your life – one that is filled with an abundance of Alleluias in praise of the God that loves us so profoundly!

Fraternally yours in the Risen Lord,

+ Joseph

JOIN HANDS DAY
MAY 7, 2011

On JOIN HANDS DAY, fraternalists and non-fraternalists alike will come together to make a difference in their communities through service projects that connect young people and adults.

JOIN HANDS DAY gives fraternal benefit societies and volunteer organizations an opportunity to reach out to people they don’t know, to connect generations and foster new relationships.

This year, JOIN HANDS DAY is Saturday, May 7. Have you planned your project yet? If not, don’t wait for someone else to make the move. Contact family members, church members, fellow LPSCU members, neighbors, friends, and their children. If you can’t recruit enough participants, check around your area to see if you can combine your efforts with those of another group. There is always something you can do to make life better for another person, and in the end, you’ll both benefit!

In planning your project, be sure to invite the young people in your Branch and District to participate alongside your adult members for this event. Remember to pre-register your project on the JOIN HANDS DAY website, www.joinhandsday.org. You can also check the website for project ideas and to view and read about past JHD projects.

We look forward to hearing from you about your group’s JOIN HANDS DAY activity. Write a short article and send it, along with a group photo or two, to the LPSCU Public Relations Director so it can be shared with our members in the Zornicka.

Mary Gaughan Performs in Rose Parade

Branch 38 member Mary Gaughan spent this past New Year’s holiday in Pasadena, California, as a member of the Downingtown (Pennsylvania) Blue and Gold Marching Band. Mary is a freshman at Downingtown East High School and plays the trumpet in the band. The highlight of the trip was the band’s appearance in the Tournament of Roses Parade on January 1st. The Downingtown band was one of only 12 high school bands from across the country selected to march in the parade. An estimated one million people lined the streets to watch the parade live, and millions more around the world watched the telecast.

The band also performed their field show at Bandfest, which was held at Pasadena City College, and marched in Disney’s California Adventure parade. Other highlights of the trip included a day in Disneyland and one in Universal Studios, a tour of Hollywood, and a day on Huntington Beach.

Mary and her brother Patrick live with their parents, Tim and Beth Gaughan, in Downingtown. Mary is the granddaughter of Tom and Ceil Gaughan of Whitehall, Pennsylvania. Beth and Mary’s aunt, Patrice Gaughan DeFazio, also went to Pasadena to watch the band perform at all three venues.

REVEREND DIANISKA DISTRICT

The Reverend Dianiska District held its annual Christmas Party on Sunday, December 5, 2010, at the Ramada Inn, Public Square, Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. Branches 7 and 214 hosted the event. Chuck Simalchik welcomed 62 members and guests, along with 11 young members.

Father Philip Altavilla offered a special blessing with a prayer. Everyone sang Christmas carols as Father Phil blessed the Oplatky and Christmas wishes were exchanged as all shared the holy wafers with one another.

National President Theresa Kluchinski wished everyone a Merry Christmas on behalf of the LPSCU. District President Mary Ann Ewasko thanked all members for their cooperation throughout the year and wished everyone a Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year.

Fruit, cheese, and crackers were served as a starter, followed by a delicious family-style dinner and a variety of desserts.

Members and guests joined in a special gift raffle with the proceeds donated to the Wyoming Valley Children’s Association in Wilkes-Barre. Canned goods donated by everyone attending were given to the food pantry at the St. Vincent dePaul Kitchen in Wilkes-Barre.

President Ewasko announced that two District members are recipients of 2010 LPSCU College Scholarships. They are Madeleine Dahms of Branch 7 and Jared John Barilla of Branch 17.

LEHIGH VALLEY OKRES

The Lehigh Valley Okres held its annual Holiday Luncheon on Sunday, December 12, 2010, at the Lehigh Room of the Best Western Lehigh Valley Conference Center in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. A punch reception commenced at noon followed by the meal at 12:30 p.m.

Okres President Jean Kosalko extended a warm welcome to all present. Treasurer Margaret A. Ferri offered a prayer before the meal. Fifty-five Okres members and guests attended. Members brought toys for distribution to needy children through the Marines’ Toys for Tots program.

At the conclusion of the luncheon, President Kosalko introduced the Okres officers: Secretary Mary Shannon and Treasurer Ferri, who also serves as national Public Relations Director, as well as national Fraternal Activities Director Cecilia B. Gaughan, Honorary Vice President Mary Ann Ackerman, and former national Public Relations Director Mary Ford. She also introduced the officers of Allentown Branch 38/40, Bethlehem Branch 83/130, and Hellertown Branch 196.

As the members were singing Christmas carols, everyone was surprised to see Santa Claus (in the person of John Ferri) enter the room ringing his jingle bells. The children were especially excited to see Santa. They gathered around him as he presented gifts of a musical nutcracker to each boy, a large lady bug pillow to each girl, and a plush dog to each infant. Each child also received a candy cane and each attendee received a small red poinsettia plant as a favor.

Holiday prizes were chanced off and special prizes in the annual holiday raffle were won by Mary Sefcik, Anna Mae Klopack, Leo Lichman, Linda Piotrowski, Helen Glass, Gail Julian, Ed Kimak, Margaret Hilbert, George Kostelnik, and Maria Tkach.

A special raffle was held for the benefit of Operation Purple Camps, a program to assist children of military personnel deployed to Iraq and Afghanistan to attend summer camps. Three beautiful afghans that were handmade by Erica Latch of Allentown were raffled off for this benefit. They were won by Alexandria Kosalko, Adria Geiger, and Regina Polaha. One hundred dollars was realized from the raffle and the funds were forwarded to LPSCU President Theresa Kluchinski to put towards the Operation Purple Camps Fund.

President Kosalko thanked everyone for attending the luncheon and wished everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. The festivities concluded with a prayer offered by Mary Shannon. A delightful time was had by all who attended.

MSGR. BEEDA DISTRICT

District President Anita Gregory welcomed everyone to the celebration and thanked them for taking time out of their busy schedules to attend. A few special guests also joined District members for the evening, including LPSCU

President Theresa Kluchinski, Secretary-Treasurer Mary Jo Savidge, and Rev. Michael Piccola, pastor of Sts. Cyril and Methodius Parish.

The festivities began with an invocation given by LPSCU member Deacon Cyril Kowalchick. District Vice President James Yocum offered a Christmas toast and wished everyone a Merry Christmas in Slovak. He then explained the tradition of the Oplatky, at which time everyone joined in breaking the wafer and wishing each other a Merry Christmas. The group then enjoyed a delicious feast prepared by the White Haven Bakery.

A few brief remarks were given by President Kluchinski, during which she informed the members about the many insurance plans, benefits, and activities the LPSCU offers.

Each year the District holds a Christmas raffle, the proceeds of which will help any youth member from the Branches within the District who would like to attend the March for Life in Washington, D.C. (This year’s march is on January 24.) Prizes were raffled off from this project at the party, resulting in several lucky winners.

District Secretary Dolores Evanko brought her Bingo cards along and everyone enjoyed playing a few games.

As the evening came to a close, President Gregory wished everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. Each member went home with a Christmas bag full of goodies and a door prize.

PITTSBURGH DISTRICT

Anna A. Adamcik, Past Treasurer of LPSCU Branch 83

Anna A. Adamcik, 94, of Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, died on January 18, 2011, at Country Meadows, an assisted living facility. Anna was born on February 25, 1916, in Lebanon, Pennsylvania, the daughter of the late Fabian and Helen (Smolko) Bednar. She worked for A. G. Baba Sportswear as a presser for 20 years and later for Schobel Brothers for seven years.

Anna was a parishioner of Incarnation of Our Lord Parish (formerly SS. Cyril and Methodius Church) in Bethlehem. She was a member of the St. Francis Guild and the altar and Rosary Society. For many years, prior to the consolidation of her former church with four others, Anna implemented and was the chief cook of the traditional Vilija supper for her parish family. Even as her health failed, she would sit and guide the ladies in the preparation of the Vilija. For many years, she came to church early before the 10:30 a.m. Mass to lead the rosary for the congregation and once a month lead the Rosary Society in prayers and procession through the church aisles.

Anna was proud of her Slovak heritage. She was fluent in the Slovak language and loved to sing Slovak songs. In her younger years, she was a member of the church choir.

Anna was preceded in death by her devoted husband of 64 years, Frank M. Adamcik. She is survived by her sons, Frank S. Adamcik and his wife, Marie, of Allentown, Pennsylvania; and Joseph G. Adamcik, and his wife, Barbara, of Bethlehem; daughter, Rose Marie Beach, of Bethlehem Township, Pennsylvania; a brother, Andrew Bednar of Bethlehem; seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. She was also preceded by her brothers, Joseph and Stefan Bednar, and her son-in-law, Robert Beach.

A viewing was held in the evening of January 21, with a candle ceremony to celebrate Anna’s life, at the Connell Funeral Home in Bethlehem. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated on January 22 at Incarnation of Our Lord Church by Rev. Stanley M. Moczydlowski, administrator of the parish, and Rev. Wayne E. Killian, pastor of University Parish of Holy Ghost. A viewing in the church preceded the service.

Following the Mass, Anna’s daughter read a beautiful tribute in memory of her mother. Attending the Liturgy were Branch 83 members Mary Ann Ackerman, financial secretary and honorary national vice president; Margaret A. Ferri, national public relations director; Mary Kacmar, past national third vice president; and John Ferri. Burial was at Holy Savior Cemetery in Bethlehem.

Anna was a dedicated member of LPSCU Branch 83, Bethlehem, where she served as Treasurer for 35 years. She was also an active member of the Lehigh Valley Okres. Anna’s love for the LPSCU was evident as there were two LPSCU lodge badges placed in her casket, along with a photo of Branch 83 officers, and under her quilt were several copies of the Zornicka. Her children and grandchildren are all members of LPSCU Branch 83/130.

The national officers extend sincere sympathy to the family of Anna Adamcik. She was a devoted fraternalist and we will miss her. May she rest in peace.

Branch 42 member Sylvia Goda has a very special long distance friend. She and her cousin, Pan Farar (Reverend) Frantisek Fedor, who lives in Sariske, Michalany, Slovakia, communicate regularly via e-mail, exchanging family news. Because they each have a Skype camera/speaker at their respective computers, they can speak and see each other during these online visits.

Reverend Frantisek, 80, looks back on his calling to the priesthood with humility and gratitude for where God’s protective hand has led him. Indeed, he endured many frightening and disappointing times on his road to becoming a priest.

In 1942, at the age of 12, young Frantisek entered Matky Bozej (Mother of God) missionary house in Nitra, Slovakia, aspiring to become a missionary in Africa and Asia. In 1948, he became a novice in Societas Verbi Divini (the Society of God’s Word).

The Communists closed all the monasteries and imprisoned the novices in a concentration camp in the Tatras in 1950. Upon their release four months later, they were warned that they were not permitted any further study in the religious life. Brokenhearted, 20-year-old Frantisek found an accounting position in a factory.

Years later, Frantisek met and married his lovely wife, Jana, and they were blessed with three children. But his vocation to the priesthood tugged at his heart, and at age 50 he began studying theology secretly, all the while working as an accountant to support his family.

Upon completion of his studies, Frantisek was secretly ordained by a Byzantine Catholic Cardinal in Berlin, Germany. (Because Reverend Frantisek is Greek Catholic, he could be ordained even though he was married. See Note below.) Fearful of the Communists’ continuing threats, he offered daily Mass in the hidden confines of his home with doors locked and blinds shut tight. Only his mother, wife, and children knew of his ordination. Had the Communists found out his secret, the entire family would have been imprisoned.

It was not until the fall of the Iron Curtain that Reverend Frantisek was able to openly officiate at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. In the ensuing years, he was assigned to five parishes, and served as actuary in the Bishop’s office in Presov, Slovakia. Presently he is a spiritual assistant in Sabinov and offers daily Mass in the Chapel of the Holy Cross in Sarisskych, Michalanov, where the picture above was taken.

Reverend Frantisek’s life has come full circle in that God has gifted him, as well as guided him, to the fulfillment of his childhood dream. God bless him!

Sylvia Goda

NOTE — Byzantine Catholics (also known as Greek Catholics) are among more than 20 Eastern Catholic churches that are loyal to the pope, but whose liturgy and other practices are nearly identical to those of Orthodox Christianity. In their historical homelands in Eastern Europe and the Middle East, they have always ordained married men to the priesthood and still do. The Vatican imposed celibacy upon Eastern Catholic priests in the United States in 1929, but in recent years such ordinations of Eastern Catholic married men, in the United States, have resumed with case-by-case approval from Rome.

On October 9, 2010, the Cardinal Tomko Chapter of the Slovak Catholic Federation celebrated the 25th Anniversary of its founding with a Mass of Thanksgiving at St. Francis Friary Chapel in Easton, Pennsylvania, at 10:30 a.m. Principal celebrant of the Mass was Rev. Msgr. Robert F. Kozel, chaplain of the Chapter. Concelebrants were Rev. Msgr. Thomas J. Derzack, national spiritual advisor of the Slovak Catholic Federation; and Rev. Msgr. William Baker, pastor of Incarnation of Our Lord Parish, Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. There were 32 members in attendance. Although no organist was present, beautiful liturgical hymns were sung by the clergy and participants.

In his homily, Msgr. Kozel reflected on the founding of the Cardinal Tomko Chapter for the purpose of raising funds to assist Jozef Cardinal Tomko build churches in Africa during his missionary work. At that time, Cardinal Tomko was serving as the Prefect for the Evangelization of Peoples. Msgr. Kozel further noted that after Cardinal Tomko retired as Prefect, the Chapter has continued to raise funds to provide scholarships for Slovak seminarians and priests at the Pontifical College of Saints Cyril and Methodius in Rome.

At the conclusion of the service, Msgr. Kozel presented a monetary gift on behalf of the Chapter to the rector at the Friary as an expression of the Chapter members’ appreciation for being able to celebrate their Thanksgiving Mass in the Friary’s beautiful chapel.

Following the Mass, a buffet was held at the Candlelight Inn in Bethlehem. Chapter President Margaret A. Ferri welcomed everyone to the luncheon. Msgr. Kozel offered the Invocation before the meal and Justine Wesnak, foundress of the Cardinal Tomko Chapter, offered a toast for the continued success of the Chapter.

After the meal, President Ferri introduced the officers of the Chapter: Rev. Msgr. Robert F. Kozel, chaplain; Justine Wesnak, foundress, immediate past president, and vice president; Fran Omick, secretary; and Margaret A. Ferri, president and acting treasurer (due to the recent death of Ed Lahovski). She also introduced officers of the Slovak Catholic Federation: Rev. Msgr. Thomas J. Derzack, M. Div., national spiritual advisor; Dolores M. Evanko, national secretary-treasurer; and Rev. Msgr. Michael J. Chaback, S.T.D., representative of the Slovak Catholic Clergy. President Ferri also read greetings and congratulatory messages from Jozef Cardinal Tomko and Rev. Philip A. Altavilla, V.E., Federation president.

The main speaker at the event was Justine Wesnak, who reflected on the history of and purposes for forming the Cardinal Tomko Chapter of the Slovak Catholic Federation in October of 1985. She proudly noted that initially it was through the Chapter’s Mission Fund, established in October 1985, that the members were able to raise large sums of money to assist Cardinal Tomko with building mission churches in Africa. In all, at least 10 mission churches were built with funds raised through the Chapter’s Mission Fund. In 1987, the Chapter began sponsoring two bake sales a year to help the Cardinal in his missionary work. Starting in 1996, and continuing to this date, the National Slovak Society has matched funds raised by the Chapter’s bake sales up to a maximum of $400 for each fundraiser.

At the conclusion of Justine’s speech, Fran Omick presented her with a bouquet of red roses on behalf of the Chapter. President Ferri thanked everyone for attending the Mass of Thanksgiving and Luncheon in celebration of the Chapter’s 25th Anniversary. The celebration concluded with a Benediction offered by Msgr. Derzack.

Officers of the Cardinal Tomko Chapter and Slovak Catholic Federation at the Chapter’s 25th Anniversary celebration are, L-R: Rev. Msgr. Robert F. Kozel, chaplain of the CTC; Dolores M. Evanko, secretary-treasurer of the SCF; Fran Omick, secretary of the CTC; Justine Wesnak, foundress, immediate past president, and vice president of the CTC; Margaret A. Ferri, president of the CTC; and Rev. Msgr. Thomas J. Derzack, spiritual advisor of the SCF.

Two important art pieces, one beloved photograph, and several other artifacts have been reinstated for all to enjoy at Sacred Heart of Jesus Church, North Main Street, Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. Recently installed new pastor Father Kenneth Seegar and Seminarian Michael Drevitch were instrumental in locating these historical pieces. With the help of parishioner Joseph Baloga, these items are now securely and permanently displayed in a place of honor inside the church.

These temporal treasures include the famous 4' x 6' painting by Rev. Joseph Murgas entitled “Christ in the Temple.” This artifact is unique in that it is painted on two sides of wood. Since canvas was expensive at the turn of the twentieth century, Father Murgas used wood as his canvas. He also painted the same scene on two sides because he was not pleased with his first rendition. In 2004, Lehigh Valley art historian Karen Rossi inspected and appraised the piece, deeming it as most worthy of display. The subsequent restoration and preservation work was funded by Mary Jean and David Tarantini and their son, David. This painting had not been seen since 2007. Its discovery now complements other great works of Father Murgas which include “The Immaculate Conception” and “The Sacred Heart of Jesus.” These latter two have hung on the front altars of the church since the early years.

Tony Brooks, executive director of the Luzerne County Historical Society, participated in the hanging of this historical collection and emphasized the significance of these pieces, as well as that of Sacred Heart of Jesus Church itself, in the history of Pennsylvania’s Wyoming Valley.

In addition to his invention of wireless telegraphy, Father Murgas is also remembered as an important local artist whose four and a half years of training were completed at the renowned Academy of Art in Munich. His paintings are valued and honored in Slovakia and eastern Pennsylvania.

The last work of Father Murgas, from 1925, was never completed. It is a lifesize portrait of his immediate superior, the late Bishop T. C. O’Reilly.

All parishioners, historians, and lovers of art may view these treasures when the church is open for services.
SCF Seeks Contributors for ‘Good Shepherd’ Annual

Dobry Pastier (The Good Shepherd), edited by Sister Bernadette Marie Ondus, SS.C.M., and published annually by the Slovak Catholic Federation, compiles articles focusing on topics which are of interest to Slovak-American Catholics. The Federation is currently accepting articles for inclusion in its 2011 edition. Potential contributors should note that while the scope of the publication is broad, articles solely political in nature will not be accepted. The deadline for all articles is May 1, 2011. Due to the publication schedule, articles received after the deadline will not be included in the annual. The annual will be available for distribution in the Fall of 2011.

In order to facilitate the editing and printing of The Good Shepherd, the following guidelines are established for authors who would like their work to be considered for inclusion in the annual:

GENERAL INFORMATION

- All articles must be type-written, double-spaced, in Microsoft Word format in 12 point, Times New Roman font.
- It is strongly preferred that English articles be e-mailed to Sister Bernadette Marie Ondus, SS.C.M. Editor, at bernsscm@yahoo.com. In this age of modern technology, it is faster and more cost effective to work from a text that is provided digitally instead of having to retype the entire article.
- If it is not possible for an article to be e-mailed, a "hard copy" may be mailed to Sister Bernadette at Villa Sacred Heart, Danville, PA 17821-1688.
- To be accepted for publication, articles must be between three and ten typewritten pages. Articles fewer than three pages or beyond ten pages will not be accepted.

USE OF PHOTOS

- If at all possible, kindly send photos to accompany articles. Photos must be included at the same time the article is sent to the Editor. (If sending photos digitally, save as separate JPGs to accompany the article.) Please indicate where photos are to be placed within the body of the article. Be sure to properly identify the persons, places and/or situations depicted in the photo(s). If no indication is given as to where, within the article, the photos are to be inserted, the photos will not be used.
- In the event that an article is e-mailed and photos are not included as attachments, the actual photographs, along with a hard copy of the article, must be mailed to Sister Bernadette Marie for inclusion in the article. (If more convenient, photos can also be saved to a CD which the printer can then link up with the article.) Once again, please be sure that the photos are properly identified and note where, within the article, the photos are to be inserted. Photos should always accompany the article for which they are intended.
- Captions must be included with the photos. This allows readers to better understand the relationship of the photo to the content of the article.

ARTICLES IN SLOVAK

- It is preferred that articles be written in English. Articles submitted in Slovak will be sent to a third party for editing. Please note: Articles submitted in Slovak that need to be typeset are set by a person who does not read Slovak; therefore, it is imperative that the author include all appropriate accent marks, diacritical letters, and other special characters. Correct punctuation is essential. Use commas and periods where appropriate, not dashes. ALL SLOVAK ARTICLES NEED TO BE CHECKED FOR CORRECTNESS BEFORE THEY REACH THE TYPESETTER.
- Slovak articles can be e-mailed to Sister Bernadette Marie, but a hard copy (including all accents) must also be mailed to her. (Please indicate that the article was both mailed and e-mailed.) Frequently, accent marks, diacritical characters, and other special characters do not come through properly when articles are e-mailed. Having a hard copy of the article, appropriately marked, will save valuable time and minimize errors.
- As Editor, Sister Bernadette Marie retains the right to correct grammatical errors, delete repetitions, rearrange ideas to make them clearer, etc. Sister Bernadette Marie also retains the right to determine the appropriateness of articles for the publication. However, she will not substantially change the author’s ideas without first consulting the author.
- Our sincere thanks to all the faithful contributors to The Good Shepherd! Your contributions, year after year, ensure that the Slovak Catholic Federation is able to provide a quality annual which helps celebrate our Catholic faith, preserves our Slovak heritage, and allows our readers to stay in touch with what's happening in the Catholic Church, in Slovakia, and in the Slovak-American community.

We are looking forward to your contributions again this year.

Reverend Philip A. Altavilla, V.E., SCF National President

Do you struggle to find the right gift for that special person in your life? You may think of sending flowers or even planning a surprise weekend getaway. These expressions of love are sure to be appreciated. But as you look for a way to mark that special occasion—anniversary, birthday or other milestone—why not consider giving your loved one a more enduring gift of love: life insurance.

Now you may be wondering, what does life insurance have to do with love? The truth is, they’re closely tied. The motivation behind purchasing life insurance is love: We buy it because we love people and want to protect them financially. It’s also a gift that continues to give. The proceeds of your policy could benefit your loved ones for many years after you’re gone.

That’s what happened with the Lewis family. David was a young, well-respected cardiac pediatrician who gave generously of his time and talent. This included making regular trips to Ecuador to provide free medical care to underprivileged children. It was on one of these trips that he suddenly died of a heart attack at the age of 43, leaving behind a wife and three young children.

While the pain from their loss may never go away, David’s family has benefited from the enduring gift he left behind. The proceeds from the life insurance he owned have enabled his wife, Sarah, to pay off the mortgage, set up college funds and maintain the family’s quality of life. “Dave had always taken care of us, and he continues to do that,” says Sarah.
Joseph Senko Honored as Slovak-American of the Year

Joseph T. Senko, a member of LPSCU Branch 42, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, was recently honored as Slovak-American of the Year by the Slovak Embassy at a dinner at the Washington Golf and Country Club. The award recognizes Joe’s long-term and dedicated efforts which have resulted in stronger ties of friendship between American and Slovak peoples based on contributions in the fields of cultural exchange, education, commerce, and the arts.

Joe presently serves as the Slovak Honorary Consul for Pennsylvania, Executive Director of the Western Pennsylvania Slovak Cultural Association, and Chairman of Friends of Slovakia in Washington, D.C.

The LPSCU congratulates Joe Senko on this distinguished award. We are proud of you, Joe!

FRATERNALS’ TRADE ASSOCIATION UNVEILS NEW IDENTITY

The nation’s premier association of fraternal benefits societies, formerly known as the National Fraternal Congress of America (NFCA), has adopted a new identity to better reflect its purpose, membership, and value to communities throughout the nation: American Fraternal Alliance.

The organization, which will be known informally as “the Fraternals” or “Fraternal Alliance,” also unveiled a new logo and tagline as part of its new identity. The association was formed in 1886.

The American Fraternal Alliance is a non-profit trade association with 70 members, each of which is a fraternal benefit society. These societies operate in 50 states, the District of Columbia and Canada. They represent nearly nine million individuals who participate in 31,500 local chapters—among America’s largest member-volunteer networks. In the last year alone, members invested more than 91 million hours in community works and contributed $400 million to charitable programs supporting community service projects.

Then and Now

How good are you at predicting the future when you know the past? We’re planning a fun new Convention Contest to see how good your powers of observation and imagination are. Watch upcoming issues for details.
The Single Premium Life Plan offered by the LPSCU is a unique type of insurance option, providing the desired amount of life insurance with one premium payment. The greatest advantage to the Single Premium Life Plan is that the certificate is paid for the rest of the insured’s life after just a single premium payment is made. The certificate remains in full force and effect for the life of the insured without the necessity of making any further premium payments after the single payment. Issue ages are from age 0 to 85. The ages and limits of insurance coverage for Non-Medical Rates are: 0-40, $30,000; 41-60, $20,000; 61-70, $10,000; 71-85, $5,000. However, the LPSCU reserves the right to require a medical examination on any applicant.

Upon the death of the insured, the face amount of the certificate is paid to the insured’s named beneficiary, except as provided for within the contract regarding Suicide and Contestability.

A member with a Single Premium Life Plan is entitled to all fraternal benefits of the LPSCU including educational awards, youth and adult activities, newborn benefits, prescription discount card, official publication, and discount car rental. Currently, dividends are not paid on the Single Premium Life Plan.

The Single Premium Life Plan is perfect for both youth and adults – especially anyone who prefers to have their life insurance paid in full with one premium payment. If you would like to give a special gift to anyone, consider the Single Premium Life Insurance certificate. This insurance plan would make an appropriate and thoughtful gift for anyone.

During these unstable economic times, the Single Premium Life Plan offered by the LPSCU is economical and beneficial for estate planning and can especially help with the high cost of funeral expenses. To apply for this specific plan, or any other insurance plan offered by the LPSCU, contact your Branch Secretary or the LPSCU Home Office.

Listed below are the Single Premium Schedules for the Single Premium Life Insurance Plan. The premiums listed are based on $1,000 of life insurance coverage. A Branch Administration Fee of $10 must be added to the total premium.

1 medium onion, chopped 4 Tbsp. margarine
1 Tbsp. paprika 1 tsp. black pepper
1 Tbsp. salt ½ pint sour cream
1½ cups water

Rinse and cut chicken into pieces. Brown onion in margarine, add chicken, paprika, salt, and pepper, and brown for 10 minutes. Add water, cover and let simmer slowly until chicken is tender. Remove chicken and place in a large bowl. Add sour cream to drippings in pan and mix well. Pour sauce over chicken and serve with halusky.

In a large pan, add 6 cups of water and a dash of salt and bring to a boil. Dip a teaspoon into the boiling water, and with the teaspoon push small pieces of dough from the cutting board into the boiling water. The halusky are done when they float to the surface. Drain and rinse in warm water. Serve with Chicken Paprikas.
Dear Junior Members,

“Fasiangy,” literally meaning “carnival,” is the Slovak word for Shrovetide or the French equivalent “Mardi Gras.” Fasiangy traditions evolved in the Middle Ages in the villages of Slovakia. Shrovetide was the period which preceded the Church’s Lenten fast and it consisted of all sorts of merrymaking. Slovak Fasiangy celebrations lasted from the Sunday before Lent until Tuesday night at midnight, but sometimes they extended well into Ash Wednesday morning.

In those days, life for these people was filled with long days of hard work. The simple villager was consumed by the endless chores of farming, the harvest, and trying to scrape out a modest living.

The commencement of the spring planting began in mid-March, followed in rapid succession by the hay harvest, the rye and wheat harvest, and finally the autumn harvest. This busy schedule left little time for frivolity, and so the people made the most of the period leading up to the busy time, enjoying their merrymaking to the fullest.

People danced throughout the Fasiangy, but the last few days, when the time of merrymaking was approaching its end, they became wild and noisy. Those days were called “ostatky” — that is, the last few days before Lent.

As Shrovetide neared its end, the merrymaking was no longer limited to just families and relatives. Now the entire village came out to celebrate. Fasiangy was a major event in Slovak villages and towns. Often, a group of youths would dress in masks and outrageous or funny costumes, going from house to house and playing music. The entertainers would be offered slanina (smoked bacon) and other treats that were prohibited during Lent.

Fasiangy brought people together and very often it opened the hearts — and also the purse strings — of the wealthier villagers. Everyone mingled at this festive time. There were no class distinctions or vanities. The servants came out to enjoy the food and drink right along with the families they served.

The last week of Shrovetide began with “fat Tuesday” when domestic servants were given the afternoon off. A pig fell victim to the butcher, food was as plentiful as on a feast day, and doughnuts (koblihy) and plaited dough were fried. (This also allowed the villagers to use up all the butter and other confections they were not allowed to eat during Lent.) Local superstitions warned that if the servants were not given this day off, the frogs would eat all the flax in the field, and if the doughnuts and plaited dough were not fried, there would be a bad harvest. Of course, since the servants were off, all of the work of preparing the food for the festivities fell to the farmer and his wife.

The villagers did not work on Shrovetide Tuesday. Instead, from early morning, they prepared for a fun-filled masked carnival. Elaborate masks were created and musicians tuned their instruments in preparation for the fun and merry making that was about to occur.

The Fasiangy procession had its own fixed order. Every region had its own special mask which was always present at the big village gatherings. One popular masked figure was a bear-tamer with a bear on a chain, often frightening the young children. One of the gayest figures was an old woman with a basket in which she carried her husband or a young boy. Other typical masked figures were the scarecrow, dressed in patches and rags, a chimney sweep, a farmer or a farmer’s wife, a drunkard, a jester, and a miser. Much time was spent that evening trying to guess who was behind each colorful mask.

The procession went past all the cottages, stopping at each while the musicians played and the participants danced and sang. The whole celebration ended with the burial of a fiddle. This symbolized that the merrymaking was at its end (buried) and the hard work remained. It marked the end of the drinking and fun for the Lenten season.

The “carnival” in Lithuania is called Užgavenės. It occurs on Shrove Tuesday, the day before Ash Wednesday, every year. Lithuanians have traditions similar to the Slovaks’ Fasiangy celebrations.

Fasiangy was a time of fun and nonsense, but it served a purpose, allowing the townsfolk to have fun and enjoy themselves before the Lenten fast. With the costumes, masks, parades, and merrymaking, I’m sure you have noted the similarity to “Mardi Gras” celebrated every year in New Orleans.

Bet You Didn’t Know…

There is a place where it’s Easter all year ’round: Alberta, Canada, where the largest Easter egg — made from aluminum — stands over 31 feet tall!

We’ll eat 60 million chocolate bunnies, 600 million marshmallow “Peeps” and 15 billion jelly beans this Easter. Five cents — that’s what the first package of Easter egg dye cost in the late 1800s, when chemist William Townley started peddling it. Why did he call his company PAAS? After the Dutch word “passen,” meaning Easter. The company is still in business today.

We send more flowers for Easter than we do for Valentine’s Day! Watch thousands of people take a walk down New York City’s Fifth Avenue during the city’s annual Easter parade. People will show off their wildly decorated Easter bonnets, adorned with everything from papier mache carrots to a toy train and tracks to a birdcage complete with a chirping parakeet in it.
Go Fly a Kite!

The month of March is called the Windy Month. It’s a good month to fly a kite. Kites have been around for a long, long time. The most popular kind of kite that most people know is diamond shaped, but kites come in many different shapes and sizes. Some can turn flips, others float in the air like birds, and others zoom along the ground and then shoot up into the sky.

Here are a few types of kites you may not be familiar with:

- The Delta is the best one for soaring. It is shaped like the Greek letter delta, a triangle. This kite will even fly in a light breeze.
- The parafoil kite design brought a big change to kite making. A parafoil needs no sticks to hold it in shape. Instead, its hollow tubes become stiff when they are filled with wind, keeping it aloft.
- Box kites were invented in Australia. They fly high and very steady.
- Cobra kites come from the Orient. They have long tails that weave and twist in the sky like a snake.
- The rokkaku (pronounced rockuh kew) is an ancient Japanese kite. It takes a whole team to fly this huge kite. It can be built up to seven feet across.

There are many different kinds of kites that can be used for fishing, surfing, snow skiing, and snow boarding. Some of these huge kites can even lift a person off the ground, water, or snow. Quite a ride!

POP-UP FLOWER CARD

What better way to celebrate the arrival of spring than to send a pop-up flower card!

Here’s what you’ll need:
- Card stock (a heavier paper available at craft or office supply stores, like the weight of the cards you find in card shops)
- White paper
- Crayons or colored markers
- Scissors
- White craft glue

Fold a sheet of the card paper in half. Write a special message on the front of the card and illustrate it with a drawing. Trace the outline of a flower on the white paper. Cut out the flower and color it in. For the stem, cut a strip of the card stock approximately 1-inch wide and 6- to 8-inches long, and color it green. Fold the strip accordion-style to make a “spring” for the flower. Glue the flower to the top of the spring. Glue the bottom end of the spring to the inside of the card. Close the card so that the spring is folded. When you open it, the flower will pop up.

Days of Lions and Lambs

Since March can be quite unpredictable, it is a good month to observe the weather. It’s said that March can come in like lion and go out like a lamb.

Designate a calendar for marking “Lion” and “Lamb” days. Lion days are cold and windy. Lamb days are warm and mild.

To record a lamb day, glue on a white cotton ball, to represent a lamb’s face. Mark each lion day by gluing a piece of yellow yarn on the date. At the end of the month, count the lion and lamb days and then you can decide whether the old saying came true.

March 19 is St. Joseph Day

Joseph, a quiet man, is mentioned little in the Bible. And yet, each mention depicts Joseph as a kind and supportive man who greatly loved and cared for his family. He was a “tektón,” meaning he was mechanically inclined and skilled in carpentry. What better man to build the foundation for the Holy Family? Then and now, Joseph, the Patron Saint of workers, is relied on for his guidance, stability, and support.

Kids in the Kitchen

Celebrate spring with a BIRD’S NEST SALAD.

You will need:
1 carrot
½ cup of Chow Mein noodles
Light mayonnaise
Grapes or raisins

Peel and grate the carrot. (Watch your fingers when using the peeler!) Mix the grated carrot with the Chow Mein noodles, then add just enough mayonnaise to moisten the mixture. Mound the mixture on a plate and use a large spoon to make an indentation in the middle. Fill the nest, using grapes or raisins for the eggs.
