Gabriella Kupsho Receives Margaret Sabol Scholarship Award

The LPSCU is proud to announce that Gabriella Kupsho of Drums, Pennsylvania, a member of Branch 60, West Hazleton, Pennsylvania, has been selected as this year’s recipient of the Margaret Sabol Scholarship Award. Gabriella is currently attending Drexel University located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, majoring in Biomedical Engineering with plans to continue her studies at Drexel College of Medicine to become an interventional cardiologist. She is a 2018 graduate of MMI Preparatory School located in Freeland, Pennsylvania.

In her essay to be considered for this award, Gabriella wrote about how from a young age she has had many close family members with various medical conditions that resulted in her being taken along to hospital visits and doctor’s appointments as her “after school” activity. It was during these “activities” that Gabriella came across the topic of stem cell research. Gabriella loves the rewarding feeling of being in the lab – conducting tests, recording data, and analyzing the results – and the possibility of new discoveries that will dramatically change people’s entire lives. At that point, she knew she was hooked and knew this was the career path she wanted to pursue.

Gabriella is also a past recipient of the following LPSCU awards: Youth Achievement Award, Anne (Shina) Cichy Memorial Award, Lynda (Posivak) Mohlenhoff Memorial Award, and Life Insurance Award. She is the daughter of Dr. Robert and Diane Kupsho. Her brother, RJ Kupsho, and godmother, Anita Gregory, are also members of Branch 60.

The Margaret Sabol Scholarship Award was established in her memory through the generosity of Margaret’s daughter. The award is given annually to an LPSCU member who is attending college full time pursuing a degree in Science (including Medical Science).

It is with great pride that the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union announces Gabriella Kupsho as the 2020 recipient of the Margaret Sabol Scholarship Award. Congratulations, Gabriella!

One of the treasured memories of growing up in a Slovak home was that of the traditional Christmas Eve supper. Everyone in the family so looked forward to the delicious foods. I remember helping my grandmother separate the freshly baked bobalky from the baking pan into a large container and of course sampling a few in between. As my grandmother prepared the bobalky with sauerkraut or with poppy seed, the mushroom soup, and all the other meatless dishes, the house was filled with an inviting aroma – one which you couldn’t wait to sit down and enjoy at the traditional meal. After my grandmother passed away in 1976, the tradition and customs were left for us to carry on.

Vilija means a Christmas “vigil,” with each portion of the meal symbolizing a part of the Christmas story and the life and ministry of Jesus.

Before the meal begins, some hay is placed on, or under, the table as a reminder of the humble surroundings of the manger. After prayers and blessings, the father of the family or leader of the household passes around oplatky, a Christmas wafer imprinted with images from the Nativity, topped with honey. This symbolizes the sweetness of Christ and Christmas. As the oplatky is passed from one person to another, a Christmas greeting of well wishes is extended.

The meal begins with a delicious mushroom soup made with sauerkraut juice, followed by some homemade pirohy, filled with sauerkraut, potato, cheese, or lekvar (prunes), and fish. At the end of the meal, the amazing home baked pastries are placed on the table for everyone to enjoy. The kolachy are filled with either apricot, poppy seed, lekvar, or nut filling.

As I said earlier, this meal was handed down from my maternal grandmother to my mother, then to all my siblings to continue the vilija for years to come. It is a time of bonding with your family on Christmas Eve and a way to stay connected to those who have gone before us in faith and ancestry.

I can’t even begin to count how many vilija suppers I personally have prepared over the years. Here’s a story for you: Back in the fall of 2014, I attended the funeral of a Vincentian Sister of Charity in the North Hills of Pittsburgh. Afterwards, at the luncheon, the Sisters at my table were talking about the vilija traditions. They all knew that I often celebrated the tradition in my parish, so one of the Sisters asked if I would prepare a vilija for them at the motherhouse. Without any hesitation, I agreed.

We planned for a Sunday early in December of that year to host the vilija supper. I prepared an entire traditional Christmas Eve meal for 55 Sisters. I did all the cooking, baking, and transporting of the food. It turned out to be a fantastic celebration. It was a joy to celebrate with the Sisters the customs and traditions of our Slovak heritage, remembering the birth of Jesus Christ. And of course, after the meal we had a good old fashioned toast with the Christmas cheer of slivovica.

I hope and pray that every family will have the opportunity to gather this Christmas Eve to partake of this wonderful meal, a meal of tradition, the connection to our ancestral roots, and one of greatest spiritual meanings for all – the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

Vesele Vianoce!

Blessings,
Father Bob

board by hand to make a roll about 1” in diameter. Cut into 1” square pieces and place on a cookie sheet. Let dough rise for about 15 minutes. Bake at 350 degrees until lightly browned. Cool and separate. Place squares in boiling water for just a couple of minutes to soften. Drain quickly to prevent sogginess.

Fillings

- Sauerkraut: Lightly brown 1 small diced onion in 1 stick of butter. Add 1 lb. of drained sauerkraut. Cook for about 20 minutes. Add mixture to half of the bobalky.
- Poppy Seed: Lightly brown ½ stick of butter. Pour over the other half of the bobalky and add ½ cup to a cup of poppy seed filling.

  For those who don’t like sauerkraut or poppy seed, just brown some butter and pour it over the bobalky as another option.

KOLACHY

8 oz. cream cheese, softened
12 oz. (3 sticks) butter, softened
3 cups all-purpose flour

Mix cream cheese and butter until light and fluffy. Add flour 1 cup at a time and mix well. Wrap dough in plastic and refrigerate for at least 1 hour. Heat oven to 350 degrees. Roll out dough ¼ inch on a surface that has been dusted with equal parts of confectioner’s and granulated sugar (not flour).

Cut into 2 inch squares. Place ½ teaspoon filling on center of each square. Overlap opposite corners of dough to the center over filling. For star-shaped cookies, cut a slit into all four corners. Alternate slit corners to the center over the filling.

Bake for 20-25 minutes until tan in color. Cool and sprinkle with confectioner’s sugar.

The Importance of Life Insurance

The saying goes, “The greater the risk, the greater the reward.” While each person defines how far they are willing to extend risk in their lives – how close they will approach the ledge until they back down – risk is an essential part of life. There are some situations where this uncertainty can be controlled. Accompanying a life of varying of risk level is the need for life insurance. Life insurance is essential because while one would like to think they have a life plan, there are always accidents, sudden death, or terminal illnesses that interrupt life’s path. It is important that in the wake of life going wrong, at any point in life in someone’s life, they have life insurance to act as their safety net. Much of life is spent planning for the future: college, career, family life. It is frightening to think that without life insurance, a single event could dismantle everything someone has constructed. Whether a child needs to be peacefully put to rest, a widow needs to continue their way of life after a spouse dies, or a parent on which children depend passes, protection of life insurance is essential regardless of age.

A Message from Our Spiritual Protector

Christmas ~ The Time to Count Our Blessings

In the movie White Christmas, there was a wonderful song Bing Crosby sang called “Count Your Blessings.” He sang this song during those times of life when he was down.

“When I’m worried and I can’t sleep
I count my blessings instead of sheep
And I fall asleep counting my blessings.”

How many of us this year…with Covid-19 along with our own health issues, untimely deaths, churches being closed, politics, riots, protests, division of our country… found time to count our blessings? The headlines of this past year can bring faith-filled people down. There have been plenty of reasons to NOT count our blessings.

EXCEPT…………

The greatest blessing of all is that Jesus Christ our Savior was born! He is the light that gives us blessings to count.

Christ becoming human is a blessing.
Christ’s teachings and healings are blessings.
Christ’s love, kindness, and compassion are blessings.
Christ’s forgiveness is a blessing.
Christ’s suffering is a blessing.
Christ’s dying on the cross is a blessing.
Christ’s rising from the dead is a blessing.
Christ’s gift of eternal life is a blessing.

During this Christmas season, let Christmas inspire us to sleep peacefully, knowing that Jesus is our blessing. Just as it was written in Jeremiah 29:11, “For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.”

Jesus is our hope and future. HE IS OUR BLESSING!

Abbot Gary, O.S.B.

In Memoriam

John A. Holy
Slovak Cultural Activist

John Alois Holy, 98, passed away peacefully in his sleep at his home in Pompton Plains, New Jersey, during the early morning of July 24, 2020. A well-known Slovak cultural and fraternal activist, he was a member of LPSCU Branch 42, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Born in 1922 in Nova Bana, a gold mining town in western Slovakia, he left home in March 1939 to begin his university studies in Bratislava. He graduated with a writing degree in 1944, just as the Germans defeated a Czechoslovak uprising. Months later, the armies of the Soviet Union marched through his homeland and John got his first glimpse of his lifelong nemesis: totalitarianism.

John went to work for a national newspaper, becoming a prominent anti-communist journalist. In 1947, a member of the Czechoslovak underground implicated John as a fellow member in order to receive leniency at the hands of the Soviets. John was taken from his bed on a cold November morning and imprisoned for three months.

While in prison, he began to contemplate a better life in the West and to study English by reading books. His brother was able to secure John’s release just before the Czechoslovak Community Party took complete control of the government. With his arraignment pending, John fled to the West, dodging patrols and crossing the Morava River under cover of darkness on the night of May 1, 1948.

Fifteen months later, in September 1949, he landed in Boston. He traveled to Great Falls, Montana, to earn his visa, working odd jobs. In 1952, he began his employment at the Slovak Catholic Sokol as editor of its official publication. He later would return to the Sokol to serve as underwriter until his retirement.

John met Nina Frissikova at a social event at St. John Nepomucene Parish in New York City. The couple wed at the church on June 13, 1953, and they continued their attachment to the Slovak parish throughout their marriage. They were blessed with two daughters, Luby and Jane, and a son, Robert, who died in infancy.

John was active in numerous Slovak organizations over the years. His first love was the Slovak League of America. He served on its national board since 1970 and in 1975 became the National Secretary, a position he held until 2003 when he was elected Honorary National Secretary. He was a regular at the League’s office in Passaic, New Jersey, until shortly before his death.

In 1970, John was a founder of the Slovak World Congress and labored to preserve the oldest Slovak publication in the U.S., the Slovak v Amerike. He spearheaded numerous activities in the years which saw the fall of Communism and the emergence of an independent Slovak Republic.

Marshall Nay, a member of Branch 109, Hammond, Illinois, began his first day of e-learning on August 24, 2020. His parents opted for an e-learning mode when their school district offered parents a choice of in-class attendance or virtual options. Marshall’s parents felt it was beneficial for e-learning students to have their own area set aside as a classroom to maneuver through the virtual learning process, so they set up this great in-home classroom for Marshall’s 7th grade school year.

The school district, which is in a rural area, supplied its students with the necessary equipment to have a successful e-learning experience. The district began an e-learning program immediately when Illinois declared physical attendance at school was cancelled at the start of the Covid-19 outbreak. By comparison, Chicago and other area school districts took a week or more to get their e-learning operational.

In 1997, John was presented with the republic’s most prestigious national award, presented by the President of Slovakia, and in 1998 he received the Ellis Island Medal of Honor, representing the Slovak community.

In addition to the LPSCU and the Slovak Catholic Sokol, John was also a member of the First Catholic Slovak Union and First Catholic Slovak Ladies Association. He was also among the founders and supporters of the annual New Jersey Slovak Heritage Festival and supported the work of the Slovak Catholic Federation.

Family, friends, and fellow Slovaks gathered on August 1 at St. John Nepomucene Church where a Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated by Rev. Richard D. Baker.

He is survived by his wife, Nina, and his two daughters and their families.

John was truly an individual dedicated to the high ideals of the Slovak cultural and fraternal community. He spent a lifetime promoting the good name and unique culture of his homeland. May he rest in peace.

The following story is a result of the pandemic that just happened by chance. Late this past spring, there were birds hanging around the tall bushes and trees surrounding my ranch condo. They would squawk and bombard me whenever I would enter or leave my home. I figured the birds – all types of them – were protecting their nests, eggs, and future nestlings. I also noticed that when it rained, the birds would drink water and bathe in the puddle that would accumulate at the corner end of my driveway.

So, I had this brainstorm that I would buy a birdbath for the birds. Since I was unable to get to Lowe’s because my family wanted me to stay safe from the pandemic, my son-in-law went, but instead of a birdbath he bought me a large plastic tray that would fit under a large planter to catch water. I filled it up with water and placed it in the oasis at the end of the driveway that is filled with bushes, trees, and reeds.

Little did I know that it would become a “spa” or bird resort. The birds made full use of it and I soon became “spa attendant.” In the beginning, I needed to change the water once a day. (Now it has become twice a day.) At first, there was an old robin (he had gray hair on his chest) that acted like he owned the place. The little tiny birds (my daughter thought they were house sparrows) had to wait until the robin was done with his grooming before they went in. They would form a line and one would enter and bathe, hop out, and the next one would go in.

There were 6 or 7 of them at any given time. I came to realize that this was a safety measure the birds developed. Once they realized that the spot was safe, they all jumped in. This “pool party” has become a regular event around 2 p.m. each afternoon, so now I have to make sure they have clean water for this festivity. The only thing that frightens them is when I get to the glass storm door. If I make the slightest bit of noise, they all fly off. I realize now how acute their hearing is.

Like a real chump, I thought I should put out some bird seed to feed them. That lasted a couple of days until I found out that the gopher that lives under my front stoop would join the 2 o’clock party, drink the water, and eat the seed! That put a stop to trying to feed the birds, but I plan to keep the birdbath out until the weather turns cold.

I tried to capture a picture of the birds at their “spa,” but I remind you about their acute hearing. Every time I would venture close enough, they’d all fly off. So, I’ve had to settle for sharing a picture of the birdbath without any live birds!

There is one sad note, though. One of the nestlings either died in the nest or was the victim of some intruder and was tossed on the driveway. However, my resident ants took care of cleaning up the body.

The ants are a story for another issue. Stay tuned!

Nothing Can Stop a Super Slovak!

Just the fact that the 97th Slovak American Day at Kennywood Park even took place is remarkable. We reportedly were one of only a couple ethnic groups not to cancel their annual picnic due to the coronavirus pandemic.

The atmosphere was noticeably different this year because even though it was a lovely day weather-wise, the park seemed nearly empty of visitors. Even “Cowboy Joe” who sits on the bench near “Garfield’s Nightmare” was nowhere in sight. This friendly character who has greeted park visitors for decades must have rambled off to the safety of one of the park’s sheds. But fear not! “Cowboy Tom” Kaylor took Joe’s seat at least for a moment to offer anyone passing by a friendly “Howdy.”

Tom and Mary Ann Kaylor and her sister, Helen Lorinc, all from Pittsburgh District Branch 64, then moved on to the Slovak Kitchen which offered a modified but delicious menu. Everyone received a button to pin on their shirt claiming that Nothing Can Stop a Super Slovak. How true!

After enjoying the food, the trio tapped their feet to the live music in the pavilion and enjoyed conversation with old friends before attending the Mass. Afterwards, a Slovak sing-along kept everyone engaged while the stage was readied for a beautiful program presented by the Pittsburgh Slovakians.

Luckily, the rides everyone usually enjoys were operating this day and Mary Ann and Helen were able to get the seat in the last car on the Jack Rabbit to make it all the more fun.

Even though this year’s event was rather unusual, we were so grateful to still have the opportunity to gather as a Slovak community to honor the spirit and memories of our ancestors and to share beautiful traditions. All in all, the attendance for Slovak Day was a respectable 175 to 200 people. Our thanks goes out to the Slovak Day Committee for believing the community would respond.

NEW FEATURE!

“Families of the LPSCU”

Beginning in the last issue, the LPSCU launched a new feature called Families of the LPSCU that will continue in upcoming issues of Morning Star. Anyone who is a family member or who knows an LPSCU family can submit information to be published in the magazine. The submitter would write about why they have chosen to highlight the family as an “LPSCU Family.” (Including a photo or two would be great as well!) All families submitted will be featured at some point. There are no boundaries as to why a family can be highlighted. It could be because of how many are members or how many generations are members; how they dealt with a challenge; because of a common thread in their chosen profession, etc. Send your story to Public Relations Director Deborah McKinley at dmckinley@lpscu.org or to lpscu@lpscu.org. We hope to hear from you soon!
The LPSCU is proud to announce that Katelyn Christensen of Palm Desert, California, a member of Branch 172, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, has been selected as the 2020 recipient of the Lynda (Posivak) Mohlenhoff Memorial Award. Katelyn has started her studies at Arizona Christian University located in Glendale, Arizona, where her chosen field of study is Biology. She is a 2020 magna cum laude graduate of Shadow Hills High School, Indio, California.

Katelyn was a scholar athlete while attending Shadow Hills, being a key member of its soccer team while maintaining honor roll status during all four years in high school. She also took eighteen honors, advanced placement, and dual enrollment courses during her years at Shadow Hills, and was successful in every one of them.

In each of the letters recommending Katelyn to be selected as this year’s award recipient, reference was made to her infectious smile, extreme dedication, and strong caring for others. Katelyn has already made an indelible impression on those that know her and she has a bright future ahead. It is only fitting that she is attending Arizona Christian University, where the athletic teams are known as “The Firestorm.”

Katelyn is the daughter of Debra Christensen and Daniel Christensen. Debra is also a member of Branch 172.

The Lynda (Posivak) Mohlenhoff Memorial Award was established through the generosity of Lynda’s parents, Peggy and Frank Posivak. The award is given to an LPSCU member pursuing a degree in or relating to the fields of Math, Science, or Technology.

It is with great pride that the Ladies Pennsylvania Slovak Catholic Union names Katelyn Christensen as the 2020 recipient of the Lynda (Posivak) Mohlenhoff Memorial Award. Congratulations, Katelyn!

Matthew Nicolai Earns Environmental Science Degree

Matthew J. Nicolai, a member of Branch 109, Hammond, Indiana, graduated with honors in May 2020 from the University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee, earning a Bachelor’s degree in Environmental Science-Conservation Track with a minor in Biological Science. For the past three summers, Matthew has worked in Jackson Hole, Wyoming, with Teton County Invasive Species Management. In 2019, Matthew received the Wyoming Weed and Pest District’s Employee Recognition Award.

Matthew is a 5th generation LPSCU member along with his sisters, Allison and Emily. His mother, Lisa Nicolai, and grandmother, Patricia Stearney, are also members.
On Sunday, July 19, 2020, Adelynn Powell, a member of Pittsburgh District Branch 42, made her First Holy Communion at St. Frances Cabrini Parish in Center Township, Pennsylvania. The special day had been postponed from May due to the coronavirus pandemic, but ended up being held on a beautiful, sunny summer day.

While the day was a lot different due to the restrictions put in place due to Covid-19, it was a beautiful one nonetheless. The First Communion class was split into two groups and they celebrated a week apart. Guests in the church were limited to five for each communicant and adhered to social distancing guidelines and mask wearing. The Mass was videotaped so that everyone who was not permitted to attend in person could still share in the special day.

A small family gathering was held afterwards where four generations gathered to help Adelynn celebrate receiving the Body of Christ for the first time.

Adelynn is the daughter of Joshua and Diana Powell, the granddaughter of Donna Powell, and great-granddaughter of Margaret Joschak. Donna and Margaret are also members of LPSCU Branch 42.

In Memoriam

Sister Cynthia Marie Gazdo, SS.C.M.

Patricia Anna Gazdo, 78, went home to God on April 3, 2020. She was born and raised in Pennsylvania. After graduation from St. Cyril Academy, Patricia entered the Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius in Danville, Pennsylvania, in September 1961, was received as a novice the following year and thereafter was known to all as Sister Cynthia Marie.

Sister Cynthia Marie performed general duties at St. Methodius Convent, Maria Joseph Manor, and Maria Hall, all located in Danville, and at Villa St. Cyril, Highland Park, Illinois. Long before the days of technological communication, Sister Cynthia Marie was the person who knew everything: what was in every closet, where to look for something that had gone missing, who could help with any difficulty, where anyone was at any given time of the day. She was the “go to” person at St. Methodius Convent, the Motherhouse. Later in life, she engaged in the Ministry of Prayer and Hospitality at Maria Hall and later Emmanuel Center.

At Emmanuel Center, Sister Cynthia Marie would often be seen right by the nurses’ desk where she welcomed anyone passing by with a kind word and a smile. Her friends were loyal and faithful, the loving kind of people who are attracted to that same kind of faithfulness which they found in her.

Dear Ms. Savidge,

I received your address from Fr. Pavol Zvara, director of Slovak Pontifical College and Institute of SS. Cyril and Methodius in Rome. I would like to thank you for financial support for my licentiate studies, which I completed this academic year 2019/2020. I really appreciate your generous aid, which makes the postgraduate studies of Slovak priests possible.

I am a priest of diocese of Nitra since 2014. I completed my theological studies in Nitra. During the studies I had been interested in the Biblical studies. Also, my graduation thesis was “The names of God in the Holy Scripture,” for which I received the award of the chancellor of the University. I wanted to continue with the postgraduate studies in the Biblical theology.

After three years of service in the diocese, my bishop, the Rt. Rev. Viliam Jadák, asked me to make the postgraduate studies of Biblical theology in Rome. I chose the Pontifical Gregorian University, because many of my professors in Nitra had been studying there. The Department of Biblical Theology is connected with the Pontifical Biblical Institute as well, which is a great benefit: it is possible to share the library and to cooperate with professors. During my studies I lived in the Slovak Pontifical College in Rome.

The studies were difficult, but I really enjoyed it. I met many excellent professors and I learned useful methods and knowledges in the field of Biblical studies, as Biblical languages, exegesis and theology. I did a course of the Biblical archaeology in Israel as well.

I concluded my 3-years course of licentiate with the thesis “Textual and interpretative problem of the term ‘Azazel’ in Leviticus 16” with the direction of Prof. Vasile Babota. I took the final exam the 25th June through video conference, because of situation with Covid-19.

Besides my studies during the academic year in Rome, I was working in the Slovak Catholic Mission in London during the two summer holidays. It was an inestimable experience for me as well.

Presently I am a chaplain in the parish of Štúrovo, Slovakia. I would like to continue my studies here, in Slovakia, with a doctorate in Biblical theology. I hope that I will be useful in the education of the future priests in Slovakia.

I would like to thank you again for your aid. I have offered a Holy Mass for my benefactors regularly, as well as my prayers. God bless your meritorious activity. My studies would not have been possible without it.

Yours sincerely,
Miroslav Host’ovecký

Meet the November JBJ Star

Juliet Jedlovec

★ She is 5 years old and lives in Schnecksville, PA
★ Cinderella is the best Disney character because she wears the best dress.
★ Her favorite vacation destination is Alabama with Nana and Papi.
★ Her superpower would be “rainbow power” to send a rainbow every day.
★ Her favorite book is “How Do Dinosaurs Say Goodnight” by Jane Yolen and Mark Teague because the dinosaur has lipstick on at the end.
★ If a genie gave her 3 wishes, she would wish for a pet unicorn, to be a mom, and to drink as much juice as she wants without her parents stopping her.

Feast of Saint Andrew
November 30

The first major feast of the Advent calendar is that of St. Andrew the Apostle. St. Andrew is the patron saint of married men and for this reason girls with matrimonial aspirations turn to him with prayers that he might grant them at least some slight indication as to who will be their future mate.

On the eve of this feast, young girls try to learn their future by cooking dumplings which contain the names of various young men of their acquaintance inside. The first to rise to the surface of the water indicates the name of their future mate.

Others pour molten lead through a keyhole into a basin filled with water and observe the form it takes as it cools. If it resembles a flower, the suitor will be a gardener; if it looks like an animal, he will be a butcher; a sword, a soldier; and so on.

Hey Kids ~

Meet the December JBJ Star

Cara Zemelman

★ She is 8 years old and lives in Woodbridge, VA
★ If she had a superpower, it would be the power to control weather. She wants this superpower so that she can make it rainy or sunny, or have rainbows.
★ When she grows up she wants to be a scientist. She also wants to win the Nobel Prize in chemistry.
★ She would rather live 100 years ago because she would not be able to figure out all the technology 100 years from now.
★ Her favorite colors are cyan and lavender.
★ If she swapped roles with her parents, she would make sure her parents got a day off and make their favorite meals for breakfast, lunch and dinner. She would also make sure she swapped on the weekend, so she didn’t have to worry about getting everyone to school.

Sv. Mikuláš ~ St. Nicholas

In the 6th century, the church set December 6 as St. Nicholas’s Day. Nicholas was a bishop in Asia Minor in the 4th century. Because of his extraordinary self-sacrifice and sense of justice, he was well loved and very popular with the people.

There are far more legends about his miraculous good deeds than there are clear details about his life. Nicholas was quite young when his parents died of the plague leaving him as the sole heir of their vast possessions. He was determined to devote his life, using his inheritance for works of charity.

Devotion to St. Nicholas is found in every European country. He became known for his holiness, enthusiasm, and 21 miracles. He is the patron saint of scholars, bankers, sailors, brewers, brides, and robbers among others. Because of his love and charity of the poor as well as the many legends of his good works, St. Nicholas is best known as the patron saint of Children.

In Slovakia, Sv. Mikuláš travels on foot the evening before his feast day and is accompanied by an ugly chain-rattling devil and an angel. The angel and devil symbolize the dual forces in a man’s nature. Sv. Mikuláš reminds the children that Christmas is a few short weeks away and they must behave themselves or the baby Jesus will not bring them presents on Christmas Eve. In the morning, good little children find their boots or shoes which were placed on the window sill the night before filled with candies, cookies, oranges, apples, nuts or other dried fruits. The naughty children will find a lump or two of coal or a potato left by the devil. As we honor the memory of this 4th century Bishop, let us remember he is known for his charity and generosity.

Vianoce ~ Christmas

For two millennia, people around the world have been observing Christmas with traditions and practices that are both religious and secular in nature. Christmas gifts are good things. They can help us practice generosity, thoughtfulness, as well as remind us of the gift of God’s only son, Jesus Christ. To mark the occasion of Jesus’ birth, three Wise Men followed a star to bring gifts fit for a King. Today we exchange gifts with each other, but what about the birthday boy? What gifts do we give to Jesus?

What can I give Him, poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd,
I would bring Him a lamb;
If I were a wise man,
I would do my part.
Yet what can I give Him,
give Him my Heart!
