Our ‘Morning Star’

Zornicka is 75!

Introduced to LPSCU members on April 15, 1938, as a 4-page, tabloid-size news-language, Zornicka (Morning Star) has come it is an appealing English-language, a long way since its humble beginnings 75 years ago. Today it is an informative journal full-color, bi-monthly magazine providing news and information relating to the interests and activities of the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union and its members, as well as articles that are religious, cultural, and fraternal in nature.

The magazine also features a Junior Branch Journal section which includes interesting and informative articles, craft and culinary projects, puzzles and word games, Slovak language lessons, and special contests to appeal to the youngsters in our organization. This section is both an educational tool and a fun benefit for our Junior members.

Zornicka has been designed and printed by Triangle Press in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, since 2001.

In 2004, Zornicka received a 1st Place award from the Pennsylvania Fraternal Congress for “full-color magazine format” in the PFC’s annual magazine contest. The publication was cited for its “excellence in presentation, style, and overall communicated skills.” From its humble beginnings, Zornicka – our “Morning Star” – has truly become a “gem” for the LPSCU.

Seventy-five years of publishing Zornicka for the benefit of our membership is an accomplishment of which the LPSCU can be justifiably proud. Happy 75th Anniversary to our “Morning Star” – and many more!

By the time this issue of the Zornicka arrives at your home, the 2013 Academy Awards will have taken place (February 24, 2013). However, as I compose this article in early January, the nominees for the various categories have just been announced. One movie that has been nominated in a number of categories is Les Misérables. This epic film is based on the Victor Hugo novel and has been turned into an internationally renowned musical. I had the opportunity to attend the musical while visiting London, England, during my years of study at the North American College in Rome, Italy. The tale behind the movie and the musical is a beautiful and moving story of grace and redemption, of compassion and forgiveness.

The story begins with a simple, but profound moment of forgiveness. One of the main characters of the story, Jean Valjean, has been imprisoned for stealing a small loaf of bread to feed his sister’s child. Valjean is paroled after 20 years of hard labor and brutal treatment. He is a broken, angry, and bitter man. He is desperate for work but no one will hire a parolee. Cold and hungry, he is taken in by a kindly bishop. During the night, Valjean steals the bishop’s silver plate and flees, but he is quickly taken into custody by the local police. The constables bring Valjean back to the bishop’s residence and ask the bishop to identify the thief and the silver plate. Indeed, it is his silver plate, the bishop says – but the bishop explains that he gave it to Valjean. He thanks the police for bringing Valjean to him because he was concerned that Valjean forgot to take the valuable silver candlesticks, as well.

Valjean is stunned by the bishop’s extraordinary kindness and forgiveness. The bishop only asks Valjean to use the silver to re-create his life and return God’s goodness to others. The Christ-like bishop sings these words to Valjean: “And remember this, my brother, / See in this some higher plan. / You must use this precious silver / To become an honest man. / By the witness of the martyrs, / By the passion and the blood, / God has raised you out of darkness: / I have bought your soul for God.”

This is a great moment of transformation for Valjean, who rediscovers within himself the love and mercy that led him to steal the loaf of bread for his sister’s starving child. As he turns the cache of silver into a fortune that will benefit many, Valjean comes to realize that “to love another person is to see the face of God.” The kindness of the bishop is a moment of transfiguration for Valjean. The better angels of Valjean’s nature finally rise to the surface because someone else made the effort to draw them out. He takes advantage of this second chance, adopts a new identity, and tries to live an honorable life.

During these final days of our Lenten season, we are invited by the Church to consider where, in our daily lives, moments of transfiguration or transformation are needed, so that we can truly experience the power and joy that is Easter, the Resurrection of Jesus from the dead. Thanks to the kindness of the bishop, Valjean comes to realize that the ember of God’s goodness continues to burn in him, despite the brutality and cruelty that he experienced for two decades in prison. That same touch of God’s goodness exists within each one of us as well, despite the difficulties and challenges that we may experience in life.

The life of God that has been placed in us on the day of our Baptism animates us to do good and holy things; guides our steps as we try to walk justly and humbly in the ways of God; enlightens our vision with wisdom and selflessness to bring the justice and mercy of God into our world. During the Easter Vigil and at the Masses celebrated on Easter Sunday, we are invited to renew the promises that were made by us or for us on the day of our Baptism. This opportunity allows us to recommit ourselves to be disciples who allow the life of God within us to transfigure despair into hope, sadness into joy, anguish into healing, and separation into community.

Over the last few months, we have experienced a number of tragedies in our country such as the devastation of Superstorm Sandy and the senseless killings of innocent adults and children in Newtown, Connecticut, on December 14, 2012. Not only have we experienced tragedies such as those that I just cited, but we also live during a time when there is much economic uncertainty as many people struggle to take care of themselves and their families. As a people of faith, we also must be concerned about any policies or laws which attack the sacredness of human life and traditional values and rights, such as the right of religious freedom. Given the “state of affairs” in our country, it would be easy for many people to become like Valjean before his transformation; namely, to become angry, cynical, bitter, and pessimistic. Yet it is into this world that you and I are sent to be agents of transformation and transfiguration. While darkness may be all around us, both Victor Hugo and the Risen Christ remind us that there is light in the human heart and we will truly find it to the extent that we love and encourage others to do the same.

I recently came across the words of a song, “Let Your Hearts be Broken.” The words and music were authored by Bryan Jeffery Leech. During these final days of Lent, and in anticipation of the great feast of Easter, I offer the song’s lyrics as a prayer, encouraging us to have hearts that are open to recognize the needs of others and to respond in love.

Let your heart be broken for a world in need:
Feed the mouths that hunger, soothe the wounds
that bleed,

An Easter Message from
Most Reverend Joseph V. Adamec

“Resurrexit sicut dixit.”
He has risen, as he said
(Matthew 28:6). That phrase says it all! Christ said that He would, and He did. Easter is the “day of days,” and Christians celebrate it with great solemnity.

Names intrigue me. In Slovak, Easter is called “Velka
Noc” or “the Great Night.”
Saint Athanasius [+ 373] calls it “the Great Sunday.” The Catechism of the Catholic Church refers to it as the “Feast of feasts.”

Easter is the celebration of an event that gives Christians their identity. Saint John Chrysostom [c. 347-407] exhorted, “Let us celebrate this greatest and most shining feast, in which the Lord has risen from the dead.
Let us celebrate it with joy, and in equal measure with devotion. For the Lord has risen, and, together with him, He has raised the whole world. He has risen, because He has broken the bonds of death.”

There is reason for rejoicing. Christians are called to be a happy people because they accept Jesus’ resurrection as a reality. We put our trust in the victory that was acquired for us by him on the cross, a victory that continues to give life in the most noble sense of that word, a victory that engenders hope of a better life.

We could presume to hear the Lord saying, “I gave myself up because of my love for you. All that I ask in return is that you rejoice in my gift.” The happiness that a gift brings is the ultimate sign of gratitude.

My sisters and brothers of the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union, during this Easter Season, may you find much joy in what the Lord Jesus has accomplished in your regard, so that your life might be a continual Alleluia and a blessing to those around you!

Fraternally yours in the Risen Lord,
+ Joseph

LEHIGH VALLEY OKRES

The Lehigh Valley Okres held its annual Holiday Luncheon on Sunday, December 2, 2012, at the Lehigh Room of the Best Western Lehigh Valley Conference Center in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. A punch reception commenced at noon, followed by the luncheon at 12:30 p.m. Fifty-five Okres members and guests attended.

Okres President Jean Kosalko extended a warm welcome to all present. Rev. Stanley Moczydlowski, pastor of St. Anthony of Padua Parish in Easton, Pennsylvania, who previously served as administrator of Incarnation of Our Lord Parish in Bethlehem, offered a prayer before the meal. Members brought toys for distribution to underprivileged children through the Marines’ Toys for Tots program. Members also donated 20 themed baskets to be raffled to benefit the Allentown Diocesan Soup Kitchen as an LPSCU Matching Fund Project.

At the conclusion of the luncheon, President Kosalko introduced Margaret A. Ferri, treasurer of the Lehigh Valley Okres, who also serves as national public relations director; Cecilia B. Gaughan, national fraternal activities director; Mary Ann Ackerman, honorary national vice president; and Mary Ford, former national public relations director. She also introduced the officers of Allentown Branch 38/40, Bethlehem Branch 83/130, and Hellertown Branch 196.

President Kosalko asked everyone to remember Lehigh Valley Okres Secretary Mary Shannon in their prayers as Mary was presently a patient at Moravian Rehabilitation Center in Bethlehem.

As the children were placing toys in the “Toys for Tots” box, much to the surprise of all, Santa Claus (in the person of Clark Snitker, who is grandfather of our member Gage Gordon) entered the dining hall ringing his jingle bells. The children were especially excited to see Santa and they gathered around as he presented each boy with a nutcracker, each girl with a bracelet, and each infant with a plush toy. Each child also received a box of Santa chocolates from Santa. Each adult attendee received a bayberry candle as a favor.

The themed baskets were chanced off together with two beautiful afghans which were handmade by Erica Latch of the Pioneer Club in Allentown and a total of $275 was realized from this Matching Fund project. Special prizes in the annual holiday raffle were won by Alberta Baggest, Mary Rostar, Bernadine M. Kurzeja, Helen Bobeck, Dolores Stinger, Albert Solga, Sue Sopko, and Tate Kienzle. Alberta and Bernadine were lucky enough to win twice!

President Kosalko thanked everyone for attending the luncheon and wished everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. The festivities concluded with a prayer offered by Father Moczydlowski. A delightful time was had by all who attended.

MSGR. BEEDA DISTRICT

District President Anita Gregory welcomed the 25 members and six guests present. LPSCU President Theresa Kluchinski and Secretary-Treasurer Mary Jo Savidge also joined District members for the festivities.

President Gregory thanked Father Piccola and his parishioners, as well as the members of the District, for all their support of District projects throughout the year. Prizes for the Matching Fund Holiday Raffle were drawn at the party. Congratulations to all our winners.
Deacon Cyril Kowalchick offered a prayer and everyone joined Jim Yocum in a toast as we shared our opatky and wished each other a Merry Christmas. A delicious meal catered by the White Haven Bakery was enjoyed by all.

The group played Christmas games organized by Dolores Evanko. Everyone present was a winner, receiving prizes from Santa’s helpers, Mary Ann Litchock, and Chris and Jonathan Gregory. A good time was had by all.

The Msgr. Beeda District would like to wish all LPSCU members and their families a very Merry Christmas and a Happy and Healthy New Year!

A generous donation of groceries was collected at the party and delivered to a local food pantry the following week.

All attendees enjoyed a memorable time and are looking forward with anticipation to another great LPSCU year.

Lehigh Valley Okres Holds Matching Fund Project

As an LPSCU Matching Fund project, the Lehigh Valley Okres held a themed gift basket raffle at its Holiday Luncheon on Sunday, December 2, 2012, in the Lehigh Room of the Best Western Lehigh Valley Conference Center, Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. Okres members donated 20 beautiful themed gift baskets and raffled them off as a matching fund project for the benefit of the Allentown Diocesan Soup Kitchen. There were 55 members and guests in attendance. The sum of $275 was collected from the raffle.

On Sunday, December 16, 2012, Lehigh Valley Okres Treasurer Margaret A. Ferri presented an Okres check in the amount of $275 to Milly Scrak, kitchen coordinator for the Allentown Diocesan Soup Kitchen. Because those funds will be matched by the LPSCU up to an amount of $200, this matching fund project realized a total sum of $475 for the Soup Kitchen, which serves four meals a week throughout the year to the needy in the Allentown Diocese.

Branch 52, North Braddock, PA

Members of LPSCU Branch 52 celebrated at their annual Christmas party on Sunday, December 9, 2012, at the Grandview Golf Club of North Braddock in Western Pennsylvania. The festive event was held in the club’s spacious Kennywood Room.

Notably missing from this year’s large gathering, and sadly so, were Elsie and Bernard Harcarik, who had been quite active at numerous LPSCU fraternal functions over the years. “Aunt” Elsie met her sudden demise on March 7, 2012, just prior to her 88th birthday, and “Uncle” Bernie, who celebrated his 89th birthday last July, currently resides in a personal care facility in Washington, Pennsylvania. Jim Tomasic, secretary of Branch 52, is the couple’s nephew.

A tasty buffet brunch was served with sufficient variety to satisfy everyone’s palate. All the children and adults each received gifts from the Branch and numerous door prizes were awarded.

Dear Mrs. Savidge,
Thank you for the grant that you have presented to me. It is always a great honor to receive any award and this is no exception. I was ecstatic when I found out I won this award. The grant you have awarded me has gone toward the payment of my annual technology fee. This is a fee that is paid once a year to fund a computer integration program that is being implemented at Charlotte Catholic High School. I would like to thank you again for considering me for this grant. It has been put to good use and is very much appreciated.

Sincerely,
Andrew Robinson
Branch 90, Johnstown, PA

Dear Ladies,
Millie Scark, Ecumenical Kitchen coordinator, informed me of your most recent gift of $275.00 to the Ecumenical Kitchen. The generosity of the Lehigh Valley Okres, Ladies PA Slovak Catholic Union, is truly heartwarming.

During these strained economic times, more individuals and families have turned to the Ecumenical Kitchen in order to receive a hot, nutritious meal. Your support helps the working poor, the unemployed, elderly, the disabled, and homeless. This past year, we served over 40,000 meals to the hungry in our community. Your kindness is truly making a difference in their lives.

In November, the Ecumenical Kitchen celebrated its 30th anniversary. It is a reminder that this program has been able to continue only because of the generosity of others. Please convey our appreciation to all on behalf of those whose lives are touched by this act of kindness.

Sincerely,
Pamela J. Russo, M. S.
Executive Director

When our ancestors came to these shores more than a century ago, they brought with them few monetary assets. Their most precious possession, however, was their faith. The seeds were nurtured by the Slovak priests who came with the immigrant people and helped build our Slovak Catholic fraternals, religious communities of men and women, and nearly 300 Slovak parishes. In response to this legacy, the Slovak Catholic Federation is sponsoring the 35th Annual SS. Cyril and Methodius Appeal. The Church in Slovakia has enjoyed a great renaissance since the fall of Communism in 1989. We in America and Canada take pride in the fact that the Slovak Catholic fraternals, our parishes, and individuals of Slovak ancestry have responded generously to assist the Church in our ancestral homeland. The 2013 Annual Appeal began during the month of February in churches of Slovak descent across the United States and Canada and will continue until the end of the year.

The 2012 Appeal collected $36,528.51 and we are proud to say that, since its inception, this Annual Appeal has raised $2,309,266.25!

This year marks the 50th Anniversary of the founding of the Pontifical College of Saints Cyril and Methodius in Rome, Italy. Due to the vision and efforts of Cardinal Joseph Tomko, assisted by the late Bishop Andrew Grutka and many other Slovak Catholics from the United States and Canada, this seminary became a reality.

Funds raised from the Appeal will aid the priest-graduate students at the Pontifical Slovak College of SS. Cyril and Methodius. These fine priests are being called upon to be the future leaders of the Diocesan churches in Slovakia, both as vicars and bishops. In addition, funds raised from this Appeal help to provide qualified instructors/professors for the seminaries that educate future priests. Appeal funds also benefit those Religious communities of both men and women that share a counterpart which belongs to the Slovak Catholic Federation and the Conference of Slovak Religious.

The Slovak Catholic Federation was founded in 1911 under the spiritual leadership of Rev. Joseph Murgas, founding pastor of Sacred Heart of Jesus Slovak Church, Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. The purpose of the Slovak Catholic Federation is to federate individuals of Slovak origin under one banner for cultural, religious, and educational needs. Serving as National President is Rev. Philip Altavilla, pastor of Saint Peter’s Cathedral in Scranton, Pennsylvania. The Episcopal Moderator is the Most Rev. Joseph V. Adamec, D.D., retired bishop of the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, Pennsylvania. The National First Vice President, Rev. Andrew S. Hvozdovic, pastor of Epiphany Parish, Sayre, Pennsylvania, is the coordinator for this Annual Appeal.

In our Church today, we are finding that more and more individuals of Slovak descent/background do not attend traditionally founded Slovak parishes, for a number of reasons. Because of this reality today, the monies raised for this Appeal come both from the collections taken in our Slovak parishes as well as from individual and organizational donors.

Your tax deductible donation, made out to the Slovak Catholic Federation - Annual Appeal, can be sent directly to the National Secretary-Treasurer of the Federation: Dolores Evanko, 173 Berner Avenue, Hazleton, PA 18201.

Thank you for your continued support of the SS. Cyril and Methodius Annual Appeal.

Our Scholarship Recipients Explain The Importance of Life Insurance

Peace of mind. These three simple words state why life insurance is so important. When there is a death, life insurance brings financial security and financial security brings peace of mind. Peace of mind for the insured, knowing their survivors will be taken care of, and peace of mind for the family, knowing they will be protected financially.

Life insurance is often overlooked because people feel they are too young or [that] it is expensive, but life can change in the blink of an eye. With life insurance, survivors will benefit from having income replacement to help pay funeral expenses, the mortgage, college expenses, loan debt, and other ongoing living expenses. Without life insurance, these expenses would fall upon the family, which could present a financial burden. To the remaining family members, these ongoing expenses can become a burden and if they are unable to handle them, they may be forced to sell the home. This is not what anyone wants to happen after they die.

Nobody knows when their time will come to an end. However, it would bring peace of mind to many knowing that a life insurance policy was waiting to help when needed. What could be more important?

Megan K. Zabiegala
Branch 132, Campbell, Ohio

Effective January 1, 2013, the LPSCU has implemented an economic and beneficial 5 Payment Life Insurance Plan for anyone from age 0 to 80. Under this plan, there is a minimum purchase of life insurance. For those age 0-70, the minimum purchase is $5,000; for ages 71-80, the minimum purchase is $2,000. Premiums are payable for five (5) years from issue date. If the insured dies within the 5-year period following the issue date, no additional premiums are due and payable, and the face amount of the certificate is paid to the named beneficiary/ies, except as provided within the contract regarding Suicide and Contestability.

The plan allows for premium payments to be made monthly, quarterly, semiannually, or annually. The certificate becomes fully paid at the end of five (5) years, and coverage remains in full force and effect for the entire life of the insured without any additional premium payments required. Upon the death of the insured, the face amount of the certificate is paid to the insured’s named beneficiary/ies.

A member with a 5 Payment Life Plan is entitled to all fraternal benefits of the LPSCU including educational awards, youth and adult activities, newborn benefits, prescription discount card, official publication, and discount car rental.

The 5 Payment Life Plan is perfect for both youth and adults – especially anyone who prefers to have their life insurance paid within five (5) years.

During these unstable economic times, the 5 Payment Life Plan offered by the LPSCU is economical and beneficial for estate planning and can especially help with the high cost of funeral expenses.

To apply for this specific plan, or any other insurance plan offered by the LPSCU, contact your Branch Secretary or the LPSCU Home Office.

Listed below are the Annual and Monthly Premium Schedules for the 5 Payment Life Insurance Plan. The premiums listed are based on $1,000 of life insurance coverage. Semiannual and quarterly premium rates are also available. Contact your Branch Secretary or the Home Office for more information.

Sister Barbara Sable, SS.C.M. Honored in El Salvador

Sister Barbara Sable, a Sister of Saints Cyril and Methodius from Danville, Pennsylvania, was recently part of a delegation of women religious who traveled to El Salvador to be honored for their commitment to social justice and to mark the 32nd anniversary of the martyrdom of four U.S. missionaries who were assassinated by the Salvadoran military for their advocacy on behalf of refugees and the poor. The 50-member delegation visited El Salvador from November 29-December 6, 2012, and included 40 women religious from 30 congregations, many of whom had served in Central or South America as missionaries. The group was sponsored by the SHARE Foundation and co-sponsored by the Leadership Conference of Women Religious (LCWR).

The SHARE Foundation is an international non-profit organization that accompanies poor communities of El Salvador as they work for economic justice and sustainable development. SHARE’s work includes projects in El Salvador that support women’s empowerment, providing access to education and opportunities for development for women and girls; leadership development, cultivating the skills of women and young people so that they can become leaders and empower others; and environmental sustainability, advocating and raising awareness about environmental justice.

Thirty-two years ago, on December 2, 1980, Maryknoll Sisters Ita Ford and Maura Clarke, Ursuline Sister Dorthy Kazel, and Ursuline lay volunteer Jean Donovan were martyred in El Salvador where they were living and working with the most vulnerable Salvadoran communities, especially children orphaned by the violence of the ongoing civil war there.

In the aftermath of the death of the missionaries, hundreds of women religious and lay women volunteered to take their place to help the people of El Salvador. For more than three decades, women religious have responded to the cry of the poor in that country — before, during, and after the civil war of 1980-1992 — traveling to El Salvador and working side by side with communities in greatest need and at highest risk. Religious congregations fought for fair immigration policies within the United States, and pressured the U.S. Government to cease military aid in order to end the war. Religious women provided material aid for the reconstruction of El Salvador after the war. And women religious have been martyred in El Salvador for the cause of justice and peace. For the Sisters, it was a labor of love inspired by the spirit of the sister martyrs — a spirit of love, justice, and compassion. Those in El Salvador consider this a great light in the darkness, and because of the enduring support of women religious, they have a great love for North American religious.

During the week on this most recent trip, the group had the opportunity to listen to people’s stories and struggles, share in their hopes and dreams, and find inspiration in their profound faith. Everywhere they went they were greeted with great warmth and joy, with special welcomes everywhere for the “Las Hermanas Norte Americanas,” the North American Sisters.

The group retraced the route of the women martyrs, prayed at the church where Archbishop Oscar Romero was martyred and at the Cathedral where he is buried, and visited the University of Central America (UCA) where the Jesuit martyrs lived and died. The SHARE Foundation presented the women religious with an award at the Archbishop’s tomb.

The delegation also visited women’s projects in rural communities, participated in a forum on women’s issues, and participated in a special event honoring women religious who continue the work for peace and justice across the world. They met with Salvadoran women religious and theologians working with those at the margins, and talked to women whose children were murdered or disappeared. They also inaugurated four scholarships in honor of Ita Ford, Maura Clarke, Dorothy Kazel, and Jean Donovan for young women leaders from El Salvador to attend college.

LPSCU Matching Fund Program

On January 1, 2011, the LPSCU initiated a Matching Fund Program for our Branches and Districts. In the program’s initial year, we had one Matching Fund project. Since then, we have had numerous others.

As a fraternal benefit society, the LPSCU encourages our Branches and Districts to participate in a Matching Fund project for the benefit of a charitable organization. The funds that are raised from a matching fund event will be matched dollar for dollar by the LPSCU, up to a maximum of $100 for a Branch event and $200 for a District event. If a Branch or District prefers to make a donation to a charitable organization, that can be considered as a Matching Fund event except that the donation will be limited to 50% of the maximum amount, $50 for a Branch and $100 for a District. Each Branch and District is allowed two Matching Fund events per year.

For more information or to receive a copy of the Matching Fund Program Guidelines and Forms, contact the Home Office via phone 570-823-3513, toll free at 888-834-6614, by fax at 570-823-4464, or e-mail lpscu@lpscu.org.

Our Lady of Sorrows Honored at Holy Trinity

A Holy Mass was celebrated on September 14, 2012, at Holy Trinity Church, West Mifflin, Pennsylvania, in honor of Our Lady of Sorrows, patroness of Slovakia. Reverend Joseph R. Grosko, pastor, was principal celebrant, with six local priests concelebrating the Liturgy. Songs of praise to Our Lady of Sorrows were sung in Slovak prior to the Mass, as well as during the entire service. The awesome voice of cantor Robert Ponchak lent so much to the occasion. Following the Mass, a wonderful Slovak meal was enjoyed by those present, among whom were members of the Pittsburgh District.

2013 - Who Will It Be?
Still Watching Over Them

It was close to 11 p.m. the December night when boxer Oscar de la Hoya lost his fight to Manny Pacquiao. The Virgens were saying goodbye to their extended family after watching the match together. Still basking in the glow of family and good food, they headed off to their Port Hueneme, Calif., house. On the way, their pickup was slammed by a hit-and-run driver. The truck rolled over, pinning Nicolas and wife Teresa inside. Son Gabriel and daughter Mayra managed to crawl out and were only slightly injured. When rescue workers arrived, Teresa was already dead. Nicolas had three broken vertebrae and multiple fractures in his arms. “In one second your life changes,” Nicolas says.

After their injuries were tended to, the Virgens started picking up the pieces. Thankfully Teresa had life insurance to help them do it. Initially the couple wasn’t convinced that Teresa needed a policy of her own since she did not work outside the home. As a building contractor, Nicolas saw the rationale for his own life insurance. But their insurance agent Irene Henry made the case that there would be expenses if something were to happen to Teresa. “Think of all the things that Teresa does,” Irene recalls explaining to them.

The life insurance allowed them to pay bills while Nicolas was out of work for nearly two years recovering from his injuries, including an amputated finger. It also helped with college expenses for Mayra and her older sister, Susana. If not for the insurance, Nicolas is certain that his family would have lost their home. “It’s like Teresa is still watching over us and taking care of us,” he says.

Income Earners Aren’t the Only Ones Who Need Life Insurance

Working Parents
If you earn an income, your need for life insurance is obvious. When you die, your family will need to carry on in your absence and your income will be missed. Life insurance proceeds can be used to generate a stream of income for a period of time (e.g., five or 10 years) so that surviving family members can continue to pay for life’s necessities.

Stay-at-Home Parents
Even though no paycheck is lost when a stay-at-home parent dies, there’s still a big financial impact. Think about how expensive it is to pay for things like childcare, transportation, cooking, cleaning and other household chores. Life insurance money can pay for these services, giving the surviving spouse the option to keep working the same job and hours.
Slovak Parish Holds Christmas Event

Dear Junior Members,

I am sure most of us are familiar with the popular nursery rhymes of our childhood, but did you know that most nursery rhymes were actually written with a double meaning for grownups?

For example, scholars insist that Humpty Dumpty was not an egg but he was the hunchbacked King Richard III of England, “who had a great fall” off his horse during a battle in the year 1485, when he was trampled to death. Thus, “All the King’s horses and all the King’s men couldn’t put Humpty together again.”

These types of rhymes with double meanings may have come about because long ago, adults could and would be arrested for saying unflattering things about their royal rulers. As a result, playful nicknames were invented to poke fun at the authorities. Many of the origins of nursery rhymes are believed to be associated with or reflect actual events in history.

For instance, at the time, some people thought the prissy “Mistress Mary” who was quite contrary was really Mary, Queen of Scots, and that “Little Boy Blue” was Cardinal Wolsey, who was careless in managing the affairs of England’s King Henry VIII. “Georgie Porgy” is thought to be King George I who liked to kiss the pretty ladies at court and when the royal advisors came looking for His Majesty, who was needed to perform his royal duties, “Georgie Porgy” ran away.

Some Mother Goose nursery rhymes were invented by vendors trying to peddle their products to customers. “Hot Cross Buns” and “Hot Boiled Beans” are catchy rhymes that children of that time learned as quickly as today’s youngsters learn the jingles of TV commercials.

You have all heard “Sing a Song of Sixpence” which tells of a “dainty dish” which was set before the king. It came from an era when no expense was spared to indulge and entertain His Majesty. In 16th century England, live birds (usually pigeons) were in a baked pie shell and when the crust was carefully cut, the birds would fly away, adding much excitement to a festive occasion.

April Fool!

April 1st is April Fool’s Day in America, but did you know it’s also celebrated in several countries around the world? Sometimes called All Fools’ Day, it is one of the most light-hearted days of the year. In England, if a joke is played on you, you may be called a “noddy” and you can only play tricks until noon. In France and several other European countries, April 1st is often referred to as April Fish. The prank is to stick a paper fish on the back of another person without being noticed. The day’s origins are uncertain. Some see it as a celebration related to the turn of the seasons, while others believe it stems from the adoption of a new calendar.

A nursery rhyme was often used to parody the royal and political events and people of the day. It allowed an element of free speech at a time when more direct criticism or dissent would not be tolerated, and even be punished by imprisonment or death. The humble rhyme was used as a seemingly innocent vehicle to quickly spread a subversive message. A rhyme is usually short and easy to remember. This was a critical element because the majority of people were not able to read or write, so stories, songs, and rhymes were passed down through an oral tradition.

Nursery rhymes began to be printed in England as early as 1570. Printing allowed the production cheap pamphlets called chapbooks. These were small booklets containing poems, ballads, stories, and sometimes religious facts. They were popular when people were beginning to learn to read because they contained pictures and simple drawings that would help explain what they were reading. Think of it as the Middle Ages equivalent of a comic book!

Although some meanings of nursery rhymes may never be known for certain, these playful verses still continue to delight children today as they have for more than three hundred years.

Here are some facts about ways we communicate.

The first adhesive postage stamp went on sale to the public in England on May 6, 1840. It had a picture of Queen Victoria, cost a penny, and was nicknamed the Penny Black. The intention was to indicate pre-payment of mail. Prior to this, most mail was paid for by the recipient.

In 1860, newspapers carried the following help-wanted ad for the Pony Express – a system of delivering mail by horseback: “WANTED: Young, skinny, wiry fellows not over 18. Must be expert riders and be willing to risk death daily. Orphans preferred.”

In Supai, Arizona, a community nestled at the bottom of the Grand Canyon, the United States Postal Service uses a mule train because traditional mail delivery is impractical. Five days a week, mules trek eight miles down into the canyon, carrying an average of 200 pounds of mail.

In 1889, the first public coin telephone was installed by inventor William Gray at a bank in Hartford, Connecticut. It was a “postpay” machine, meaning that coins were deposited after the call was placed.

The first cellular phone, called the DynaTAC 8000X, was developed in 1973. According to its inventor, Martin Cooper, “It looked like a brick and weighed more than two pounds.” It sold for $3,995!

Willy Müller invented the first automatic answering machine in 1935. The machine was 3 feet tall and was popular with Orthodox Jews who were forbidden to answer the phone on the Sabbath.

Amazing Place Names

In past issues, we’ve written about special and unique things about our states. This time we’re going to talk about some place names on the U.S. map. We think you’ll find them unique and peculiar.

Speaking of peculiar, you might be if you hail from Peculiar, Missouri. Or you may have something to complain about if you live in Gripe, Arizona. Or smile if you come from Smileyberg, Kansas.

Some place names can make you downright hungry, such as Sandwich (Massachusetts), Pie Town (New Mexico), Hot Coffee (Mississippi), Tea (South Dakota), or Lickskillet (Ohio).

And how about these towns with animal-themed names: Toad Suck Park (Arkansas), Hungry Horse (Montana), Monkey’s Eyebrow (Kentucky), Rabbit Shuffle (North Carolina), Possum Trot (Kentucky), and Fish Haven (Idaho).

Pull out your U.S. atlas and see what other unusual place names you can find.

Be Transfigured

Give the cup of water and the loaf of bread
Be the hands of Jesus, serving in His stead.

Here on earth applying principles of love,
Visible expression God still rules above
Living illustration of the Living Word
To the minds of all who’ve never seen or heard.
Blest to be a blessing privileged to care,
Challenged by the need apparent everywhere.
Be the means through which the Lord reveals His grace.
Add to your believing deeds that prove it true,
Knowing Christ as Savior, make Him Master, too.
Follow in His footsteps, go where He has trod;
In the world’s great trouble risk yourself for God.
Let your heart be tender and your vision clear;
See mankind as God sees, serve Him far and near.
Let your heart be broken by a brother’s pain;
Share your rich resources, give and give again.

On behalf of myself and our National Board of Directors, I wish you and those you love a very Happy and Joyous Easter!
As we celebrate Easter and recommit ourselves to living our baptismal faith, may we daily strive to see the face of God in others so that we may more willingly share his love and peace with them.

The first message sent by computer was transmitted on October 29, 1969. The sender typed the word “login.” Unfortunately, the computer crashed in mid-transmission and only “log” came through.

The first major commercial mass mailing of spam (a term for junk or unsolicited e-mail indiscriminately sent in bulk) was a 1994 when a husband and wife team of attorneys began posting their law services online. (An interesting side note:
Hormel Foods Corporation, the maker of Spam luncheon meat, does not object to the Internet use of the term “spam-ming.” But, they did ask that the capitalized word “Spam” be reserved to refer to their product and trademark.)
