Robert J. Kupsho III Receives 2013 LPSCU Youth Achievement Award

Robert James Kupsho III, 17, of Drums, Pennsylvania, is the recipient of this year’s LPSCU Youth Achievement Award. RJ, as he is called by his family and friends, has recently begun his Senior year at MMI Preparatory School in Freeland, Pennsylvania. Being a great student, athlete, and son are what motivated his parents to nominate him for this award.

RJ achieved highest scholastic honors on MMI’s “President’s List,” a distinguished Honor Roll that acknowledges academic achievement. Some of his other awards and achievements include MMI Excellence Award, Spanish Honor Society, JNHS, National Honor Society, Science Honor Society, Latin National Honor Society, and Best of the Best nominee for assembly.

As an active volunteer in his community, RJ has logged in over 100 hours of community service. He was chosen to represent MMI last year at the Hugh O’Brien Youth Leadership Conference. He was also recently chosen to participate in the Leadership Hazleton Program sponsored by the Greater Hazleton Chamber of Commerce. Last summer RJ spent time working for State Representative Tarah Toohill during an internship at her District Office. She was very impressed with his positive attitude and capacity for tackling many complicated projects. Among some of his other civic and school activities, RJ participated as an Elderwish volunteer, MMI Ambassador, and in MMI’s Mock Trial and FBLA.

Not only is RJ an excellent student, but he also finds time for extra-curricular activities. He is a Varsity Letterman in both basketball and baseball and has taught young athletes drills and exercises to practice their basketball skills at MMI’s Kids Basketball Camp. He volunteers for the Freeland YMCA basketball tournaments and he is also a Conyngham Valley Civic Organization volunteer.

RJ is an active member of St. John Bosco Church. Last summer he volunteered for a week working in Franklin, West Virginia, for Habitat for Humanity through a program sponsored by St. Mary’s Church in Dorrance, Pennsylvania.

One of RJ’s teachers said that his selfless devotion to others and peaceful, kind disposition towards others reflect a crowning achievement in responsibility and living as a Christian should in a world otherwise filled with temptations and selfishness. Closest to his parents’ heart, he has organized the Redhawk’s MS Walk-a-Thon team for the past three years. He does this in memory of his grandmother, who passed away from MS. He raised over $400 last year alone for this cause.

RJ is a member of LPSCU Branch 60 in West Hazleton, Pennsylvania, of which National Vice President Anita Gregory is secretary. He participated in the Make a Difference Day project sponsored by the Msgr. Beeda District by helping to collect coats and gloves for those in need in our community.

The LPSCU congratulates Robert James Kupsho III on receiving the 2013 LPSCU Youth Achievement Award. He is a fine young man and we are proud of all his accomplishments. We wish him all the happiness and success that the future has to offer.

Our Holy Father, Pope Francis, recently returned to Rome from his very successful trip to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, for World Youth Day 2013. It was in 1984, at the close of the Holy Year of Redemption, that over 300,000 young people from around the world responded to the invitation of Pope John Paul II for an International Jubilee of Youth on Palm Sunday in St. Peter’s Square. On that day, looking out to the crowds who answered his invitation, Pope John Paul II said, “What a fantastic spectacle is presented on this stage by your gathering here today! Who claimed that today’s youth have lost their sense of values? Is it really true that they cannot be counted on?” It was at this gathering that the Holy Father entrusted to the youth what is now known as the World Youth Day Cross, to be carried throughout the world as a symbol of the love of Christ for humanity.

To the delight of many, it was in 1987 that Pope John Paul II brought about a new tradition when the first international World Youth Day took place in Buenos Aires, Argentina. Every Palm Sunday has since been designated as a World Youth Day, alternately celebrated at the diocesan and international levels. There have been 11 International World Youth Day celebrations, where the youth continue to answer the invitation of the Holy Father in staggering numbers and carry home the message received there to be Christ’s light to the world. While these events are organized by the clergy and laity of the Catholic Church, youth of all faiths are invited to attend and encounter Christ, making this gathering truly universal.

Returning to our current Holy Father, Pope Francis...For the closing Mass of World Youth Day 2013, it was estimated that over 3 million people gathered with Pope Francis on Copacabana Beach in Rio de Janeiro. In the homily delivered by the Holy Father during the closing Mass, he focused on the directive given by the Lord Jesus at his Ascension, when he commanded them: “Go and make disciples of all nations.” Pope Francis began his homily by saying that “with these words, Jesus is speaking to each one of us, saying: It was wonderful to take part in World Youth Day, to live the faith together with young people from the four corners of the earth, but now you must go, now you must pass on this experience to others. Jesus is calling you to be a disciple with a mission! Today, in the light of the word of God that we have heard, what is the Lord saying to us? Three simple ideas: Go, do not be afraid, and serve.”

As we draw near the end of this Year of Faith, called for by Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, during which we have been asked to reflect on the reality of the new evangelization or the encouragement to take a fresh approach to sharing the Gospel message in our times, Pope Francis develops those three simple ideas which have value not only for young people, but for Christians of all ages who seek to seriously follow the Lord Jesus.

Go. The Holy Father reminded the youth gathered with him that during their days in Rio, they were able to enjoy the wonderful experience of meeting Jesus. But, as he reminded his congregation, their experience of encountering Jesus is not meant to “remain locked up in your life or in the small group of your parish, your movement, or your community.” To keep the joy of their experience with Jesus to themselves would be like “withholding oxygen from a flame that was burning strongly. Faith is a flame that grows stronger the more it is shared and passed on, so that everyone may know, love, and confess Jesus Christ, the Lord of life and history.” (cf. Romans 10:9)

In accepting the command of Jesus, Pope Francis cautioned his listeners by reminding them that “Jesus did not say: ‘If you would like to’ or ‘if you have the time’ but: ‘Go and make disciples of all nations.’ Sharing the experience of faith, bearing witness to the faith, proclaiming the Gospel is a command that the Lord entrusts to the whole Church. Jesus’ command is born, not from a desire for domination or power, but from the force of love. Jesus came into our midst and gave us not a part of himself, but the whole of himself; he gave his life in order to save us and to show us the love and mercy of God.

As bearers of God’s mercy to others, Jesus sends us to everyone. When it comes to sharing the Gospel message, there are no borders and no limits. The Gospel message is for everyone, not just for some. We are to share the message of Jesus, not only with those who seem closer to us, more receptive, or are more welcoming, but we must remember that since the message of salvation is intended for everyone, we must also reach out to those on the fringes of society, those who seem farthest away or most forgotten. The Lord seeks all; he wants everyone to feel the warmth of his mercy and his love.

Do not be afraid. Addressing the hesitation of many Christians to engage in the work of evangelization, Pope Francis said: “Some people might think: ‘I have no particular preparation. How can I go and proclaim the Gospel?’ My dear friend, your fear is not so very different from that of Jeremiah, a young man like you, when he was called by God to be a prophet. We have just heard his words: ‘Ah, Lord God! Behold, I do not know how to speak, for I am only a youth.’ God says the same thing to you as he said to Jeremiah: ‘Be not afraid…for I am with you to deliver you.’ (Jeremiah 1:7,8) He is with us! Do not be afraid! When we go to proclaim Christ, it is he himself who goes before us and guides us. When he sent his disciples on mission, he promised: ‘I am with you always.’ (Matthew 28:20) And this is also true for us! Jesus does not leave us alone. He never leaves you alone! He always accompanies you.’

On Sunday, July 21, 2013, the Lehigh Valley Okres hosted a group of 28 LPSCU youth, 23 adult members, and 10 guests at a Lehigh Valley Iron Pigs Baseball Game at Coca-Cola Park in Allentown, Pennsylvania. The Lehigh Valley Iron Pigs, an affiliate of the Philadelphia Phillies, played the Columbus Clippers at 5:35 p.m. The weather was perfect for the baseball game.

The Lehigh Valley Okres provided each young member with a complimentary entrance ticket to the game and a stipend toward their food purchase. Upon entering the ballpark, each youth under 14 years of age received a complimentary savings bank shaped like a baseball cap.

During the game, the names of the various groups in attendance were announced and appeared on a large screen over the ballpark. When the Lehigh Valley Okres of the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union was announced, our members stood up and cheered loudly.

With the Iron Pigs winning the game 2-1, our group was delighted and raved about how much they enjoyed the event. The Okres officers are thrilled with the interest our members continue to show in attending a baseball game as a fraternal activity. The Okres plans to host another game next year.

On June 20, 2013, John and Margaret Ferri of Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, celebrated their 60th Wedding Anniversary. They were married in 1953 at SS. Cyril and Methodius Church in Bethlehem by Rev. Joseph C. Basovsky. In celebration of this milestone, a Mass of Thanksgiving was celebrated on Sunday, June 30, at 10:30 a.m. at Incarnation of Our Lord Church by Msgr. Robert F. Kozel, past pastor of SS. Cyril and Methodius Parish and now pastor emeritus of St. John the Baptist Parish in Allentown, Pennsylvania.

During the Mass, the couple’s son, Jack Ferri, read the First Reading and Responsorial Psalm, and their daughter, Patricia Kienzle, read the Second Reading. Sister M. Francine Garganta, O.S.F., offered the Prayer of the Faithful. Gift bearers were Victoriana and Jenna Kienzle, granddaughters of the couple. The parish choir, under the direction of Mary Stofanak, sang beautiful liturgical songs for this celebration and John Stofanak was the organist. The altar servers were Jordan and Ashley Judd, who are special parish friends of the couple.

Following the homily by Msgr. Kozel, John and Margaret renewed their vows and Msgr. Kozel blessed their rings. The couple was surprised when Msgr. Kozel read a Papal Blessing in their honor which was received from His Holiness Pope Francis at the request of Cardinal Jozef Tomko of the Vatican.

Following the Liturgy, the couple’s children, Jack, David, and Patricia, hosted a reception in their honor at the Green Pond Country Club in Bethlehem for 65 relatives and friends. Patricia welcomed everyone at the reception. Msgr. Kozel offered a prayer before the meal and Jack offered a toast in honor of his parents’ 60th wedding anniversary. A buffet luncheon was served and a delicious anniversary cake with ice cream followed for dessert.

At the conclusion of the luncheon, congratulatory remarks were made and a monetary gift given by Justine Wesnak, a well-known fraternalist in the Lehigh Valley area with whom the Ferris are associated in National Slovak Society Leaf 102 and through their volunteer service on behalf of the Cardinal Tomko Chapter of the Slovak Catholic Federation. The couple also offered some special remarks regarding their family life and working together as a team for a happy and successful marriage.

Entertainment was provided by “Sing for America,” a group of three young sisters who entertained with favorite songs from the ’50s. When guests insisted, John and Margaret were delighted to dance to their special song, “You Belong To Me.” The group concluded their performance by singing the anthems of each branch of the military. The group donates all money they receive from performances to the military.

John and Margaret thanked everyone for sharing in their special celebration and as a token of appreciation, they presented each guest with a bottle of wine and a crystal wine stopper as a favor.

Margaret is national public relations director of the LPSCU and the Ferri and Kienzle families are proudly 100% members of the organization.

We congratulate John and Margaret on reaching this special milestone and wish them many more happy and healthy years together.

The oppressive, sweltering 90 degree temperature on July 18 did not keep the faithful Slovak population from coming to celebrate the 90th Slovak-American Day at Kennywood Park in West Mifflin, Pennsylvania. LPSCU Pittsburgh District President Dolores Sakal, Slovak Day general chairperson, welcomed the crowd, and Rev. Joseph R. Grosko, president of the Western Pennsylvania Slovak Day Committee, gave the invocation.

The First Reading was given by Dolores Sakal. The Gospel was presented by Deacon Joseph Dougherty, a newly-ordained deacon of the Pittsburgh Diocese. The Prayer of the Faithful was offered by Rev. Lawrence Adams, a newly-ordained priest of the Pittsburgh Diocese. Also present was Deacon Steven Pikula, a newly-ordained deacon of the Pittsburgh Diocese.

Following Communion, remarks were made by Rt. Rev. Lawrence Brandt and Rev. Martin Stefanik. Leonard Potemra was the organist and Robert Ponchak was the cantor. The beautiful music certainly added to the solemnity of the Mass.

There were many gift baskets and gift cards donated by all the Slovak fraternals, their members, and the Pittsburgh District and Branches for our first ever Chinese Auction held at Slovak Day. Their generosity helped to make the auction a great success and we thank them all.

Our gratitude also goes out to all the wonderful people who gave of their time to help prepare the food that was served in the Slovak Kitchen. The volunteers included not only individuals from the LPSCU’s Pittsburgh District, but also parisioners from churches in the area. There simply aren’t enough words to express how much they are appreciated. Our thanks to: Josh Adams,
Betty Clark, Mary Errett, Sylvia Goda, Ann Golofski, Maggie Golofski, Mary Heckel, Dwayne Hovanec, Virginia Jasek, Margaret Joschak, Kris Kopay, Helen Lorinc, Flo Matta, Anna Melko, Elizabeth Melko, Bridget Midla, John Midla, Bea Miller, Barbara Mima, Donna Mima, Fran Onafrey, Carol Pastirik, Mary Sabol, Dolores Sakal, Walter Severa, Gerry Skanderson, Mary Soltis, Albert Stajger, Alice Svirbel, and Mary Lou Wagner.

We were honored and happy to welcome LPSCU National President Theresa Kluchinski and National Secretary-Treasurer Mary Jo Savidge on their first visit to Slovak Day. We thank them for making the long trip to join us and hope they will come back. (Next time, we will make sure they ride the frightening Black Widow!)

The LPSCU table was manned throughout the afternoon by Tom Kaylor, Celeste Palcsy, Dave Palcsy, and Jim Tomasic. The table offered multiple insurance plan brochures and useful give-aways for children and adults alike.

Ann Krohnaly once again displayed her awesome collection of memorabilia from Czecho-slovakia and Slovakia. These included not just beautiful, authentic costumes, but also original artwork and books.

We appreciate all who oversaw the children’s games, which were so much fun to watch. You really made the day for all those little ones!

A highlight of Slovak Day is, of course, the entertainment by the Pittsburgh Slovakians and Pittsburgh Area Slovaks. We so appreciate the many, many hours it must take to choreograph the dances, learn the Slovak songs, and practice the intricate steps of our Slovak culture. Their time and their talents do not go unrecognized. We thank them all.

To each and every one of you: whether you ministered to us through the Holy Sacrifice of Mass, whether you prepared the food we ate, whether you entertained us in song and dance, whether you graced us with your presence on that sweltering day, we ask God to bless you with health and happiness.

See you next year!

- Sylvia Goda
EXCITING NEWS
for
MEMBERS AGES 3 TO 15!

ATTENTION ALL ARTISTS! The LPSCU is holding an Art Contest, the results of which will be featured in a very special 2017 Calendar. The calendar will be given to each delegate attending our 2016 National Convention and also be made available for distribution at LPSCU functions.

CONTEST RULES

1. Drawings must be created by LPSCU members who are between the ages of 3 and 15. (Age-related eligibility will be based on the date the drawing is received by the Fraternal Activities Director.)

2. Submit an original picture that you have drawn. You may choose any subject pertaining to any of the 12 months of the year. Artwork should be horizontal (or landscape) format (wider than it is tall), not vertical (or portrait) format (taller than it is wide).

3. Use unlined paper, poster board, or canvas. The ideal size is 11" x 8½". Drawings may not exceed 11" x 8½".

4. Use charcoal, ink, crayons, pastels, colored pencils, tempera, or watercolors. Do not use magic markers.

5. On a separate sheet of paper that accompanies your drawing, print your name, birthday (including year), full address, branch number, telephone number, and email address.

6. Place your drawing flat, protected between two sheets of heavy cardboard to keep it from being bent or folded, and mail it in a large envelope to the address below. (Don’t forget to enclose your contact information!)

7. All entries must be postmarked by November 25, 2015.

Since there are 13 eligible ages, and 13 calendar pages available (each of 12 months plus the front cover), it is our intention to feature one drawing chosen from each age on those 13 pages. All submissions, however, will be featured somewhere in the calendar, so everyone’s work will be recognized.

Mom and Dad, Grandma and Grandpa – Here’s a chance to encourage your children or grandchildren to show off their artistic talents and have their artwork printed for all to see! If they’re a member of the LPSCU between the ages of 3 and 15, they’re eligible to participate in this creative and fun activity.

Please send entries to:
Fraternal Activities Director Cecilia B. Gaughan

Lehigh Valley Okres to Hold Matching Fund Event

In conjunction with the LPSCU Matching Fund Program, members of the Lehigh Valley Okres will hold a themed gift basket raffle on December 1, 2013, for the benefit of the Allentown Diocesan Soup Kitchen. The Soup Kitchen is located at 177 Chew Street, Allentown, Pennsylvania, and needs to continually restock its pantry to keep up with the nearly 800 meals it serves during a four-day period each week.

For the Matching Fund event, Okres members will prepare themed gift baskets and raffle them off at their Holiday Luncheon, which will be held on Sunday, December 1, in the Lehigh Room of the Best Western Lehigh Valley Conference Center in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. We ask our Lehigh Valley LPSCU members to support this worthwhile project by either donating a themed gift basket or by attending the Holiday Luncheon and purchasing raffle tickets towards a basket.

For further information, call Marge Ferri at 610-866-8945 or Ceil Gaughan at 610-433-4610.

John and Nina Holy Celebrate 60th Wedding Anniversary

Well-known Slovak cultural and fraternal activists, John and Nina Holy of Pompton Plains, New Jersey, marked their 60th wedding anniversary this past June. They celebrated this joyous occasion by taking a cruise to several Caribbean islands, together with their daughters, Luby Masi and Jane Konzelmann, as well as their son-in-law, Thomas Masi, and four grandchildren, John and Jennifer Masi and Mark and Andrew Konzelmann.

Both jubilarians are very active in Slovak-American life and belong to many Slovak fraternal organizations, including being members of Pittsburgh Branch 42 of the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union. Nina serves as the National Secretary-Treasurer of the Slovak League of America, an office which John held from 1975 to 2002. Nina also serves as the co-chairperson of the popular New Jersey Slovak Heritage Festival.

The LPSCU congratulates John and Nina on their 60th Wedding Anniversary. May God grant them many more years together.

John and Nina Holy

SIGN UP A NEW MEMBER TODAY!
Since 1978, the Slovak Catholic Federation has been conducting the SS. Cyril and Methodius Appeal, which begins each year in the month of February during the closest weekend to the Feast of SS. Cyril and Methodius. To date, I wish to report that $16,493.85 has been collected. This is roughly $1,000 short from last year’s mid-year report.

In its 35th year, this Appeal has primarily been taken up in parishes of Slovak heritage in the United States. As we are all very much aware, “ethnic parishes” are becoming a thing of the past. More and more Slovaks reside in different parts of the country and no longer claim to belong to a parish of Slovak heritage. For this reason, many Slovaks may not have the opportunity to hear about, let alone participate in, this Annual Appeal. If it were not for the Slovak Catholic fraternal societies and their publications, communication to American and Canadian Slovaks would not be possible.

In recent years, we have seen an increase in individual donations apart from the parish collections. Also, most of the Slovak fraternal societies have been making contributions to this collection from their national Boards of Directors, along with a number of local branches, wreaths, assemblies, and lodges. This year’s Appeal continues during the entire calendar year 2013.

As many of you know, this Appeal assists the Church in Slovakia by supporting the training mission of the Pontifical Slovak College of SS. Cyril and Methodius in Rome, Italy (formally known as the Slovak Institute or Ustav). In addition, funds are distributed to those religious communities of both men and women that share a counterpart which belongs to the Slovak Conference of Religious. These communities include the Vincentian Sisters of Charity (Razomberok), Dominican Sisters (Dunajska Luzna), School Sisters of St. Francis (Zilina), Daughters of St. Francis (Bratislava-Prievoz), Byzantine Catholic Sisters of St. Basil the Great (Secove and Presov), Franciscan Friars Minor (Bratislava), and House of St. Benedict (Bacurow).

As various groups will be holding summer picnics, national conventions, and other Slovak fraternal gatherings, I ask that consideration be given to kindly taking up a collection in support of the Slovak Catholic Federation Appeal. All donations are tax deductible. In 2012, this Annual Appeal collected $36,528.51.

Individuals, groups, parishes, and other Slovak organizations are all welcome to make a donation to this Appeal. Check should be made payable to the Slovak Catholic Federation and sent directly to National Secretary-Treasurer Dolores Evanko, 173 Berner Avenue, Hazleton, PA 18201.

I pray that Almighty God rewards all of us who participate in the support of the Church in Slovakia through the Slovak Catholic Federation 35th Annual SS. Cyril and Methodius Appeal. Thank you for your support.

Rev. Andrew S. Hvozdovic, 2013 Appeal Director
SCP National First Vice President

Friday, January 22, 2014 • Washington, D.C.

For years, members of the LPSCU have been invited to participate in the annual March for Life in Washington, D.C. The LPSCU joins other Slovak/Catholic fraternal organizations — the First Catholic Slovak Ladies Association, First Catholic Slovak Union, and the Slovak Catholic Sokol — in this peaceful demonstration showing our support of and respect for the unborn.

Wilkes-Barre/Hazleton Area

A bus will leave Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, at 7:00 a.m. on January 22nd. Local Branches and Districts may sponsor the cost of members wanting to attend. Anyone interested in attending can call Theresa Kluchinski at 888-834-6614 or 570-823-3515 for more information. Cost is $50; this includes bus transportation, snack on the bus, and dinner buffet on the way home.

In cooperation with the Slovak Embassy, the Washington, D.C. society Friends of Slovakia recently organized a gala banquet honoring the 20th Anniversary of Slovakia’s independence. U.S. Steel Senior Vice President George Bobcoke was the main speaker. In the past, he spent several years managing the U.S. Steel plant in Kosice in eastern Slovakia. He is now returning to Kosice — as he stated, his favorite destination in Europe — for another assignment at the plant.

Other speakers at the banquet were the Slovak Ambassador, Peter Kmec, FOS President Joseph T. Senko, Banquet Chairman William Tucker, and several honorees, First Catholic Slovak Union President Andrew M. Rajec being one of them.

Representatives of several Slovak American fraternals and societies attended the celebration, including Nina Holy, secretary-treasurer of the Slovak League of America.
FSNEPA Marks Flag Day

The Fraternal Societies of Northeast Pennsylvania held a Flag Day ceremony on June 14, 2013, at the Wilkes-Barre Veterans Medical Center. Members of the organizations that comprise the FSNEPA gathered in Liberty Hall of the Medical Center for the ceremony, along with local veterans.

During the ceremony, a U.S. flag was presented to Gail K. Ziegler, VAMC voluntary service officer. The flag presented was one that was flown over the United States Capitol in Washington, D.C. Also presented to Ms. Ziegler was a check in the amount of $700 to purchase vouchers for all residents of the Medical Center. These vouchers are used to purchase items for personal needs in the Medical Center’s store.

Refreshments were served after the presentations and FSNEPA members visited with the veterans, sharing stories. The Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union is a member society of FSNEPA. President Theresa Kluchinski and Secretary-Treasurer Mary Jo Savidge attended the presentation and stayed to visit with the veterans at the Medical Center.

“Nuns on the Bus,” a project of the national Catholic social justice lobby, Network, kicked off a 15-state, 40-city, 53-event, 6,500-mile bus ride at Liberty State Park in Jersey City, New Jersey, on Wednesday, May 29, 2013. When the bus arrived in Scranton, Pennsylvania, that afternoon, Sister Jean Marie Holup, SS.C.M., and Sister Mary Beth Makuch, SS.C.M., Danville Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius, were there to greet the Sisters, and to participate in the rally. Several hundred people gathered in Scranton to greet the travelers and in support of comprehensive immigration reform.

Nuns on the Bus is traveling to advocate immigration policies that protect family unity and workers’ rights and to provide a pathway to citizenship for those already in the United States. The group seeks to cast light on the 11 million people living in the shadows because they’re undocumented. The group stopped in Scranton to highlight the region’s past and present diversity.

Network Executive Director Sister Simone Campbell spoke about how sensible immigration reform will benefit business, the economy, and the common good. She said that people of faith know that when America celebrates and promotes our history as a nation of immigrants, we are better prepared to meet the challenges of the 21st century. She added, “Valuing the contributions of current and future immigrants doesn’t limit opportunity, but rather opens us up for limitless success and future innovation.” Sister Campbell says the group is calling for immigration reform that addresses the root causes of migration and provides a roadmap to citizenship for fellow neighbors, colleagues, and friends seeking protection from further senseless exploitation.

Scranton Mayor Christopher Doherty also spoke to the group, welcoming the travelers. He referred to the great cultural diversity, past and present, in northeastern Pennsylvania, demonstrated by the fact that over 30 languages are spoken in Scranton High School alone. He pointed out that the United States is a country of immigrants.

Refreshments and ethnic foods were served after the program.

The 3 Payment Life Insurance Plan offered by the LPSCU is an economical and beneficial plan for anyone from age 0 to 85. Under this plan, there is a minimum purchase of life insurance. For ages 0-70, the minimum purchase is $5,000; for ages 71-85, the minimum purchase is $2,000. Premiums are payable for three (3) years from issue date. The plan allows for premium payments to be made monthly, quarterly, semiannually, or annually. The certificate becomes fully paid at the end of three (3) years, and coverage remains in full force and effect for the entire life of the insured without any additional premium payments required. Upon the death of the insured, the face amount of the certificate is paid to the insured's named beneficiary/ies.

SEPTEMBER/OCTOBER 2013
Dear Junior Members,

Professional baseball season is winding down. The World Series will soon begin and that is exciting for those who are in the playoffs. But even if your favorite team doesn’t make the final cut, you can still enjoy the thrill of the playoffs with an old-time twist. Every summer, hundreds of boys and girls recreate the amateur baseball leagues of the 1860s as they dress up in old-fashioned uniforms. They name their teams after their towns or states, like the Kentucky Volunteers or the Territorial Colorado All-Stars.

Prior to the Civil War, baseball competed for public interest with cricket and regional variants of baseball such as “town ball,” played in Philadelphia, and the “Massachusetts Game,” played in New England. In the 1860s, however, “New York style” baseball became a national game, aided by the Civil War. Initially most of the teams were from the Northeast, but by the late 1860s there were teams from California and the deep South, making baseball a truly national sport.

Games were important social events and everyone in town turned out for them. Afterward, the teams held huge picnics and the players even serenaded their fans.

These vintage baseball teams didn’t have any frills. Early baseball bats were made of ax handles, balls were caught bare-handed, and playing fields were often cow pastures. Today’s players who try to replicate these old-time teams have it a little easier. Although they don’t use modern bats or gloves, at least they don’t have to share the field with the neighborhood cows!

Old-time baseball was a fielders’ game. There were no pitchers’ duels, no superstar hitters. And the game had its own language which has evolved over the decades. What we call batters or hitters were known as “strikers” in those days. And instead of coming to the plate to bat, the striker was called to come to “the line.” The pitcher was called a “hurler” and the ball was thrown underhand in a gentle arc so the striker had a good chance of hitting it. No sliders, fastballs, or curves in those days!

The game of baseball was not invented by any one person or team. It evolved from any number of local teams, each of which had their own rules and regulations for the game. The New York Knickerbockers, who had been experimenting with a set of rules since 1845, led the way to create the first standard set of rules.

The “New York Rules” forbade players from bunting, stealing bases, or leading off. Everyone followed the honor system. Three strikes still made an out, but strikes weren’t called unless the batter swung and missed the ball completely. Sometimes the Umpire even asked the players and fans for advice when making a close call. Can you imagine that happening today in a modern ballpark filled with thousands of screaming fans?

Today, most old-time teams that recreate these vintage games are organized by local historical groups. Fans even get into the act, dressing in vintage costumes as they cheer on their favorite team. But the playacting, the costumes, and the picnics after the game are just added attractions to the main event. Because as all old-time players and fans know, the real excitement begins when the umpire cries, “Striker to the line!”

Old-time baseball was a world away from today’s multimillion-dollar player contracts, enormous stadiums, superstars, and steroid use. You can learn more about the fascinating history of 1860s baseball by reading about it online or in your local library.

YOUR PERSONAL GARDEN

How would you like to grow a garden in your own room? You can! Here’s how...

Let’s begin with a water garden. Carrots and horseradish grow very well in water and sweet potatoes produce long green vines.

Cut a few inches from the top of several carrots and horseradishes and set them in a shallow tray of water on a windowsill so the flat cut part is on the bottom. Lay a large sweet potato in a separate, shallow dish and pour in enough water to cover half of it. Check the water in both your dishes every few days to make sure it hasn’t evaporated too much. Add more as necessary, and then wait for the growth to begin!

You can also grow a tiny hothouse garden in a fish tank or large glass jar. Start by putting a layer of charcoal in the bottom of the container. Then add a layer of pebbles for drainage and then a layer of soil. If you are digging up some small plants from your garden, leave a little ball of soil around the roots. Mosses, ferns, and lichens will grow well in a hothouse garden. You can also purchase plants at a nursery specifically intended to grow in a covered glass container. Sprinkle the garden (a spray bottle of water works well) and then cover the container’s opening with a piece of glass. Place the container near a sunny window. The sunlight and heat will make the water will rise up from the plants and stick on the glass lid. Then it will fall on the plants like raindrops. Be sure to spritz your garden with a little water every week.
Putting a Stop to Bullying

Your return to school could mean having to face that bully again. Bullies are defined as those who repeatedly take unfair advantage of a less powerful person. Bullying occurs when a person is picked on repeatedly by an individual or group with more power, either in terms of physical strength or social standing. Two of the main reasons people are bullied is because of their appearance or their social status. Bullying may take the form of physical abuse (pushing, shoving, tripping, hitting) or psychological/emotional abuse (taunting, teasing, laughing at or gossiping about a victim).

This is not a natural or normal childhood behavior or a rite of passage. It needs to be treated like the act of violence that it is. That’s why parents and schools need to take an active role to stop bullying.

When victims fight back, they often make matters worse. But immediate intervention by a parent, teacher, or other adult can make a difference. It is very important that you report the problem if you are bullied. Most bullying episodes are not witnessed by adults, so children must come forward. Adults cannot protect you if they are unaware the situation is happening. Adults in positions of authority – parents, teachers, coaches – can often find ways to resolve dangerous bullying problems without the bully ever learning how they found out about it. But grown-ups can’t help you if you don’t confide in them.

If the bullying is not physical, often the best course is to walk away from bullies and ignore their taunts. I know that can be much harder than losing your temper, but if you walk away or ignore their taunts or hurtful emails or texts, you’re telling the bully that you just don’t care. Bullies gravitate towards victims they can get response from. If they can’t get a rise out of you, they may get bored with trying to bother you. It’s no fun for them if you don’t give them the response.

Fall Fun in the Outdoors

Summer vacation. For most of you, it’s already over. But there’s still the weekend to relax, and after being cooped up in a classroom all week, wouldn’t it be fun to get outdoors? The weather’s still warm enough to enjoy camping out or taking a hike in the woods. Fall is the perfect time for both. But before you head off to enjoy “the wilderness,” take a few precautions. First, make sure you put on a hat with a wide brim and apply sunscreen. Just because the weather’s cooling off doesn’t mean you can’t get a sunburn! And don’t forget to protect your eyes with sunglasses. Look for lenses with 100 percent UVA and UVB protection.

To protect your feet, wear sneakers or other closed shoes and socks. Lyme disease and other illnesses are transmitted by the deer tick which burrows into your exposed skin. After your hike, be sure to check your skin and clothing for ticks. If you should see one, use tweezers to grab the back of the tick and slowly pull it out. It’s smart to wear a long sleeved shirt and long pants tucked into your socks so ticks don’t have direct access to your skin.

You may also need insect repellant to keep the bugs at bay. Look for repellent with a 10 to 20% concentration of the active ingredient DEET. Apply sparingly to exposed areas, avoiding your eyes and mouth. Treat bug bites with a dab of 1% hydrocortisone. This will help to stop the itch. To reduce swelling, use an antihistamine such as Benadryl.

If you’re camping out overnight, don’t forget to bring a flashlight and spare batteries along. Once you’re settled into your tent, you will have instant entertainment. Before your campout, brush up on Morse Code signals so you can flash messages to one another on the tent ceiling. A flashlight’s a great prop when you’re telling scary bedtime stories too.

Go and Make Disciples!

Not only does Jesus accompany us, as we work to carry out his mission, but we also accompany one another. Pope Francis reminds us that, because of our Baptism, we share in the companionship of the whole Church and also the communion of the saints on this mission. When we face challenges together, then we are strong; we discover resources we did not know we had. Jesus did not call the Apostles to live in isolation; he called them to form a community. We accompany and support one another through our generosity and joy.

Serve. As followers of Jesus, we seek to allow our life to be identified with that of his, by sharing his sentiments, his thoughts, his actions. The life of Jesus is a life for others. It is a life of service. Pope Francis reminds us that “Evangelizing means bearing personal witness to the love of God. It is overcoming our selfishness, it is serving by bending down to wash the feet of our brothers and sisters, as Jesus did.”

“Go, do not be afraid, and serve.” Pope Francis said that “if you follow these three ideas, you will experience that the one who evangelizes is evangelized, the one who transmits the joy of faith receives joy. Do not be afraid to be generous with Christ, to bear witness to his Gospel. Bringing the Gospel is bringing God’s power to pluck up and break down evil and violence, to destroy and overthrow the barriers of selfishness, intolerance, and hatred, so as to build a new world.”

May all of us – young and “young-at-heart” – prayerfully reflect on these beautiful and challenging words offered to us by our Holy Father, and decide how, in our own way, we can be worthy instruments of the new evangelization in our Church and in our world today!

Rev. Philip A. Altavilla

Stop Bullying

they’re looking for. Walk tall and hold your head high. This sends the message that you’re not vulnerable to their attacks. Try to remain part of a group by walking home at the same time as other people or by sticking with close friends or classmates during the times that bullying takes place. Bullies are less likely to strike when their victims have support.

No one is born a bully. It’s a learned behavior that may result from parents or older siblings who are aggressive and intimidating. When we put a stop to bullies at an early age, we teach them a lesson that may help them make wise choices later in life.
