The Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus
“FONT AND FULLNESS OF LOVE”

The month of June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. This year, the celebration of the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus takes place on Friday, June 24. This feast has great significance for my parish community that consists of three Churches: St. Margaret Mary, St. Joseph, and St. Catherine of Siena. These three faith communities have merged to form a new parish which is now called the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. How blessed we are to have received this precious name of the Lord for our parish. The ultimate symbol of God’s mercy is the heart of Christ. It is the center from which salvation for all people has sprung forth. It is a heart filled with compassion.

Jesus said: “Come to me all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart, and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy and my burden light.”

~ Matthew 11:28-30

“O Sacred Heart of Jesus, fountain of eternal life, Your Heart is a glowing furnace of Love. You are my refuge and my sanctuary.” ~ St. Margaret Mary Alacoque

“Sacred Heart of Jesus, filled with infinite love, broken by my ingratitude, pierced by my sins, yet loving me still, accept the consecration that I make to you, of all that I am and all that I have. Take every faculty of my soul and body, and draw me, day by day, nearer and nearer to your Sacred Side, and there, as I can bear the lesson, teach me your blessed ways.”

Amen

Sacred Heart of Jesus, protect our families at home and throughout the world.

Blessings,

Father Bob

What’s in a Name? ~ Zornička versus Morning Star

Zornička? Morning Star? Why the change? How did the LPSCU come up with Morning Star? What does it mean? I’m asked these questions frequently. My answer usually is that the term “Zornička” was being phased out before I was hired as the Public Relations Director. However, I’ve been asked it enough times now that I thought it best if I did some research and shared my answers here for all to read.

First off, rest assured that the LPSCU is NOT digressing from its Slovak heritage. That couldn’t be further from their intent. If one Googles “Morning Star in Slovak,” the answer is “Zornička”! So simply put, Morning Star is the English/Ameri-canized meaning of Zornička.

One might think, well so what that Zornička means “Morning Star.” Why change the long-used name of the bi-monthly publication? For that, I went straight to the top! I asked National President Theresa Kluchinski why it was decided to change the name, who decided to change the name, when the name was changed, and how that change came about. Here is what I learned.

The name was never changed. Since Zornička and Morning Star mean the same thing, back when the first issue of the publication came out, it had “Zornička” across the top and “Morning Star” in smaller print directly underneath it. (A bit of trivia for you ~ The delegates authorized the printing of the publication at the 21st National Convention that was held in 1937, and the first issue – 4 pages – came out on April 28, 1938. Initially, the publication was published monthly. It was changed to a bi-monthly with the September/October 2007 issue and has remained so to this day.)

When the magazine was first published, most of its readers read and spoke Slovak, so all of its content was in the Slovak language. Over the years, as members became “Americanized” and more proficient in the English language, the proportion of Slovak to English in the magazine’s pages changed accord-ingly. Sadly, few of today’s generation of members can speak or read Slovak and the magazine has adapted by becoming an all-English publication.

Unfortunately, people didn’t know how to pronounce Zornička. Many still don’t today. Often it is pronounced as ZOR-nick-a when in reality it is Zor-NITCH-ka.

In 2018, the LPSCU Board of Directors decided that the publication needed a fresher, more modern look, so it was voted to update the logo (from a cross showing the annuncia-tion to the tree) and the words “Zornička” and “Morning Star” were reversed in prominence.

Hope this helps explain the change, which really isn’t a change at all!

LPSCU Whole Life Insurance Plan

If you are looking for a very economical insurance plan, check out the Whole Life Plan offered by the LPSCU. Premiums are considered to be low and affordable for any applicant’s age. Why not take advantage of having substantial life insurance protection with low premium payments? This plan is offered from age 0 to 70 and premiums, which are paid during the life of the insured, can be paid on a monthly, quarterly, semiannual, or annual basis. Coverage remains in full force and effect for the entire life of the insured. Upon the insured’s death, the face amount is payable to the insured’s named beneficiary/ies, except as provided within the contract regarding Suicide and Contestability.

In addition to its low premiums, the Whole Life Plan offers the added fraternal benefits of educational awards, youth and adult activities, newborn benefits, prescription discount plan, official publication, and discount car rental.

During these unstable economic times, the Whole Life Plan offered by the LPSCU is economical and beneficial for estate planning and can especially help with the high cost of funeral expenses.

For those who qualify, the Whole Life Plan also offers the “Paid Up at 80+” benefit. Any insured member with a Whole Life Certificate who turns 80 years of age and has 25 years of LPSCU membership while holding this plan will not have to pay any further premiums, as the certificate becomes paid up. (This member benefit is reviewed on an annual basis and is subject to change.)

To apply for this specific plan, or any other insurance plan offered by the LPSCU, contact your Branch Secretary or the LPSCU Home Office.

Listed below are the Annual and Monthly Premium Schedules for the Whole Life Insurance Plan. The premiums listed are based on $1,000 of life insurance coverage. Semiannual and Quarterly premium rates are also available by contacting your Branch Secretary or the Home Office.

The LPSCU Flexible Annuity is a flexible-premium, deferred annuity that accepts ongoing deposits of as little as $100 per month.

An annuity is a long-term investment where the interest earned is accumulated and compounded.

Annuities are used to supplement retirement income, whereby at some point you stop paying into the annuity and start taking out.

Upon maturity, LPSCU offers a number of distribution options, giving our members the convenience of selecting the one that is best suited for them.

LPSCU's competitive interest rate is reviewed quarterly by the Board of Directors; however, your rate will never go below the guaranteed minimum rate established by the annuity contract.

You can become a member of the LPSCU by purchasing an annuity and you can own an annuity regardless of your health status.

Deposits can be made at your convenience!

Minimum deposit is $100.00.

After the sixth year, there is no LPSCU penalty on annuity withdrawals.

If the annuitant dies prior to settlement, funds on deposit are payable directly to the named beneficiary(ies).

Settlement Options:
- Payment of a specified amount.
- Payments for a specified period.
- Life Annuity.

Payment options can be monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually, depending upon your needs.

Prior to settlement, annuitant may withdraw the Cash Surrender Value at any time; however, the minimum withdrawal amount is $250.00.

NOTE: Withdrawals taken prior to age 59½ may be subject to a 10% Early Withdrawal Penalty by the Internal Revenue Service.

Branch 39 Holds Matching Fund Drive

LPSCU Branch 39 recently sponsored a Matching Fund drive to collect donations for Catholic Relief Services to provide support to the people of Ukraine. The Branch collected monetary donations from members and friends, which was combined with a Matching Fund grant from the LPSCU Home Office. The proceeds from the collection will be sent to Catholic Relief Services. CRS and Caritas partners on the ground are working across Ukraine and in bordering countries, providing safe shelter, hot meals, hygiene supplies, transport to safe areas, counseling support, and more to Ukraine residents affected by the ongoing war with Russia.

This important humanitarian fund drive was held from April 1-15. This issue went to press prior to the final tally, so look for the July/August issue of Morning Star to learn how much was collected.

Make a Difference Day Reminder

October will be here in a flash so just a reminder that “Make a Difference Day” will be held on October 22. Only two more issues for Branches and Districts to finalize their plans for their Make a Difference Day project. Branches and Districts are deciding how they will “make a difference” and welcome your input. Contact your local Branch or District officers to see how you can get involved and positively impact the lives of others.

LPSCU Matching Fund Program

On January 1, 2011, the LPSCU initiated a Matching Fund Program for our Branches and Districts. In the program's initial year, we had one Matching Fund project. We are pleased to report that the program has grown steadily ever since.

As a fraternal benefit society, the LPSCU encourages our Branches and Districts to participate in Matching Fund projects for the benefit of charitable organizations. The funds that are raised from a Matching Fund event will be matched dollar for dollar by the LPSCU, up to a maximum of $100 for a Branch event and $200 for a District event.

If a Branch or District prefers to make a non-monetary donation to a charitable organization, that can also be considered as a Matching Fund project but in that case, the matching donation will be limited to 50% of the maximum amount: $50 for a Branch and $100 for a District.

Each Branch and District is allowed to hold four Matching Fund events per year.

THE POSTMARK DEADLINE FOR NOMINATIONS IS JUNE 1, 2022.
Soon after inheriting Mount Vernon, John Augustine Washington III came to realize that the estate could not be profitably operated and maintained. Of course even then it was a popular tourist destination, but in those days the tourists were uninvited intruders who made managing the farm and home even more difficult. So, reluctantly, he offered to sell the property to the state of Virginia or to the federal government. Virginia passed, being unable to afford it. Likewise Congress refused the offer. The proposed sale was blocked by Congressmen who did not believe preservation of historic properties was a proper function of the federal government. The once magnificent home of John's famous great-granduncle George was beginning to deteriorate. The future of Mount Vernon was in great doubt.

Louisa Bird Cunningham saw Mount Vernon while traveling down the Potomac by steamboat in 1853. Saddened by the sight of the dilapidated home, she wrote her daughter Ann Pamela Cunningham, "I was painfully distressed at the ruin and desolation of the home of Washington and the thought passed through my mind: Why was it that the women of his country did not try to keep it in repair, if the men could not do it? It does seem such a blot on our country!" Galvanized by her mother's letter, Cunningham sprang into action.

In 1853, Cunningham founded the Mount Vernon Ladies Association, the first historic preservation association in the country, and she began raising the funds to acquire and restore the estate. Initially John Washington was not receptive to the notion of selling to the Association, continuing to insist instead that Mount Vernon should be a government-owned property. But with the success of Cunningham's efforts and with the encouragement of the state of Virginia, in 1858 he agreed to the sale. On February 22, 1860, one hundred sixty-two years ago, the final payment was made, and the Mount Vernon Ladies Association took possession of the property.

The oldest women's patriotic society in the United States, the Mount Vernon Ladies Association still owns and operates Mount Vernon. It is the most popular historic estate in the United States, hosting about one million visitors per year.

Mother's Day

Carnations have come to represent Mother’s Day since Anna Jarvis delivered 500 of them at its first celebration in 1908. Many religious services held later copied the custom of giving away carnations. This also started the custom of wearing a carnation on Mother’s Day. The founder, Anna Jarvis, chose the carnation because it was the favorite flower of her mother. In part due to the shortage of white carnations, and in part due to the efforts to expand the sales of more types of flowers on Mother’s Day, the florists promoted wearing a red carnation if your mother was living, or a white one if she was dead; this was tirelessly promoted until it made its way into the popular observations at churches.

Father’s Day

Father’s Day is celebrated on June 19th and is unique to modern America. It’s a day when all children, young and old, remember their present and past fathers.

On June 19, 1910, a Father’s Day celebration was held at the YMCA in Spokane, Washington by Sonora Smart Dodd. Her father, the civil war veteran William Jackson Smart, was a single parent who raised his six children there. She was also a member of Old Centenary Presbyterian Church (now Knox Presbyterian Church), where she first proposed the idea. After hearing a sermon about Jarvis’ Mother’s Day in 1909 at Central Methodist Episcopal Church, she told her pastor that fathers should have a similar holiday to honor them. Although she initially suggested June 5, her father’s birthday, the pastors did not have enough time to prepare their sermons, and the celebration was deferred to the third Sunday in June. Several local clergymen accepted the idea, and on June 19, 1910, the first Father’s Day, “sermons honoring fathers were presented throughout the city”.

On Father’s Day, we give thanks to God for having the right to call them Dad, shower them with gifts, love, and affection. Don’t forget Father’s Day, and don’t forget to tell him, “I love you, Dad!”

School’s Out for the Summer

“School’s Out” is a song released as a single on April 26, 1972. It has been regarded as Alice Cooper’s signature song. It reached number 7 on the Billboard Hot 100 and number 2 on the Billboard 200 pop albums chart. Cooper has said he was inspired to write the song when answering the question, “What’s the greatest three minutes of your life?” Cooper said: "There’s two times during the year. One is Christmas morning, when you’re just getting ready to open the presents. The greed factor is right there. The next one is the last three minutes of the last day of school when you’re sitting there and it’s like a slow fuse burning. I said, ‘If we can catch that three minutes in a song, it’s going to be so big.’"

Slovakia Takes Home Bronze Medal

For the first time since becoming an independent nation in 1993, Slovakia took home an Olympic hockey medal. The Slovaks were not at all expected to compete for a medal, and many considered them one of the weaker teams at the games. But the underdog squad went on a three-game winning streak and fell just short of an appearance in the gold medal game.

Juraj Slafkovsky scored twice in the bronze medal game to help guide his home nation to victory. The 17-year-old’s seven points (all goals) ties the Olympic record for points in a single tournament by a player under 18. The 2022 Beijing Winter Games were the first Olympics for Juraj. He was voted MVP of the Men’s Olympic Tournament.
