I wish to congratulate and thank my cousin, Thomas (Harcarek) Fabyanic, for allowing the LPSCU to publish his fabulous four-part article chronicling his trials and tribulations in his endeavor to procure and install the fourteen Stations of the Cross at his 67-acre property in Hume, Virginia. I was both honored and pleased to assist him in presenting this magnificent story to everyone through the pages of the Zornicka.

To be clear – Parts II, III, and IV were all his writing, his personal experiences – tremendous! I was involved only in photo selection and format presentation.

This all began with my visit to my cousin’s (Tom’s sister, Rita Fabyanic Robbins) son Christopher’s high school graduation party in July 2014 in Everett, Pennsylvania. Mike Gasparro kept telling me about his miracle pocket knife (a story detailed in Part IV in the September-October 2015 issue). My interest was resolute! I visited Tom in October 2014 and spent two incredible days. We sat and talked, and toured his property. Tom, his lovely wife Patricia, and I walked, prayed, and sang The Stations. I did so with the aid of my “walking sticks” because the ground was hilly and uneven. It was exhilarating for me as if the Holy Spirit was involved. Now – how to proceed?

Some background – I’m 74. It has been over 60 years since I served as an altar boy and I had served The Stations many times then, but never since. I attended twelve years of parochial school and it was thought that I would follow my cousin and Confirmation sponsor, Reverend Bernard Michael Harcarik, into the priesthood. But it was not to be as I was unscripted. After my marriage, I served as a church usher for five years. My wife and I were active in our parish’s CFM (Christian Family Movement) program during the late ’60s. We moved to a new parish and my sons attended public school, so CCD was necessary. I helped prepare them for First Communion and Confirmation. I also served as Jaycee Chaplain in a local chapter.

My parents gave my brothers and me excellent moral values which were reinforced by my aunts, uncles, and cousins. And the legacy continued through my boys and grandchildren. I was on the right track. Life was good!

After twenty years of marriage, I hit a bump in the road and was hit and miss on church activities over the next few years. Then, I was struck down by Multiple Sclerosis and my life went in a new direction. Two years later, I became reinvolved in the church after my mother’s passing. I became active in the LPSCU in both the Pittsburgh District and my local branch, and have remained so.

I had been knocked down by MS at the ripe old age of 58. The years since have been difficult, but I have survived. Earlier in life I had been an EMT (Emergency Medical Technician), helping people who needed medical assistance. Now I was the one needing help!

Like many others, I came to recognize that almost everyone needs assistance at some point. They – and I – could still help, even with our medical issues. My outlook and attitude changed. Then, by accident, I got involved with a local senior citizen center and Meals on Wheels. Things began to turn for the better. When a person has MS, it has an effect on many parts and organs of their body. For two months following my initial diagnosis, I did much physical therapy, and could only walk with the assistance of a shepherd’s staff, as the Apostles used. I had been prescribed fourteen medications plus my weekly MS “Avonex” shot. All the following years, I took all medications religiously.

After my change of attitude to follow Jesus Christ and His teachings and actions, and with my charity work, things changed, as if I were under a new covenant. One of my medical specialists eliminated three medications. Within the year, shortly following my Way of the Cross involvement, another specialist eliminated three more medications. What was happening?

I had elected to emulate Jesus Christ – to be as He was, to do as He did – love one another, be charitable, helpful, understanding, forgiving. And most hopefully, but highly improbably, be sinless.

However, Jesus Christ was God. He became man, suffered and died in order that mankind could be in Heaven with Him for eternity. I’m not God! I can suffer MS but I could not begin to fathom suffering as He did in The Way of the Cross. But, I could attempt to imitate His Life and the help He offered to all. So I see some possible changes; some say miracles.

No water into wine, no walking on water, no multiplying loaves and fishes. Maybe someday there will be a cure for MS and other debilitating diseases. I would like to think of myself as a “miracle in progress.” Hopefully, I can continue to emulate Jesus Christ. It seems that Pope Francis and I are on the same mission – to help people. Regardless!

I remain Yours in Christ.

Thank you very much for selecting me to receive the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union Scholarship Award. You have been of great help in helping me achieve my academic goals.

Christian Nonnemacher
Branch 124, Hazleton, PA

Dear LPSCU:

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union for being named the 2015 Fraternalist of the Year.

One of my inspirations, Helen Keller said, “Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much.” Community service is such an easy way to give of one’s self, and I have always derived immense pleasure in donating of my time and talent to organizations in need, including the Miller-Keystone Blood Shepherd, Good Shepherd Rehabilitation Network, Meals on Wheels, the March of Dimes, the Leukemia/Lymphoma Society… and of course, the LPSCU – the organization near-and-dear to the hearts of my beloved grandmother, Susanna Mamay and mother, Mary Ford.

Once again, thank you for this tremendous honor. It is sincerely appreciated.

ZORNICKA
A Message from Our Spiritual Protector

“He (Joseph) went to register with Mary, who was promised in marriage to him. She was pregnant and, while they were in Bethlehem, the time came for her to have her baby. She gave birth to her firstborn son, wrapped him in cloths and laid him in a manger—there was no room for them to stay in the inn.”

(Luke 2:5-7)

Dear Sisters and Brothers of the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union,

The actual scene at the original manger was not nearly as orderly as the ones that we see depicted today at Christmas time. However, it would appear to me that the people who witnessed the one in Bethlehem were much more at peace and experienced much more joy than do we. As we marvel at the incarnation of our God into our world over two thousand years ago, we tend to disregard the fact that the Son of God also came to be with us in 2015.

No one made room for the Christ Child at the time of his birth, simply because they did not recognize him. Certainly, if they had, someone would have made room for him at the inn. It is no different today. The Lord still seeks to be recognized and to find room in our hearts.

Our observance of the birth of the Savior is an observance of Jesus’ birth into the history of all humankind. But, we are likewise called to recognize him as our God coming to be specifically with us in our own personal history—our everyday lives.

As a new year of grace begins and continues, may we make room and welcome Jesus into our midst. In that way, the manger scenes in our churches and homes will become a true reflection of our own openness to the Lord’s loving presence.

In Bethlehem, Jesus needed only one room. Today, He needs only one soul. Won’t you be the one to let the Son of God be born in you?

That is my hope and prayer for every one of us. If we do, there will truly be a Very Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year of 2016!

Fraternally yours in the Lord,

+Joseph

Coming in 2016!

Special Section of Zornicka Will Recognize Past Higher Education Awardees

It is most gratifying to announce that, from 1977 through 2015, the LPSCU has awarded the sum of $417,560 in College Scholarships, Post Graduate Awards, and Religious Awards, all in support of the higher education of our members. (And this amount does not even include the Anne (Shinal) Cichy Memorial Award and the Bishop Andrew G. Grutka Memorial Award, since those are privately financed.)

Many of you have probably wondered at one time or another, what has become of these bright young members since receiving their scholarship grants and awards from the LPSCU? Many were just beginning their college life, others studying to become nurses or professing their religious vows, and still others furthering their education with advanced degrees. So many possibilities and opportunities open before them. Where are they now?

Beginning with the January/February 2016 issue of Zornicka, the LPSCU will dedicate a section in each issue to publish news and information received from our past College Scholarship recipients, Post Graduate awardees, Anne (Shinal) Cichy Memorial awardees, Bishop Andrew G. Grutka Memorial awardees, and Religious awardees. We would like to hear from our past award recipients so we can catch up with all your news…your current location, employment, profession, family, what has transpired since graduating from college, and any other pertinent information you would like to share with our readers.

Zornicka is really about and for our members, so we hope our past awardees (or members of their family) will share with all of us what’s happening in their lives today. We would welcome a photo of you and/or your family for publication along with your “update.” Please send your article and photo to Margaret A. Ferri, LPSCU Public Relations Director, 428 E. Frankford Street, Bethlehem, PA 18018 or you may email same to mfluvbaskets@gmail.com.

We look forward to hearing from you!

On September 12, 2015, the 50th Anniversary of the Chapel of Our Mother of Sorrows was celebrated in conjunction with the Slovak Catholic Federation Pilgrimage of Faith at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in our nation’s capitol, Washington, D.C.

It was a glorious day for Catholic Slovaks even through the skies were gray and the rain fell. To be part of the history of the Chapel of Our Lady of Sorrows and the beautiful Liturgy that celebrated this historical event was an opportunity that cannot be recreated. It is now in the history books forever!

The Chapel of Our Mother of Sorrows, Patroness of Slovakia, was dedicated on September 4th and 5th in 1965 by the First Catholic Slovak Union of the United States and Canada. The Pieta statue by Ernest Morenon dominates the chapel. Sculpted in Trani marble, the work is life-size. To the left and right of the Pieta are six bronze bas-reliefs, also sculpted by Morenon and executed in bronze by Corbero of Barcelona. These depict the remaining six sorrows of the Blessed Mother. The front of the altar holds a rondel symbolizing the seven sorrows. Above the altar, inscribed in Slovak, is the prayer of Our Mother of Sorrows, Virgin Mary, Patroness of the Slovak People, Pray for Us. The chapel was refurbished through a gift from the First Catholic Slovak Union and was re-dedicated on September 6, 2003.

To further etch this day in the history books, the First Catholic Slovak Union, in collaboration with the Slovak Catholic Federation, coordinated a day of pilgrimage. The day included a tour of the shrine that provided an opportunity for all to see the chair and altar that Pope Francis would use during his upcoming visit to Washington. Those wishing to attend Confession were able to do so – in English or Slovak! Mid-afternoon, the 50th Anniversary celebration commenced with a welcome from Msgr. Buonanno, BSNIC director of pilgrimages, and Andrew Rajec, president of the FCSU. To continue with the celebration, Reverend Thomas Nasta, FCSU national chaplain, blessed Rosaries and had them distributed to the pilgrims, after which the Recitation of the Rosary was said in English and Slovak.

The culmination of celebration was the Liturgy and the Prayer of Blessing at the Shrine of Our Mother of Sorrows, which was absolutely beautiful and uplifting. His Eminence, Donald Cardinal Wuerl, Archbishop of Washington, was the principal celebrant and homilist. Also attending were His Excellency, Most Reverend Joseph Adamec, Bishop Emeritus of Altoona-Johnstown and Episcopal Protector of the LPSCU; Right Reverend Gary Hoover, O.S.B., abbot, Saint Andrew Svorad Abbey; Reverend Andrew Hvozdovic, national president, Slovak Catholic Federation; Reverend Monsignor Walter R. Rossi, rector of the Basilica, and many other priests.

On Saturday, August 22, 2015, Tom and Mary Ann Kaylor of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary at the American Legion Hall in Avalon, Pennsylvania, where they had their wedding reception 50 years earlier. It was a celebration hosted by their daughters-in-law, Kristin Yetto Kaylor, Deborah Kaylor, and Lisa Kaylor, as well as their daughter, Mary Ann Bowman, and their three sons, Michael, Stephen, and Martin Kaylor. Father Larry Bruney, pastor of St. Cyril of Alexandria Church, renewed their wedding vows at the anniversary celebration.

A delicious meal was catered by Bistro to Go and music was provided by their son Stephen, who taped special requests for his parents. Dancing was plentiful and the hall was beautifully decorated. The couple’s anniversary cake depicted how their names intertwine:

The first three letters of Tom’s surname and the first three letters of Mary Ann’s maiden name spell KAYLOR. The last three letters of Tom’s surname and the last three letters of Mary Ann’s maiden name spell LORINC.

The anniversary celebration was a joyous occasion for all who attended as well as a source of wonderful memories for years to come. The couple’s eldest son, Michael, was unable to attend the event because he was working in India, and their granddaughter, Bethany Kaylor, was attending school at the University of Oregon.

Tom and Mary Ann and their family are all members of LPSCU Branch 64, Pittsburgh.

The officers and members of the LPSCU congratulate Tom and Mary Ann Kaylor on their 50th wedding anniversary and wish them many more years of good health and happiness together.

Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted.

Mackenzie Rose Gruber

Mackenzie Gruber Receives 2015 Anne (Shinal) Cichy Memorial Scholarship

The LPSCU is pleased to announce that Mackenzie Rose Gruber of Hermitage, Pennsylvania, is the recipient of the 2015 Anne (Shinal) Cichy Memorial Scholarship. Mackenzie is presently a freshman at Westminster College in New Wilmington, Pennsylvania, where she is majoring in Physical Therapy.

Mackenzie graduated from Hickory High School in Hermitage this past June, where she maintained High Honors all four years. She was a member of the National Honor Society, Spanish Honor Society, Spanish Club, Students for Charity, and the Silver Cord Program. The latter, which commenced during her junior year, is a volunteer service program which allows students to perform volunteer service to earn a silver cord to wear at graduation.

Mackenzie’s extra-curricular activities in high school included soccer and track, where she was a 4-year letter winner in both. Her soccer team won four straight regional titles and a District X Championship in her junior year. Her track team won States in her freshman and senior years and four straight regional titles.

Mackenzie is continuing her soccer career at Westminster College where she is studying neuro-science with a minor in Spanish. Her goal is to become a pediatric physical therapist. She is a recipient of a 2015 LPSCU College Scholarship.

Mackenzie is the daughter of Ron and Rose Piso of Hermitage. She and her brother, Will Gruber, and sister, Molly Piso, are all members of LPSCU Branch 64, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

The LPSCU is proud of Mackenzie’s outstanding achievements and accomplishments. She is most deserving of this year’s Anne (Shinal) Cichy Memorial Scholarship.

Congratulations, Mackenzie! Wishing you continued success at Westminster College.

Lehigh Valley Okres Hosts Members to Baseball Game

On Sunday, August 2, 2015, the Lehigh Valley Okres hosted a group of 18 LPSCU youth, 30 adult members, and two guests at a Lehigh Valley Iron Pigs Baseball Game at Coca-Cola Park in Allentown, Pennsylvania. The Lehigh Valley Iron Pigs, an affiliate of the Philadelphia Phillies, played the Norfolk Tides (Baltimore) at 1:35 p.m. The weather was way too hot for a baseball game, but everyone stayed until the end.

The Lehigh Valley Okres provided each young member with a complimentary entrance ticket to the game and a stipend toward their food purchase. Upon entering the ballpark, each youth under 14 years of age received a complimentary wiffle ball and bat.

Aiden Malone, son of Gary and Nichole Malone, threw out the first pitch. Aiden is a member of Bethlehem Branch 130, along with his two brothers and many cousins. Aiden got to keep the Iron Pigs baseball that he threw.

During the game, the names of the various groups in attendance were announced as they appeared on a large screen over the ballpark. When the Lehigh Valley Okres of the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union was announced, our members stood up and cheered.

Even though the Iron Pigs lost the contest, our group raved about how much they enjoyed the game. The Okres officers are delighted with the interest our members always show in attending a baseball game as a fraternal activity. The Okres plans to host another baseball game next year.

Aiden Malone throws out the first pitch.

Something New Has Happened!

The LPSCU website www.lpscu.org has recently been revised and looks fabulous! Check out our website and look at all the Life Insurance and Annuity products, programs and benefits the LPSCU has to offer. And don’t miss all the Branch and District events that are happening. After your review of the website, if you have any questions, please contact your Branch Secretary or the Home Office.
ATTENTION ALL ARTISTS! The LPSCU is holding an Art Contest, the results of which will be featured in a very special 2017 Calendar. The calendar will be given to each delegate attending our 2016 National Convention and also be made available for distribution at LPSCU functions.

CONTEST RULES

1. Drawings must be created by LPSCU members who are between the ages of 3 and 15. (Age-related eligibility will be based on the date the drawing is received by the LPSCU Home Office.)

2. Submit an original picture that you have drawn. You may choose any subject pertaining to any of the 12 months of the year. Artwork should be horizontal (wider than it is tall) with a maximum size of 11” x 8½”.

3. Use unlined drawing paper or poster board.

4. Use charcoal, ink, crayons, pastels, colored pencils, tempera, or watercolors. Do not use magic markers.

5. On a separate sheet of paper that accompanies your drawing, print your name, birthday (including year), full address, branch number, telephone number, and email address.

7. All entries must be postmarked by January 25, 2016.

Since there are 13 eligible ages, and 13 calendar pages available (each of 12 months plus the front cover), it is our intention to feature one drawing chosen from each age on those 13 pages. All submissions, however, will be featured somewhere in the calendar, so everyone’s work will be recognized.

Mom and Dad, Grandma and Grandpa – Here’s a chance to encourage your children or grandchildren to show off their artistic talents and have their artwork printed for all to see! If they’re a member of the LPSCU between the ages of 3 and 15, they’re eligible to participate in this creative and fun activity.

On Saturday, September 12, 2015, members of the Pittsburgh District volunteered for the Kane Nursing Home Center’s fundraiser walk at the Waterfront in McKeesport, Pennsylvania. There they had the pleasure of meeting and interacting with approximately 35 residents of the facility. The group helped with pushing residents in wheel chairs on the walk, serving them a lovely picnic lunch in the outdoor courtyard, and helping with the raffle for those who participated on the walk. Our youngest volunteer, Mycah Choby, was lucky enough to win one of the baskets.

The volunteers who attended from the Pittsburgh District were: Dolores Sakal, Susan Lazur, Michele Choby, Nate Choby, Mycah Choby, Josie Manns, Dave Matthews, and Jan Matthews.

The most rewarding benefit of this event was helping to put smiles on the residents’ faces. God bless the residents and the management of the Kane Nursing Home Centers. This was an enjoyable event for the Pittsburgh volunteers and hopefully it can be an ongoing partnership.

The Slovak Heritage Society of Northeast Pennsylvania is so pleased to announce that the “Father Jozef Murgas Room” was dedicated on June 4, 2015. This room is located on the first floor of King’s College on the Square (the former Ramada Inn), Public Square, Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. It is open Monday to Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday from noon to 5:00 p.m.

The dedication began with a prayer in Slovak and English by Rev. John Albosta, SHSNEPA chaplain. John Loyack, vice president of Business Affairs at King’s College, offered greetings and remarks. He said the room pays tribute to a man who “epitomized Abraham Lincoln’s advice that the best way to predict the future is to create it. Father Murgas did that, with everything from radio to reinventing the fishing reel.”

Rev. John J. Ryan, C.S.C., Ph.D., President of King’s College, who blessed the room and the artifacts, noted in his remarks that, among Father Murgas’s accomplishments, he remained a priest and the room could “remind us that no matter how hard we work, we need a Sabbath moment…to reflect on why we do what we do.”

Dr. Thomas M. Check, D.D.S., gave a brief history on the life of Father Murgas, who was born in 1864 and died on May 11, 1929. Dr. Check was one of the first financial contributors to the room. He was baptized by Father Murgas whose name is on his baptismal certificate.

It took 86 years, but now there is a permanent place for the historical items that were shown in the SHSNEPA traveling exhibit.

Inside the room are the vestments belonging to Father Murgas, a picture of him when he was ordained a priest, an original painting which he started on the reverse side, didn’t like, and started over on the back, copies of the paintings that were on the altars at Sacred Heart Church, a butterfly collection, a picture of the botanical garden he envisioned at Sacred Heart Cemetery in Dallas, Pennsylvania, a picture of the rare beech tree that is in the yard by Sacred Heart Church, a copy of the Pittsburgh Pact, his desk, and panels of the towers that transmitted sound from Wilkes-Barre to Scranton.

The 34 x 72 inch glass panels placed on opposite sides of the room were artistically hand carved and enhanced with LED lighting, symbolizing and honoring Father Jozef Murgas for his notable invention of the famous wireless telegraphy towers he built in Wilkes-Barre and Scranton.

The stained glass butterfly panel, in the center of the ceiling, is comprised of over 1,100 pieces of various shades of hand blown stained glass, brilliant bevels, and imported faceted jewels. Each piece is hand cut, ground, copper foiled, and soldered in the Tiffany tradition, designed by Helfran Glass Company of Edwardsville, Pennsylvania. The panel has a central Monarch butterfly linking the connection and gratitude of the Slovak Heritage Society to King’s College for their involvement in helping to create this memorable room.

On the wall outside the room is a collage that shows Father Murgas’s other paintings, articles in newspapers, his grave site, the Slovak prayer card from his funeral, and a stamp that Slovakia issued commemorating him.

Father Albosta ended the dedication with a closing prayer and invited all to join in singing “Hej, Slovaci.”

The Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union contributed financially to the project.

An anonymous donor requested the establishment of an endowed scholarship fund named for Father Jozef Murgas. The scholarship will provide annual support to a talented King’s student with financial need. Please consider making your own gift or pledge to this fund to support future bright minds like Father Murgas. For more information, please contact Bill Lynn at King’s College (570-208-5946) or williamlynn@kings.edu.

Rachel Bowman, a member of LPSCU Branch 64, North Side, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, recently completed a week long program at the Allegheny County Camp Cadet, a mini police academy for kids ages 12 to 14. The camp is run by state police across Pennsylvania. The free, weeklong camp teaches kids what it is like to be law enforcement officers with an emphasis on building confidence and leadership skills and making good decisions.

The camp is a mini version of the real police academy. The days consisted of physical training (PT), followed by a morning run and then the cadets returned to their quarters for personal hygiene and prepare for inspection. During the day, cadets participated in mock crime scene investigations, mock criminal trials, and sporting activities.

The cadets also biked down to Pittsburgh from Sharpsburg to watch a demonstration by the River Rescue Team. On her last day of camp, Rachel ran 5 miles.

Rachel came out of the camp feeling very accomplished. She also had a better understanding of what could be accomplished through teamwork, felt better physically, and had a higher self-esteem. We are grateful she was selected to participate. Her entire family is very proud!

The LPSCU congratulates Rachel Bowman for completing the Allegheny County Camp Cadet Program. We are proud of her also!

The LPSCU is pleased to announce that Randy Louis Czankner, Jr. of Northampton, Pennsylvania, is the recipient of the 2015 Bishop Andrew G. Grutka Memorial Award.

The Bishop Grutka Award was established at our 37th National Convention held in Merrillville, Indiana, on August 13-16, 2000. This award is given in memory of Bishop Andrew G. Grutka, who was an outstanding Slovak leader and the founding bishop of the Diocese of Gary, Indiana. Through this award, the LPSCU seeks to encourage and recognize young adult members who are exceptional in their involvement with organizations and activities which promote pride in our Slovak heritage.

Randy is an active member of Immaculate Conception Church in Allentown, Pennsylvania, where he served as an altar server from the 4th grade until his graduation from Northampton Area High School. Even now, as a sophomore at DeSales University in Center Valley, Pennsylvania, Randy continues to serve faithfully in this ministry.

In a recommendation letter received from Deacon Richard Benkovic of Immaculate Conception Church, he states, “Randy lost his father at the age of sixteen when a young man would still need a father. He was able to overcome this tragedy with the help of his grandparents by channeling his energy into his faith, his studies, and his activities as an Eagle Scout.” Deacon Benkovic goes on to say, “As a young adult, Randy has taken on a new role in our parish. He is currently working with the activities committee, which is responsible for all social events. Randy is a good example to the other young parishioners by showing it is cool to show one’s faith.”

In another recommendation letter received from Rev. John M. Gibbons of Immaculate Conception Church, he estimates Randy’s yearly time serving on the Altar to be approximately 52 hours.

Randy’s major at DeSales University is Public Communication. He continues to excel in his academic studies at DeSales, making the Dean’s List both semesters of his freshman year.

Randy states that in order to preserve his Slovak heritage and culture, the Czankner family serves the traditional Slovak Christmas Eve dinner of fish, bobalky, mushroom soup, pirohy, oplatky, and kolach. On Holy Saturday, they prepare a traditional Slovak Easter basket with ham, kielbasa, red beets, horseradish, homemade cheese, and hardboiled eggs for the blessing of foods for their Easter dinner. He says the Czankner family gets together for both holiday dinners as they have done for over 80 years. Randy attends the annual traditional Slovak picnic at St. John the Baptist Slovak Catholic Church in Allentown.

Randy is a member of LPSCU Branch 197, Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. He was also a recipient of the LPSCU’s 2015 College Award.

The LPSCU congratulates Randy on his outstanding service and dedication to his parish community. He is a remarkable young man and most deserving of the Bishop Grutka Memorial Award. We wish him continued success in his educational endeavors at DeSales University.

Everyone has a story. Mine turned a new chapter in October 2012 when a group of co-workers asked me if I’d like to participate in a Tough Mudder, a 10+ mile obstacle course race. I didn’t particularly find this event to be fun because I barely trained. Since then, I made a commitment to get in better shape, and from there I did a few more Tough Mudders, along with a few more obstacle course races (Rugged Maniac and Civilian Military Combine, just to name a couple…).

My most difficult test was when I decided to take on the Spartan Race series in 2015. These races come in a variety of distances and difficulties, and are categorized as Sprint, Super, and Beast. Completing one of each of these distances in the same calendar year scores a runner a Trifecta medal. On Saturday, September 19, I earned my second Trifecta in 2015, completing a Beast in Killington, Vermont, known as “The Beast of the East” or “The Founder’s Race.” On this day, I asked myself several times – “Why do I do this again?” Turns out I have several reasons: (1) I want to show my child anything is possible, (2) commitment keeps me motivated, (3) I want tomorrow’s version of me to be better than today, and (4) I do it for those who can’t.

As 2015 comes to a close, I look back on my accomplishments and realize I’ve come a long way from my first race in 2012. I’ve met a lot of great people in this community and hope to inspire others. I look forward to 2016 and hope to see some of you out on the course.

I grew up and learned about the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union from my grandmother. She was the one who purchased my first certificate for life insurance. Today I continue to learn from my mother, Anita Gregory, who is Secretary of LPSCU Branch 60.

Our Scholarship Recipients Explain
The Importance of Life Insurance

Life Insurance is the “What If.” What if I become ill and pass away? What if I die suddenly in a car accident? What if I am the victim of a fatal crime? What if I happen to be in the wrong place at the wrong time and I die? Any of these scenarios can happen to any one of us at any time in our lives. A life insurance policy is the stability a family needs during these “what if” times. Life insurance can provide financial security to our loved ones as they move through this new change in their lives. Many circumstances may arise for the family when a loved one passes away. Knowing there could be some financial relief during this time is imperative. Life insurance can help to provide the family with continuing their lives as they are used to financially. A death in a family is stressful and emotional in and of itself. Life insurance takes away some of the worry about finances during this time. Everyone should have a life insurance policy just in case “what if” occurs.

Lawrence “Larry” (Harcarik) Tomasic, a member of LPSCU Branch 52, had an Opening Reception on Thursday, June 25, 2015, at the Braddock Carnegie Library in Braddock, Pennsylvania, in celebration of the library’s Artists in the Library series entitled “Over the Rainbow.”

Larry was born and raised in North Braddock. He is a retired engineer who started to paint in earnest after retirement. His vibrant paintings follow his wonders, amusements, and visions, bringing symbols to life. Larry has always been interested in painting and was influenced by the use of color by Van Gogh and by the Impressionists. Rainbows are part of many of Larry’s paintings because they are the embodiment of color, as well as ethereal in nature; you can see a rainbow, but you can’t touch it. “Let a rainbow be a doorway into your future!” he says. Some of his paintings include multi-colored pixels around the symbol for infinity, representing order and disorder in the universe.

Veterans Day

Veterans Day is an American holiday honoring military veterans. Both a federal and a state holiday in all states, it is celebrated on the same day as Armistice Day or Remembrance Day in other parts of the world, falling on November 11, the anniversary of the signing of the Armistice that ended World War I. (Major hostilities of World War I were formally ended at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918 with the German signing of the Armistice.)

Veterans Day is largely intended to thank living veterans for their service, to acknowledge that their contributions to United States national security are appreciated, and to underscore the fact that all those who served - not only those who died - have sacrificed and done their duty.

November 30 – Feast of Saint Andrew

The first major feast of the Advent calendar is that of St. Andrew the Apostle. St. Andrew is the patron saint of married men and for this reason girls with matrimonial aspirations turn to him with prayers that he might grant them at least some slight indication as to who will be their future mate.

On the eve of this feast, young girls try to learn their future by cooking dumplings which contain the names of various young men of their acquaintance inside. The first dumpling to rise to the surface of the water indicates the name of their future mate.

Others pour molten lead through a keyhole into a basin filled with water and observe the form it takes as it cools. If it resembles a flower, the suitor will be a gardener; if it looks like an animal, he will be a butcher; a sword, a soldier; and so on.

The Luck of the Wishbone

The tradition of pulling on a wishbone dates back to around 300 B.C. to the Etruscans, a people in central Italy. It began with hens, who were considered prophets since they cackled before laying their eggs and thus supposedly had the power to foretell the future.

Those concerned about the future would draw a circle on the ground and divide it into the letters of the alphabet. Grains of corn were placed into each section, and a hen would spell out words by picking up kernels in different letter sections. Afterwards, the bird was sacrificed and its collar bone hung out to dry. Three people would wish on the bone: one would make a wish on the intact bone, and two others got a chance to make a wish by pulling on each end. The person who ended up with the larger end of the bone supposedly got his or her wish.
Christmas Eve Traditions in Slovakia

Slovak families begin preparing for Christmas weeks in advance. They clean their homes, bake cakes, and make decorations for their trees. During the last week before Christmas, women have to return things they borrowed, wash and clean everything, and organize their work. Spinning, weaving, and cleaning were forbidden between Christmas and Epiphany.

Beginning in the early morning on Christmas Eve, preparations for the Birth of Christ are underway in every home, from the richest to the poorest. A final batch of cookies is baked and the dishes for the Christmas Eve meal are prepared. In some areas, people visit on Christmas Eve. Tradition says the first visitor to the home should be a man or boy, bringing greetings of luck, health, and happiness in the New Year. If the first visitor is a woman, bad luck is predicted during the entire coming year.

The holiday table is prepared with clean straw put under the tablecloth or on the floor to remind us that Christ was bedded on straw in the manger. In some villages, the table legs are also bound with chains to represent the link from Christ’s birth to His death. When the holiday table is prepared, one extra place is set for an unknown guest. With preparations complete, the family eagerly awaits the appearance of the first evening star.

Before dinner begins, the father or mother takes a little honey and makes a small sign of the cross on the forehead of each person. This serves as a reminder that it is proper at all times to keep our Divine Redeemer in our thoughts and to live and work so that harmony and pleasant fellowship will sweeten our lives.

After a dinner of mushroom soup, bobalky (tiny biscuits steamed and served with sauerkraut or poppyseed), peas, and fish, the home is cozy and quiet.

Bethlehem Strollers

From Christmas Day through January 6th, a small group of men called Betlehemci or Jasličkari make their way from home to home, presenting short plays. Their story tells of four brothers and the gifts they bring to the Christ child. For sharing their gift of laughter and song with the villagers, the players often receive donations of pastries, wine, or coins. All were turned over to the needy, for Christmas truly is a time for sharing.
Martin Votruba Receives Milan Hodža Award of Honor

One of two annual Milan Hodža Awards of Honor was presented to Martin Votruba, head of the Slovak Studies Program in the Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures within the Kenneth P. Dietrich School of Arts and Sciences at the University of Pittsburgh. The Milan Hodža Award is named after the last prime minister of Czechoslovakia before Nazi German influence and recognize the sciences and work that links Slovakia and the rest of the world.

The award was given “for the advancement of knowledge of Slovak history and culture in the Slavic department at the University of Pittsburgh in Pittsburgh and for his support to the preservation of Slovak culture in the awareness of Slovak-Americans and public at large,” according to the award citation. Robert Fico, prime minister of Slovakia, and Miroslav Pekník, chair of the award committee and director of the Institute of Political Science within the Slovak Academy of Sciences, signed the citation. Votruba received the award earlier this summer.

Pitt is the only university in the United States where students can enroll in Slovak language and culture classes and receive a minor in Slovak studies. An endowment created by the Slovak-American community underwrites the Slovak Studies Program.

Votruba received a PhD from Comenius University in Bratislava, Slovakia, and a diploma in English studies from the University of Edinburgh in Scotland. He has written about Slovak filmmaking and linguistic minorities in Slovakia. Votruba delivers talks on Slovak topics in Pittsburgh and other locations and has been invited by the U.S. Department of State to give presentations annually for over two decades.

The LPSCU extends congratulations to Martin Votruba upon receiving this prestigious award.
