One of my favorite Christmas cartoons is “A Charlie Brown Christmas.” In order to enhance the decorations on the set of the school Christmas pageant, Charlie Brown is sent on a mission to find a worthy Christmas tree. Much to the disappointment of his classmates and friends, he comes back with sad, skimpy little tree that cannot even sustain the weight of one ornament. After receiving the chastisement of his peers, and after Linus clues them in to the real meaning of Christmas, the children surround the poor little tree with great excitement and creativity, transforming it into a beautiful Christmas tree that radiantly and proudly shines for all to see as they sing, “Hark the Herald Angels Sing.”

If it wasn’t for Charlie Brown, no one would have selected that little tree and if it wasn’t for the care and devotion of those who saw past its unfortunate state, it would never have become a beautiful expression of the Christmas message. Here is another little story, told by Suzanne Lieurance, about a tree that didn’t think it would ever be accepted or wanted.

“The big pine trees make the prettiest trees,” the little pine says to himself. It is Christmastime in the forest, and all the trees are excited about the season. Their thick branches are covered with blankets of snow – all the branches except for the little pine’s, that is.

“Who would want such a little tree with such thin branches?” he says.

“Don’t worry,” says the biggest spruce in the forest, “someone will think you’re special.”

“All trees are special,” chirps a little bird, sitting on a snowy bough. But the little pine isn’t so sure. His branches droop a little.

Moments later, a family ventures into the forest, looking for the perfect Christmas tree.

“Remember,” says Mom, “it can’t be too broad, or it won’t fit through the door.”

“And it can’t be too tall,” says David, “or it will scrape the ceiling.”

“We’ll know the perfect tree when we see it,” says Sarah. Soon the family arrives at the forest. The trees can’t wait to see which tree will be picked. The children race right past the giant spruce trees. They stop at the little pine.

“This one!” decides Sarah.

“Yeah! It’s perfect!” says David.

“See,” says the biggest spruce, “someone thinks you’re special already.”

“What beautiful, straight branches,” says Mom. “Oh, such a lovely little tree.”

“See? They don’t think your branches are skinny,” says the biggest spruce. “They think you’re special.”

The little pine still drooped. “They think I’m special now. But wait ‘til they get me home.”

The family begins to decorate the tree with colored ornaments of all shapes and sizes. Then, after they place the ornaments on its branches, they very carefully place the Christmas angel on the top of the tree. The little tree’s branches shine with the festive ornaments. What a lucky tree to wear such beautiful ornaments!

The little pine perks up. “The family isn’t disappointed. Maybe the big spruce trees were right.”

The little pine stands proud and straight. “The big spruce trees were right,” he thinks. “Being special doesn’t always mean being the biggest or the most beautiful. In the forest, I thought that I was a scrawny little pine. But now I know that I truly am special.”

In both cases, little trees that were thought to be worthless were transformed in magnificent Christmas trees that brought joy and delight to people. It was because of the love and determination of Charlie Brown and friends as well as that family, searching in the forest for the perfect tree, that these little scrawny trees were given a chance to shine.

What do we truly celebrate at Christmas? At the appointed time, our Heavenly Father sent his son, Jesus, into the world to redeem and transform humanity. Broken and fragile because of choices for sin, Jesus came to reveal God’s enduring love for all people in a very unique way — by becoming one like us and by dying on the cross for us. We sing of this reality in the Christmas hymn, “O Holy Night,” which states: “Long lay the world in sin and error pining. Till He appeared and the soul felt its worth.” As Saint John tells us in his Gospel: “(For) God so loved the world that he sent his only Son that whoever believes in him might not perish, but might have eternal life.” (John 3:16). The great preacher, Reverend Billy Graham, once said: “The very purpose of Christ’s coming into the world was that He might offer up His life as a sacrifice for the sins of men. He came to die. This is the heart of Christmas.”

Christmas 2011

“And the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us, and we saw his glory, the glory as of the Father’s only Son, full of grace and truth” (John 1:14).

Dear Sisters and Brothers of the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union,

The truth that this passage from the Gospel written by the Apostle John conveys is both simple and awesome. We love and celebrate its simplicity each Christmas Season. Nevertheless, our minds can hardly begin to grasp the depth of its significance for us as regards the rest of the year — actually, the rest of our lives.

However, the Magi did comprehend to the extent that they were able. That awareness of something great having occurred did not remain simply as a matter of knowing and believing. It prompted them to embark on a journey at whatever cost and inconvenience. Their goal was to encounter the “Newborn King.” This they did; but, not where they expected to do so.

Their journey gives us an insight into our own earthly journey. Would that we, like the Magi, might act on that awesome event whose anniversary we celebrate every year. May the rest of our lives reflect the reality of what we believe.

Out of love, God came to be with us in the person of Jesus Christ. That is truly awesome!

I pray that all of you in our Society experience a very Blessed Christmas and a New Year that will continue for the rest of your earthly journey.

Fraternally yours in the Lord,

+ Joseph

A meeting of the Rev. Dianiska District of the LPSCU was held on Sunday, September 18, 2011, at St. Mary’s Church of the Immaculate Conception Hall in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. Theresa Kluchinski welcomed everyone on behalf of host Branches 6 and 213.

The meeting was called to order by District President Mary Ann Ewasko. She led the members in prayers for sick and deceased members of the District and for everyone in our communities who were involved in the recent flooding. The Pledge of Allegiance followed; Marissa Jason served as flag bearer.

Financial Secretary Marge Zinkavich read roll call. Barbara Kalish and Debbie Adamchak read the Secretary’s and Treasurer’s reports, respectively; both reports were approved. Barbara Kalish read correspondence and mentioned that the District received a thank you note from the board and staff of the Wyoming Valley Children’s Association for our recent donation.

The following items were discussed:

On May 7, members participated in “Join Hands Day” at The Laurels Skilled Nursing and Rehabilitation Center. The event was very successful.

The annual Youth Bowling Party was held on July 16 at Modern Lanes, Exeter, Pennsylvania. Hope and Lori Ann Napkora co-chaired this successful event once again. President Ewasko noted that one child said to her on the way out, “See you next year!”

President Ewasko thanked members for the cleaning supplies donated to the Catherine McAuley House in Plymouth, Pennsylvania for “Make a Difference Day.” A donation will be sent from the District to the Wyoming Valley Red Cross to help with flood recovery.

The District’s annual Christmas Party will be held on December 4 at the Ramada Inn in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, hosted by Branch 19. A flyer with details was passed out to the members. Four college award recipients from Branches 6, 7, 19, and 197 will be honored at the affair.

The next District meeting, which will be held in 2012, will be hosted by Branches 7 and 214.

National President Theresa Kluchinski announced that Sarah Brassington of Wilkes-Barre Branch 6 was honored with the 2011 Youth Achievement Award. Sarah attends Stonehill College in Easton, Massachusetts, and was not available to accept her award, so in her absence, her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Fino, accepted the award on her behalf. President Kluchinski also announced that she recently learned that Sarah is the recipient of the 2011 LPSCU Bishop Andrew G. Gruka Memorial Scholarship.

The President also presented Jean Kapral of Branch 19, Swoyersville, Pennsylvania, with the 2011 LPSCU Fraternalist of the Year award. Branch 19 honored Jean with a bouquet of flowers to celebrate her achievement.

After the meeting was adjourned, guest speakers Melissa Chisdock and Sheryl Ziobro from Med Express in Wilkes-Barre and Edwardsville, Pennsylvania, informed the group about their organization, which is a walk-in medical facility with doctors and nurses on staff seven days a week from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. The facility also has an in-house x-ray department. They have a one-hour in and out policy for most medical treatments. Melissa and Sheryl held a drawing and raffled prizes to the members. Melissa is a member of the LPSCU.

National President Theresa Kluchinski presents a plaque to Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Fino honoring their granddaughter, Sarah Brassington, as the 2011 LPSCU Youth Achievement Award recipient.

Sarah Ann Brassington Awarded Bishop Grutka Scholarship

Sarah Ann Brassington of Saugus, Massachusetts, is the 2011 recipient of the Bishop Andrew G. Grutka Memorial Scholarship. Sarah is currently a freshman at Stonehill College, North Easton, Massachusetts, majoring in accounting.

In May of this year, Sarah graduated from St. Mary’s High School, Lynn, Massachusetts, where her curriculum included all Honors programs. She was also our 2011 Youth Achievement Award Winner. (A feature article relating to her achievements and accomplishments was published in the May/June 2011 Zornicka on page 8.)

To qualify for the Bishop Grutka Memorial Scholarship, Sarah received two outstanding recommendations on her behalf. A letter from Reverend John E. Farrell, S.T.D., pastor of Our Lady of the Assumption Parish in Lynnfield, Massachusetts, of which Sarah is a member, states “Sarah is an awesome gift” to his parish. Father Farrell particularly appreciates Sarah’s leadership with the Youth Ministry Program and especially with children at the 9 a.m. Sunday Family Mass. He expresses that their religious education director, confirmation director, and youth music director all rely on Sarah’s competence and commitment in those areas. He further notes that the children of the parish readily trust Sarah and quickly accept her guidelines – she is generous with her talents and time. Fr. Farrell concludes, “Sarah knows herself as a disciple of our Lord Jesus Christ. If as a model or teacher herself in some future, Sarah is fully aware that she is His student and ever grateful for the gifts given to season and share.”

Mrs. Judy Dixon, director of religious education at Our Lady of the Assumption Parish, states in her recommendation letter that she has “grown to know Sarah as a faith-filled disciple of Christ.” Sarah’s duties as “Host Class Mass Coordinator” at the 9 a.m. Family Mass on Sundays entail that Sarah greet the students and catechists, ensure the Lectors are adequately prepared, find “back-up” Lectors if necessary, organize and assemble the processional, sit with the classes, ensure the smooth transition of the Lectors to the pulpit, and coordinate the gifts to be brought from the table to the altar.

It was through Sarah’s perseverance and determination that the parish’s youth room was renovated. She reached out to a fellow senior classmate who was looking for an Eagle Scout project, and she organized and executed a successful three-day renovation.

Sarah also served as youth liaison on the parish pastoral sub-committee for youth, requiring a monthly, and sometimes a bi-monthly commitment. Mrs. Dixon notes, “The insight, experience, and joy that Sarah brought to each meeting has offered each committee member hope for the future of the youth at Our Lady of the Assumption Parish.”

Sarah is the daughter of Leann and Richard Brassington, Sr. She has one brother, Richard, Jr. Sarah, her mother, brother, uncles, and many cousins are all members of LPSCU Branch 6, Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania.

Sarah’s outstanding volunteer commitment to the youth of her parish is remarkable. She is an outstanding young lady and most deserving of the 2011 LPSCU Bishop Andrew G. Grutka Memorial Scholarship. The LPSCU is very proud of Sarah’s volunteer service to her parish. We congratulate her on receiving this prestigious award and wish her continued success in her college years at Stonehill College and in her faith-filled dedication to the youth of her parish.

On Sunday, July 24, 2011, the Most Reverend Joseph C. Bambera, D.D., J.C.L., Bishop of Scranton, formally installed the Reverend Philip A. Altavilla, V.G., as the new pastor and rector of the Cathedral of Saint Peter, the Mother Church of the Diocese of Scranton, Pennsylvania. Attending this special liturgical celebration were Father Phil’s mother, Anne Altavilla (who also celebrated her birthday that day) and his aunt, Marie “Mayme” Gryczko. Concelebrating with Bishop Bambera and Father Phil was the Reverend Thomas M. Muldowney, V.E., Vicar for Clergy, assisted by Deacon Edward Shoener. Father Brian J.T. Clarke served as Bishop Bambera’s Master of Ceremonies and liturgical music was provided by the Cathedral choir and guest instrumentalists, under the direction of Mr. Danny Marx. Father Phil’s appointment was effective as of July 11, 2011.

To better serve the needs of the faithful of the Diocese of Scranton, effective on September 12, 2011, Bishop Bambera further appointed Father Phil as Vicar General and Moderator of the Curia. Father Brian J.W. Clarke also serves as Vicar General and Canonical Consultant. A Vicar General is the principal deputy of the bishop of a diocese for the exercise of administrative authority. As vicar of the bishop, the Vicar General exercises the bishop’s ordinary executive power over the entire diocese and, thus, is the highest official in a diocese or other particular church after the diocesan bishop or his equivalent in canon law. The Moderator of the Curia is entrusted with the oversight of those officials who assist the diocesan bishop.

Father Altavilla will continue to serve the diocese as the Director of Ecumenism and Interfaith Affairs and Chaplain for Scouting.

Father Phil, who serves as National Spiritual Advisor of the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union, is also the current National President of the Slovak Catholic Federation, which celebrated the centennial of its founding at St. Peter’s Cathedral on Sunday, May 15, 2011.

He is a graduate of the former Sacred Heart Slovak Elementary School in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, where his teachers were the Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius. Father Phil graduated from Bishop Hoban High School (now Holy Redeemer High School), Wilkes-Barre, and received his undergraduate degree in Philosophy and History at the University of Scranton. Father Phil completed his theological studies for the priesthood at the North American College and the Pontifical Gregorian University, both in Rome, Italy.

On April 30, 1992, he was ordained a Deacon by the late Cardinal Pio Laghi, then Prefect of the Congregation for Catholic Education in St. Peter’s Basilica in the Vatican, and then on June 27, 1992, he was ordained a priest by the Most Reverend James C. Timlin, D.D., Bishop of Scranton, in the Cathedral of Saint Peter, where he now serves as rector and pastor. He celebrated his first Mass at Sacred Heart Slovak Church in Wilkes-Barre. LPSCU Honorary Spiritual Advisor, Monsignor Francis J. Beeda, served as homilist for his first Mass, having been Father Phil’s pastor and mentor while growing up at Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish.

On March 6, 2006, His Holiness, Pope Benedict XVI bestowed the Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice (for the Church and the Pontiff) Medal on Father Phil in recognition of his outstanding priestly ministry and involvement with the Slovak Catholic Federation.

Our congratulations and prayerful best wishes go out to Father Phil on his new pastoral assignments. Ad multos annos!

District Members Prepare Slovak Fare

Members of the Pittsburgh District, along with parishioners from Holy Trinity Church of West Mifflin, Pennsylvania, prepared about 600 halupki (stuffed cabbage), as well as haluski, cheregi, and kolbasi, which were served July 21 at the Slovak Kitchen during Slovak Day at Kennywood Park, West Mifflin. Every year, these hard working ladies and gentlemen help to make this annual event such a success.

The Western Pennsylvania Slovak Day Committee is very grateful to Holy Trinity Church for allowing us to use its facilities, and to all who devote their time to this wonderful Slovak event.

Some of the Pittsburgh District members and Holy Trinity parishioners who helped in the food preparation are pictured below.

What the Holidays Mean to Me

Member Patricia Stearney recalls fond holiday memories:

The big day was always and still is Christmas Eve. It starts with a meal and then a gift exchange for the entire family.

Oplaky and honey is passed around first and everyone puts a small piece on an empty plate which is there for those in Heaven. The rest of the meal is usually meatless, sauerkraut soup, pierogi, smoked fish, dumplings with poppy seed, and fruit. Meat was eaten after Midnocy Mass.

Once my daughters married, we had to adjust the meals to their husbands’ and children’s liking, but it’s basically the same. Christmas Eve is still the special day for the entire family.

Our Scholarship Recipients Explain...

The Importance of Life Insurance

Life insurance is the backbone to a family’s financial stability after a death. Without it, many would struggle through this hard period, scrounging together money to pay for the funeral and cope with the loss. Life insurance gives people the confidence that their family will be taken care of, even after they are gone. It is that confidence that helps people remain happy and carefree knowing that everything is taken care of.

However, not all people have life insurance. This is a discouraging fact. Without life insurance, families are often left with little or no source of income. Funeral costs can be expensive, as well as medical costs and legal costs. These expenses rack up and become larger and larger every day. Without life insurance, the family is expected to pay for them all on their own. This could single handedly bankrupt an entire family. With life insurance, however, the family has help paying off funeral as well as everyday expenses, especially if the deceased provided the family income. While coping with a serious loss, it would be terrible for people to have to go through financial trouble as well.

Life insurance prevents hardships after death. It lets a family be a family and mourn a loss, without the burden of financial hardship. People often take life insurance for granted, or believe that it is only for old people. I hope that they understand that death does not discriminate, and takes all people regardless of health or age. Life insurance is family protection for the “what if” in life.

The 105 degree temperatures didn’t deter the faithful Slovaks from attending the 88th Slovak American Day at Kennywood Park, West Mifflin, Pennsylvania. In spite of the heat, the Slovak kitchen was busy with Branch 42 volunteers Mary Heckel, Margaret Joschak, and Trustee Elizabeth Melko all working feverishly to keep up with the crowd. The menu consisted of halupki (stuffed cabbage), kolbasi and sauerkraut, haluski (cabbage and noodles), and cheregi (donuts).

While the kitchen was open, events were taking place for all to enjoy. Accordion player Pete Cimino entertained in the dining area with many Slovak songs. There was a cultural display — “Slovenske Kroje” — a special collection belonging to Branch 42 member Anne Krohmaly. The Pittsburgh Area Slovaks dance ensemble had a lovely collection of Slovak artifacts, as well as artwork handmade by PAS junior members. The LPSCU also hosted a display which included brochures on the various insurance plans, as well as miscellaneous giveaways.

At 12:30 p.m., children were invited to participate in games, then at 2:00 o’clock there were performances by the Junior Pittsburgh Slovakians and Pittsburgh Area Slovak Junior and Maly dance groups.

Pittsburgh District President and Slovak Day Chairperson Dolores Sakal officially opened the program at 3:00 p.m. by welcoming the audience. An invocation was given by Rev. Joseph R. Grosko, pastor of Holy Trinity Parish, West Mifflin, Pennsylvania, and president of the Western Pennsylvania Slovak Day Committee.

A Eucharistic celebration in honor of Sts. Cyril and Methodius began at 4:00 p.m. with principal celebrant and homilist Rev. Thomas J. Burke, pastor of Good Shepherd Parish, Braddock, Pennsylvania, officiating. Present were priests from the Pittsburgh, Greensburg, and Altoona-Johnstown dioceses and Ukrainian Catholic Eparchy. Old and endearing Slovak hymns included “Dusa Krestanska,” “O Maria Bolestivam” and “Daruj Mi Jezu Srdce Tve.”

Following the Mass, the Pittsburgh Slovaks and Pittsburgh Area Slovak Dance Ensemble entertained in native Slovak costumes. Music for dancing provided by George Batya brought a successful climax to the 88th celebration of Slovak Day at Kennywood Park.

ZORNICKA
The Cardinal Tomko Chapter of the Slovak Catholic Federation held a memorable Slovak flag-raising ceremony at Allentown City Hall Plaza on Monday, September 12, 2011, commencing at 12 noon. Twenty residents from the Lehigh Valley area, some of whom were dressed in “kroj” costume, attended this 27th Annual Slovak flag raising. The event was held in commemoration of the Feast of Our Lady of Sorrows, patroness of Slovakia, which was observed on September 15.

The program opened with a welcome extended to all by Margaret A. Ferri, president of the Cardinal Tomko Chapter of the Slovak Catholic Federation. An inspirational invocation was offered by Rev. Dominick Kalata, pastor of St. John the Baptist Slovak Catholic Church in Allentown.

After being introduced, the Honorable Ed Pawlowski, mayor of the City of Allentown, proudly read a Proclamation citing how the Slovak Catholic Federation, through its local Cardinal Tomko Chapter, works to keep alive the faith and heritage of the Slovaks in the Lehigh Valley area. The Proclamation also stated that the members of this organization have created an atmosphere of brotherhood and an opportunity to honor and perpetuate the values, traditions, and language of their forefathers, whose love of God, respect for hard work, and dedication to a democratic society have earned the respect of all their neighbors in each of their communities. The Mayor further proclaimed Monday, September 12, 2011, as the 27th Annual Slovak Flag Day in Allentown. Mayor Pawlowski then introduced city officials who were present at the ceremony.

A Proclamation signed by the Honorable Donald T. Cun-ningham, Jr., Lehigh County Executive, was also read. The Proclamation cited that Lehigh Valley residents of Slovak descent have made significant contributions to the quality of life and sense of community of the region and individuals of the Slovak culture emphasize loyalty to their culture, folklore, hospitality, and way of life.

Remarks were also made by Chapter President Ferri and Justine Wesnak, Chapter foundress and past president.

As the Slovak flag was being raised to fly over Allentown City Hall by Mayor Pawlowski and Justine Wesnak, Father Kalata and Margaret Ferri led the assembled crowd in singing “God Bless America” and the Slovak National Anthem, “Nad Tatrou Sa Blyska.” The program closed with a Benediction offered by Msgr. Robert F. Kozel, the Chapter’s chaplain and pastor emeritus of St. John the Baptist Slovak Catholic Church.

Afterwards, all were invited to a reception in the lobby of City Hall.

The entire program was televised by Service Electric Cable Television (Channel 2) and WFMZ Television (Channel 69).

Rev. Dianiska District Celebrates “Make a Difference Day”

At the September meeting of the Reverend Dianiska District of the LPSCU, members participated in “Make a Difference Day.”

For this year’s project, members donated cleaning supplies to the Catherine McCauley House in Plymouth, Pennsylvania. Sister Marie, director of McCauley House, was not available this year to personally accept our donation as she was escorting her mother back to Ireland after a month-long visit, but Sister sent word that she appreciates the efforts and kindness of the District members.

Dear Junior Members,

The mighty Mayflower set sail from England on September 6, 1620. Though the ship was called mighty, it was small, measuring about 106 feet long and 25 feet at its widest point. On board were 102 passengers, including 32 children, a captain, and a crew of about 26 men. Two people died on the long voyage, and a baby boy was born. He was named Oceanus. The voyage should have taken about a month, but instead it took the Pilgrims 66 days.

Because the Mayflower carried the Pilgrims, it became one of our country’s most famous ships. Whereas normally ships traveled in pairs in case something happened, the Mayflower sailed alone on a big sea. Relieved to finally reach land on November 11, the Pilgrims anchored off Cape Cod, Massachusetts, near what is now Provincetown. After exploring the coast, the Pilgrims relocated to the mainland, disembarking at Plymouth Rock on December 16.

Of the 102 original Mayflower passengers, about 40 were “Separatists” who wanted to separate from the Church of England. The others were colonists in search of a new life. But all were called Pilgrims.

No one had planned for so many people to be on board the Mayflower. Some had planned to sail on a different ship, the Speedwell, but the ship leaked and many of its passengers were added to the Mayflower. There were at least two dogs and one cat, as well as chickens on board.

There were no such things as “passenger ships” at that time. Ships were built to transport goods from port to port. For its previous 12 years, the Mayflower had carried cargos of wine. Passengers had to build their own “cabins,” or places to sleep. Many slept on the floor. There was very little privacy. Everyone feared a fire aboard the wooden ship. If the sea was calm, passengers cooked food in metal boxes filled with sand. But when there was wind, they didn’t dare light a fire. They often ate cold food.

Meals consisted of hard biscuits, salted beef, pork, fish, and sheep, smoked fish, cheese, dried peas, and beans. Bugs were a problem. The water became unfit to drink, so everyone, including the children, drank beer. There wasn’t enough room to bring much on board. The Pilgrims might have brought books, a few clothes, cooking pots, tools, weapons, small pieces of furniture, and goods to trade with the native people.

For about half of the 66 days at sea, the weather was so bad that the passengers had to stay below decks. It was hot and stuffy and air circulation was poor. Many were very seasick. The passengers probably never bathed or changed clothes. The smell in the crowded conditions below would have been awful. You can only imagine what these people endured in order to reach their dream of a new life in the New World.

During that first winter, about half of the Pilgrims died. Thankful to have survived, the remaining Pilgrims held a harvest feast the following fall. They invited 90 Wampanoag Indians who lived in villages along the coast where the Pilgrims settled. These Native Americans helped the Pilgrims survive by showing the newcomers how to plant corn and other vegetables, how to build shelters that would withstand the harsh New England winters, which plants could be used as medicines, and how to dig and cook clams, among many other survival skills. Our present day Thanksgiving celebration can be traced back to this event.

The Mayflower II is a living history museum tied up at Plimouth Plantation in Plymouth, Massachusetts. A full-scale reproduction of the original Mayflower, it was built in Devon, England, and crossed the Atlantic in 1957. On board the ship at Plimouth Plantation today, role players in period costume recreate life on the famous crossing. Visiting the ship is an extraordinary experience with living history that will give you a renewed appreciation for the courage and fortitude of these brave voyagers.

Some Christmas Trivia

Roman Catholics first celebrated Christmas in 336 A.D. It was then known as the Feast of the Nativity.

Showing Christmas spirit in Boston between 1659 and 1681 would get the offender a fine because celebrating Christmas was outlawed.

Christmas wasn’t declared a federal holiday in the U.S. until 1870.

Franklin Pierce was the first president to introduce a Christmas tree to the White House in 1856. That tree was lit by candles, as was the custom of the time. Lights didn’t appear on the White House Christmas tree until 1895, when Grover Cleveland had electric lights put on it.

The earliest Christmas tree lights were very expensive, costing upwards of $300. (That is more than $2,000 in today’s dollars!) General Electric, the company founded by Thomas Edison, sold hand-blown bulbs that needed to be wired together by a “wireman” hired by the homeowner.

The first National Christmas Tree was lighted on the White House lawn in 1923 by President Calvin Coolidge.

There has been a Christmas tree in Rockefeller Center since 1931 but it was not lighted with electric lights until 1956.
Our Christmas Traditions

Slovak Christmas traditions during the week between Christmas and the New Year are the most interesting and beautiful. Many stories handed down from our Slovak forefathers attribute magical powers to this special time of the year.

The 25th of December, around the time of the winter solstice, had been celebrated as the day when the sun was “born again,” because after the solstice, the hours of daylight began to lengthen. In the 4th century, all of this changed when the Church designated this day as the day Jesus was born.

Although some of the pagan myths were changed, Christians have carried many over with a Christian twist. December 6th, St. Nicholas Day, was the traditional day for Slovaks to exchange gifts. On the evening of St. Lucia’s Day, when the powers of darkness were said to do more harm than usual, the women dressed up in fancy dress and ritually chased the evil spirits out of their houses.

December 24th, Christmas Eve, was the turning point between the declining and increasing light of the sun. This feast is even now linked in the minds of Slovak people with a large number of traditions. They said that whatever one did on that day, one would do all year round.

The lighting of the Christmas fire — known by some as the yule log — used to be a widespread practice observed by all Europeans. The Christmas fire was considered sacred. This fire was later replaced with candles burned in memory of loved ones no longer with us. This was then incorporated into the decorated Christmas tree, which was illuminated with lit candles before the advent of “Christmas tree lights.” The tradition of erecting Christmas trees arrived from Germany and Austria in the latter half of 18th century, but did not expand to all of Slovakia until the first quarter of the 19th century. The trees were decorated with baked goods made with honey in the form of angels and other religious symbols, and candies, nuts, apples, and fruits. The tree was not taken down until the 6th of January, the feast of the Three Kings. At this time the children were able to finally have all the goodies and sweets from the tree.

We know today that the secret of Christmas is really the mystery and miracle of the birth of Jesus and the celebration of new life.

Kids in the Kitchen

STYLIN’ SNOWMEN

You will enjoy making these colorful and styling’ snowmen. Dress up pretzel rods in colorful candy scarves and top hats, and they will surely make a hit at your holiday festivities.

You will need:
- 10 8-inch-long pretzel rods
- 1 cup white chocolate chips
- 50 mini chocolate chips
- 10 gummy rings
- 10 gumdrops
- Fruit leather

Place the white chocolate chips in a 2-quart bowl. Microwave for one minute and stir with a wooden spoon until smooth. (Microwave a bit longer if necessary.) Let the chocolate cool and thicken a bit. Dip one end of the pretzel rod into the melted chocolate and use a plastic spoon or knife to spread the chocolate two thirds of the way down the rod.

Stand the pretzel rods in a mug or glass and tie on strips of fruit leather around the neck for scarves. For the hats, stretch a gummy ring over the narrow end of a gumdrop and secure it to the pretzel rod with a dab of melted chocolate.

The Mayflower Compact

When the Pilgrims came to this country from England in 1620, they realized they had to have some agreement as to how they would run their new colony. While the Mayflower lay off the coast, the leaders on board wrote up a short agreement. The 41 men on board signed it.

In the Mayflower Compact, the men promised to make just and equal laws for the general good of the colony. They also agreed to live by these laws. This was the first time in the history of our country that a group of citizens set up their own kind of government.

The Mayflower Compact was not a constitution, but it was an important step in history. Using it as a guide, settlers in the New England colonies set up a government based on town meetings. Citizens gathered at these town meetings to discuss and act on the town’s problems. They set their taxes and elected leaders. They were able to speak out freely about their government and they learned a lot about self-government by doing so.
of Lieurance’s story, it is easy for us to not believe in our own goodness, worth, and value. For a variety of reasons and circumstances, some may wonder if their life really matters or if anyone really cares about them. The message of Christmas is a clear statement from God that all human life matters and has value and even if no one seems to care, our God cares deeply for us. This love is clearly shown in his willingness to sacrifice his son, Jesus, for us.

Let us remember that Christmas is not just a day, an event to be observed and speedily forgotten. It is a spirit which should permeate every part of our lives. As God so affirms our worth and value, by sending us his Son, Jesus, to be our Savior, so may we affirm the worth and value of all persons through the respect and concern we extend to them. As Blessed Mother Teresa of Calcutta once said, “It is Christmas every time you let God love others through you . . . yes, it is Christmas every time you smile at your brother and offer him your hand.” The message of Christmas reminds us that in God’s heart and eyes ALL are special and precious!

On behalf of the National Board of Directors of the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union, I wish to extend to you and yours best wishes for a very Happy Thanksgiving and a blessed and joyous Christmas! May the good news that God has been revealed to us in a babe born in Bethlehem open our hearts to the presence of God in one another. May we remember in our hearts our neighbor, living both near and far, wishing them peace and good will. May we lift up those whose spirits ache this day, that they might be mended. May the Christ Child, revealed in Bethlehem’s manger, reside in our hearts and minds this day, and every day. May God abundantly bless you on Thanksgiving, at Christmas, and always! Happy Thanksgiving and Merry Christmas!

Bože, daruj nám vianočné svetlo, ktoré je vierou; pohodlie vianočné, ktoré je láskou; žiaru vianočné, ktorá je čistotou; vianočnú bezúhonnosť, ktorú je spravodlivosťou; dôveru vianočné, ktorá je pravdou; prameň vianočné, ktorým je Kristus. Nech Vás Boh štedro požehnáva počas sviatkov Vďakyvzdania, sviatkov Vianoc a neustále. Šťastné sviatky Vďakyvzdania a Veselé Vianoce!
