A Message from Our National Spiritual Protector

THE TRADITIONS OF EASTER

One of the most beautiful traditions of those of Eastern European ancestry is the custom of bringing a neatly arranged basket of Easter foods to church on Holy Saturday to be blessed. The food is placed in the basket and covered with an embroidered cloth with decorative symbols of the Resurrection, highlighted by a candle in the basket. It is a wonderful opportunity to engage the whole family in the blessing of food that is to be shared at the first meal of Easter. It is a welcomed custom and embraced by many families. The children also bring along with them a small version of an Easter basket filled with candy treats for blessing.

One of the treasures of the Easter basket is paska, the special sweet bread of Easter. The Easter bread reminds us of Jesus, the bread of life, the risen Christ, who in the Eucharist is the food for our journey and the bread of eternal life.

I remember my grandmother baking the paska when I was a child. The sweet fragrance in her kitchen on Holy Saturday was amazing from all the baking and food preparations for the Easter celebration.

Once all the preparations are completed, the basket is prepared and ready to go to be taken to the church for the blessing.

Sadly, last year we were not able to celebrate this custom due to the coronavirus, or even go to Mass for Holy Week and Easter. I pray that during this coming Lenten season and Holy Week/Easter, we will once again be celebrating our faith and customs in person at church.

Prayer of Blessing

God of glory, the eyes of all turn to you as we celebrate Christ’s victory over sin and death. Bless us and this food of our first Easter meal. May we who gather at the Lord’s Table continue to celebrate the joy of his resurrection and be admitted finally to his heavenly banquet. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Christ is risen! Truly indeed He is risen, Alleluia!

May your pathway through the Lenten season to the glory of Christ’s Resurrection on Easter Sunday bring to you and your family many blessings.

A Blessed Lent and Joyous Easter,

Father Bob

DO YOU KNOW ONE?

“Families of the LPSCU”

The LPSCU recently launched a new feature called Families of the LPSCU that will continue in future issues of Morning Star. Anyone who is a family member or who knows an LPSCU family can submit information to be published in the magazine. The submitter would write about why they have chosen to highlight the family as an “LPSCU Family.” (Including a photo or two would be great as well!) All families submitted will be featured at some point. There are no boundaries as to why a family can be highlighted. It could be because of how many are members or how many generations are members; how they dealt with a challenge; because of a common thread in their chosen profession, etc. Send your story to Public Relations Director Deborah McKinley at dmckinley@lpscu.org or to lpscu@lpscu.org. We hope to hear from you soon!

An Easter Message from Our Spiritual Protector

He is Risen! Alleluia!

Have you ever experienced the unexplainable? An event that shouldn’t have happened, yet it did? Some just say that it was a coincidence, others are left speechless, and still others say that it was a miracle. I cannot imagine what went on in the minds of the Apostles and the followers of Jesus when He was crucified. The fear, the anxiety, perhaps even hopelessness about their own futures surfaced. Then an angel appeared to the women at His tomb and told them that Jesus is alive! Wow! How did they grasp the unexplainable, the unimaginable?

When the women ran back from the tomb to the Upper Room and shared the marvelous news that Jesus is alive, the Apostles didn’t even believe the testimony of the first witness’s words. John and Peter had to run to the tomb to find out themselves, to confirm for themselves that what they were told was true. It was just too amazing and phenomenal that Jesus had Risen! Then they saw… the empty tomb and His burial clothes folded up, but He was not there – a beginning of faith. Jesus confirmed their wonder and questioning then by appearing to His Mother and the Apostles and followers in the Upper Room.

We all need to be like the spring flower, the crocus. It is the hardy little flower that blooms even when the snow is falling, and the air is cold. They continue their life cycle even though the weather is against them, and although sometimes they become a little damaged, they find a way to thrive. Each year, they push their way up from the soil. We all know that spring is here when that happens. They are truly a miracle and gift from God.

We need to be that like that flower in our relationship with Jesus. Jesus is the soil we grow from and the nutrients we need for strength. We will need Jesus to push our way out into the world. He gives us a stable place to set roots. The stableness of Jesus allows us to weather the storms and fight our way through the world to spring up. Jesus gives each of us a unique beauty. He gives us the strength of to defy the odds so we to can be a miracle and a gift from God.

When you see the little crocus in the snow, remember that you, too, can push through and make the world a beautiful place.

Peace,

Abbot Gary Hoover, OSB

PITTSBURGH DISTRICT

On Sunday, November 29, 2020, the Pittsburgh District held its annual Christmas party. Due to the pandemic, extra precautions were in place to keep everyone safe. The tables were spaced at least six feet apart and masks were worn except while eating and drinking (and picture opportunities, of course). The party was held at Banquets Unlimited in Wilmerding, Pennsylvania, as it has been in the past few years.

District President Dolores Sakal welcomed everyone to the party. Margaret Joschak of Branch 42, the most senior member in attendance, led the gathering in grace before the meal. Entertainment was again provided by Mikey D of McKeesport, Pennsylvania. He played both Slovak and traditional Christmas songs on his accordion. The members and guests in attendance sang along and a few even danced to the polka music. Each Branch donated a gift basket for the Chinese auction and everyone received a door prize.

After all these months of quarantine, it was great to gather and fraternize to celebrate the season of Christ’s birth.

Some of the party attendees are pictured on this page.

Olivia Jones Receives Youth Volunteer Award

Olivia Jones, a member of Branch 124, Hazleton, Pennsylvania, was recently named as a recipient of the 2020 New Jersey-New York Fraternal Alliance Youth Volunteer Award.

All throughout her high school career, Olivia was involved with One Spirit, a non-profit service organization dedicated to raising awareness and financially supporting the Native Americans on the Pine Ridge Reservation in South Dakota.

During her senior year at Pascack High School in Hillsdale, New Jersey, Olivia served as co-president of her school’s branch of One Spirit and traveled to the reservation to volunteer. The focus of the school’s branch that year was to raise funds to build a laundry center at the Allen Youth Center on the reservation. Running water and washing machines were a scarce commodity for the school age children. School attendance was low due to shame and embarrassment from a lack of clean clothes and problems with lice. Olivia’s school’s initiative provided the children access to fresh, clean clothes.

The award includes a monetary component of $500. In keeping with Olivia’s giving nature, she will be donating $100 of her award to One Spirit so they can continue the work that is so important to her.

Olivia was also the recipient of the LPSCU’s 2020 Youth Achievement Award. She is presently attending Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee, where she is majoring in astrophysics and math with a minor in Spanish.

Traditional Slovak Easter Foods

One of the oldest Slovak traditions is taking a basket of specially prepared Easter foods to be blessed. The basket usually contains a ham, kielbasa, eggs, and other items which will be eaten after the basket is blessed. Those things are found readily in stores. But traditional Easter cheese (syrek or hrutka) and bread (paska) is something that you must make. It is not found in any store. Some of the recipes included here, and many others, can be found in the LPSCU’s The Art of Cooking cookbook which is available for purchase. See page 20 for information on how to order your copy.

Blessed Easter Appetizer or Cold Soup
6 to 8 hard-boiled eggs, chopped
1½ c. baked smoked Polish sausage, sliced
1½ c. baked ham, cubed
1½ qt. regular buttermilk
1 pt. regular sour cream
½ jar hot or regular horseradish (or more to taste)
6 chopped green onions
1 tsp. garlic powder
1 Tbsp. white vinegar

Mix together well buttermilk, sour cream, horseradish, garlic powder, and vinegar in a large bowl. Add eggs, ham, sausage, and green onions. Mix well again. Refrigerate until ready to eat. Serve with chunks of rye bread.

Fresh Horseradish ~ Chren
1 c. horseradish root (peeled)
2 Tbsp. sugar
¼ tsp. salt
¼ c. white vinegar
Canned beets (optional)

Peel horseradish root and cut into slices. Place all ingredients into a blender. Cover and blend in the Chop mode. If necessary, pulse until all ingredients are finely ground. Several canned beets may be added at this time if red beets and horseradish are desired. Blend until beets are ground fine. Place horseradish in a jar and refrigerate.

If creamed horseradish is desired, place a spoon or two of sour cream into the white ground horseradish. Refrigerate after mixing.

Easter Bread ~ Paska
1 c. scalded milk
¼ c. sugar
1 Tbsp. salt
½ lb. butter, melted
1 packet dry yeast
4 c. flour
2 eggs, beaten

Heat milk. Stir in salt, sugar, and melted butter. Let cool to lukewarm temperature. In a separate bowl, dissolve yeast in ¼ cup warm water. Stir the yeast mixture and let rise until bubbly. Add the cool milk mixture to the yeast mixture. Set aside 1 tablespoon beaten egg, then add the rest of the eggs and flour (2 cups at a time) to the milk/yeast mixture. Mix together well.

Knead the dough on a floured board for 15 minutes. If the dough is too sticky, add a little flour. Place dough in a greased bowl. Cover the bowl with a cloth and let rise in a warm place until double in size (about 1½ hours). Punch dough down in center and let rise a second time for 45 minutes.

After the second rising, shape dough into two balls. Place into two greased, round bread pans and let rise. Brush the tops of dough with 1 tablespoon beaten egg.

Paska means Easter. You may also reserve some dough and shape it into braids in the form of a cross to lay over the top of the bread.

Bake at 350 degrees for 45 minutes. Remove from pans onto a wire rack to cool.

Rosky Cookies ~ Kolacky
16 oz. cream cheese, softened
⅓ lb. (1 stick) butter, softened
1 c. flour
1 egg yolk
1 tsp. baking powder (optional)
1 c. confectioners’ sugar
½ c. flour

Mix the first 5 ingredients together and knead until all ingredients are well mixed. Divide dough in half. Refrigerate for 1 to 2 hours or overnight.

Mix together confectioners’ sugar and ½ cup flour. Sprinkle flour mixture on rolling surface. Roll out dough and cut into 2-inch squares. Spread filling (see below) on center of dough. Roll from one corner into a crescent shape. Place onto cookie sheet. Bake at 350 degrees until tan in color (15 to 20 minutes).

Rosky Filling
2 c. ground walnuts
⅓ c. sugar
⅓ c. milk
1 Tbsp. butter

Easter Cheese ~ Hrudka
1 dozen eggs
1 tsp. salt
1 qt. milk
Dash of allspice (optional)
1 Tbsp. sugar

Combine all ingredients in a non-stick pot. Cook over medium to low heat, stirring constantly, until mixture curdles. Pour the mixture into a colander that is lined with cheesecloth (a flour sack towel also works well).

Once the mixture is drained, pick up mixture inside the cheesecloth and shape it into a ball by twisting the top part of the cloth. Tightly tie the open end with string, placing the string very close to the top of the ball. Be very careful when doing so as this will be very hot.

Hang over the sink or from a cabinet (put a bowl underneath) until all the liquid has drained. Remove the cloth when cool. Wrap the cheese and refrigerate. Slice to serve.
Nature is a powerful force, as the whole world now knows as it painfully deals with the COVID-19 pandemic. But nature also has the power to inspire and heal.

Thankfully, some public venues are still able to be safely opened to the public with social distancing and other precautions in place. One such location is the incredibly designed Phipps Conservatory and Botanical Gardens in the Oakland section of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. One of the conservatory’s buildings is totally off the grid, sourcing all of its power and water needs from the building design and the property itself.

Helen Lorinc, a member of Pittsburgh Branch 64, has volunteered at Phipps for many years. She and a friend were recently able to visit the gardens. Since the number of visitors at any one time was strictly regulated, Helen and her friend were able to take as much time as desired to simply pause and absorb the peace and beauty of the flowers, as well as all of the whimsical displays throughout the many rooms.

Opportunities like this are a real godsend for so many people during these scary and uncertain times. Hopefully, anyone who is able will take advantage of whatever outdoor beauty, or venues like Phipps, are available to them. This surely helps to ground and soothe an aching heart.

The LPSCU has an economical and beneficial 5 Payment Life Insurance Plan for anyone from age 0 through 80. Under this plan, there is a minimum purchase of life insurance. For ages 0-70, the minimum purchase is $5,000; for ages 71-80, the minimum purchase is $2,000. Premiums are payable for five (5) years from issue date. If the insured dies within the 5-year period following the issue date, no additional premiums are due and payable, and the face amount of the certificate is paid to the named beneficiary/ies, except as provided within the contract regarding Suicide and Contestability.

The plan allows for premium payments to be made monthly, quarterly, semiannually, or annually. The certificate becomes fully paid at the end of five (5) years, and coverage remains in full force and effect for the entire life of the insured without any additional premium payments required. Upon the death of the insured, the face amount of the certificate is paid to the insured’s named beneficiary/ies.

A member with a 5 Payment Life Plan is entitled to all fraternal benefits of the LPSCU including educational awards, youth and adult activities, newborn benefits, prescription discount card, official publication, and discount car rental.

The 5 Payment Life Plan is perfect for both youth and adults – especially anyone who prefers to have their life insurance paid within five years.

During these unstable economic times, the 5 Payment Life Plan offered by the LPSCU is economical and beneficial for estate planning and can especially help with the high cost of funeral expenses.

To apply for this specific plan, or any other insurance plan offered by the LPSCU, contact your Branch Secretary or the LPSCU Home Office.

Listed below are the Annual and Monthly Premium Schedules for the 5 Payment Life Insurance Plan. The premiums listed are based on $1,000 of life insurance coverage. Semiannual and quarterly premium rates are also available by contacting your Branch Secretary or the Home Office.

The plan allows for premium payments to be made monthly, quarterly, semiannually, or annually. The certificate becomes fully paid at the end of five (5) years, and coverage remains in full force and effect for the entire life of the insured without any additional premium payments required. Upon the death of the insured, the face amount of the certificate is paid to the insured’s named beneficiary/ies.
Oh, Yes, You Do!

Everyone – and by everyone, I mean EVERYONE – should have life insurance. People can come up with all kinds of excuses: “I’m young. I don’t have to worry about that!” “I’ve got plenty of time to get life insurance.” “Why should I spend money on that?” “That’s for old people (and I’m not old)!” “I’ve got good genes. My ____ (fill in the relative) lived to x age.” You get the idea.

Everyone can find an excuse, but prolonging purchasing life insurance only adds to its cost. If you don’t believe me, just look at any of the cost charts included in every issue of Morning Star. The older you are, the more expensive it becomes. And taking the attitude of “I’ll get it when I need it” may prove to be too late. Once you are diagnosed with a terminal illness, you have pretty much lost your window of opportunity for purchasing life insurance.

Anyone who has had the unfortunate task of dealing with the death of a loved one knows that dying is not cheap. In addition to funeral costs, factor in lost earnings and any outstanding debts the deceased may have, and the end result could have beyond catastrophic effects for those left behind. In the current turbulent times brought on by COVID-19, I’ve lost count of how many notifications I’ve seen on Facebook setting up GoFundMe pages for someone who has passed and the family needs money to assist with final arrangements.

They don’t call it “insurance” for nothing. Better to have it and not need it, than need it and not have it. For more information, or to learn more about the different insurance options available, please contact your branch representative or call the Home Office at 888-834-6614, Monday through Friday, from 7:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

It’s Not Too Late!

Last issue I asked members to let us know how they celebrated the holidays differently and how they are surviving the pandemic. Unfortunately, due to delays in the postal system, many members did not receive their issue of Morning Star until early February. As such, I haven’t heard from anyone. Since “snail mail” is definitely taking longer than usual, please know that it’s not too late to submit information for upcoming issues. If we can’t fit it into the issue we’re working on, we’ll save it for a future issue. We want to hear from YOU, our members. This publication is for members and about members. As I said previously, what you are doing to stay sane and cope in these turbulent times could very well help someone else. We’re all in this together and together we will get through it. You can either e-mail me at dmckinley@lpscurog or call/text me at 610-704-7288. Looking forward to hearing from you.

Deborah McKinley, Public Relations Director

Our Scholarship Recipients Explain

Nothing is more precious than a life. People then pay for life insurance in case of an unfortunate event. Life insurance is a way to make sure what the departed left behind is covered and taken care of. There is no question of “How are we going to pay for this?” This way any family can use the money for bills and funeral costs. Any debts left behind can also be paid off with the money given by the insurer. Things like debt, funeral costs, car payments, mortgages, and bills could have an effect on the family of the deceased. This way the stress of money will not be burden to them. Being proactive in case of an emergency prevents any risks. If someone has dependents such as young children or spouses, they can leave money behind for them so they keep living comfortably. The loss of an income could cause hardship in the family, especially if the other parent is unemployed. If the children do not have another parent, they can use the money while they find a legal guardian. This could prevent them from continuing education or other normal activities for kids. It gives people protection and a sense of comfort in case something unexpected happens to them. With life insurance, the weight of worry of what will happen to their loved ones is lifted off their shoulders.

SS.C.M. Appeal Update

A report on how the 2020 Appeal ended and information on the new 2021 Appeal

Thank you to everyone who supported last year’s Saints Cyril and Methodius Appeal. It is my great pleasure to announce that 199 donors gave $38,360.58 last year. Here is a breakdown of the number of donors and the amount given:

Parish collections (13) ...............................................$17,508.58
Slovak fraternal organizations
(including home office donations) (63)....$10,375.00
Clergy of Slovak heritage (30) .................$  2,685.00
Donations by individuals (93) .................$  7,792.00

A direct mailing for the 2021 Appeal has been sent to local district and branch leaders from the four Catholic Slovak fraternal organizations, members of the Slovak Catholic Federation, and previous donors. Your support is needed each year because money collected in the Appeal goes to help pay for the operating costs of the Pontifical College of Saints Cyril and Methodius in Rome, the residence of priests from Slovakia selected by their bishops to undertake graduate studies.

Anyone who wishes to contribute to the 2021 Appeal but who did not receive a letter asking for a donation is asked to fill out the information in the box at the bottom of this article. Mail it, along with your check payable to the Slovak Catholic Federation, to the address provided. Donations in any amount are deeply appreciated and are acknowledged. Gifts received after November 30, 2021, will be credited toward the 2022 Appeal.

Thank you again for your goodness and generosity.

The Slovak Catholic Federation was founded in 1911 by Rev. Joseph Murgas, founding pastor of Sacred Heart of Jesus Slovak Church, Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. The Federation brings together under one banner both individuals of Slovak heritage as well as Catholic Slovak fraternal organizations for cultural, religious, and educational needs. Serving as Moderator is the Right Reverend Gary Hoover, O.S.B., abbot of St. Andrew Svorad Abbey, Cleveland, Ohio. National President is Reverend Andrew S. Hvozdovic, V.F., supreme chaplain of the Slovak Catholic Sokol and pastor of Epiphany Parish, Sayre, Pennsylvania. Reverend Thomas A. Nasta, national chaplain of the First Catholic Slovak Union and pastor of Sacred Heart Parish, Swedesburg, Pennsylvania, serves as First Vice President of the Federation and is the Appeal Coordinator.

Two Generations Celebrate Birthdays

Malcolm Bowman and his grandmother, Mary Ann Kaylor, recently celebrated birthdays. Malcolm had a milestone 21st birthday and Mary Ann observed her 78th birthday. Due to COVID-19 restrictions, only a small gathering took place at Mary Ann Bowman’s home (Malcolm’s mom and Mary Ann’s daughter).

Malcolm is a junior at Penn State University, having recently been accepted into the School of Civil Engineering. His cake was an ice cream cake, which is one of his favorites, made by his grandmother, Mary Ann.

Mary Ann, who is happily retired, got a cake from Carlo’s Bakery in New Jersey. Carlo’s now ships its legendary Rainbow Cake nationwide. The cake was a gift from Mary Ann’s son Stephen and his wife Kristin who live in California. It was made with six layers of rainbow-colored vanilla cake piled high, filled with sweet vanilla icing, and covered with rainbow sprinkles.

All are members of Branch 64, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

My Love Affair with QVC

My neighbors, a man and wife, are in their 90’s. They keep pretty much to themselves and, as far as I can tell, they have no family nearby. In the past few months, however, I’ve noticed that the pandemic has gotten to them, judging by the increased number of Amazon Prime and FedEx delivery trucks dropping off packages on their stoop lately. I’ve also noticed that there’s been a marked daily increase of Amazon trucks making a beaten path into my neighborhood (and I don’t think that groceries are the only things being delivered).

But I should talk! I have placed a sign on my storm door asking the delivery person to ring the doorbell when delivering a package. Over the past two or three weeks, I have finally weaned myself from watching QVC and HSN. I do, however, miss the doorbell ringing since there have been no deliveries lately. Frankly, I’m surprised that QVC and HSN have not sent the police out to do a welfare check to see if I am okay. I do miss schmoozing with the delivery people and have noted that my favorite UPS driver must have retired since a much younger man has taken his place.

Thankfully, my mail carrier still makes package deliveries. I got tired of slipping and sliding on the icy driveway in the winter because I have to cross the street to get to my mailbox. So, for the past two winters, I’ve played the “old lady” card and had my doctor fax a request to the local post office asking that my mail be delivered to my door. I worry about my 90-year-old neighbor who still insists on walking out of his garage to get his mail. I fear that one day someone will find him plastered to the icy street or driveway. My friend berates me that I ask for this mail service. She lets her mail pile up for three days and then gets in her car to go to her mailbox, which is located directly across the street from her ranch condo. She came up with this solution after falling down while getting her mail. She had to scoot on her butt across the street, across her lawn, and down the driveway into her garage. Her condo is situated on the corner, so she did have quite a trek to make.

I could open a small department store with things I have bought. I think I have three of most everything. My passion, however, is handbags, purses, and luggage. (Thank heavens Joy Magano and Samantha Brown have taken a hiatus in their luggage lines!) I have three small cases of various colors and one large set from Samantha Brown, and at least three small cases of various colors from Joy Magano and two large cases, along with her duffle bags and three or four purse-like tote sets. I still have hopes of traveling the world.

My other passion is for flashlights and light bulbs (go figure). I am also a sucker for travel toiletry bags. I have two huge containers where I have some stored. I did discover something interesting from my last Amazon order a week ago. I recently read a magazine’s consumer article on postage scales. It showed two identical scales each being sold by a different company. They were exactly the same, from the same manufacturer in China, but they were not being sold at the same price. The more expensive one was being sold under the name of a high-end dealer. Well, I ordered two travel toiletry bags from Amazon and found that though the covers and the dealers were different, the bags were exactly the same, but with one being $4 higher than the other. Caveat emptor!

I will be moving in with my family in North Carolina this summer. The problem will be how to get all this stuff past my son-in-law when he moves me. I’m sure he will have an issue with all the stuff in my garage, but that’s another story. My family is building a 600-1,000-foot addition for me and I need to find a way to store this stuff. Thankfully, I saw a wonderful closet at IKEA which might do the trick…

Easter Sunday ~ Veľkonočná Nedel’ňa

Major celebrations of Easter are held on Easter Sunday. On this day, Jesus came back to life; this rebirth of the Christ is the reason of the fun and festivity that is observed on this particular day. In Slovakia, Easter Sunday begins long before sunrise. The faithful gather outside the church dressed in their finest clothing and the service begins with a candlelit procession around the church. All of the candles are lit from the Paschal Candle. The procession makes its way to the empty tomb. With bells pealing and candles ablaze, small children accompany the procession tossing rose petals along the path. After Mass, all depart for their homes to partake of the traditional Easter meal. Because it is a Holy Day, no cooking is done on this day. All foods are prepared before Sunday.

Approximately 16 billion jelly beans are produced for Easter each year. As you enjoy your jelly beans this year, think about the Jelly Bean Prayer, which goes like this...

RED is for the blood He gave,
GREEN is for the grass He made,
YELLOW is for the sun so bright,
ORANGE is for the edge of night,
BLACK is for the sins we made,
WHITE is for the grace He gave,
PURPLE is for His hour of sorrow,
PINK is for our new tomorrow.

Easter Eggs ~ Kraslice

For Christians, Easter celebrates the resurrection of Jesus, who died to forgive the sins of humankind. Before Jesus’ time on Earth, eggs had long served as a symbol of new life and were used in spring festivals by many different cultures. Due to their connection to new life, eggs remained a symbol of Easter for many Christians. Even Christian legends about coloring eggs developed. One legend says that an egg merchant, Simon of Cyrene, put down his basket of eggs in order to carry Jesus’ cross. When he went back for his basket, all the eggs were colored. Another story suggests that eggs were originally dyed red to represent Jesus’ blood. In Slovakia, a lot of work is put into decorating eggs. “Kraslice,” as they are called, are sometimes dyed using wax to make the designs on the eggs. In some parts of Slovakia, they are also decorated with straws, yarn, and even wire.

Did you know...

♦ As many as 91 million chocolate bunnies are sold annually for Easter in the US.
♦ As many as 59% of Americans eat the ears of their chocolate bunny first.
♦ The weight of the largest chocolate egg in history was 440 pounds.
♦ The largest chocolate bunny was 9,360 pounds. It was created in Brazil and took eight days to construct it.
♦ Over 1.5 billion Peeps in 24 flavors are consumed every Easter.
♦ 180 million eggs are purchased for Easter every year.
