At the conclusion of the Year of Faith, called for by Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI on Sunday, November 24, 2013, the Solemnity of Jesus Christ, the Universal King, His Holiness, Pope Francis issued his first Apostolic Exhortation entitled: The Gospel of Joy. An Apostolic Exhortation (teaching) is a communication of the Holy Father that encourages some sort of pastoral activity and is not necessarily solely focused on articulating already known church teachings. Instead of simply restating church teachings, an Apostolic Exhortation offers a vision or “action plan” on how church teachings may be offered to the world in a manner that allows people to be more receptive to the message of salvation.

Pope Francis offers this document to the Church as a map and guide to her pastoral mission in the near future. It is an invitation to recover a prophetic and positive vision of reality without ignoring current challenges to the truth of the Gospel. Pope Francis develops the theme of the proclamation of the Gospel (evangelization) in the contemporary world, drawn from, among other sources, the contribution of the work of the Synod of Bishops held in the Vatican from October 7-28, 2012, on the theme: “The new evangelization for the transmission of the faith.”

While offering just a few comments in this article, I would certainly encourage reading this marvelous document in its entirety by visiting the Vatican website (the Holy See) at: http://www.vatican.va/holy_father/francesco/apost_exhortations/documents/papa-francesco_esortazione-ap_20131124_evangelii-gaudium_en.html#The_joy_of_the_gospel

In the opening paragraph, Pope Francis states: “The joy of the gospel fills the hearts and lives of all who encounter Jesus. Those who accept his offer of salvation are set free from sin, sorrow, inner emptiness, and loneliness. With Christ, joy is constantly born anew. In this Exhortation I wish to encourage the Christian faithful to embark upon a new chapter of evangelization marked by this joy, while pointing out new paths for the Church’s journey in years to come.” Pope Francis describes the history of salvation as a “great stream of joy.” Jesus has come so that his joy may be in us and our joy may be complete (John 15:11). The Christian’s joy “drinks of Jesus’ brimming heart,” he says. This participation in Jesus’ joy constitutes the “Joy of the Gospel” Francis is proclaiming not only through the title and pages of this exhortation, but also through his daily example. His hope, expressed in this new Apostolic Exhortation, is that the “Joy of the Gospel” will arouse the interest of clergy, religious, and lay faithful, and will provide a model for the reform of the Church — helping the Church more effectively carry out her mission as salt, light, and leaven in the world of today and tomorrow.

Pope Francis describes the transformation that must first happen in the Church so that sharing the happiness that flows from our encounter with Jesus in faith becomes part of everything the Church does. The Pope invites the reader to “recover the original freshness of the Gospel,” finding “new avenues” and “new paths of creativity,” without enclosing Jesus in our “dull categories.” There is a need for a “pastoral and missionary conversion, which cannot leave things as they presently are” and a “renewal” of ecclesiastical structures to enable them to become “more mission-oriented.” This renewal cannot be deferred or put off, he said. “I dream of a ‘missionary option,’ that is, a missionary impulse, capable of transforming everything, so that the Church’s customs, ways of doing things, times and schedules, language and structures can be suitably channeled for the evangelization of today’s world.”

Throughout his Exhortation, Pope Francis describes how the Church must “go forth,” boldly taking the first step to draw near to those who do not know or live the Gospel, by building bridges, supporting others, taking on the “smell of the sheep” and patiently seeking to accompany them on their journey. He says that the message we announce should be the “heart of the Gospel,” which is the joyful proclamation that Jesus loves them, gave his life to save them, and seeks to live at their side each day to strengthen and free them.

For Pope Francis, the local parish becomes the place where this missionary activity originates and naturally flows out into the local community. He states “the parish is not an outdated institution; precisely because it possesses great flexibility, it can assume quite different contours depending on the openness and missionary creativity of the pastor and the community. While certainly not the only institution which evangelizes, if the parish proves capable of self-renewal and constant adaptivity, it continues to be ‘the Church living in the midst of the homes of her sons and daughters.’” . . . “This means that the parish has contact with the homes and the lives of its people, not becoming a useless structure out of touch with people or a self-absorbed group made up of a chosen few. The parish is the presence of the Church in a given territory, an environment for hearing God’s word, for growth in the Christian life, for dialogue, proclamation, charitable outreach, worship, and celebration. In all its activities the parish encourages and trains its members to be evangelizers. A healthy, vibrant parish is a community of communities, a sanctuary where the thirsty come to drink in the midst of their journey, and a center of constant missionary outreach.”

In the final chapter of the Exhortation, entitled: “Spirit-Filled Evangelizers,” Pope Francis calls all Catholics to be those who are “fearlessly open to the working of the Holy Spirit” and who have “the courage to proclaim the newness of continued on page 32
LEHIGH VALLEY OKRES
A meeting of the Lehigh Valley Okres was held on November 10, 2013, at 1:00 p.m. at the Bull & Bear Restaurant, Allentown, Pennsylvania. Twelve members were present. PITTSBURGH DISTRICT

Pittsburgh District members and their guests are pictured enjoying the District’s Annual Card Party held on October 27, 2013, at St. Maximilian Kolbe Parish, Homestead, Pennsylvania. Members of the parish served a delicious luncheon to the 65 who attended the affair. Card winners at each table received a ceramic figurine.

Branch 65 member Susan Lazur stands beside the table of Chinese auction prizes, among which was a lovely Vera Bradley bag donated by Margaret Ferri, LPSCU public relations director. The Pittsburgh District greatly appreciated Margaret’s thoughtful donation.

A New Commandment?

Thou shall take care of updating your beneficiaries on your insurance policies and other financial documents (e.g., annuities, wills, CDs, etc.). There ought to be this or another Commandment entitled: Take care of your financial responsibilities when it comes to life insurance or other financial holdings like those already mentioned. Perhaps in the 613 commandments God gave Moses on the Mount, there is one.

In my college history class on Medieval History in the Middle Ages, when a Crusader went to fight in the Crusades, he would make arrangements to insure that his family would be taken care of by leaving finances and family matters in the hands of a trusted family member or friend, and Medieval laws/rules regulated inheritance.

One should make a point of updating one’s beneficiaries on insurance policies, especially after the death of a beneficiary or the birth of a new beneficiary, or a change of name of a beneficiary (such as through marriage). There are, of course, many other occasions on which a beneficiary designation might need to be updated or changed. So, do not hesitate! Go to your safe deposit box or your home file cabinet and check that policy so you can notify the Home Office of any needed beneficiary updates now!

Hurry — The Postmark Deadline for Nominations is April 1, 2014

Peter Kmec from Kosice, Slovakia, first came to America in his Junior year of high school as a Foreign Exchange Student. He soon became an active member of the Slovak Heritage Society of Northeastern Pennsylvania.

Motivated to learn English, Peter wanted to continue his “study abroad” experience at a college in the United States. He loved the small Catholic school environment at Holy Redeemer in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, where he attended high school. He soon found the same environment and similar values at King’s College, also in Wilkes-Barre, where he is a member of the Class of 2015.

An international business and accounting major at King’s, Peter is currently president of the Student Council Executive Board, a co-leader of the Emerging Leaders Program, an admission ambassador, a resident assistant, and a caterer at the King’s College Catering Service. Among his other college activities, he enjoys the Drama Club and acting in school productions.

Post-graduation, Peter would like to join an international business firm to help with globalization efforts, preferably a United States firm based somewhere in Europe. “While I love studying in America,” he says, “I would prefer to be in Europe, closer to my family.”

Throughout the year, Peter finds time to be quite active with the Slovak Heritage Society of Northeastern Pennsylvania through projects like Stations of the Cross, assisting with Slovak teaching classes, holiday hymn sings, the annual picnic, special dinner events, and working year-round with guidance from his mentor in the SHS, Michael Stretanski of Kingston, Pennsylvania.
JET Plan $1.00 First Year Premium Extended

The LPSCU Board of Directors announces that the $1.00 first year annual premium on the Juvenile Estate Term (Term-to-25) plan of insurance has been extended for the year 2014. This offer is limited to certificates with an issue date in the year 2014. After the first year, premiums will be billed at the rate of $16.00 for $10,000 of term life insurance and $9.50 for $5,000 of term life insurance.

The LPSCU’s Juvenile Estate Term (JET) Plan, commonly referred to as Term-to-25, is an ideal insurance solution for students and is available to anyone less than 22 years of age. The plan provides full life insurance protection from date of issue to age 25.

A medical exam is not required to apply; however, the LPSCU reserves the right to require a medical exam on any applicant should it be deemed necessary.

Once the JET insurance certificate is issued, coverage remains in full force and effect through the maturity date of the certificate, provided premium payments are kept current. This plan matures when the insured’s certificate reaches the anniversary of issue date closest to his/her 25th birthday. When the certificate expires, the insured will be given an option to convert his/her current coverage amount to a legal reserve plan (permanent insurance) with no evidence of insurability being required. This is a guaranteed provision within the JET contract.

In the event of the death of the insured prior to reaching 25 years of age, the face amount of the policy is paid to the named beneficiary.

The new legal reserve certificate may provide a death benefit equal to or less than the face amount of the expired JET policy. The policy date of issue will be the expiry date of the JET policy. The policy premium on the new certificate will be based on the member’s age on the date of exchange and on the Society’s premium rates then in effect. The first premium on the new certificate must be paid prior to the expiry date of the JET policy. Written request for exchange will be required.

JET Term-to-25 is an excellent, affordable plan providing protection for your children from infancy on through their school years, including college. Now the JET Term-to-25 is even more affordable with the first year’s premium costing just $1.00. This offer is good for certificates with an issue date in the year 2014.

Call your Branch Secretary today for an application for this economical term insurance plan for the young, or contact the LPSCU Home Office at 888-834-6614 or 570-823-3513. You can also e-mail the Home Office at lpscu@lpscu.org.

Cheryl Roche of LPSCU Branch 64 Receives St. Jeanne Jugan Award

The Little Sisters of the Poor is an international congregation of Roman Catholic women religious founded in 1839 by St. Jeanne Jugan. The congregation serves the elderly poor in over 30 countries around the world. The Sisters also serve residents at the Little Sisters of the Poor Home in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, where Cheryl Roche has been a housekeeper since March 2007. Every year the employees at the Home are asked to nominate one of their fellow employees for the St. Jeanne Jugan Award.

Veronica Bryan, who is Little Sisters Apartment Manager, states one of her favorite sayings of St. Jeanne Jugan is “Making the elderly happy — that is what counts!” She uses that quote to see who she wants to nominate for the award and this year was no exception. Veronica says she had the great honor of working with Cheryl and watching her live the example of St. Jeanne Jugan. When she asked the residents to describe Cheryl, some of the words they used were: “joyful,” “efficient,” “kind,” “helpful,” “patient,” “great,” “willing to help anyone,” “caring,” “loving,” “energetic,” and “always positive.” Those are just a few responses and are some of the same characteristics often used to describe St. Jeanne Jugan.

Besides Cheryl’s dedication to the residents, she is also a very loving and dedicated mother to her son, Frankie, and a caring daughter to her mother, Ruth Kincel. One of the very special things Cheryl shared with Veronica when she first started working at the Home is that she works hard there so that her son will always be proud of her. Veronica states that Cheryl truly represents St. Jeanne Jugan by doing whatever it takes to make their residents happy.

Cheryl and her mother and son are all members of LPSCU Branch 64 of Pittsburgh. Members of Branch 64 are very proud of the honor bestowed upon Cheryl in receiving this award. The LPSCU is also proud of Cheryl and extends sincere congratulations to her on receiving this honor.

Founded in 1787, the University of Pittsburgh is the oldest institution of higher learning west of the Allegheny Mountains offering the Slovak Studies Program. The Slovak Studies Program established at the Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures is the only permanent Slovak program at an American university. The program offers courses devoted specifically to Slovakia and includes information about Slovakia in other, more general, courses in the department. These are taught by the University’s regular faculty and, usually, by a visiting professor from a Slovak university.

In addition to offering Slovak language courses during the regular Fall and Spring terms, every year the Department of Slavic Languages and Literature organizes a Summer Intensive Slovak Institute. This six-week program, which consists of five-hours-a-day instruction from late June until the end of July, attracts students from all over the United States and Canada.

The Slovak Studies Program benefits from the extensive Slovak collection at Hillman Library, the main library of the University of Pittsburgh.

The Slovak Studies Program at the University of Pittsburgh derives its resources from the Slovak Endowment which has been established with the generous and vital support of the following fraternal organizations in the United States:

- First Catholic Slovak Union
- Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union
- First Catholic Slovak Ladies Association
- Slovak Catholic Sokol
- National Slovak Society

In the mid-1980s, representatives of the participating fraternal organizations met at the University of Pittsburgh to discuss the terms of the proposed endowment of a program of Slovak studies, and the financial support which would be necessary to ensure its continuation. It was at this meeting that Cecilia Sarocky, then LPSCU national president, was elected to the Board of The Slovak Foundation and subsequently became the Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the Foundation.

The immediate goal was to raise enough capital to fund the endowment of the Slovak language program at the University of Pittsburgh and thereby guarantee that the University would offer the basic and advanced courses in Slovak for at least two years.

Through the generosity of the fraternal organizations, a total of $500,000 was raised over approximately fifteen years, with the LPSCU contributing $70,000. Not only was there enough money to fund the program for several years – the program has continued and continues to thrive thanks to those that made the financial commitment over twenty-five years ago.

The Slovak Foundation is in the process of re-organization. A meeting was held November 2, 2013, in Pittsburgh for the purpose of re-connecting with the Slovak Studies Program at the University of Pittsburgh and determining the role and objectives of The Slovak Foundation and its Board of Directors. Representatives from the FCSU, LPSCU, FCSLA, and NSS met with Professor Martin Votruba, director of the Slovak Studies Program.

Professor Votruba graciously provided a meeting room for the second half of the day. Everyone met in the Croghan-Schenley Room at the Cathedral of Learning on the University of Pittsburgh campus. Prior to reconvening the meeting for the afternoon, those present were honored to have Ben Sorensen play the fujara for the group. The instrument originated in central Slovakia as a large sophisticated folk shepherd’s overtone fipple flute and has a sound like no other instrument.

For information on the Slovak Studies Program at the University of Pittsburgh, go to www.pitt.edu/~votruba. Additional information regarding the Slovak Studies Program will also be published in future issues of Zornicka.

Two Sisters from Eastern Europe have joined the Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius in Danville, Pennsylvania, for one year of shared ministry. Sister Jana Maria Polakova, SCM, from Turzovka, Slovak Republic, and Sister Edita Lenka Navratilova, SCM from Brno, Czech Republic, will live and minister with the Sisters in Danville during the 2013-2014 school year. The visit is part of a number of activities sponsored by the Danville Sisters marking the 1,150th anniversary of the brothers Saints Cyril and Methodius coming to Eastern Europe to evangelize.

Sister Polakova, trained in Religious Studies and History, and Sister Navratilova, trained in English, Religious Studies, and the Czech Language, will serve as teacher aides in the Saint Cyril Preschool and Kindergarten in Danville. They will also share other ministry experiences with the Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius, including parish ministry and outreach to the elderly and sick.

While the Community names of the Sisters in Danville and the Sisters in Velehrad in the Czech Republic are the same, they are different communities. Their histories are similar, however, both being founded in the early 1900s, and both serving primarily in education, parish work, and care for the sick and elderly.

In inviting the Sisters from Europe to this collaboration, Sister Michael Ann Orlik, general superior of the Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius in Danville, stated, “Such a connection will nurture the faith life and mission to service of both of our groups.”

In accepting the offer, Sister Vaclava Dudova, general superior of the Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius in Velehrad, Czech Republic, applauded the opportunity for increased cooperation between the two congregations of Sisters during the Jubilee 1,150th anniversary of the arrival of Saints Cyril and Methodius to Moravia.

The Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius in Danville currently serve in seven states: Pennsylvania, New York, Connecticut, South Carolina, Indiana, Illinois, and Texas. During the year the visiting Sisters will have the opportunity to visit and assist at some of these ministries.

The postmark deadline for nominations is June 1, 2014.
November 12, 2013 marked the 20th anniversary of the death of the Most Reverend Andrew G. Grutka, D.D. Leading up to the anniversary, Rev. Monsignor Joseph Semancik, a retired priest of the Diocese of Gary, Indiana, gave a talk about the late Bishop of Gary to a group of LPSCU members from Branch 79 and the Illiana District.

In his presentation, Msgr. Semancik stated that Bishop Grutka was the first priest of Slovak background to be named to the Office of Bishop in the United States. In 1957, after his Episcopal Ordination, Bishop Grutka was appointed the first bishop to lead the newly formed Diocese of Gary in Indiana. He held this pastoral position until 1984, when Pope John Paul II accepted the Bishop’s request to resign because he had reached the age of 75.

Bishop Grutka’s parents moved from Pittsburgh to Joliet, Illinois, where Andrew Grutka was born. As a young man, he worked in the Carnegie Steel Mills in Joliet which gave him experiences for his future pastoral work and activities. As a young seminarian, he studied theology at the North American College in Rome and was ordained a priest in Rome in 1933 for the Diocese of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

According to the website of Indiana Northwest Glen Park campus, then Father Grutka became concerned deeply with social and economic problems of working people. This special concern was formed by his own working class upbringing and work experience. As a result, he joined the Association of Catholic Trade Unions and became a member of the Board of Directors of the Gary Urban League, among other organizations. After serving as an assistant pastor in Elkhart, Indiana, and as a pastor at Sacred Heart Church in East Chicago, Illinois, and Holy Trinity Church in Gary, he was chosen on Christmas Eve 1956 as the first bishop of the newly created Diocese of Gary, which had previously been part of the Diocese of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

It is well known that Bishop Grutka was instrumental in helping to establish and build the Slovak Institute (Ustav) of Saints Cyril and Methodius in Rome. Twenty thirteen marked the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Institute, which is now known as the Pontifical College of Saints Cyril and Methodius, where priests from Slovakia reside as they further their theological studies in the Eternal City.

Msgr. Semancik also stated that Bishop Grutka served on a Commission that studied the prison systems in the United States. In this capacity, the Bishop had the opportunity to visit most of the prisons in the U.S. and his contribution to revising the prison system continues to have an impact today. Bishop Grutka was also deeply involved in and committed to racial and social justice, educational opportunity, and the welfare of the human being.

Bishop Grutka, a former president of the Catholic Communication Foundation, was one of five religious representatives to visit North Vietnam in 1974. He received the American Legion Civic Merit Award in 1940 and the University of Evansville Medal of Honor. In 1977, he was named a Sagamore of the Wabash, a title conferred by the governor of Indiana to recognize distinguished Indiana citizens. He also received the Roy Wilkens Award of the Gary chapter of the NAACP in 1981.

Bishop Grutka’s documents and history are archived in the Library at Calumet College of Saint Joseph in Whiting, Indiana.

In recognition of Bishop Grutka and his faithfulness to our Catholic faith and Slovak heritage, at the LPSCU’s 37th National Convention held August 13-16, 2000, in Merrillville, Indiana, our society established a special award to be granted to those who exhibit a similar desire be servant-leaders in their Church and who are active in organizations or activities that promote awareness of our Slovak heritage, culture, and traditions. Information on the Bishop Andrew G. Grutka Award may be found on our website, http://www.lpscud.org.

The Single Premium Life Plan offered by the LPSCU is a unique type of insurance option, providing the desired amount of life insurance with one premium payment. The greatest advantage to the Single Premium Life Plan is that the certificate is paid for the rest of the insured’s life after just a single premium payment is made. The certificate remains in full force and effect for the life of the insured without the necessity of making any further premium payments after the single payment. Issue ages are from 0 to 85. The ages and limits of insurance coverage for Non-Medical Rates are: 0-40, $30,000; 41-60, $20,000; 61-70, $10,000; 71-85, $5,000. However, the LPSCU reserves the right to require a medical examination on any applicant.

Upon the death of the insured, the face amount of the certificate is paid to the insured’s named beneficiary/ies, except as provided within the contract regarding Suicide and Contestability.

A member with a Single Premium Life Plan is entitled to all fraternal benefits of the LPSCU including educational awards, youth and adult activities, newborn benefits, prescription discount card, official publication, and discount car rental. Currently, dividends are not paid on the Single Premium Life Plan.

The Single Premium Life Plan is perfect for both youth and adults – especially anyone who prefers to have their life insurance paid in full with one premium payment. If you would like to give a special gift to anyone, consider the Single Premium Life Insurance Certificate. This insurance plan would make an appropriate and thoughtful gift for anyone.

During these unstable economic times, the Single Premium Life Plan offered by the LPSCU is economical and beneficial for estate planning and can especially help with the high cost of funeral expenses.

To apply for this specific plan, or any other insurance plan offered by the LPSCU, contact your Branch Secretary or the LPSCU Home Office.

Listed below are the Single Premium Schedules for the Single Premium Life Insurance Plan. The premiums listed are based on $1,000 of life insurance coverage. A Branch Administration Fee of $10 must be added to the total premium.

LPSCU Matching Fund Program

On January 1, 2011, the LPSCU initiated a Matching Fund Program for our Branches and Districts. In the program’s initial year, we had one Matching Fund project.

As a fraternal benefit society, the LPSCU encourages our Branches and Districts to participate in a Matching Fund project for the benefit of a charitable organization. The funds that are raised from a matching fund event will be matched dollar for dollar by the LPSCU, up to a maximum of $100 for a Branch event and $200 for a District event. If a Branch or District prefers to make a donation to a charitable organization, that can be considered as a Matching Fund event except that the donation will be limited to 50% of the maximum amount, $50 for a Branch and $100 for a District. Each Branch and District is allowed two Matching Fund events per year.

Our Scholarship Recipients Explain

The Importance of Life Insurance

Family has always been the most important thing in my life. Nothing makes me happier than being surrounded by people who love me unconditionally, no matter what. I would sacrifice anything for my family, as they would for me. As such, life insurance is of the utmost importance to me.

As a family member, one of my biggest responsibilities is ensuring that my family members and those who depend on me are financially and emotionally stable after my death. The best means to safeguard financial stability is through life insurance. Emotionally, having life insurance relieves the burden of anxiety of what to do after a family member passes.

My youth and good health will not last forever. I am no longer a teenager — I now realize that I am not invincible, that bad things do indeed happen to good people. But with a life insurance policy, I can sleep at night, reassured that my loved ones will be protected long after I am gone.

On October 27, 2013, the Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius in Danville, Pennsylvania, awarded the Servant Leadership Award to 37 outstanding high school juniors and seniors from the dioceses of Harrisburg, Scranton, and Pittsburgh, all in Pennsylvania. The ceremony took place at the Basilica of Saints Cyril and Methodius in Danville.

In addition to Harrisburg, Scranton, and Pittsburgh, over the past 11 years, the Sisters have honored nearly 675 teens in the dioceses of Bridgeport (Connecticut), Charleston (South Carolina), Chicago (Illinois), Gary (Indiana), Milwaukee (Wisconsin), St. Louis (Missouri), and Syracuse (New York) with the Servant Leadership Award.

This award recognizes distinguished high school juniors and seniors who are joyful witnesses, compassionate proclaimers, and enthusiastic builders of the Kingdom of God. The focus of the award is on teens who remain active in their faith and parish beyond Confirmation, and who actively serve in their parish, school, and community.

The 2013 award recipients were from all around the state of Pennsylvania. Each teen was given the opportunity to honor one person as a mentor who has encouraged them to generously use their time and talents as a follower of Jesus. Among the mentors the teens selected were parents, grandparents, teachers, coaches, youth ministers, scout leaders, Sisters, and priests who have made a difference in their lives by modeling servant leadership as a way of life in their family, parish, and community.

At the ceremony, the Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius also honored four adults who received the Father Jankola Lifetime Commitment to Servant Leadership Award in the ministries of evangelization, education, eldercare, and ecumenism. Father Jankola was a priest from the Scranton Diocese who was instrumental in recognizing the need for religious sisters to educate children and who founded the Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius in 1909.

The 2013 Father Matthew Jankola Lifetime Commitment to Servant Leadership Award went to:

Evangelization: Daniel Tanzone from Yonkers, New York, was recognized for his 30+ years as Editor of the Slovak Catholic Falcon, the newspaper for the Slovak Catholic Sokol. Under his direction, the publication encourages active participation in parish life, supports religious communities of Slovak heritage, furthers charity and benevolence, and supports the Catholic Bishops in the Slovak Republic.

Education: Cyril Stretansky was recognized for the many years he has spent as professor of music and director of choral activities at Susquehanna University, and for his service as the artistic director and principal conductor of the International Music Festival in Italy, where he conducted festival choirs at St. Peter’s Basilica in Rome, the Cathedral of Florence, St. Mark’s Basilica in Venice, and the Cathedral of Milan. Closer to home, on several occasions he has brought the Susquehanna University Choir and the Susquehanna Valley Chorale to perform at the Basilica of Saints Cyril and Methodius in Danville.

Eldercare: Attorney Cynthia Maleski from Natrona Heights, Pennsylvania, was recognized for her work in Elder Law, and her service as Pennsylvania Insurance Commissioner and Cabinet Secretary under the late Pennsylvania Gov. Robert P. Casey, where she was unanimously confirmed by the State Senate. She has served as an officer for many national organizations and foundations promoting service and leadership, and is currently on the Pennsylvania Board of Governors for the Saint Thomas More Society. A practicing attorney for 30 years, Cynthia is a nationally known expert in health and elder law.

Ecumenism: Elizabeth Yurechko from Crown Point, Indiana, was recognized for her 32 years of service to students at Andrean High School in Merrillville, Indiana, and for her involvement in the creation of the Midwest Slovak Cultural Society’s Annual Slovak Day in 1973 and her 40 years of service in annually organizing this festival of faith, heritage, and culture. In an official statement recognizing the festival organizers in the Indiana House of Representatives, Indiana State Representative Peter J. Visclosky noted that the festival has played an important role in enriching the quality of life and culture of Northwest Indiana.

The ceremony ended with a reception at Maria Hall.

Dear Junior Members,

We recognize February as Black History Month. While there are numerous African Americans who have had no small part in the building of this nation, this article will focus on one group of soldiers who fought bravely in the Civil War. First, let’s start with a little background.

In 1863, after the Emancipation Proclamation went into effect, President Lincoln agreed to recruit African American men into the army, though in segregated regiments led by white officers. One of the first of these was the Massachusetts 54th Regiment led by Colonel Robert Gould Shaw of Boston. Shaw was the son of staunch abolitionists – individuals who believed that slavery should be abolished. At the time, though, there was widespread prejudice and belief among many in the army and government that African Americans would make poor soldiers who would not perform well in battle.

Col. Shaw did not feel this way about his men, however. He believed in them and respected their abilities as soldiers. In July of 1863, he would have his chance to be proven right. The 54th was sent to South Carolina where an assault was planned on Fort Wagner, which guarded Charleston Harbor. Shaw requested that the 54th Regiment lead the attack. He saw this as a chance for his men to prove themselves the equal of white soldiers. Six hundred men attacked the fort that day. Of this number, 285 were killed, including Col. Shaw. But his men never wavered in the battle and demonstrated great courage and determination. As a result of their brave actions, other black regiments were formed, and by the end of the war 10% of the Union army was made up of African Americans.

During the battle, Sgt. William Carney carried the Union flag. Although he was wounded, he made it back to his unit, still carrying the flag. He never let it touch the ground. He was the first black to be awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor. After the battle, survivors of the 54th proposed a memorial to Shaw, a leader they had grown to trust and respect. Originally they wanted the memorial erected near Fort Wagner, but when those plans didn’t work out, in 1865 an African American businessman, Joshua Benton Smith, called for a memorial in Boston, where Shaw was born and the 54th Regiment came into being. A committee was formed, but it was not until 1883 that the memorial was erected near Fort Wagner, but when those plans didn’t work out, in 1865 an African American businessman, Joshua Benton Smith, called for a memorial in Boston, where Shaw was born and the 54th Regiment came into being. A committee was formed, but it was not until 1883 that the sculpture was formally commissioned.

Shaw’s father felt strongly that although the memorial was meant to honor his son, that all the brave African American soldiers who fell and were buried alongside him should be recognized as well.

Sculptor Augustus Saint-Gaudens envisioned Shaw on horseback, with marching soldiers surrounding him. It would depict the day that the Regiment marched proudly through the streets of Boston on their way to ships that would transport them to battle in the South. Saint-Gaudens took great pains to be accurate in his depiction of the soldiers in his sculpture, using some 40 African American men as models. It was the first time that blacks were depicted so realistically.

An interesting side note to this story – In addition to Col. Shaw’s proud parents and his young bride of only three weeks who watched the Regiment as they marched past, author and orator Frederick Douglass was also among the onlookers. His sons, Charles and Lewis, served in the 54th Regiment. Both survived the Civil War. Douglass was instrumental in convincing President Lincoln to recruit African Americans into the army.

The Shaw Memorial took 14 years to complete. It was unveiled in Boston on May 31, 1897, amid great fanfare. Ships in the harbor fired salutes and military units marched past the memorial, led by 65 veterans of the 54th Regiment. Among the men of the 54th, Sgt. Carney carried the American flag. The sight of him elicited cheers from the crowd, who knew of his exploits. In an emotional tribute, veterans of the 54th laid a wreath before the monument.

The Shaw Memorial honors one of the first African American fighting units of the Civil War and reminds us all of the important part blacks played in the fight for their freedom. Many art experts consider it the finest public memorial ever produced in this country. Some 90 years later, the film Glory brought the story of the men of the 54th Regiment to life.

The Whole Tooth and Nothing But

Do you have any idea what’s happening right under your nose? The answer is: Your Teeth! Here’s the “whole tooth”:

A tooth is an organ. Its main job is to prepare food for its long journey through your stomach by crushing, chewing, and ripping it apart. This is a force of between 4,000 and 50,000 pounds per square inch!

The enamel on the top surface on your tooth is the hardest part of your entire body – even harder than your bones! But the tooth is a softie at heart. The crown is the visible part of the tooth. It is the part covered with enamel. The portion of the tooth beneath the gums – the root – is covered by a softer material called dentin. In the middle of the tooth is the pulp chamber, which harbors the nerve tissue. There is no room for swelling tissues to expand in the pulp chamber. That is why, when you do have an infection, it just throbs. One-third of your tooth is underneath your gums. That means only two-thirds of your tooth length is visible.

Teeth start to form before you are born. Milk teeth (also called baby teeth) start to form when the baby is in the womb, but they don’t break through and become visible until a child is between 6 to 12 months old.

Like fingerprints, no two people have the exact same set of teeth. That is why they can be used to identify bodies, by comparing the teeth to dental records.

Humans have only two sets of teeth in their entire lifetime – baby teeth and permanent teeth. That’s why it’s so important to take good care of them.

Science has shown that many diseases are linked to your oral health, including diabetes, heart disease, and osteoporosis. That’s another reason why good oral hygiene is so important!

Over their lifetime, an average person spends 38.5 days brushing their teeth.

SWEET SMELLING SACHET

You will need:
- A paper doily
- A few cotton balls
- Spray perfume or cologne
- Ribbon
- Pink or red construction paper
- Glue and a stapler

Fold a small paper doily in half. Spray 3 or 4 cotton balls with perfume or cologne. (Ask your mom for guidance with this, especially if you plan to use her perfume.) Place the cotton balls inside the doily and staple it closed.

Cut small heart shapes from the colored paper and glue them to the outside of the doily. You can also make small ribbon bows and glue them on. You can tuck these sachets into drawers to keep them smelling fresh. They’ll make nice Valentine’s Day gifts for your mother or grandmother.

February Happenings

On February 2nd, in the early morning hours, crowds will gather on Gobbler’s Knob, a tiny hill in Punxsutawney, a Pennsylvania borough of about 6,100 residents some 65 miles northeast of Pittsburgh. There they will await the news of whether the resident groundhog – “Punxsutawney Phil” – has seen his shadow.

The Groundhog Day celebration is rooted in a German superstition that says if a hibernating animal casts a shadow on February 2nd (Candlemas Day), winter will last another six weeks. If no shadow is seen, the legend says that spring will come early.

In reality, Pennsylvania’s prognosticating groundhog doesn’t see much of anything. The result is decided in advance by select members of the “Inner Circle” who plan the annual ceremony and take care of Phil. You’ll recognize them by their tuxedos and top hats, which they always wear for the event. Weather permitting, the celebration usually draws up to 15,000 spectators and many local news crews. When he’s not “predicting” the weather on Groundhog Day, Phil spends the rest of the year living in the town library.

“The Gospel of Joy”

the Gospel with boldness in every time and place, even when it meets with opposition.” He encourages us to be “evangelizers who pray and work,” in the knowledge that “mission is at once a passion for Jesus and a passion for his people.” In order to give greater credibility to the Gospel message, Pope Francis reminds us that Jesus wants us to touch human misery, to touch the suffering flesh of others. Pope Francis explains, “In our dealings with the world, we are told to give reasons for our hope, but not as an enemy who critiques and condemns.” “Only the person who feels happiness in seeking the good of others, in desiring their happiness, can be a missionary” — “If I can help at least one person to have a better life, that already justifies the offering of my life.” The Pope urges us not to be discouraged before failure or scarce results, since “fruitfulness is often invisible, elusive and unquantifiable”; we must know “only that our commitment is necessary.”

Finally, Pope Francis focuses on what he calls an “authentic missionary spirituality.” The spirit-filled evangelizer is to be “full of fervor, joy, generosity, courage, boundless love, and attraction!” This spirituality, modeled for us by the Blessed Virgin Mary and brought about by the Holy Spirit, flows from the life-changing encounter with Jesus and his saving love. Those who have had this encounter know the difference Jesus makes and want others to experience the joy of a similar transformation. Pope Francis encourages everyone to recognize that, just like the Church, we do not have a mission; each of us is a mission. “If we are to share our lives with others and generously give of ourselves, we also have to realize that every person is worthy of our giving. Not for their physical appearance, their abilities, their language, their way of thinking, or for any satisfaction that we might receive, but rather because they are God’s handiwork, his creation. God created that person in his image, and he or she reflects something of God’s glory. Every human being is the object of God’s infinite tenderness, and he himself is present in their lives. Jesus offered his precious blood on the cross for that person. Appearances notwithstanding, every person is immensely holy and deserves our love.”

During this New Year, may the call of Pope Francis in The Gospel of Joy, awaken in all of us a desire to grow and live an authentic faith — a faith which is never comfortable or completely personal — always involving a deep desire to change the world, to transmit values, to leave this earth somehow better that we found it.
