The Seasons of the Church Year reflect the beauty and complexity of the way the Church has prayed through the centuries. Some of the basic concepts shared here can be found in the “General Instruction of the Roman Missal” and the “Introduction to the Lectionary.” One source that is commonly used in many parishes and which is reflected here is the “Sourcebook: For Sundays, Seasons and Weekdays” published by Liturgical Training Publications.

A simple outline of the Church Year looks like this:

Advent
Christmas and Christmas Season
Ordinary Time
Lent
Easter and Easter Season
Ordinary Time

The heart and core of the Church Year is the annual Easter celebration of the Lord’s life, death, and resurrection and its weekly celebration on the first day of the week, Sunday, the Lord’s Day. I hope that this reflection on the Seasons of the Church Year will reinforce the central importance of the Lord’s Day as envisioned in the encyclical of Pope John Paul II in “The Day of The Lord.”

The Church Year begins at Advent, or more particularly with Evening Prayer I on the vigil of the First Sunday of Advent. In 2006, when I was in Rome, Advent that year began in a very memorable way. It was with several thousand people in St. Peter’s Basilica with Pope Benedict that we celebrated Evening Prayer I on Saturday Evening. As with all beginnings, it was a time of grace and blessing to look back on the past year and to look forward to the New Year with great hope and trust in the Lord. That Advent was truly a new beginning and renewal that I remember to this day.

What is Advent all about? It is a period of anticipation that invites us to number our days aright, to pray and reflect on our journey of faith. It is a time of preparation for Christmas, but also a time to reflect on beginning a new year where we grow in our relationship with Jesus and deepen our participation in Christ’s life and teaching.

On the First Sunday of Advent, I usually welcome the people before Mass and wish them a “Happy New Year.” It works every time! I’ve got their attention. Then I ask, “What will this new year be for you as a person of faith?”

The word advent means coming. We are invited to prepare for the coming of the Lord. St. Bernard of Clairvaux describes three comings that are the focus of Advent: the Lord’s first coming, his final coming at the end of time, and the middle coming here and now when the Lord gives humanity rest and comfort.

Advent helps us to recount the first coming through the promises that preceded the Lord’s arrival as recorded in Scripture. We hear from the prophets about the promised coming of the Messiah. Next we reflect on the final coming of the Lord at the end of time and prayerfully reflect on all the necessary preparedness to welcome the Lord when he comes as judge. Probably the most enjoyable part of Advent is that we are encouraged to prepare for his present coming – the best of all gifts at Christmas, Emmanuel, God with us.

One of the symbols of the season, the Advent wreath, is relatively new. It is a clear reflection of marking time and paying attention to who is coming. With the coming of the new Church year, let us long for and look for the light of Christ in a world often clouded in darkness.

It is harder now to preserve the true meaning of Advent in today’s culture because there is so much celebration of “Christmas” before Christmas. It might be helpful if we moved some of our celebrations of Christmas back into the Christmas season – which is why there is a Christmas Season. It might lighten the load of activities and give us the luxury of prayer and reflection in Advent.

The celebration of Jesus’s birth on December 25 was a transformation of a pagan celebration of light that began in the late third century into a celebration of the true light of the world. There was also a celebration of the Lord being shown to the world called Epiphany that recounted the coming of the Magi from the East, the Baptism of Jesus, and his miracle at the Wedding Feast of Cana. The season celebrates who has come, why he has come, and what he gives to us in his coming. As important as it might be to show our love and affection to family and friends during this season by giving gifts, how much more important is it to receive the gifts the Lord bestows on us?

The entire week following Christmas is called the Octave of Christmas. Those eight days are solemn and joyful liturgies that celebrate Emmanuel, God with us. During the Christmas Season, there is a solemn celebration of the Holy Family, the Motherhood of Mary, Epiphany as well as the celebration of St. Stephen, St. John the Apostle, the Holy Innocents, St. Thomas Becket, SS. Basil and Gregory, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, St. John Neumann, St. André Bessette, and St. Raymond Penyafort.

The first part of Ordinary Time extends from Christmas Season to Ash Wednesday. The term Ordinary can be misleading. The better understanding of the term could be more accurately understood as Ordered Time. These weeks are a conscious journey of faith where on each Sunday we reflect on one Gospel (Matthew in Year A, Mark in Year B, and Luke in Year C) and sequentially hear the call to follow Jesus. In a sense, we journey with the disciples week to week in the company of Jesus in his ministry. We hear him teaching, see him healing and he continually calls us to follow him and become his disciples. The Season of Ordinary Time is broken by the period of Lent and Easter. The second part of Ordinary Time extends from Pentecost to Advent.

PITTSBURGH DISTRICT
Members of the Pittsburgh District attended the District’s annual Card Party on October 12, 2014, at St. Maximilian Kolbe Church in Homestead, Pennsylvania. Some members even got into the swing of the Halloween season by coming to the event dressed in costume. Members enjoyed refreshments, playing various games of cards, and socializing during the fun-filled afternoon.

REVEREND DIANISKA DISTRICT
The Reverend Dianiska District of the LPSCU met on October 19, 2014. The highlight of the meeting was the arrival of Sister Catherine McGroarty from the Catherine McCawley House. For several years, the District has celebrated “Make a Difference Day” by collecting cleaning supplies and personal care items for the shelter. This year was no different, and Sister thanked all present for their generosity, and spoke of the growing need in our area for facilities such as theirs.

Other items on the agenda were election of officers, with Mary Ann Ewasko, Hope Napkora, Debbie Adamchak, Marge Zinkavich, and Sue Worth accepting offices. National President Theresa Kluchinski told those present about new programs and services available through the LPSCU, as well as updated them on plans for the upcoming convention.

Plans were made for the December 7th Christmas Party, which will include a Matching Fund project to benefit cancer patient Ava Kurilla. The three District members who were awarded LPSCU College Scholarship Awards are also being invited to the Christmas Party.

Retired Bishop Creates Mysteries

This second novel, as well as his first (Flight of the Beetle), is based on one of the nine dinner mysteries that he had written and produced while still in service as Diocesan Bishop. In writing the novels, he draws upon his experiences as a young boy growing up in a small town in the state of Michigan. There are references to such things as wash day at the home as well as how the Sunday chicken soup came about—from egg to pot. Also included are descriptions of telephones, cars, and grocery stores of his time. But while the settings are real, the plots are fictitious.

“This is as close as I am going to get to writing an autobiography,” the Bishop said.

Writing has been an interest of Bishop Adamec for most of his life. He wrote for his high school newspaper and then studied journalism at Michigan State University, where he also served as co-editor of the dormitory paper. As a seminarian in Rome, he wrote articles for newspapers in both English and Slovak. Even as an active bishop, his hobby was to write dinner mysteries, which took place at the Bishop’s residence and served to chase away the winter doldrums for the Chancery staff and others. Upon his retirement, the Bishop decided to try his hand at writing and publishing books.

“However, I was feeling guilty writing mystery novels as an ordained clergyman when I should be doing something for the Church,” explained the Bishop.

Bishop Joseph solved his dilemma by donating the books to the diocesan Catholic Charities. At $25.00 per book, the income generates much needed funds with which to help the poor of the Allegheny Mountains in Central Pennsylvania, according to the Charities’ Director, Mrs. Jean Johnstone. She welcomes inquiries about the books’ availability at the Catholic Charities’ address: P.O. Box 1349, Altoona PA 16603.

“Donating the books to Catholic Charities eases my conscience,” the Bishop said. “This way, I get to do what I have always enjoyed doing and am able to help God’s poor in the process. And the books make excellent gifts for both youth and adults.”

The hard-cover books are self-published works of about 295 pages each. The plot of Flight of the Beetle revolves around a missing brooch, an heirloom of the Tahftnut family. That of Heir Non-Apparent has to do with the settlement of a missing person’s estate.

Bishop Adamec served as National President of the Slovak Catholic Federation for a number of years. Currently, he is its Episcopal Moderator. He was the co-founder and chairman of the Conference of Slovak Clergy. Today, he is its vice-chairman. He was ordained as Bishop of Altoona-Johnstown by Cardinal Jozef Tomko on May 20, 1987. He retired from that office in April of 2011.

Dear Mary Jo and Board of Directors,
I am writing to thank you for your generous $300 award for my attainment of my Master’s degree. I was honored and appreciative to learn that I was selected to receive this award.

I recently moved south to Daphne, Alabama, where I am again furthering my education. I am working as a teaching assistant at the U.S. Sport Academy while I study for my Ed.D. in Sports Administration.

Thanks to your contribution, some of the financial burdens of moving were decreased. I hope that upon completion of this degree, I will be able to assist other students as you have helped me.

Sincerely,

To the Officers of the LPSCU:
I was deeply saddened recently when I heard of the passing of Cecilia Gaughan. What a wonderful lady!

I am a Senior Citizen (who) enjoyed every one of the articles she wrote, I’m sure as much the Junior Branch did. She had to do a lot of research to write those wonderful articles. Cecilia will be missed by LPSCU and her Branch.

May she rest in peace!

Our Scholarship Recipients Explain

The Importance of Life Insurance

The value of protecting one’s life is more often overlooked than considered. Who will be there for you when your loved ones cannot help as much as they desire? The vitality of life insurance is something that should be instilled in each young person’s mind as it has been in mine. My first life insurance plan was purchased for me when I was born by my Aunt Rita, outstanding member and past president of the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union. The sincerity of this act had not occurred to me until now. The plan I lovingly acquired was a gesture that ensured the comfort and safety needed when life takes a turn for the worst for me and my family. Life insurance will be there no matter the circumstances. It is putting your faith in a trustworthy company with your life for the sake of those who care about you as well as those you care about.

Meg Ragan Receives NJNY Fraternal Alliance Youth Leadership Award

The LPSCU is pleased to announce that Margaret (Meg) Ragan of Wall, New Jersey, is the recipient of the New Jersey New York Fraternal Alliance Youth Leadership Award. She is a member of LPSCU Branch 7, Exeter, Pennsylvania.

Meg, 18, graduated from Marine Academy of Science and Technology in Highlands, New Jersey, and is attending Brookdale Community College in Middletown, New Jersey.

Meg and her mother, Andrea, attended the luncheon held at the Golden Nugget in Atlantic City, New Jersey, where the award was presented.

The announcement and presentation of the Youth Leadership Award has been a highlight of the NJNY Fraternal Alliance conventions for many years. It is a way to acknowledge and salute young leaders of our fraternal societies for the good they do and the future they offer. Meg received an award of $500 and a matching check from the Recreation Farm Society for the charity of her choice. Meg selected Covenant House as her charity.

The LPSCU is proud of Meg’s outstanding achievements and accomplishments. Congratulations, Meg! Wishing you continued success!

The LPSCU congratulates John Ferri on being awarded the 70th Anniversary Battle of Normandy Commemorative Medal. We thank him for his military service and thank all veterans for their service to our country.

John Ferri Honored with Battle of Normandy Commemorative Medal

On Veterans Day, November 11, 2014, the Chester County Council Boy Scouts of America hosted a Veterans Day Recognition Breakfast at the Wyndham Garden Hotel in Exton, Pennsylvania, for all veterans of the United States Armed Forces. Special recognition was given to 15 veterans who fought in the Battle of Normandy. Each of those veterans was presented with the 70th Anniversary Battle of Normandy Commemorative Medal by Ambassador Francois-Xavier Deniau, general secretary to the French Delegation to the United Nations 69th General Assembly.

John Ferri of Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, was one of the recipients of the Commemorative Medal. He was invited to the event as a guest of Lee Johnson, a sponsor of the Veterans Recognition Breakfast. John was accompanied by his daughter, Patricia Kienzle, who resides in Chester County and whose neighbor, Lawrence Borger, proposed John as a recipient of the Medal.

John was inducted into the U.S. Navy in mid-February 1944. He trained at Camp Sampson near Seneca Lake in New York and was then sent to the Brooklyn Navy Yard. On Easter Sunday, April 9, 1944, he boarded the Queen Mary bound for Glasgow, Scotland. He was eventually sent to Harwich, England, where he boarded LST 175 for the Normandy Invasion set for June 5, 1944. John was a radioman aboard the LST. He took supplies to all the beachheads and brought wounded troops back to the base. He was honorably discharged on May 15, 1946, with the rank of Radioman 3rd Class.

Also honored at the breakfast were some 55 veterans of various branches of the United States Armed Forces. In all, approximately 200 people attended the event.

John is a member of LPSCU Branch 83, Bethlehem. His wife, children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren are all members of LPSCU Branches 83 and 130 in Bethlehem.

The LPSCU congratulates John Ferri on being awarded the 70th Anniversary Battle of Normandy Commemorative Medal. We thank him for his military service and thank all veterans for their service to our country.

*Slovak President Visits U.S.

Andrey Kiska, president of the Slovak Republic since June 15, 2014, visited New York last fall to participate in official meetings at the United Nations. On September 25, the second day of the sessions, President Kiska addressed the 69th General Assembly. He was also welcomed to the U.S. at a private reception hosted by Frantisek Ruzicka, permanent representative of Slovakia to the United Nations. Attending the reception were Miroslav Lajcak, deputy prime minister and minister of foreign and European affairs of the Slovak Republic; Peter Kmeč, Slovak ambassador to the United States; Jana Trnovacova, consul general of the Slovak Republic in New York; Martin Butora, former Slovak ambassador to the U.S.; Joseph Senko, honorary consul for Pennsylvania (and member of LPSCU Pittsburgh Branch 42); and active members of several Slovak organizations.

Kiska was born in Poprad in 1963 and graduated from the Faculty of Electrical Engineering of the Slovak Technical University of Bratislava. In 1990, he moved to the U.S., where he worked at various jobs for 18 months before returning to Slovakia to pursue a business career, beginning with jewelry imports.

In 1996, Kiska co-founded Triangle and Quatro, the first consumer lending firms to appear on the Slovak market. In recognition of his business activities, Kiska won the 2006 Manager of the Year award from the economic weekly Trend. He sold his shares in those businesses in 2005 and afterwards turned to philanthropy. In 2006, he co-founded the charitable organization Dobry Anjel (Good Angel) which helps financially strapped families in Slovakia and the Czech Republic whose children suffer from serious health conditions. Kiska received the Slovak Crystal Wing award in 2011 for his philanthropic achievements.

Msgr. Beeda District Makes a Difference

The LPSCU’s Msgr. Beeda District collected school supplies for their 2014 “Make a Difference Day” project. The supplies were gathered for a few weeks in October at Sts. Cyril and Methodius Parish in Hazleton, Pennsylvania. The items were then given to Catholic Social Services to be distributed to needy children in the community.

Members of the District are grateful to Father Michael Piccola and the parishioners of the church for their generosity and continued support.

If everyone would just open their hearts to those in need, the world would be a better place and we could all “Make a Difference” in the lives of others!

On November 6, 2014, a group of individuals, both LPSCU members and non-members, attended an LPSCU Branch 213 Matching Fund project at Art ‘n’ Vino in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. The event was sponsored by LPSCU Branch 213 to benefit Matthew Mursch, Jr. Prior to his birth, Matthew was diagnosed with Hypoplastic Left Heart Syndrome (HLHS), which is a rare congenital heart defect requiring multiple surgeries and extensive medical care.

Matthew has endured three open heart surgeries, ten cardiac catheterizations, three PICC line placements, five swallow studies, and many other procedures – all before his third birthday! As you can imagine, medical bills are very high. LPSCU Branch 213 decided to hold this fundraiser in an effort to help Matthew’s family. Participants got together for an evening of painting and fun and in turn raised a total of $850, which includes a Matching Fund donation of $100 from the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union Home Office in Wilkes-Barre.

The family would like to thank everyone for their love, support, and prayers. They appreciate everything and say they feel so lucky to have such amazing people surrounding them.

We wish Matthew and his family the best!

This offer is limited to certificates with an issue date in the year 2015. After the first year, premiums will be billed at the rate of $16.00 for $10,000 of term life insurance and $9.50 for $5,000 of term life insurance.

The LPSCU’s Juvenile Estate Term Plan, commonly referred to as JET Term-to-25, is an ideal insurance solution for students and is available to anyone less than 22 years of age. The plan provides full life insurance protection from date of issue to age 25.

A medical exam is not required to apply. However, the LPSCU reserves the right to require a medical exam on any applicant should it be deemed necessary.

Once the JET insurance certificate is issued, coverage remains in full force and effect through the maturity date of the certificate, provided premium payments are current. This plan matures when the insured’s certificate reaches the anniversary of issue date closest to his/her 25th birthday. When the certificate expires, the insured will be given an option to convert his/her current coverage amount to a legal reserve plan (permanent insurance) with no evidence of insurability being required. This is a guaranteed provision within the JET contract.

In the event of the death of the insured prior to reaching 25 years of age, the face amount of the policy is paid to the named beneficiary/ies.

The new legal reserve certificate may provide a death benefit equal to or less than the face amount of the expired JET policy. The policy date of issue will be the expiry date of the JET policy. The policy premium on the new certificate will be based on the member’s age on the date of exchange and on the Society’s premium rates then in effect. The first premium on the new certificate must be paid prior to the expiry date of the JET policy. Written request for exchange will be required.

JET Term-to-25 is an excellent, affordable plan providing protection for your children from infancy on through their school years, including college. LPSCU Introduces New Insurance Riders

The Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union has three new insurance riders:

- Accidental Death Benefit
- Waiver of Premium
- Payor Death or Disability Waiver of Premium

ACCIDENTAL DEATH BENEFIT

The Accidental Death Benefit can be attached to the Whole Life Plan and the 10, 15, and 20 Pay Life Plans, including the 20 Year Endowment, where the age of the insured is age 0 to 55. Premiums are payable to age 70 or to the end of the premium-paying period, if earlier. Benefits are in force until age 70. If the policy to which the rider is attached goes on a non-forfeiture option, then this rider will terminate without value. If the death of the member while the rider is in force is by accident, then the face amount of the rider is paid in addition to the face amount of the policy. The rider face amount can be any amount that is less than or equal to the policy face amount.

Premiums are based on the type of life insurance plan and the age of the insured at date of issue.

- Whole Life Plan - $1.00 per $1,000
- 10 Pay Life Plan - $1.20 to $1.60 per $1,000
- 15 Pay Life Plan - $1.15 to $1.40 per $1,000
- 20 Pay Life Plan - $1.00 to $1.20 per $1,000
- 20 Year Endowment - $1.00 per $1,000

For example, if you are age 50 and purchase a 20 Pay Life Plan with a face value of $20,000, you can add the Accidental Death Benefit Rider for $20,000 at an annual cost of $24.00 ($1.20 x 20).

WAIVER OF PREMIUM

The Waiver of Premium can be attached to the Whole Life Plan and the 10, 15, and 20 Pay Life Plans, including the 20 Year Endowment, where the age of the insured is age 16 to 55. Premiums are payable to age 65 or to the end of the premium-paying period, if earlier. If the member is disabled while this rider is in force prior to age 65, then the premium is waived during the period of disability (even after age 65). If the member is not disabled at age 65, then the rider terminates without value. If the policy to which the rider is attached goes on a non-forfeiture option, then this rider will terminate without value.

Premiums are based on the type of life insurance plan and the age of the insured at date of issue.

- Whole Life Plan - $.25 to $2.75 per $1,000
- 10 Pay Life Plan - $.10 to $2.55 per $1,000
- 15 Pay Life Plan - $.10 to $2.60 per $1,000
- 20 Pay Life Plan - $.15 to $2.65 per $1,000
- 20 Year Endowment - $.20 to $2.85 per $1,000

For example, if you are age 30 and purchase a 20 Pay Life Plan with a face value of $20,000, you can add the Waiver of Premium Rider for $20,000 at an annual cost of $6.00 ($.30 x 20).

PAYOR DEATH OR DISABILITY WAIVER OF PREMIUM

The Payor Death or Disability Waiver of Premium can be attached to the Whole Life Plan and the 10, 15, and 20 Pay Life Plans, including the 20 Year Endowment. The rider is attached to a juvenile member’s policy, and covers the premium on that policy if the payor (applicant) dies or becomes disabled. Premiums are payable until the earliest of (a) the payor reaches age 65, (b) the juvenile reaches age 21, or (c) the end of the premium period on the policy to which the rider is attached. If the payor dies or is disabled while this rider is in force, then the premiums for the juvenile’s policy are waived until the juvenile reaches age 21. If the payor does not die or is not disabled prior to the end of the rider period, then the rider terminates without value. If the policy to which the rider is attached goes on a non-forfeiture option, then this rider will terminate without value.

Premiums are based on the type of life insurance plan and the age of the payor (applicant) at date of issue.

- Whole Life Plan - $.25 to $2.75 per $1,000
- 10 Pay Life Plan - $.10 to $2.55 per $1,000
- 15 Pay Life Plan - $.10 to $2.60 per $1,000
- 20 Pay Life Plan - $.15 to $2.65 per $1,000
- 20 Year Endowment - $.20 to $2.85 per $1,000

For example, if you are age 30 and purchase a 20 Pay Life Plan with a face value of $20,000 for a juvenile, you can add the Payor Death or Disability Waiver of Premium for $20,000 at an annual cost of $6.00 ($.30 x 20).

All riders are available on new life insurance issues only. They cannot be applied to an existing life insurance certificate. Ask your branch representative for more details or call the Home Office!
On October 26, 2014, the Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius in Danville, Pennsylvania, awarded the Servant Leadership Award to 43 outstanding high school juniors and seniors from the dioceses of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, and Scranton, Pennsylvania. The ceremony took place at the Basilica of Saints Cyril and Methodius in Danville.

Over the past 12 years, the Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius have honored over 800 teens in the dioceses of Bridgeport (CT), Charleston (SC), Chicago (IL), Gary (IN), Harrisburg (PA), Milwaukee (WI), Pittsburgh (PA), St. Louis (MO), Scranton (PA), and Syracuse (NY) with this award.

The Servant Leadership Award recognizes distinguished high school juniors and seniors who are joyful witnesses, compassionate proclaimers, and enthusiastic builders of the Kingdom of God. The focus of the award is on teens who remain active in their faith and parish beyond Confirmation, and who actively serve in their parish, school, and community.

Each teen was given the opportunity to select one person as a mentor who has encouraged them to generously use their time and talents as a follower of Jesus. The mentors included parents, grandparents, teachers, coaches, youth ministers, scout leaders, religious sisters and priests who have been role models for the teens. Mentors selected by the teens have made a difference in their lives by modeling servant leadership as a way of life in their family, parish, and community.

At the ceremony, the Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius also honored four adults with the Father Jankola Lifetime Servant Leadership Award in the ministries of evangelization, education, elder care, and ecumenism. Father Jankola was a priest from the Diocese of Scranton who was instrumental in recognizing the need for religious sisters to educate children and thus founded the Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius in 1909.

The 2014 Father Jankola Lifetime Servant Leadership Awards went to the following:

Evangelization: Dr. Martha Carlough from Chapel Hill, North Carolina, was recognized for her many years of medical missionary work in Nepal, and for her leadership in training young physicians in maternal and infant health through her work at the University of North Carolina, where she currently teaches.

Education: Sister Mary Paul Kurator, SS.C.M. from Merrillville, Indiana, was recognized for her 40 years of service as a Latin teacher at Andrean High School in Merrillville. Sister has received numerous academic awards and has guided many students to receive merit awards in Latin. More importantly, she inspires a love for learning in her students. She continues to moderate a service club at the high school, mentoring students in the importance of service to others.

Elder Care: Rita Sekulski from Danville was recognized for her years of service as a nurse, particularly her years at Maria Joseph Manor in Danville where her cheerful demeanor and loving care for the residents was always evident. Rita was also active in many civic organizations and volunteered for hospice, care which she found to be very rewarding, saying that she felt that she received more that she gave.

Ecumenism: Janet Stefano from Michigan City, Indiana, was recognized for her dedication to expanding understanding of other faiths to the high school students she teaches. As a teacher of World Religions at Marquette High School in Michigan City and at Andrean High School in Merrillville, Indiana, she has helped students gain insights into other faiths to bring about a greater understanding of others. This knowledge allows people of different faith traditions to work peacefully together.

All of the 2014 recipients of the Father Jankola Lifetime Servant Leadership Awards are graduates of Saint Cyril Academy in Danville. The Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius sponsored and staffed the high school for girls from 1922-1999. All of the award recipients acknowledged the contributions of the Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius in helping form them to become women of leadership and service.

The ceremony ended with a reception at Maria Hall.

Dear Junior Members,

Back in our May/June 2014 issue, we talked a little about rock collecting. This follow-up article will give you a better knowledge of rocks and minerals.

Rocks and minerals are all around us – from the soil in your yard to the salt on your table to the lead in your pencil. When you walk into a jewelry store and look at the precious stones, do you realize that they are all made up of minerals?

If you study a handful of soil under a magnifying glass, you will find that it is made up of tiny grains of different minerals. How does this come about? The soil is made up of fragments of larger rocks and minerals that have been broken down over time by wind, rain, ice, and running water.

Like everything else in the world, minerals are made up of the chemical substances we call elements. Sometimes a mineral contains only one element all by itself. Examples of this are sulfur, gold, and silver. Most minerals, however, are compounds, meaning that they are formed by two or more elements. A good example of this is table salt, which is a compound containing two elements: sodium and chlorine.

Scientists who specialize in studying minerals are called mineralogists. They have recorded more than 2,000 different minerals that are found in the earth’s rocky crust. Each mineral contains something special that helps identify it. For example, a diamond is the hardest mineral known and talc is the softest. Graphite is soft and leaves a black mark. Because of this, it is an ideal mineral to use in making pencil lead. Color, hardness, and crystal form are some of the other properties which make it possible to distinguish one mineral from another.

A few special kinds of minerals are valuable because of the chemicals they contain. Lead and iron are obtained by mining ores found in special places in the earth. An ore is a mixture of rocks and minerals. Most ore must be removed from the rock that contains it and must be given special treatment before it can be used. Iron is often found in the reddish stuff called iron oxide. It can be changed to metallic iron by heating it with carbon in a blast furnace.

Some valuable minerals can be used without having to be chemically changed. Gold, silver, and platinum are often found in almost pure form. But, they still have to be removed from the substance in which they are found. Halite (rock salt), gypsum, and sulfur are widely used in almost the same form in which they were mined.

Now let’s take a look at rocks. Most people think of rocks only as hard, compact substances such as marble, granite, or limestone. But to the geologist, loose rock material such as sand and gravel are also considered to be rocks. Each rock tells the story of how it was made. In fact, geologists have named various rocks according to the major earth processes that formed them.

Igneous rocks are rocks that have been made from melted rock material that has cooled and hardened. The word “igneous” comes from a Latin word that means fire, so it’s a good name for rock having such a fiery beginning. This molten rock originates deep within the earth where it is called magma. Once it breaks the earth’s crust and begins to flow on the surface, it is called lava. You’ll recognize this from stories and pictures you have seen about erupting volcanoes. Lava flows have helped make many of our volcanic mountains such as Mount Rainier and Mount Shasta, and the flow and subsequent cooling from the active volcano Mauna Loa has helped to form the island of Hawaii.

But not all igneous rocks are associated with volcanoes. Some are formed within the earth’s crust. When the magma begins to cool, crystals of minerals begin to form. If the cooling takes place slowly, the crystals become larger and finally grow together to form a solid mass. This is how granite is formed and why pieces of granite come in so many different colors.

As you begin to study rocks and learn more about them, you’ll discover that even that plain old ordinary rock in your driveway or garden tells a story about the long history of our earth. These rocks and minerals are our earth’s treasures and young rock collectors very soon learn just how fascinating they are.

A Tribute to Cecilia B. Gaughan
Editor, Junior Branch Journal

It is with a heavy heart that we have to say “farewell” to our beloved fraternalist, Cecilia B. Gaughan, who is now in Heaven with Our Lord.

The LPSCU dedicates this issue’s Junior Branch Journal section to Ceil, who compiled the material for these pages last summer, prior to becoming ill.

Ceil loved to work on the Junior Journal. For weeks prior to an issue, she would search for interesting and informative subjects and stories, kid-friendly recipes, and fun-filled crafts to compile the Junior Journal for our young members. She was proud and so pleased to have our youth participate in various contests that she initiated. Whatever knowledge our young members gained from reading the Junior Branch Journal is now a fond tribute to Ceil.

Ceil was a true professional. She never viewed her work as a task, but always referred to it as a “labor of love.” She wanted the best for our youth and was extremely proud of their accomplishments.

In the future, when asked to remember someone who helped you while you were growing up, it may be Ceil that you recall and some knowledge or insight she shared through the pages of the Zornicka’s Junior Branch Journal.

May she Rest in Peace.

LETS MAKE A SNOWMAN

January and February are usually snowy months when children like to play outdoors and make a snowman. But you can also craft your own indoor snowman by following the instructions below.

Here’s what you’ll need: A clean white crew sock; a colored or patterned knee sock; rubber bands; scissors; a bag of rice; straight pins; pearls or beads; small buttons; fabric glue.

Step 1. Cut the leg part off of a white crew sock. Turn the leg part inside out and twist a rubber band around the top part of the sock as many times as you can to close off that end. Turn the sock right side out again so the rubber band is now inside the sock. This part will form the bottom of the snowman.

Step 2. Pour rice into a tall glass; put the open end of the sock over the top of the glass and flip the glass over so the rice falls into the sock. Fill the sock up with rice, pressing the rice down until the sock is filled out nicely; you want the bottom to be round and plump.

Step 3. Squish the rice around until the sock takes the shape of a gourd. Then use a rubber band to secure the top as close to the end as you can. If necessary, trim off any excess above the rubber band so there is not too much material sticking up. Take another rubber band and twist it around about one-third of the way down from the top to separate the head from the body of the snowman.

Step 4. Now you are ready to dress up your snowman. You can use stick-on pearls or beads for the eyes and nose or you can use straight pins with beads on the end. To make a scarf, cut a long piece off of the colored sock and tie it around the snowman’s neck. Trim the edges for a frayed look. Use a straight pin or fabric glue to secure the scarf so it doesn’t fall off or come untied. Glue two or three buttons down the front of the snowman.

Step 5. To make a cap, cut off the foot part of the colored knee sock. Turn the top part of the sock inside out and rubber band the bottom part as tight as you can. Then turn the sock right side out so the rubber band does not show. Roll up the edges of the top and place the cap on the snowman’s head. If you want to, you can use twigs or pipe cleaners to give your snowman arms. Dab some glue on one end and poke it into the sock body on each side.

Are All Snowflakes Unique?

Snowflakes form in a wide variety of intricate shapes, leading to the popular expression that “no two are alike.” Although possible, it’s highly unlikely. However, scientists estimate the chances of two snowflakes being exactly alike are about 1 in 1 million trillion – that’s a 1 followed by 18 zeros! Wilson Alwyn Bentley attempted to find identical snowflakes by photographing thousands of them with a microscope from 1885 onward. His research found the wide variety of snowflakes we know about today.
The Season of Lent begins with Ash Wednesday. “Repent and believe in the Gospel.” “Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return.” For many of us, Ash Wednesday has a powerful tug on our hearts to turn back to God. For people of faith and for those who are seeking the truth and the purpose of life, repentance from what is wrong and sinful is an authentic echo of God’s voice in the human heart. As people created by God, there is a constitutive component of our makeup that calls us back to God; to His truth, love, and forgiveness.

The days and weeks of Lent call us to prayer, fasting, and works of mercy. We are urged to reflect on our relationship with Jesus and to be renewed in our life in the Church. The forty days of Lent invite us to a prayerful time with Jesus. Most parishes provide abundant opportunities for prayer, reflection, and time for the Sacrament of Penance. I always encourage prayer and study of the Passion accounts and meditation on the Stations of the Cross.

If there are people in your parish preparing for Baptism, please pray for them and recount the privileges and responsibilities of being a baptized person—a disciple of Christ. Particularly in the Year A cycle, the Gospels give us profound lessons in discipleship: The temptation of Jesus in the desert, the Transfiguration of Jesus, the Samaritan Woman, the cure of the man born blind, the raising of Lazarus, and the triumphal entrance of Jesus into Jerusalem. The last week of Lent is Holy Week. Everyone who participates in the days of Holy Week enters into a sacred journey and pilgrimage of faith, especially in the Triduum: Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday—the Easter Vigil.

The very heart and core of our Church Year is Easter Sunday. So central to our faith is the Risen Lord that we celebrate his Resurrection each Sunday. But to emphasize the importance and centrality of the resurrection of Jesus, we celebrate for fifty days. The first eight days, the Octave of Easter, are especially joyful and solemn.

The Sundays of the Easter Season celebrate the Risen Lord as our Redeemer and Good Shepherd. We also recount the powerful and grace-filled growth of the early Church under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. The Ascension of the Lord celebrates the reign of Jesus as King and it celebrates our eternal home where Jesus has prepared a place for us. The Season of Easter reaches a climax at Pentecost where we celebrate the work and grace of the Holy Spirit who leads and guides us on our journey of faith.

Now we return to Ordinary Time. The second and longer part of Ordinary time extends through summer and fall. This longer part truly feels like a journey. Sunday by Sunday, we journey with Jesus and the disciples through a given Gospel. If we truly invest ourselves in the journey, the Word of the Lord can invite and encourage us to follow him, to know him, to be transformed by him. This journey will be more intense if we also pray daily and, if possible, participate in the daily Mass.

The first part of this article focused on the Saints. Echoing back to the lives of the Saints in Part I, there are many celebrations of them disbursed throughout Ordinary Time. We are invited to celebrate the saints for three reasons: To praise God for the success of his grace in the men and women called saints; To emulate their faithful lives as shown in their history, their example, their teaching, and holy lives; To be comforted and protected by their prayer for us and their friendship with us in Christ.

May the celebration of the Seasons of the Church Year find us each year closer to Christ, the Church, and closer to our eternal home.
